Preface.

“OF making of many books there is no end,” and of no class of publications can this be said more truthfully than of hymn-books. One good compilation follows another; “the best book possible” appears and is accepted. In five or ten years, while it is still considered “the best,” another comes forward with a closer adaptation to popular need.

Thirty years ago, when a pastor in Brooklyn, the present compiler prepared his first collection of hymns and tunes, and issued it under the name of “Songs of the Church.” In 1865 “Songs for the Sanctuary” followed; then, in 1878, came “Spiritual Songs”; and, in 1884, “Laudes Domini.” In the latter book was embodied the result of all his experience. But suggestions came to him and were filed away; new tunes appeared; new hymns were written; new wants arose among the churches. A year ago the question was considered of adding to “Laudes Domini.” It seemed better, however, to revise that work entirely, omitting such hymns and tunes as were less used now than when the book was issued. The publishers, too, were desirous of setting it from new type and making new plates. The result is seen in the present collection, “The New Laudes Domini.”

Of the hymns offered along the ages by the older composers, like Watts and Wesley, Montgomery, Cowper and Newton, nearly all have been greatly altered since they were written. Hence the versions of those in modern use appear in many and various forms of phraseology. The compiler of this work has tried to choose such as would prove most familiar to the churches into which it would be likeliest to go. Generally he has obtained his text from the official hymnals of the denominations, simply accepting the changes he found.

The tunes have been selected because of their fitness to give a voice to the sentiment of religious feeling which the sacred poetry carries. To have them correct, artistic, and tasteful, and yet singable and simple, has been his chief ambition respecting the music. The test of criticism for this book ought to be found in the use of it. It has the same aim as those have had which have gone before in this series, namely, to lead the taste of congregations and choirs to higher and purer reaches of song and tunefulness in their praises of God.

THE NEW LAUDES DOMINI

NICÆA. P. M.

J. B. DYKES.

Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly, Lord God Al-might-y! Ear-ly in the morn-ing our song shall rise to thee;

Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly, mer-ci-ful and might-y, God in three per-sons, bless-ed Trin-i-ty!

1 The triune God.

HOLY, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty!
Early in the morning our song shall rise to thee;

Holy, holy, holy, merciful and mighty,
God in three persons, blessed Trinity!

2 Holy, holy, holy! all the saints adore
thee,

Casting down their golden crowns around
the glassy sea;

Cherubim and seraphim falling down before thee,

Which wert and art and evermore shalt be.

3 Holy, holy, holy! though the darkness
hide thee,

Though the eye of sinful man thy glory
may not see;

Only thou art holy; there is none beside
thee,

Perfect in power, in love and purity.

4 Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty!

All thy works shall praise thy name, in earth and sky and sea;

Holy, holy, holy, merciful and mighty;

God in three persons, blessed Trinity!

A - gain re - turns the day of ho - ly rest, Which, when he made the world, Je-ho-vah blessed;

When, like his own, he bade our la-bors cease, And all be pi - e - ty and all be peace.

The Lord's Day.

AGAIN returns the day of holy rest,
Which, when he made the world, Jehovah blessed;

When, like his own, he bade our labors cease,
And all be piety and all be peace.

2 Let us devote this consecrated day
To learn his will, and all we learn obey;
So shall he hear when fervently we raise
Our supplications and our songs of praise.

3 Father in heaven! in whom our hopes confide,
Whose power defends us and whose precepts guide,
In life our Guardian and in death our Friend,
Glory supreme be thine till time shall end.

William Mason.

Evening Worship.

Oh, come, and let us all, with one accord,
Lift up our cheerful voice, and praise the Lord!

Let us this evening bless his holy Name,
Yea, let us laud and magnify the same.

2 Let universal nature ever raise
A cheerful voice to give him thanks and praise;

Let us and all his saints his glory sing,
Who is our blessed Saviour, Lord, and King.

3 For by his word the heaven and earth
were made,

The earth's foundation also firmly laid;
All things were done at his divine command,

And shall throughout all ages surely stand.

4 Therefore let all in heaven and earth agree
To sing his praise in perfect unity;
Yea, let his servants all, with one accord,
With joyful hallelujahs praise the Lord.

Anon. Ps. 95.

Penitent prayer.

FATHER, again in Jesus' name we meet,
And bow in penitence beneath thy feet;
Again to thee our feeble voices raise,
To sue for mercy, and to sing thy praise.

2 Lord, we would bless thee for thy ceaseless care,

And all thy work from day to day declare:
Is not our life with early mercies crowned?
Does not thine arm encircle us around?

3 Alas! unworthy of thy boundless love,
Too oft with careless feet from thee we rove;
But now, encouraged by thy voice, we come,
Returning sinners to a Father's home.

4 Oh, by that name in which all fullness dwells,
Oh, by that love which every love excels,
Oh, by that blood so freely shed for sin,
Open blest mercy's gate and take us in!

As pants the wearied hart for cooling springs, That sinks ex-hausted in the summer's chase,

So pants my soul for thee, great King of kings, So thirsts to reach thy sacred dwelling-place.

5 Psalm 42.

AS PANTS the wearied hart for cooling springs,
That sinks exhausted in the summer's chase,

So pants my soul for thee, great King of kings,
So thirsts to reach thy sacred dwelling-place.

2 Why throb, my heart? why sink, my saddening soul?

Why droop to earth, with various woes oppressed?

My years shall yet in blissful circles roll,
And peace be yet an inmate of this breast.

3 Lord, thy sure mercies, ever in my sight,
My heart shall gladden through the tedious day;

And midst the dark and gloomy shades of night,
To thee, my God, I'll tune the grateful lay.

4 Why faint, my soul? why doubt Jehovah's aid?

Thy God the God of mercy still shall prove;

Within his courts thy thanks shall yet be paid—

Unquestioned be his faithfulness and love!

Hail, happy day! thou day of holy rest, What heav'nly peace and transport fill my breast! When Christ, the God of grace, in love descends, D.S.—And kindly holds communion with his friends.

6 "Holy rest."

HAIL, happy day! thou day of holy rest,
What heavenly peace and transport fill my breast!

When Christ, the God of grace, in love descends,
And kindly holds communion with his friends.

2 Let earth and all its vanities be gone,
Move from my sight, and leave my soul alone;

Its flattering, fading glories I despise,
And to immortal beauties turn my eyes.

3 Fain would I mount and penetrate the skies,

And on my Saviour's glories fix my eyes;
Oh! meet my rising soul, thou God of love,

And waft it to the blissful realms above!

Foretastes of Heaven.

THE dawn of God's new Sabbath
Breaks o'er the earth again,
As some sweet summer morning
After a night of pain.
It comes as cooling showers
To cheer a thirsting land,
As shades of clustered palm-trees
'Mid weary wastes of sand.

2 Lord, we would bring our burden
Of sinful thought and deed,
In thy pure presence kneeling
From bondage to be freed;
Our heart's most bitter sorrow
For all our work undone,
So many talents wasted,
So few true conquests won.

3 Yet still, O Lord long-suffering,
Still grant us in our need
Here in thy holy presence
The saving name to plead;
And on thy day of blessings,
Within thy temple walls,
To foretaste the pure worship
Of Zion's golden halls:—

4 Until in joy and gladness
We reach that home at last,
When life's short week of sorrow
And sin and strife is past;
When angel-hands have gathered
The first ripe fruit for thee,
O Father, Son, and Spirit,
Most Holy Trinity!

Ada C. Cross.

Cheerful Devotion.

THINE holy day's returning,
Our hearts exult to see;
And with devotion burning,
Ascend, O God, to thee!
To-day with purest pleasure,
Our thoughts from earth withdraw;
We search for heavenly treasure,
We learn thy holy law.

2 We join to sing thy praises,
Lord of the Sabbath day;
Each voice in gladness raises
Its loudest, sweetest lay!
Thy richest mercies sharing,
Inspire us with thy love,
By grace our souls preparing
For nobler praise above.

Opening of Service.

AURELIA. 7s, 6s. D.

S. S. WESLEY.

O day of rest and glad-ness, O day of joy and light, O balm of care and sad-ness, Most beau-ti-ful, most bright;

On thee, the high and low-ly, Bend-ing before the throne, Sing, Ho-ly, Ho-ly, Ho-ly, To the Great Three in One.

"Day of Rest."

O DAY of rest and gladness,
 O day of joy and light,
 O balm of care and sadness,
 Most beautiful, most bright;
 On thee, the high and lowly,
 Bending before the throne,
 Sing, Holy, Holy, Holy,
 To the Great Three in One.

2 To-day on weary nations
 The heavenly manna falls;
 To holy convocations-
 The silver trumpet calls,

Where gospel light is glowing
 With pure and radiant beams,
 And living water flowing
 With soul-refreshing streams.

3 New graces ever gaining
 From this our day of rest,
 We reach the rest remaining
 To spirits of the blest.
 To Holy Ghost be praises,
 To Father and to Son;
 The Church her voice upraises
 To thee, blest Three in One.

{ O day of rest and gladness, O day of joy and light, }
 { O balm of care and sadness, Most beau-ti-ful, most bright; } On thee, the high and low-ly.

Bend-ing be-fore the throne. Sing, Ho-ly, Ho-ly, Ho-ly, To the Great Three in One.

How pleasant, how di - vine - ly fair, O Lord of hosts! thy dwellings are!

With long de - sire my spir - it faints, To meet th'as - sem - blies of thy saints.

Psalm 84.

HOW PLEASANT, how divinely fair,
O Lord of hosts! thy dwellings are!
With long desire my spirit faints,
To meet the assemblies of thy saints.

2 My flesh would rest in thine abode,
My panting heart cries out for God;
My God! my King! why should I be
So far from all my joys, and thee?

3 Blest are the saints who sit on high,
Around thy throne of majesty;
Thy brightest glories shine above,
And all their work is praise and love.

4 Blest are the souls who find a place
Within the temple of thy grace;
There they behold thy gentler rays,
And seek thy face, and learn thy praise.

5 Cheerful they walk with growing strength,
Till all shall meet in heaven at length;
Till all before thy face appear,
And join in nobler worship there.

Isaac Watts.

3 God is our sun, he makes our day;
God is our shield, he guards our way
From all the assaults of hell and sin,
From foes without and foes within.

4 O God, our King, whose sovereign sway
The glorious hosts of heaven obey,
Display thy grace, exert thy power,
Till all on earth thy name adore!

Isaac Watts.

12

Psalm 92.

SWEET is the work, my God, my King!
To praise thy name, give thanks, and sing;
To show thy love by morning light,
And talk of all thy truth at night.

2 Sweet is the day of sacred rest;
No mortal cares shall seize my breast;
Oh! may my heart in tune be found,
Like David's harp of solemn sound!

3 My heart shall triumph in my Lord,
And bless his works, and bless his word;
Thy works of grace, how bright they shine!
How deep thy counsels! how divine!

4 Lord! I shall share a glorious part,
When grace hath well refined my heart,
And fresh supplies of joy are shed,
Like holy oil to cheer my head.

5 Then shall I see, and hear, and know
All I desired or wished below;
And every power find sweet employ,
In that eternal world of joy.

Isaac Watts.

11

Psalm 84.

GREAT God! attend, while Zion sings
The joy that from thy presence springs;
To spend one day with thee on earth
Exceeds a thousand days of mirth.

2 Might I enjoy the meanest place
Within thy house, O God of grace!
Nor tents of ease, nor thrones of power,
Should tempt my feet to leave thy door.

CANONBURY. L. M.

13

Morning.

AWAKE, my soul, and with the sun
Thy daily stage of duty run;
Shake off dull sloth, and joyful rise
To pay thy morning sacrifice.

2 Awake, lift up thyself, my heart,
And with the angels bear thy part,
Who all night long unwearied sing
High praises to the eternal King.

3 Glory to thee, who safe hast kept,
And hast refreshed me when I slept;
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,
I may of endless life partake.

4 Lord, I my vows to thee renew:
Scatter my sins as morning dew;
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with thyself my spirit fill.

5 Direct, control, suggest, this day,
All I design, or do or say;
That all my powers, with all their might,
In thy sole glory may unite.

Thomas Ken.

14

Psalm 135.

MY God, my King, thy various praise
Shall fill the remnant of my days:
Thy grace employ my humble tongue
Till death and glory raise the song.

2 The wings of every hour shall bear
Some thankful tribute to thine ear;
And every setting sun shall see
New works of duty done for thee.

3 Thy works with sovereign glory shine,
And speak thy majesty divine:
Let Zion in her courts proclaim
The sound and honor of thy name.

4 But who can speak thy wondrous deeds?
Thy greatness all our thoughts exceeds:
Vast and unsearchable thy ways;
Vast and immortal be thy praise.

Isaac Watts.

15

Each Day's Duties.

NEW every morning is the love
Our waking and uprising prove;
Through sleep and darkness safely brought,
Restored to life, and power, and thought.

2 New mercies, each returning day,
Hover around us while we pray;
New perils past, new sins forgiven,
New thoughts of God, new hopes of heaven.

3 If, on our daily course, our mind
Be set to hallow all we find,
New treasures still, of countless price,
God will provide for sacrifice.

4 The trivial round, the common task,
Will furnish all we need to ask,
Room to deny ourselves, a road
To bring us daily nearer God.

5 Only, O Lord! in thy dear love
Fit us for perfect rest above;
And help us, this and every day,
To live more nearly as we pray.

16

Psalm 36.

HIGH in the heavens, eternal God!

Thy goodness in full glory shines;
Thy truth shall break through every cloud
That veils and darkens thy designs.

2 For ever firm thy justice stands,
As mountains their foundations keep:
Wise are the wonders of thy hands;
Thy judgments are a mighty deep.

3 From the provisions of thy house
We shall be fed with sweet repast;
There, mercy like a river flows,
And brings salvation to our taste.

4 Life, like a fountain rich and free,
Springs from the presence of my Lord;
And in thy light our souls shall see
The glories promised in thy word.

Isaac Watts.

ANGEL VOICES. P. M.

A. S. SULLIVAN.

An-gel voic-es, ev-er sing-ing Round thy throne of light—An-gel harps, for ev-er ring-ing,

Rest not day nor night; Thousands only live to bless thee, And con-fess thee, Lord of might!

"Lord of might."

ANGEL voices, ever singing
Round thy throne of light—
Angel harps, for ever ringing,
Rest not day nor night;
Thousands only live to bless thee,
And confess thee, Lord of might!

2 Thou, who art beyond the farthest
Mortal eye can scan,
Can it be that thou regardest
Songs of sinful man?
Can we feel that thou art near us,
And wilt hear us? Yea, we can!

3 Here, great God, to-day we offer
Of thine own to thee;
And for thine acceptance proffer,
All unworthily,
Hearts and minds, and hands and voices,
In our choicest melody.

4 Honor, glory, might, and merit,
Thine shall ever be,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,
Blesséd Trinity!
Of the best that thou hast given,
Earth and heaven render thee!

Francis Pott.

Thine earthly Sabbaths, Lord, we love, But there's a nobler rest above; To that our longing souls as-pire, With cheerful hope and strong desire, With cheerful hope and strong desire.

"A nobler Rest."

THINE earthly Sabbaths, Lord, we love,
 But there's a nobler rest above;
 To that our longing souls aspire,
 With cheerful hope and strong desire.

2 No more fatigue, no more distress,
 Nor sin nor death shall reach the place;
 No groans shall mingle with the songs
 That warble from immortal tongues.

3 No rude alarms of raging foes,
 No cares to break the long repose,
 No midnight shade, no clouded sun,
 But sacred, high, eternal noon.

4 O long-expected day, begin!
 Dawn on these realms of woe and sin;
 Fain would we leave this weary road,
 And sleep in death to rest with God.

Philip Doddridge.

19

"Early Vows."

My opening eyes with rapture see
 The dawn of thy returning day;
 My thoughts, O God, ascend to thee,
 While thus my early vows I pay.

2 Oh, bid this trifling world retire,
 And drive each carnal thought away;
 Nor let me feel one vain desire—
 One sinful thought through all the day.

3 Then, to thy courts when I repair,
 My soul shall rise on joyful wing,
 The wonders of thy love declare,
 And join the strains which angels sing.

James Hutton.

20

Evocation.

COME, gracious Lord, descend and dwell,
 By faith and love, in every breast;
 Then shall we know, and taste, and feel
 The joys that cannot be expressed.

2 Come, fill our hearts with inward strength,
 Make our enlarged souls possess,
 And learn the height, and breadth, and length
 Of thine eternal love and grace.

3 Now to the God whose power can do
 More than our thoughts and wishes know,
 Be everlasting honors done,
 By all the Church, through Christ his Son.

Isaac Watts.

21

Morning Hymn.

O CHRIST! with each returning morn
 Thine image to our hearts be borne;
 And may we ever clearly see
 Our God and Saviour, Lord, in thee!

2 All hallowed be our walk this day;
 May meekness form our early ray,
 And faithful love our noontide light,
 And hope our sunset, calm and bright.

3 May grace each idle thought control,
 And sanctify our wayward soul;
 May guile depart, and malice cease,
 And all within be joy and peace.

4 Our daily course, O Jesus, bless;
 Make plain the way of holiness:
 From sudden falls our feet defend,
 And cheer at last our journey's end.

John Chandler, &c.

"Day of Rest."

THE day of rest once more comes round,
A day to all believers dear;
The silver trumpets seem to sound,
That call the tribes of Israel near;
Ye people all, obey the call,
And in Jehovah's courts appear.

2 Obedient to thy summons, Lord,
We to thy sanctuary come;
Thy gracious presence here afford,

And send thy people joyful home;
Of thee our King, oh, may we sing,
And none with such a theme be dumb.

3 Oh, hasten, Lord, the day when those
Who know thee here shall see thy face;
When suffering shall for ever close,
And they shall reach their destined place;
Then shall they rest, supremely blest,
Eternal debtors to thy grace.

I'll praise my Maker with my breath, And, when my voice is lost in death, Praise shall employ my nobler powers:

My days of praise shall ne'er be past, While life, and thought, and being last, Or immortality endures.

Psalm 146.

I'LL praise my Maker with my breath,
And, when my voice is lost in death,
Praise shall employ my nobler powers:
My days of praise shall ne'er be past,
While life, and thought, and being last,
Or immortality endures.

2 Happy the man, whose hopes rely
On Israel's God;—he made the sky,
And earth, and seas, with all their train:
His truth for ever stands secure;
He saves the oppressed, he feeds the poor;
And none shall find his promise vain.

3 He loves his saints—he knows them well,
But turns the wicked down to hell:
Thy God, O Zion! ever reigns;
Let every tongue, let every age,
In this exalted work engage:
Praise him in everlasting strains.

4 I'll praise him while he lends me breath,
And when my voice is lost in death,
Praise shall employ my nobler powers:
My days of praise shall ne'er be past,
While life, and thought, and being last,
Or immortality endures.

Isaac Watts.

L. M. 61. Tune—BAKEM.

WHEN, streaming from the eastern skies,
The morning light salutes mine eyes,
O Sun of righteousness divine,
On me with beams of mercy shine!
Oh! chase the clouds of guilt away,
And turn my darkness into day.

2 And when to heaven's all-glorious King
My morning sacrifice I bring,
And, mourning o'er my guilt and shame,
Ask mercy in my Saviour's name;
Then, Jesus, cleanse me with thy blood,
And be my Advocate with God.

3 When each day's scenes and labors close,
And wearied nature seeks repose,
With pardoning mercy richly blest,
Guard me, my Saviour, while I rest;
And, as each morning sun shall rise,
Oh, lead me onward to the skies!

4 And at my life's last setting sun,
My conflicts o'er, my labors done,
Jesus, thy heavenly radiance shed,
To cheer and bless my dying bed;
And from death's gloom my spirit raise,
To see thy face and sing thy praise.

The image shows a musical score for two hymns. The first hymn, 'Light of Light', is in 3/4 time and features a treble and bass clef. The lyrics are: 'Light of Light, en-lighten me! Now a - new the day is dawning; Sun of grace, the shadows flee, Brighten thou my Sabbath morning! With thy joyous sunshine blest, Happy is my day of rest.' The second hymn, 'Brighten thou my Sabbath morning', is also in 3/4 time and features a treble and bass clef. The lyrics are: 'Brighten thou my Sabbath morning! With thy joyous sunshine blest, Happy is my day of rest.'

"Light of Light."

LIGHT of Light, enlighten me!
Now anew the day is dawning;
Sun of grace, the shadows flee,
Brighten thou my Sabbath morning!
With thy joyous sunshine blest,
Happy is my day of rest.

2 Kindle thou the sacrifice
That upon my lips is lying;
Clear the shadows from mine eyes,
That, from every error flying,
No strange fire may in me glow
That thine altar doth not know.

3 Rest in me and I in thee,
Build a paradise within me;
Oh, reveal thyself to me,
Blesséd Love, who diedst to win me:
Fed from thine exhaustless urn,
Pure and bright my lamp shall burn.

Catherine Winkworth, tr.

26

"Fount of Joy."

FOUNT of all our joy and peace,
To thy living waters lead me;
Thou from earth my soul release,
And with grace and mercy feed me;
Bless thy Word that it may prove
Rich in fruits that thou dost love.

2 Hence all care, all vanity,
For the day to God is holy:
Come, thou glorious Majesty,
Deign to fill this temple lowly;
Naught to-day my soul shall move,
Simply resting in thy love.

3 Let me with my heart to-day,
Holy, Holy, Holy, singing,
Rapt awhile from earth away,
All my soul to thee up-springing,
Have a foretaste inly given,
How they worship thee in heaven.

Yes, with a cheer-ful zeal, We haste to Zi-on's hill, And there our vows and hon-ors pay.

27

Psalm 122.

HOW PLEAS-ED and blest was I,
To hear the people cry,
"Come, let us seek our God to-day!"
Yes, with a cheerful zeal,
We haste to Zion's hill,
And there our vows and honors pay.

2 Zion—thrice happy place—
Adorned with wondrous grace,
While walls of strength embrace thee round:
In thee our tribes appear,
To pray; and praise, and hear
The sacred gospel's joyful sound.

3 May peace attend thy gate,
And joy within thee wait,
To bless the soul of every guest:
The man who seeks thy peace,
And wishes thine increase,
A thousand blessings on him rest!

4 My tongue repeats her vows,
"Peace to this sacred house!"
For here my friends and kindred dwell;
And since my glorious God
Makes thee his blest abode,
My soul shall ever love thee well.

The Lord of gle-ry is my light, And my sal-va-tion too; God is my strength,—nor will I fear What all my foes can do.

28

Psalm 27.

THE Lord of glory is my light
And my salvation too;
God is my strength,—nor will I fear
What all my foes can do.

2 One privilege my heart desires,—
Oh, grant me an abode
Among the churches of thy saints,—
The temples of my God.

3 There shall I offer my requests,
And see thy beauty still;

Shall hear thy messages of love,
And there inquire thy will.

4 When troubles rise, and storms appear,
There may his children hide;
God has a strong pavilion, where
He makes my soul abide.

5 Now shall my head be lifted high,
Above my foes around;
And songs of joy and victory
Within thy temple sound.

29

Psalm 5.

LORD! in the morning thou shalt hear
My voice ascending high;
To thee will I direct my prayer,
To thee lift up mine eye:—

2 Up to the hills, where Christ has gone
To plead for all his saints,
Presenting at his Father's throne
Our songs and our complaints.

3 Thou art a God, before whose sight
The wicked shall not stand;

Sinners shall ne'er be thy delight,
Nor dwell at thy right hand.

4 But to thy house will I resort,
To taste thy mercies there;
I will frequent thy holy court,
And worship in thy fear.

5 Oh, may thy Spirit guide my feet,
In ways of righteousness;
Make every path of duty straight,
And plain before my face.

30

Psalm 122.

How DID my heart rejoice to hear
My friends devoutly say,—
“In Zion let us all appear,
And keep the solemn day.”

2 I love her gates, I love the road;
The Church, adorned with grace,
Stands like a palace built for God,
To show his milder face.

3 Up to her courts, with joys unknown,
The holy tribes repair;

The Son of David holds his throne,
And sits in judgment there.

4 Peace be within this sacred place,
And joy a constant guest;
With holy gifts and heavenly grace,
Be her attendants blest.

5 My soul shall pray for Zion still,
While life or breath remains;
There my best friends, my kindred dwell,
There, God, my Saviour reigns.

32

Psalm 118.

THIS is the day the Lord hath made;
He calls the hours his own;
Let heaven rejoice, let earth be glad,
And praise surround the throne.

2 To-day he rose, and left the dead,
And Satan's empire fell;
To-day the saints his triumph spread,
And all his wonders tell.

3 Hosanna to the anointed King,
To David's only Son;

Help us, O Lord; descend and bring
Salvation from thy throne.

4 Blest be the Lord who comes to men
With messages of grace;
Who comes, in God his Father's name,
To save our sinful race.

5 Hosanna in the highest strains
The church on earth can raise;
The highest heavens, in which he reigns,
Shall give him nobler praise.

Sing we the song of those who stand A - round th'e - ter - nal throne,

33 "Worthy the Lamb!"

SING we the song of those who stand
Around the eternal throne,
Of every kindred, clime, and land,
A multitude unknown.

2 Life's poor distinctions vanish here:
To-day the young, the old,
Our Saviour and his flock appear
One Shepherd and one fold.

3 Toil, trial, sufferings still await
On earth the pilgrim throng;
Yet learn we in our low estate
The Church Triumphant's song.

4 "Worthy the Lamb for sinners slain,"—
Cry the redeemed above;
"Blessing and honor to obtain,
And everlasting love!"

5 "Worthy the Lamb," on earth we sing,
"Who died our souls to save!
Henceforth, O Death! where is thy sting?
Thy victory, O Grave!"

James Montgomery.

3 Spirit of grace! oh, deign to dwell
Within thy church below;
Make her in holiness excel,
With pure devotion glow.

4 Let peace within her walls be found;
Let all her sons unite
To spread with grateful zeal around
Her clear and shining light.

Harriet Auber.

35 Psalm 132.

ARISE, O King of grace! arise,
And enter to thy rest;
Lo! thy church waits, with longing eyes,
Thus to be owned and blest.

2 Enter, with all thy glorious train,
Thy Spirit and thy word;
All that the ark did once contain
Could no such grace afford.

3 Here, mighty God! accept our vows;
Here let thy praise be spread:
Bless the provisions of thy house,
And fill thy poor with bread.

4 Here let the Son of David reign,
Let God's Anointed shine;
Justice and truth his court maintain,
With love and power divine.

5 Here let him hold a lasting throne;
And, as his kingdom grows,
Fresh honors shall adorn his crown.
And shame confound his foes.

Isaac Watts.

34 Psalm 122.

Low at thy feet we bend.2 How should our songs, like those above,
With warm devotion rise!How should our souls, on wings of love,
Mount upward to the skies!3 Come, Lord! thy love alone can raise
In us the heavenly flame;Then shall our lips resound thy praise,
Our hearts adore thy name.4 Dear Saviour, let thy glory shine,
And fill thy dwellings here,
Till life, and love, and joy divine
A heaven on earth appear.5 Then shall our hearts enraptured say,
Come, great Redeemer! come;

LORD! when we bend before thy throne,
And our confessions pour,
Oh, may we feel the sins we own,
And hate what we deplore.2 Our contrite spirits pitying see;
True penitence impart:
And let a healing ray from thee
Beam hope on every heart.3 When we disclose our wants in prayer,
May we our wills resign;
Nor let a thought our bosom share,
Which is not wholly thine.4 Let faith each meek petition fill,
And wait it to the skies;
And teach our heart 't is goodness still
That grants it or denies.

2 Great Shepherd of thy people, hear
Thy presence now display;
We bow within thy house of prayer;
Oh! give us hearts to pray.

3 The clouds which veil thee from our sight,
In pity, Lord, remove:
Dispose our minds to hear aright
The message of thy love.

4 The feeling heart, the melting eye,
The humble mind bestow;
And shine upon us from on high,
To make our graces grow.

5 Show us some token of thy love,
Our fainting hope to raise;
And pour thy blessing from above,
That we may render praise.

But simple truth be on our tongue,
And in our hearts be love.

3 And while the hours in order flow,

The gate of every sense.

4 And grant that to thine honor, Lord,
Our daily toil may tend;
That we begin it at thy word,

May Jesus Christ be praised.

3 Does sadness fill my mind,
A solace here I find;
May Jesus Christ be praised:
Or fades my earthly bliss,
My comfort still is this:

2 O Lord! our guilt and fears prevail.
But pardoning grace in thine;
And thou wilt grant us power and skill,

Psalm 64.

My soul, how lovely is the place,
To which thy God resorts!
'T is heaven to see his smiling face,
Though in his earthly courts.

2 There the great Monarch of the skies
His saving power displays;
And light breaks in upon our eyes,
With kind and quickening rays.

3 With his rich gifts the heavenly Dove
Descends and fills the place;

4 There, mighty God, thy words declare

2 With thee conversing, I forget
All time and toil and care;
Labor is rest, and pain is sweet,
If thou, my God, art here.

3 Thou callest me to seek thy face;
Thy face, O God, I seek,— Attend the whispers of thy grace,

"The Rising Day."

ONCE more, my soul, the rising day
Salutes thy waking eyes;
Once more, my voice, thy tribute pay
To him that rules the skies.

2 Night unto night his name repeats
The day renews the sound,
Wide as the heaven on which he sits
To turn the seasons round.

3 'T is he supports my mortal frame;
My tongue shall speak his praise;
My sins would rouse his wrath to flame,
And yet his wrath delays.

4 Great God, let all my hours be thine,
While I enjoy the light;
Then shall my sun in smiles decline,
And bring a pleasant night.

HAIL to the Sabbath day!

The day divinely given,
When men to God their homage pay,
And earth draws near to heaven.

2 Lord, in this sacred hour,
Within thy courts we bend,
And bless thy love, and own thy power,
Our Father and our Friend.

3 But thou art not alone
In courts by mortals trod;

Nor only is the day thine own
When man draws near to God.

And purer worship may we pay
In heaven's unclouded light.

2 Before thy throne we bow,

NOW LET our voices join
To raise a sacred song;
Ye pilgrims! in Jehovah's ways,
With music pass along.

2 See—flowers of paradise,
In rich profusion, spring;
The sun of glory gilds the path,
And dear companions sing.

3 See—Salem's golden spires,
In beauteous prospect, rise;
And brighter crowns than mortals wear,
Which sparkle through the skies.

To realms of endless day.

 Let there be light to-day;
 O Day-spring, rise upon our night,
 And chase its gloom away.
- 2 This is the day of rest:
 Our failing strength renew;
 On weary brain and troubled breast
 Shed thou thy freshening dew.
- 3 This is the day of peace:
 Thy peace our spirits fill;
 Bid thou the blasts of discord cease,
 The waves of strife be still.
- 4 This is the day of prayer:
 Let earth to heaven draw near;
 Lift up our hearts to seek thee there;
 Come down to meet us here.

 Send forth thy quickening breath,
 And wake dead souls to love and praise,

50 Fruits of Holiness.

 Thou hast vouchsafed to bless,
 From age to age, thy chosen saints
 With fruits of holiness.
- 2 Here faith and hope and love
 Reign in sweet bond allied;
 There, when this little day is o'er,
 Shall love alone abide.
- 3 Oh, love, oh, truth, oh, light!
 Light never to decay!
 Oh, rest from thousand labors past!
 Oh, endless Sabbath-day!
- 4 Here, bearing the good seed,
 'Mid cares and tears we come;
 There, with rejoicing hearts, we bear
 Our harvest-burdens home.

 The fruits thyself dost love;
 Soon shalt thou from thy judgment-seat
 Crown thine own gifts above.

Who love the way to Zion's hill.

"Light in thy light."

O ZION! tune thy voice,
And raise thy hands on high;
Tell all the earth thy joys,
And boast salvation nigh;
Cheerful in God, arise and shine,
While rays divine stream all abroad.

2 He gilds thy mourning face
With beams that cannot fade;
His all-resplendent grace
He pours around thy head;
The nations round thy form shall view,
With luster new, divinely crowned.

3 In honor to his name,
Reflect that sacred light;
And loud that grace proclaim,
Which makes thy darkness bright;
Pursue his praise, till sovereign love,
In worlds above, the glory raise.

4 There, on his holy hill,

Thy truth with heavenly ray
Shall lead my soul to God,
And guide my doubtful way;
I'll hear thy word with faith sincere,
And learn to fear and praise the Lord.

3 Now in thy holy hill,

Come, my soul, thou must be wak-ing, Now is breaking O'er the earth an - oth - er day:

Come, to him who made this splendor See thou ren-der All thy fee - ble strength can pay.

Hornig Song.

COME, my soul, thou must be waking,
Now is breaking

O'er the earth another day:

Come, to him who made this splendor ;
See thou render

All thy feeble strength can pay.

2 Gladly hail the sun returning :
Ready burning

Be the incense of thy powers :

For the night is safely ended ;
God hath tended

With his care thy helpless hours.

3 Pray that he may prosper ever
Each endeavor,

When thine aim is good and true ;

But that he may ever thwart thee,
And convert thee,

When thou evil wouldst pursue.

4 Only God's free gifts abuse not,
Light refuse not,

But his Spirit's voice obey ;
Thou with him shalt dwell, beholding
Light enfolding

All things in unclouded day.

5 Glory, honor, exaltation,
Adoration,

Be to the eternal One :

To the Father, Son, and Spirit
Laud and merit,

While unending ages run.

The Gates of Zion.

OPEN now thy gates of beauty,
Zion, let me enter there;
Where my soul in joyful duty
Waits for him who answers prayer:
Oh, how blessed is this place,
Filled with solace, light, and grace.

2 Yes, my God, I come before thee,
Come thou also down to me;
Where we find thee and adore thee,
There a heaven on earth must be.
To my heart, oh, enter thou,
Let it be thy temple now.

3 Thou my faith increase and quicken,
Let me keep thy gift divine,
Howsoever temptations thicken;
May thy word still o'er me shine,
As my pole-star through my life,
As my comfort in my strife.

4 Speak, O God, and I will hear thee.
Let thy will be done indeed;
May I undisturbed draw near thee
Whilst thou dost thy people feed.
Here of life the fountain flows,
Here is balm for all our woes.

Catherine Winkworth, tr.

2 Sun-day, full of holy glory!
Sweetest rest-day of the soul!
Light upon a world of darkness
From thy blessed moments roll!
Holy, happy, heavenly day,
Thou canst charm our grief away.

3 In the gladness of God's worship
We will seek our joy to-day:
It is then we learn the fullness
Of the grace for which we pray;
When the word of life is given,
Like the Saviour's voice from heaven.

4 Let the day with thee be ended,
As with thee it has begun;
And thy blessing, Lord, be granted,
Till earth's days and weeks are done;
That at last thy servants may
Keep eternal Sabbath day.

Morning Hymn.

HALLELUJAH! fairest morning!
Fairer than our words can say!
Down we lay the heavy burden
Of our toil and care to-day:
While this morn of joy and love
Brings fresh vigor from above.

Hallelujah!

UNTO thee be glory given,
Word incarnate! evermore;
Thee the spirits blest in heaven,
Thee the angel choirs adore;
Still their hallelujahs rise
Midst the anthems of the skies.

2 We too, bending low before thee,
Lord of all, blest Trinity!
Of thy mercy now implore thee,
That throughout eternity
In thy kingdom we may raise
Hallelujahs to thy praise.

SABBATH. 7s. D.

LOWELL MASON.

{ Safely thro' another week, God has brought us on our way; }
 { Let us now a blessing seek, (Omit.....) } Waiting in his courts to-day: Day of all the week the best, Em-blem of e-ter-nal rest; Day of all the week the best, Emblem of e-ter-nal rest.

66 Sabbath Morning.

SAFELY through another week,
 God has brought us on our way;
 Let us now a blessing seek,
 Waiting in his courts to-day:
 Day of all the week the best,
 Emblem of eternal rest.

2 While we seek supplies of grace,
 Through the dear Redeemer's name,
 Show thy reconciling face—
 Take away our sin and shame;
 From our worldly cares set free,—
 May we rest this day in thee.

3 Here we come thy name to praise;
 Let us feel thy presence near;
 May thy glory meet our eyes,
 While we in thy house appear:
 Here afford us, Lord, a taste
 Of our everlasting feast.

4 May thy gospel's joyful sound
 Conquer sinners, comfort saints;
 Make the fruits of grace abound,
 Bring relief for all complaints:
 Thus let all our Sabbaths prove,
 Till we rest in thee above.

John Newton.

67 The holy Day of Rest.

WELCOME, sacred day of rest!
 Sweet repose from worldly care;
 Day above all days the best,
 When our souls for heaven prepare;

Day, when our Redeemer rose,
 Victor o'er the hosts of hell;
 Thus he vanquished all our foes;
 Let our lips his glory tell.

2 Gracious Lord! we love this day,
 When we hear thy holy word;
 When we sing thy praise, and pray,
 Earth can no such joys afford.
 But a better rest remains,
 Heavenly Sabbaths, happier days,
 Rest from sin, and rest from pains,
 Endless joys, and endless praise.

William Browne.

68 Ensoberation.

LIGHT of life, seraphic Fire,
 Love divine, thyself impart;
 Every fainting soul inspire;
 Enter every drooping heart;
 Every mournful sinner cheer;
 Scatter all our guilty gloom;
 Father! in thy grace appear,
 To thy human temples come.

2 Come, in this accepted hour,
 Bring thy heavenly kingdom in;
 Fill us with thy glorious power,
 Set us free from all our sin:
 Nothing more can we require,
 We will covet nothing less;
 Be thou all our heart's desire,
 All our joy, and all our peace.

Charles Wesley.

ST. GEORGE 7s. D

GEORGE J. ELVEY

Pleasant are thy courts above, In the land of light and love; Pleasant are thy courts be-low In this land of sin and woe.

Oh, my spirit longs and faints For the converse of thy saints, For the brightness of thy face, King of glo-ry, God of grace!

Psalm 84.

PLEASANT are thy courts above,
In the land of light and love;
Pleasant are thy courts below
In this land of sin and woe.
Oh, my spirit longs and faints
For the converse of thy saints,
For the brightness of thy face,
King of glory, God of grace!

2 Happy birds that sing and fly,
Round thy altars, O Most High!
Happier souls that find a rest,
In their heavenly Father's breast!
Like the wandering dove that found
No repose on earth around,
They can to their ark repair,
And enjoy it ever there.

3 Happy souls, their praises flow,
Ever in this vale of woe;
Waters in the desert rise,
Manna feeds them from the skies;
On they go from strength to strength,
Till they reach thy throne at length;
At thy feet adoring fall,
Who hast led them safe through all.

4 Lord, be mine this prize to win;
Guide me through this world of sin;
Keep me by thy saving grace,
Give me at thy side a place;

Sun and shield alike thou art,
Guide and guard my erring heart;
Grace and glory flow from thee,
Shower, O shower them, Lord, on me.
Henry F. Lyte.

70

"Rest and Labor."

LORD, remove the vail away,
Let us see thyself to-day:
Thou who camest from on high,
For our sins to bleed and die,
Help us now to cast aside
All that would our hearts divide;
With the Father and the Son
Let thy living church be one.

2 Oh, from earthly cares set free,
Let us find our rest in thee;
May our toils and conflicts cease
In the calm of Sabbath peace;
That thy people here below
Something of the bliss may know,
Something of the rest and love,
In the Sabbath-home above.

3 Give our souls the spotless dress
Of thy perfect righteousness;
So at length each welcome guest,
Then shall enter to the feast,
Take the harp and raise the song,
All thy ransomed ones among;
Earthly cares and sorrows o'er,
Joys to last for evermore.

Mrs. Eric Findlater, tr.

ALVAN. 8s, 7s, 4s.

LOWELL MASON.

{ While we low-ly bow be-fore thee, Wilt thou, gra-cious Sav-iour, hear? {
 We are poor and need-y sin-ners, Full of doubt and full of fear; }

Gra-cious Sav-iour, Gra-cious Sav-iour, Make us hum-ble and sin-cere.

71

Humility.

WHILE we lowly bow before thee,
 Wilt thou, gracious Saviour, hear?
 We are poor and needy sinners,
 Full of doubt and full of fear;
 Gracious Saviour,
 Make us humble and sincere.

2 Fill us with thy Holy Spirit;
 Sanctify us by thy grace;
 Oh, incline us more to love thee,
 And in dust our souls abase.
 Hear us, Saviour,
 And unvail thy glorious face.

3 None in vain did ever ask thee
 For the Spirit of thy love;
 Hear us, then, dear Saviour, hear us;
 Grant an answer from above;
 Blesséd Saviour,
 Hear and answer from above.

D. C. Colesworthy.

72

"Send blessing."

SAVIOUR, send a blessing to us,
 Send a blessing from above;
 All thy truth and mercy show us,
 Be thou here in power and love;
 Grant thy presence,
 Be it ours thy grace to prove.

2 Nothing have we, Lord, without thee,
 But thy promise is our stay;
 And thy people must not doubt thee;
 Saviour, now thy power display;
 And let gladness
 Fill thy people's hearts to-day.

Thomas Kelly.

73

"Father, hear us!"

GOD Almighty and All-seeing!
 Holy One, in whom we all
 Live, and move, and have our being,
 Hear us when on thee we call;
 Father, hear us,
 As before thy throne we fall.

2 Of all good art thou the Giver;
 Weak and wandering ones are we;
 Then for ever, yea, for ever,
 In thy presence would we be;
 Oh, be near us,
 That we wander not from thee.

F. S. Pierpont.

74

Glory to God.

GLORY be to God the Father,
 Glory be to God the Son,
 Glory be to God the Spirit,
 Great Jehovah, Three in One:
 Glory, glory,
 While eternal ages run!

2 Glory be to him who loved us,
 Washed us from each spot and stain;
 Glory be to him who bought us,
 Made us kings with him to reign:
 Glory, glory,
 To the Lamb that once was slain!

3 Glory, blessing, praise eternal!
 Thus the choir of angels sings;
 Honor, riches, power, dominion!
 Thus its praise creation brings:
 Glory, glory,
 Glory to the King of kings.

Horatius Bonar.

RAPHAEL 89, 79, 4.

E. J. HOPKINS.

In thy name, O Lord! as-sem-bling, We, thy peo-ple, now draw near; Teach us to rejoice with trembling; Speak, and let thy ser-vants hear,—Hear with meekness,—Hear thy word with god-ly fear.

75 "Let thy servants hear."
 IN thy name, O Lord! assembling,
 We, thy people, now draw near;
 Teach us to rejoice with trembling;
 Speak, and let thy servants hear,—
 Hear with meekness,—
 Hear thy word with godly fear.

2 While our days on earth are lengthened,
 May we give them, Lord! to thee;
 Cheered by hope, and daily strengthened,
 May we run, nor weary be,
 Till thy glory
 Without clouds in heaven we see.

3 There, in worship purer, sweeter,
 Thee thy people shall adore;
 Tasting of enjoyment greater
 Than they could conceive before;
 Full enjoyment,
 Full, unmixed, and evermore.

Thomas Kelly.

76 "Bless the serb."
 COME, thou soul-transforming Spirit,
 Bless the sower and the seed;
 Let each heart thy grace inherit;
 Raise the weak, the hungry feed!
 From the gospel
 Now supply thy people's need.

2 Oh, may all enjoy the blessing
 Which thy word 's designed to give;
 Let us all, thy love possessing,
 Joyfully the truth receive;
 And for ever
 To thy praise and glory live.

Jonathan Evans.

77 God's presence.
 GOD is in his holy temple;
 All the earth keep silence here;
 Worship him in truth and spirit;
 Reverence him with godly fear;
 Holy, holy
 Lord of hosts, our God, appear!

2 God in Christ reveals his presence,
 Throned upon the mercy-seat;
 Saints, rejoice, and sinners, tremble;
 Each prepare his God to meet;
 Lowly, lowly
 Bow, adoring, at his feet.

James Montgomery.

78 Continued meetings.
 WELCOME, days of solemn meeting;
 Welcome, days of praise and prayer;
 Far from earthly scenes retreating,
 In your blessings we would share;
 Sacred seasons,
 In your blessings we would share.

2 Be thou near us, blessed Saviour,
 Still at morn and eve the same;
 Give us faith that cannot waver;
 Kindle in us heaven's own flame;
 Blessed Saviour,
 Kindle in us heaven's own flame.

3 When the fervent heart is glowing,
 Holy Spirit, hear that prayer:
 When the song of praise is flowing,
 Let that song thine impress bear;
 Holy Spirit,
 Let that song thine impress bear.

German Evening Hymn.

To thy pastures fair and large, And my couch, with tenderest care,
Heav'nly Shepherd, lead thy charge, Mid the springing grass prepare.

79

Psalm 23.

TO THY pastures fair and large,
Heavenly Shepherd, lead thy charge,
And my couch, with tenderest care,
'Mid the springing grass prepare.

2 When I faint with summer's heat,
Thou shalt guide my weary feet
To the streams that, still and slow,
Through the verdant meadows flow.

3 Safe the dreary vale I tread,
By the shades of death o'erspread,
With thy rod and staff supplied,
This my guard—and that my guide.

4 Constant to my latest end,
Thou my footsteps shalt attend;
And shalt bid thy hallowed dome
Yield me an eternal home.

James Merrick.

80

Twilight.

SOFTLY fades the twilight ray
Of the holy Sabbath day;
Gently as life's setting sun,
When the Christian's course is run.

2 Peace is on the world abroad;
'T is the holy peace of God—
Symbol of the peace within
When the spirit rests from sin.

3 Still the Spirit lingers near,
Where the evening worshiper
Seeks communion with the skies,
Pressing onward to the prize.

4 Saviour! may our Sabbaths be
Days of joy and peace in thee,
Till in heaven our souls repose,
Where the Sabbath ne'er shall close.

S. F. Smith.

"First of Days."

On this day, the first of days,
God the Father's name we praise;
Who, creation's Fount and Spring,
Did the world from darkness bring.

2 On this day the Eternal Son
Over death his triumph won;
On this day the Spirit came
With his gifts of living flame.

3 Father, who didst fashion me
Image of thyself to be,

Fill me with thy love divine,
Let my every thought be thine.

4 Holy Jesus, may I be
Dead and buried here with thee;
And, by love inflamed, arise
Unto thee a sacrifice.

5 Thou who dost all gifts impart,
Shine, sweet Spirit, in my heart;
Best of gifts, thyself, bestow;
Make me burn thy love to know.

To thy temple we re-pair— Lord, we love to worship there, When within the veil we meet Thee up-on the mercy-seat.

82

Jesus intercedes.

To THY temple we repair—
Lord, we love to worship there,
When within the veil we meet
Thee upon the mercy-seat.

2 While thy glorious name is sung,
Tune our lips—unloose our tongue;
Then our joyful souls shall bless
Thee, the Lord our Righteousness.

3 While to thee our prayers ascend,
Let thine ear in love attend;

Hear us, for thy Spirit pleads—
Hear, for Jesus intercedes.

4 While thy word is heard with awe,
While we tremble at thy law,
Let thy gospel's wondrous love
Every doubt and fear remove,

5 From thy house when we return,
Let our hearts within us burn;
That at evening we may say—
"We have walked with God to-day."

James Montgomery.

HENDON. 7a.

C. MALAN.

Lord, we come be- fore thee now, At thy feet we hum-bly bow; Oh, do not our suit dis- dain! Shall we seek thee, Lord, in vain? Shall we seek thee, Lord, in vain?

"Thy face we seek."

Lord, we come before thee now,
At thy feet we humbly bow;
Oh, do not our suit disdain!
Shall we seek thee, Lord, in vain?

2 Lord, on thee our souls depend,
In compassion now descend;
Fill our hearts with thy rich grace,
Tune our lips to sing thy praise.

3 In thine own appointed way,
Now we seek thee; here we stay;

Lord, we know not how to go,
Till a blessing thou bestow.

4 Comfort those who weep and mourn;
Let the time of joy return;
Those that are cast down lift up;
Make them strong in faith and hope.

5 Grant that all may seek and find
Thee a God supremely kind;
Heal the sick; the captive free;
Let us all rejoice in thee.

Every morning mercies new Fall as fresh as ear-ly dew; Ev-ery morning let us pay
Trib-ute with the ear-ly day; For thy mercies, Lord, are sure: Thy compassion doth en-dure.

84 "Mercies new."

EVERY morning mercies new
Fall as fresh as early dew;
Every morning let us pay
Tribute with the early day;
For thy mercies, Lord, are sure:
Thy compassion doth endure.

2 Still the greatness of thy love
Daily doth our sins remove;
Daily, far as east to west,
Lifts the burden from the breast;
Gives unbought to those who pray
Strength to stand in evil day.

3 Let our prayers each morn prevail,
That these gifts may never fail;
And, as we confess the sin
And the tempter's power within,
Feed us with the bread of life;
Fit us for our daily strife.

4 As the morning light returns,
As the sun with splendor burns,
Teach us still to turn to thee,
Ever-blesséd Trinity,
With our hands our hearts to raise,
In unfailling prayer and praise.

Horatius Bonar.

2 Then shall God, with lavish hand,
Scatter blessings o'er the land;
Earth shall yield her rich increase,
Every breeze shall whisper peace,
And the world's remotest bound
With the voice of praise resound.

Harriet Auber.

86 The Sabbath.

LORD, it is thy holy day;
Here we meet to praise and pray;
Joining with one heart and mind,
Earthly cares we leave behind.
On the day which thou hast made,
Us in our rejoicings aid.

2 Glad as when the glorious shout
Of the morning stars rang out,
Thee, Creator, will we praise,
And our hymns of triumph raise.
Sun and moon, your songs unite;
Praise him, all ye stars of light!

3 Louder yet our strains be borne,
Mindful of that happy morn,
When the world's Redeemer rose,
Victor from the grave's repose;
Who by death subdued the grave:
Mighty he our souls to save.

4 Looking for that rest above,
For the Sabbath of thy love,
Here to-day by hope we rise
To our mansion in the skies:
Here by faith and love prepare
For our endless Sabbath there.

Anon., 1864.

Morning.

CHRIST, whose glory fills the skies,
 Christ, the true, the only light,
 Sun of righteousness, arise,
 Triumph o'er the shades of night;
 Day-spring from on high, be near,
 Day-star in my heart appear.

2 Dark and cheerless is the morn,
 If thy light is hid from me;
 Joyless is the day's return,
 Till thy mercy's beams I see;
 Till they inward light impart,
 Warmth and gladness to my heart.

3 Visit, then, this soul of mine,
 Pierce the gloom of sin and grief;
 Fill me, radiant Sun divine!
 Scatter all my unbelief;
 More and more thyself display,
 Shining to the perfect day.

Charles Wesley.

88

Evening.

NOW, FROM labor and from care,
 Evening shades have set me free;
 In the work of praise and prayer,
 Lord! I would converse with thee:
 Oh, behold me from above,
 Fill me with a Saviour's love.

2 Sin and sorrow, guilt and woe,
 Wither all my earthly joys;
 Naught can charm me here below,
 But my Saviour's melting voice;
 Lord! forgive—thy grace restore,
 Make me thine for evermore.

3 For the blessings of this day,
 For the mercies of this hour,
 For the gospel's cheering ray,
 For the Spirit's quickening power,—
 Grateful notes to thee I raise;
 Oh, accept my song of praise.

AS THE hart, with eager looks,
 Panteth for the water-brooks,
 So my soul, athirst for thee,
 Pants the living God to see;
 When, oh, when, with filial fear,
 Lord, shall I to thee draw near?

2 Why art thou cast down, my soul?

 Be the saving health of thine.

Through the Day.

BENDING before thee, let our hymn go upwards,

Bright as the sunshine breaking from the darkness,

Thee we implore to guard us on our journey,
Lord God Almighty.

2 Guard us in toil when fainting in the noon-
day,

Guard us reposing under evening shadows,
Guard us when midnight walks abroad in heaven,

Lord God Almighty.

3 If the dread foe assail us with temptation,

Hear us, O Lord, and save us from his danger,

Oh, keep us pure, oh, lead us to thy pres-

"Sun of my soul."

SUN of my soul! thou Saviour dear,
It is not night if thou be near:
Oh, may no earth-born cloud arise
To hide thee from thy servant's eyes!

2 When soft the dews of kindly sleep
My weary eyelids gently steep,
Be my last thought—how sweet to rest
For ever on my Saviour's breast!

3 Abide with me from morn till eve,
For without thee I cannot live;
Abide with me when night is nigh,
For without thee I dare not die.

4 Be near to bless me when I wake,
Ere through the world my way I take;
Abide with me till in thy love
I lose myself in heaven above.

John Keble.

96

Evening Shadows.

AGAIN, as evening's shadow falls,
We gather in these hallowed walls;
And evening hymn and evening prayer
Rise mingling on the holy air.

2 May struggling hearts, that seek release,
Here find the rest of God's own peace;
And, strengthened here by hymn and prayer,
Lay down the burden and the care.

3 O God our Light, to thee we bow:
Within all shadows standest thou:
Give deeper calm than night can bring,
Give sweeter songs than life can sing.

4 Life's tumult we must meet again,
We cannot at the shrine remain;
But in the spirit's secret cell,
May hymn and prayer for ever dwell.

Samuel Longfellow.

Evening song.

GLORY to thee, my God, this night,
For all the blessings of the light;
Keep me, oh, keep me, King of kings!
Beneath thine own almighty wings.

2 Forgive me, Lord, for thy dear Son,
The ill which I this day have done;
That with the world, myself, and thee,
I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.

3 Teach me to live, that I may dread
The grave as little as my bed:

Teach me to die, that so I may
Rise glorious at the judgment-day.

4 Oh, let my soul on thee repose,
And may sweet sleep mine eyelids close!
Sleep, which shall me more vigorous make,
To serve my God when I awake.

5 Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost!

98

Best at Evening.

AT even, when the sun was set,
The sick, O Lord, around thee lay;
Oh, in what divers pains they met!
Oh, with what joy they went away!

2 Once more, 't is eventide, and we Oppressed with various ills draw near:
What if thy form we cannot see?
We know and feel that thou art here.

3 O Saviour Christ, our woes dispel;
For some are sick, and some are sad,
And some have never loved thee well,
And some have lost the love they had.

4 And some have found the world is vain,
Yet from the world they break not free,

And some have friends who give them pain,
Yet have not sought a friend in thee.

5 And none, O Lord, have perfect rest,
For none are wholly free from sin;
And they who fain would serve thee best,
Are conscious most of wrong within.

6 O Saviour Christ, thou too art man;
Thou hast been troubled, tempted, tried;
Thy kind but searching glance can scan
The very wounds that shame would hide.

7 Thy touch has still its ancient power;
No word from thee can fruitless fall;
Hear in this solemn evening hour,
And in thy mercy heal us all.

"Day is dying."

DAY is dying in the West;
Heaven is touching earth with rest;
Wait and worship while the night
Sets her evening lamps alight
Through all the sky.

CHO.—

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Hosts!
Heaven and earth are full of thee!

Heaven and earth are praising thee,
O Lord most high!

2 Lord of life, beneath the dome
Of the universe, thy home,
Gather us who seek thy face
To the fold of thy embrace,
For thou art nigh.—CHO.

Evening Hymn.

HOLY Father, cheer our way
With thy love's perpetual ray;
Grant us, every closing day,
Light at evening time.

2 Holy Saviour, calm our fears,
When earth's brightness disappears;
Grant us, in our later years,
Light at evening time.

3 Holy Spirit, be thou nigh,
When in mortal pains we lie;
Grant us, as we come to die,
Light at evening time.

4 Holy, blessed Trinity!
Darkness is not dark with thee;
Those thou keepst always see
Light at evening time.

When the day of toil is done, When the race of life is run, Father, grant thy wearied one Rest for ev-er-more.

101

"Life for evermore."

WHEN the day of toil is done,
When the race of life is run,
Father, grant thy wearied one
Rest for evermore.

2 When the strife of sin is stilled,
When the foe within is killed,
Be thy gracious word fulfilled,—
"Peace for evermore."

3 When the darkness melts away
At the breaking of the day,
Bid us hail the cheering ray,—
Light for evermore.

4 When the heart by sorrow tried
Feels at length its throbs subside,
Bring us, where all tears are dried,
Joy for evermore.

5 When for vanished days we yearn,
Days that never can return,
Teach us in thy love to learn
Love for evermore.

6 When the breath of life is flown,
When the grave must claim its own,
Lord of life, be ours thy crown,—
Life for evermore.

John Ellerton.

102

"Jesus, hear my cry!"

THOU who didst on Calvary bleed,
Thou who dost for sinners plead,
Help me in my time of need;
Jesus, hear my cry.

2 In my darkness and my grief,
With my heart of unbelief,
I, who am of sinners chief,
Lift to thee mine eye.

3 Foes without and fears within,
With no plea thy grace to win,
But that thou canst save from sin,
To thy cross I fly.

4 Others, long in fetters bound,
There deliverance sought and found,
Heard the voice of mercy sound;
Surely so may I.

5 There on thee I cast my care;
There to thee I raise my prayer;
Jesus, save me from despair,—
Save me, or I die.

6 When the storms of trial lower,
When I feel temptation's power,
In the last and darkest hour,
Jesus, be thou nigh.

James D. Burns.

103

Prayer for pardon.

GOD of pity, God of grace:
When we humbly seek thy face,
Bend from heaven, thy dwelling-place:
Hear, forgive, and save.

2 When we in thy temple meet,
Spread our wants before thy feet,
Pleading at the mercy-seat:
Look from heaven and save.

3 When thy love our hearts shall fill,
And we long to do thy will,
Turning to thy holy hill:
Lord, accept and save.

4 Should we wander from thy fold,
And our love to thee grow cold,
With a pitying eye behold:
Lord, forgive and save.

5 Should the hand of sorrow press,
Earthly care and want distress,
May our souls thy peace possess;
Jesus, hear and save.

6 And whate'er our cry may be,
When we lift our hearts to thee,
From our burden set us free:
Hear, forgive, and save.

"Departing Day."

THE radiant morn hath passed away,
And spent too soon her golden store;
The shadows of departing day
Creep on once more.

2 Our life is but a fading dawn;
Its glorious noon how quickly past!
Lead us, O Christ, when all is gone,
Safe home at last.

3 Oh, by thy soul-inspiring grace,
Uplift our hearts to realms on high;
Help us to look to that bright place
Beyond the sky;—

4 Where light and life and joy and peace
In undivided empire reign,
And thronging angels never cease
Their deathless strain;—

5 Where saints are clothed in spotless white,
And evening shadows never fall;
Where thou, eternal Light of light,
Art Lord of all!

Godfrey Thring.

105

"We follow thee."

THROUGH good report and evil, Lord,
Still guided by thy faithful word,—
Our staff, our buckler, and our sword,
We follow thee.

2 With enemies on every side,
We lean on thee, the Crucified;
Forsaking all on earth beside,
We follow thee.

3 O Master, point thou out the way,
Nor suffer thou our steps to stray;
Then in that path that leads to day
We follow thee.

4 Thou hast passed on before our face;
Thy footsteps on the way we trace;
Oh, keep us, aid us by thy grace:
We follow thee!

5 Whom have we in the heaven above,
Whom on this earth, save thee, to love?
Still in thy light we onward move;
We follow thee!

Horatius Bonar.

Sabbath rest.

HAIL, sacred day of earthly rest,
From toil secure and trouble free;
Hail, quiet spirit, bringing peace
And joy to me.

2 A holy stillness, breathing calm
And peace on all the world around,
Uplifts my soul, O God, to thee,
Where rest is found.

3 No sound of jarring strife is heard
As now the weekly labors cease;
No voice, but those that sweetly sing
Sweet songs of peace.

4 Accept, O God, my hymn of praise
That thou this restful day hast given,
Sweet foretaste of that endless day
Of rest in heaven.

My God, is any hour so sweet, From blush of morn to evening star, As that which calls me to thy feet—The hour of prayer!

107

The hour of prayer.

My God, is any hour so sweet,
From blush of morn to evening star,
As that which calls me to thy feet—
The hour of prayer?

2 Then is my strength by thee renewed;
Then are my sins by thee forgiven;
Then dost thou cheer my solitude,
With hopes of heaven.

3 No words can tell what sweet relief
Here for my every want I find:

What strength for warfare, balm for grief,
What peace of mind!

4 Hushed is each doubt, gone every fear,
My spirit seems in heaven to stay;
And ev'n the penitential tear
Is wiped away.

5 Lord, till I reach yon blissful shore,
No privilege so dear shall be
As thus my inmost soul to pour
In prayer to thee.

The evening hour.

THE Sabbath-day has reached its close,
Yet, Saviour, ere I seek repose,
Grant me the peace thy love bestows:
Smile on my evening hour.

2 Weary I come to thee for rest;
Hallow and calm my troubled breast;
Grant me thy Spirit for my guest
Smile on my evening hour.

3 Let not the gospel seed remain
Unfruitful, or be sown in vain;
Let heavenly dews descend like rain:
Smile on my evening hour.

4 O Jesus, Lord enthroned on high,
Thou hearest the contrite spirit's sigh,
Look down on me with pitying eye:
Smile on my evening hour.

5 My only intercessor thou,
Mingle thy fragrant incense now
With every prayer, and every vow:
Smile on my evening hour.

6 And, oh, when time's short course shall end,
And death's dark shades around inpend,
My God, my everlasting Friend,
Smile on my evening hour.

Sabbath Ebr.

SWEET is the light of Sabbath eve,
And soft the sunbeams lingering there;
For these blest hours the world I leave,
Wafted on wings of faith and prayer.

- 2 The time, how lovely and how still!
Peace shines and smiles on all below;
The plain, the stream, the wood, the hill,
All fair with evening's setting glow.
- 3 Season of rest! the tranquil soul
Feels sweet the calm, and melts to love,
And while these sacred moments roll,
Faith sees the smiling heaven above.
- 4 Nor will our days of toil be long;
Our pilgrimage will soon be trod;
And we shall join the ceaseless song,
The endless Sabbath of our God.

James Edmeston.

110

"Gate of Heaven."

HOW SWEET to leave the world awhile,
And seek the presence of our Lord!
Dear Saviour! on thy people smile,
And come, according to thy word.

- 2 From busy scenes we now retreat,
That we may here converse with thee:
Ah, Lord! behold us at thy feet;
Let this the "gate of heaven" be.
- 3 "Chief of ten thousand!" now appear,
That we by faith may see thy face:
Oh, speak, that we thy voice may hear,
And let thy presence fill this place.

Eiber of Best.

COME, Holy Spirit! calm my mind,
And fit me to approach my God;
Remove each vain, each worldly thought,
And lead me to thy blest abode.

- 2 Hast thou imparted to my soul
A living spark of holy fire?
Oh, kindle now the sacred flame;
Make me to burn with pure desire.
- 3 A brighter faith and hope impart,
And let me now my Saviour see;
Oh, soothe and cheer my burdened heart,
And bid my spirit rest in thee.

112

Imbocation.

FAR from my thoughts, vain world, begone!
Let my religious hours alone:
Fain would mine eyes my Saviour see:
I wait a visit, Lord, from thee.

- 2 My heart grows warm with holy fire,
And kindles with a pure desire:
Come, my dear Jesus! from above,
And feed my soul with heavenly love.
- 3 Blest Saviour! what delicious fare,
How sweet thine entertainments are!
Never did angels taste, above,
Redeeming grace and dying love.
- 4 Hail, great Immanuel, all-divine!
In thee thy Father's glories shine:
Thou brightest, sweetest, fairest One
That eyes have seen, or angels known!

GREAT God! to thee my evening song
With humble gratitude I raise;
Oh, let thy mercy tune my tongue,
And fill my heart with lively praise.

2 My days unclouded as they pass,
And every gentle, rolling hour,

And witness to thy love and power.

3 Seal my forgiveness in the blood
Of Jesus; his dear name alone
I plead for pardon, gracious God!
And kind acceptance at thy throne.

"Desire of Nations."

WHEN shades of night around us close,
And weary limbs in sleep repose,
The faithful soul awake may be,
And longing sigh, O Lord, to thee.

2 Thou true Desire of nations, hear;
Thou Word of God, thou Saviour dear;
In pity heed our humble cries,
And bid at length the fallen rise.

3 Oh, come, Redeemer, come and free
Thine own from guilt and misery;
The gates of heaven again unfold,
Which Adam's sin had closed of old.

4 All praise, eternal Son, to thee,
Whose advent doth thy people free;
Whom with the Father we adore
And Holy Ghost for evermore.

Tr. fr. C. Coffin

115

"Bless us this eve!"

O FATHER, who didst all things make,
That heaven and earth might do thy will,
Bless us this eve for Jesus' sake,
And for thy work preserve us still.

2 O Son, who didst redeem mankind,
And set the captive sinner free,
Keep us this eve with peaceful mind,
That we may safe abide with thee.

3 O Holy Ghost, who by thy power
Dost sanctify the church elect,
Seal us this eve, and hour by hour
Our bodies guard, our souls direct.

4 Praise to the Father, and the Son,
O Spirit, equal praise to thee;
All glory be to God alone,
Now, and throughout eternity!

"God is here."

LO, GOD is here!—let us adore!
And own how dreadful is this place!
Let all within us feel his power,
And, silent, bow before his face.

2 Lo, God is here! him day and night
United choirs of angels sing:
To him, enthroned above all height,
Let saints their humble worship bring.

3 Lord God of hosts! oh, may our praise
Thy courts with grateful incense fill!
Still may we stand before thy face,
Still hear and do thy sovereign will.

COME, pure hearts, in sweetest measures
Sing of those who spread the treasures

In the holy Gospels shrined;
Blesséd tidings of salvation,
Peace on earth their proclamation,
Love from God to lost mankind.

2 See the rivers four that gladden
With their streams the better Eden
Planted by our Lord most dear;
Christ the fountain, these the waters;
Drink, O Zion's sons and daughters,
Drink and find salvation here.

3 Oh, that we, thy truth confessing,
And thy holy word possessing,
Jesus, may thy love adore;
Unto thee our voices raising,
Thee with all thy ransomed praising,
Ever and for evermore.

"Deliver us from evil."

FATHER, in high heaven dwelling,
May our evening song be telling
Of thy mercy large and free:
Through the day thy love hath fed us,
Through the day thy care hath led us,
With divinest charity.

2 This day's sins, oh, pardon, Saviour!
Evil thoughts, perverse behavior,
Envy, pride, and vanity;
From all evil us deliver;
Save us now, and save us ever,
O thou Lamb of Calvary!

3 Whilst the night-dews are distilling,
Holy Ghost, each heart be filling
With thine own serenity;
Softly let our eyes be closing,
Loving souls on thee reposing,
Ever-blesséd Trinity.

George Rawson.

Eberning Song.

UPWARD where the stars are burning,
Silent, silent in their turning,
Round the never changing pole;
Upward where the sky is brightest,
Upward where the blue is lightest,—
Lift I now my longing soul.

2 Far beyond the arch of gladness,
Far beyond these clouds of sadness,
Are the many mansions fair:
Far from pain and sin and folly,
In that palace of the holy—
I would find my mansion there.

3 Where the Lamb on high is seated,
By ten thousand voices greeted:
Lord of lords, and King of kings!
Son of man, they crown, they crown him,
Son of God, they own, they own him,
With his name the palace rings.

4 Blessing, honor, without measure,
Heavenly riches, earthly treasure,
Lay we at his blesséd feet:
Poor the praise that now we render,
Loud shall be our voices yonder,
When before his throne we meet.

Three in One, and One in Three, Ru-ler of the earth and sea, Hear us, while we lift to thee Ho-ly chant and psalm.

120 Evening psalm.

THREE in One, and One in Three,
Ruler of the earth and sea,
Hear us, while we lift to thee
Holy chant and psalm.

2 Light of lights; with morning, shine;
Lift on us thy light divine;
And let charity benign
Breathe on us her balm.

3 Light of lights; when falls the even,
Let it close on sin forgiven;
Fold us in the peace of heaven,
Shed a vesper calm.

4 Three in One, and One in Three,
Darkling here we worship thee;
With the saints hereafter we Hope to bear the psalm.

121 Jesus, have mercy.

LORD of mercy and of might,
Of mankind the life and light,
Maker, Teacher, Infinite;
Jesus, hear and save!

2 Strong Creator, Saviour mild,
Humbled to a mortal child,
Captive, beaten, bound, reviled;
Jesus, hear and save!

3 Throned above celestial things,
Borne aloft on angels' wings,
Lord of lords, and King of kings,
Jesus, hear and save!

4 Soon to come to earth again,
Judge of angels and of men,
Hear us now, and hear us then,
Jesus, hear and save!

Jesus, Shepherd of the sheep, Who thy Father's flock dost keep, Safe we wake and safe we sleep. Guard-ed still by thee.

122 "The footsteps of the flock."

JESUS, Shepherd of the sheep,
Who thy Father's flock dost keep,
Safe we wake and safe we sleep,
Guarded still by thee.

2 In thy promise firm we stand,
None can pluck us from thy hand,
Speak—we hear—at thy command,
We will follow thee.

3 By thy blood our souls were bought,
By thy life salvation wrought,

By thy light our feet are taught,
Lord, to follow thee.

4 Father, draw us to thy Son;
We with joy will follow on,
Till the work of grace is done,
And from sin set free—

5 We in robes of glory dressed,
Join the assembly of the blest,
Gathered to eternal rest,
In the fold with thee.

The shadows of the evening hours Fall from the dark'ning sky, Up - on the fragrance of the flowers The dews of eve-ning lie; Be - fore thy throne, O Lord of heav'n!

We kneel at close of day; Look on thy children from on high, And hear us while we pray.

123

Twilight.

THE shadows of the evening hours
Fall from the darkening sky,
Upon the fragrance of the flowers
The dews of evening lie;
Before thy throne, O Lord of heaven!
We kneel at close of day;
Look on thy children from on high,
And hear us while we pray.

2 The sorrows of thy servants, Lord,
Oh, do not thou despise,
But let the incense of our prayers
Before thy mercy rise;
The brightness of the coming night
Upon the darkness rolls;
With hopes of future glory chase
The shadows of our souls.

3 Slowly the rays of daylight fade;
So fade within our heart
The hopes in earthly love and joy,
That one by one depart;
Slowly the bright stars, one by one,
Within the heavens shine:—
Give us, O Lord, fresh hopes in heaven,
And trust in things divine.

4 Let peace, O Lord! thy peace, O God!
Upon our souls descend,
From midnight fears, and perils, thou
Our trembling hearts defend:
Give us a respite from our toil,
Calm and subdue our woes;
Through the long day we suffer, Lord,
Oh, give us now repose!

Adelaide A. Procter.

124

Psalm 134.

SHINE on our souls, eternal God,
With rays of beauty shine!
Oh, let thy favor crown our days,
And all their round be thine!
Did we not raise our hands to thee,
Our hands might toil in vain;
Small joy success itself could give,
If thou thy love restrain.

2 With thee let every week begin,
With thee each day be spent;
For thee each fleeting hour improved,
Since each by thee is lent.
Thus cheer us through this desert road,
Till all our labors cease;
And heaven refresh our weary souls
With everlasting peace.

Dear Refuge of my wea-ry soul, On thee, when sorrows rise, On thee, when waves of trouble roll, My fainting hope relies.

125 Strength, Fortress, Refuge.

DEAR Refuge of my weary soul,
On thee, when sorrows rise,
On thee, when waves of trouble roll,
My fainting hope relies.

- 2 To thee I tell each rising grief,
For thou alone canst heal;
Thy word can bring a sweet relief
For every pain I feel.
- 3 But oh, when gloomy doubts prevail,
I fear to call thee mine;
The springs of comfort seem to fail,
And all my hopes decline.
- 4 Yet, gracious God, where shall I flee?
Thou art my only trust;
And still my soul would cleave to thee,
Though prostrate in the dust.
- 5 Thy mercy-seat is open still,
Here let my soul retreat,
With humble hope attend thy will,
And wait beneath thy feet.

126 Evening Song to Christ.

TO THEE, O Christ, we ever pray,
And blend our prayer with tears;
Thou pure and holy One, alway
Protect our night of years!

- 2 Our hearts shall be at rest in thee,
In sleep they dream thy praise;
And to thy glory faithfully
They hail the coming days.
- 3 Give us a life that cannot fail!
Refresh our spirits then;
Let blackest night before thee pale;
And bring thy light to men.
- 4 Our vows in song we pay thee still,
And, at this evening hour,
May all that we have purposed ill
Be right through perfect power.

127 "Humble Thoughts."

OUR Father, hear our longing prayer,
And help this prayer to flow,
That humble thoughts, which are thy
May live in us and grow. [care,

- 2 For lowly hearts shall understand
The peace, the calm delight
Of dwelling in thy heavenly land,
A pleasure in thy sight.
- 3 Give us humility, that so
Thy reign may come within,
And when thy children homeward go,
We too may enter in.
- 4 Hear us, our Saviour! ours thou art,
Though we are not like thee;
Give us thy Spirit in our heart,
Large, lowly, trusting, free.

George MacDonald.

128 Looking awag.

HAIL, tranquil hour of closing day!
Begone, disturbing care;
And look, my soul, from earth, away
To him who heareth prayer.

- 2 How sweet the tear of penitence
Before his throne of grace!
While to the contrite spirit's sense
He shows his smiling face.
- 3 How sweet, through long-remembered
His mercies to recall, [years,
And pressed with wants and grief and
To trust his love for all! [fears,
- 4 How sweet to look in thoughtful hope
Beyond this fading sky,
And hear him call his children up
To his fair home on high!
- 5 Calmly the day forsakes our heaven
To dawn beyond the west;
So let my soul in life's last even
Retire to glorious rest.

Evening of the Day.

ABIDE with me : fast falls the eventide ;
The darkness deepens ; Lord, with me a - bide !

When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, oh, abide with me !

2 Not a brief glance I beg, a passing word,
But as thou dwell'st with thy disciples, Lord,
Familiar, condescending, patient, free,
Come, not to sojourn, but abide with me.

3 I need thy presence every passing hour :
What but thy grace can foil the tempter's
power ?

Who like thyself my guide and stay can be ?
Thro' cloud and sunshine, oh, abide with me !

Henry F. Lyte.

130

Evening of Life.

SWIFT to its close ebbs out life's little day ;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away :
Change and decay in all around I see ;
O thou, who changest not, abide with me !

2 Come not in terrors, as the King of kings ;
But kind and good, with healing in thy wings,

Tears for all woes, a heart for every plea ;
Come, Friend of sinners, and abide with me !

3 I fear no foe, with thee at hand to bless,
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness :
Where is Death's sting ? where, Grave, thy victory ?

I triumph still, if thou abide with me.

4 Hold thou thy cross before my closing eyes ;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies ;
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain
shadows flee :

In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me !

Henry F. Lyte.

"A Word of Blessing."

O LORD, who by thy presence hast made light
The heat and burden of the toilsome day,
Be with us also in the silent night,
Be with us when the daylight fades away.

2 Oh, speak a word of blessing, gracious
Lord !

Thy blessing is endued with soothing
power ;

On human hearts worn out with toil, thy word

Falls soft and gentle as the evening shower.

3 Come then, O Lord, and deign to be our guest,

After the day's confusion, toil, and din ;
Oh, come to bring us peace, and joy, and rest,
To give salvation, and to pardon sin !

4 Bind up the wounds, assuage the aching smart

Left in each bosom from the day just past,

And let us on a Father's loving heart
Forget our griefs, and find sweet rest at last.

132 Twilight Prayer.

THE hours of day are over,
The evening calls us home;
Once more to thee, O Father,
With thankful hearts we come;
For all thy countless blessings
We praise thy holy name,
And own thy love unchanging,
Through days and years the same.

2 For this, O Lord, we bless thee,
For this, we thank thee most,
The cleansing of the sinful,
The saving of the lost;

The Teacher ever present,
The Friend for ever nigh,
The home prepared by Jesus
For us above the sky.

3 Lord, gather all thy children
To meet thee there at last,
When earthly tasks are ended,
And earthly days are past;
With all our dear ones round us
In that eternal home,
Where death no more shall part us,
And night shall never come!

LORD of mercy and of might,
God and Father of us all,
Lord of day, and Lord of night,
Listen to our solemn call:
Listen, whilst to thee we raise
Songs of prayer and songs of praise.

2 Shed within our hearts, oh, shed
Thine own Spirit's living flame—
Love for all whom thou hast made,

Love for all who love thy name:
Young and old together bless.
Clothe our souls with righteousness.

3 Father, give to us thy peace:
May our life on earth be blest;
When our trials here shall cease,
May we enter into rest,—
Rest within our home above,
Thee to praise, and thee to love.

JESUS, where'er thy people meet,
There they behold thy mercy-seat;
Where'er they seek thee thou art found,
And every place is hallowed ground.

2 For thou, within no walls confined,
Inhabitest the humble mind,
Such ever bring thee where they come,
And going, take thee to their home.

3 Great Shepherd of thy chosen few,
Thy former mercies here renew;

Here to our waiting hearts proclaim
The sweetness of thy saving name.

4 Here may we prove the power of prayer,
To strengthen faith and sweeten care,
To teach our faint desires to rise,
And bring all heaven before our eyes.

Nor short thine arm, nor deaf thine ear:
Oh, rend the heavens, come quickly down,
And make a thousand hearts thine own.

The mercy-seat.

FROM every stormy wind that blows,
From every swelling tide of woes,
There is a calm, a sure retreat;
'T is found beneath the mercy-seat.

2 There is a place where Jesus sheds
The oil of gladness on our heads,—
A place than all besides more sweet;
It is the blood-bought mercy-seat.

3 There is a scene where spirits blend,
Where friend holds fellowship with friend;
Though sundered far, by faith they meet,
Around one common mercy-seat.

4 There, there, on eagle wings we soar,
And sense and sin molest no more,
And heaven comes down our souls to greet,
And glory crowns the mercy-seat!

Lord, I would seize the golden hour:
I pray to be released from guilt,

2 More of thy presence, Lord, impart;
More of thine image let me bear:
Erect thy throne within my heart,
And reign without a rival there.

3 Give me to read my pardon sealed,
And from thy joy to draw my strength:
Oh! be thy boundless love revealed

Retirement.

I LOVE to steal awhile away
From every cumbering care,
And spend the hours of setting day
In humble, grateful prayer.

2 I love in solitude to shed
The penitential tear,
And all his promises to plead,
Where none but God can hear.

3 I love to think on mercies past,
And future good implore,

And all my cares and sorrows cast
On him whom I adore.

4 I love by faith to take a view
Of brightest scenes in heaven;
The prospect doth my strength renew,
While here by tempests driven.

May its departing ray
Be calm at this impressive hour,
And lead to endless day.

Prayer has power.

THERE is an eye that never sleeps
Beneath the wing of night;
There is an ear that never shuts
When sink the beams of light.

2 There is an arm that never tires,
When human strength gives way;
There is a love that never fails,
When earthly loves decay.

3 That eye is fixed on seraph throngs;
That arm upholds the sky;
That ear is filled with angel songs;
That love is throned on high.

4 But there's a power which man can wield
When mortal aid is vain,
That eye, that arm, that love to reach,
That listening ear to gain.

5 That power is prayer, which soars on high,
Through Jesus, to the throne;
And moves the hand which moves the world,
To bring salvation down!

"God pities."

OUR heavenly Father calls,
And Christ invites us near;
With both, our friendship shall be sweet,
And our communion dear.

- 2 God pities all our griefs:
He pardons every day;
Almighty to protect our souls,
And wise to guide our way.
- 3 How large his bounties are!
What various stores of good,
Diffused from our Redeemer's hand,
And purchased with his blood!
- 4 Jesus, our living Head,
We bless thy faithful care;
Our Advocate before the throne,
And our Forerunner there.
- 5 Here fix, my roving heart!
Here wait, my warmest love!
Till the communion be complete,
In nobler scenes above.

"The throne of grace."

- BEHOLD the throne of grace!
The promise calls me near;
There Jesus shows a smiling face,
And waits to answer prayer.
- 2 That rich atoning blood,
Which sprinkled round I see,
Provides for those who come to God
An all-prevailing plea.
 - 3 My soul! ask what thou wilt;
Thou canst not be too bold:
Since his own blood for thee he spilt,
What else can he withhold?
 - 4 Thine image, Lord, bestow,
Thy presence and thy love;
I ask to serve thee here below,
And reign with thee above.
 - 5 Teach me to live by faith;
Conform my will to thine:
Let me victorious be in death,
And then in glory shine.

He sees, he hears, and, from on high,
Will make our cause his care.

 While, by thy word, we live;
 The guilt of our iniquity
 Forgive, as we forgive.

 From Satan's wiles defend;
 Deliver in the evil hour,

LORD! I cannot let thee go,
Till a blessing thou bestow;
Do not turn away thy face,

2 Once a sinner, in despair,
Sought thy mercy-seat by prayer;
Mercy heard and set him free—
Lord! that mercy came to me.

3 Many days have passed since then,
Many changes I have seen;

Yet have been upheld till now;
Who could hold me up but thou?

4 Thou hast helped in every need—
This emboldens me to plead;
After so much mercy past,
Canst thou let me sink at last?

5 No—I must maintain my hold;

I can no denial take,
Since I plead for Jesus' sake.

SWEET the time, exceeding sweet!
 When the saints together meet,
 When the Saviour is the theme,
 When they joy to sing of him.

2 Sing we then eternal love;
 Such as did the Father move:
 He beheld the world undone,
 Loved the world, and gave his Son.

3 Sing the Son's amazing love;
 How he left the realms above,

Took our nature and our place,
 Lived and died to save our race.

4 Sing we, too, the Spirit's love;
 With our stubborn hearts he strove,
 Filled our minds with grief and fear,
 Brought the precious Saviour near.

 Where the Saviour's still the theme,
 Where they see and sing of him.

The earth and heavens are full of thee,
Thy light, thy love, thy majesty.

2 Loud hallelujahs to thy name
Angels and seraphim proclaim;
Eternal praise to thee is given
By all the powers and thrones in heaven.

3 The apostles join the glorious throng,
The prophets aid to swell the song,

The noble and triumphant host
Of martyrs make of thee their boast.

4 The holy church in every place
Throughout the world exalts thy praise;
Both heaven and earth do worship thee,
Thou Father of eternity!

5 From day to day, O Lord, do we
Highly exalt and honor thee;
Thy name we worship and adore,
World without end for evermore.

"The voice of praise."

LIFT up to God the voice of praise,
Whose breath our souls inspired;
Loud and more loud the anthem raise,
With grateful ardor fired.

2 Lift up to God the voice of praise,
Whose goodness, passing thought,
Loads every minute, as it flies,
With benefits unsought.

3 Lift up to God the voice of praise,
From whom salvation flows,
Who sent his Son our souls to save
From everlasting woes.

4 Lift up to God the voice of praise,
For hope's transporting ray,
Which lights, through darkest shades of death,
To realms of endless day.

"Salvation to God."

YE servants of God, your Master proclaim,
And publish abroad his wonderful name;
The name all-victorious of Jesus extol;
His kingdom is glorious, he rules over all.

2 God ruleth on high, almighty to save;
And still he is nigh—his presence we have;
The great congregation his triumph shall sing,
Ascribing salvation to Jesus our King.

3 Salvation to God, who sits on the throne,
Let all cry aloud and honor the Son;
The praises of Jesus the angels proclaim,
Fall down on their faces and worship the Lamb.

4 Then let us adore and give him his right,
All glory, and power, and wisdom and might;
All honor and blessing, with angels above,
And thanks never ceasing, and infinite love.

OH, worship the King, all-glorious above,
And gratefully sing his wonderful love;
Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of days, [praise.

Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with
2 Oh, tell of his might, and sing of his grace,
Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space;
His chariots of wrath the deep thunder-
clouds form,
And dark is his path on the wings of the storm.

3 Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite?
It breathes in the air, it shines in the light,
It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain,

And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.
4 Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
In thee do we trust, nor find thee to fail;
Thy mercies how tender! how firm to the end!

Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer and Friend.

Psalm 147.

WITH songs and honors sounding loud,
Address the Lord on high;
Over the heavens he spreads his cloud,
And waters veil the sky.
He sends his showers of blessings down,
To cheer the plains below;
He makes the grass the mountains crown,
And corn in valleys grow.

2 His steady counsels change the face
Of the declining year;
He bids the sun cut short his race,
And wintry days appear.
His hoary frost, his fleecy snow,
Descend and clothe the ground;
The liquid streams forbear to flow,
In icy fetters bound.

3 He sends his word and melts the snow,
The fields no longer mourn;
He calls the warmer gales to blow,
And bids the spring return.
The changing wind, the flying cloud,
Obey his mighty word:
With songs and honors sounding loud
Praise ye the sovereign Lord.

Isaac Watts.

Psalm 139.

JEHOVAH God! thy gracious power
On every hand we see;
Oh, may the blessings of each hour
Lead all our thoughts to thee.

Thy power is in the ocean deeps,
And reaches to the skies;
Thine eye of mercy never sleeps,
Thy goodness never dies.

2 From morn till noon, till latest eve,
The hand of God we see;
And all the blessings we receive,
Ceaseless proceed from thee.
In all the varying scenes of time,
On thee our hopes depend;
In every age, in every clime,
Our Father and our Friend.

Alpha and Omega.

TO HIM that loved the souls of men,
And washed us in his blood,
To royal honors raised our head,
And made us priests to God,—
To him let every tongue be praise,
And every heart be love,
All grateful honors paid on earth,
And nobler songs above.

2 Behold, on flying clouds he comes!
His saints shall bless the day;
While they that pierced him sadly mourn
In anguish and dismay.
Thou art the First, and thou the Last;
Time centers all in thee,
The Almighty God, who was, and is,
And evermore shall be.

PRAISE to thee, thou great Creator!
Praise to thee from every tongue;
Join, my soul, with every creature,
Join the universal song.

2 Father! source of all compassion!
Pure, unbounded grace is thine:
Hail the God of our salvation,
Praise him for his love divine!

3 For ten thousand blessings given,
For the hope of future joy,

Sound his praise through earth and heaven,
Sound Jehovah's praise on high!

4 Praise to God, the great Creator,
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost;
Praise him, every living creature,
Earth and heaven's united host.

5 Joyfully on earth adore him,
Till in heaven our song we raise;
Then enraptured fall before him,
Lost in wonder, love, and praise!

Let hearts and instruments unite
To praise our heavenly King.

2 This is his sacred house;
And this his festal day,
When he accepts the humblest vows
That we sincerely pay.

3 The Sabbath to our sires
In mercy first was given;
The church her Sabbath still requires
To speed her on to heaven.

"Bless the Lord."

STAND up, and bless the Lord,
Ye people of his choice;
Stand up, and bless the Lord your God,
With heart and soul and voice.

2 Though high above all praise,
Above all blessing high,
Who would not fear his holy name,
And laud, and magnify?

3 Oh, for the living flame
From his own altar brought,
To touch our lips, our souls inspire,
And wing to heaven our thought!

4 God is our strength and song,
And his salvation ours:
Then be his love in Christ proclaimed,
With all our ransomed powers.

5 Stand up, and bless the Lord;
The Lord your God adore;
Stand up, and bless his glorious name,
Henceforth, for evermore.

Singing to God.

SONGS of praise the angels sang,
 Heaven with hallelujahs rang,
 When Jehovah's work begun,
 When he spake, and it was done.
 Songs of praise awoke the morn,
 When the Prince of Peace was born;
 Songs of praise arose, when he
 Captive led captivity.

2 Heaven and earth must pass away—
 Songs of praise shall crown that day;
 God will make new heavens and earth—
 Songs of praise shall hail their birth.
 And shall man alone be dumb,
 Till that glorious kingdom come?
 No; the Church delights to raise
 Psalms and hymns and songs of praise.

3 Saints below, with heart and voice,
 Still in songs of praise rejoice;
 Learning here, by faith and love,
 Songs of praise to sing above.
 Borne upon their latest breath
 Songs of praise shall conquer death;
 Then, amid eternal joy,
 Songs of praise their powers employ.

James Montgomery.

Sweet the day of sacred rest,
 When devotion fills the breast,
 When we dwell within thy house,
 Hear thy word, and pay our vows.

2 From thy works our joys arise,
 O thou only good and wise!
 Who thy wonders can declare?
 How profound thy counsels are!
 Warm our hearts with sacred fire;
 Grateful fervors still inspire;
 All our powers, with all their might,
 Ever in thy praise unite.

"Earth and Heaven."

FROM the vast and veiled throng,
 Round the Father's heavenly throne,
 Swells the everlasting song:
 Glory be to God alone!
 Round Immanuel's cross of pain
 Mortal men, in tribes unknown,
 Sing to him who once was slain:
 Glory be to God alone!

2 Blend, ye raptured songs, in one,
 Men redeemed, your Father own;
 Angels, worship ye the Son:
 Glory be to God alone!
 Spirit, 't is within thy light,
 Streaming far from cross and throne,
 Earth and heaven their songs unite:
 Glory be to God alone!

All the holy angels cry,
Hail, thrice-holy, God most high!
Lord of all the heavenly powers,
Be the same loud anthem ours.

2 Glorified apostles raise,
Night and day, continual praise;
Hast thou not a mission too
For thy children here to do?
With the prophet's goodly line
We in mystic bond combine;
For thou hast to babes revealed
Things that to the wise were sealed.

3 Martyrs, in a noble host,
Of thy cross are heard to boast;
Since so bright the crown they wear,
We with them thy cross would bear.

"En Excelsis."

GLORY be to God on high,—
God, whose glory fills the sky;
Peace on earth to man forgiven,—
Man, the well-beloved of heaven.
Sovereign Father, Heavenly King!
Thee we now presume to sing;
Glad thine attributes confess,
Glorious all, and numberless.

2 Hail, by all thy works adored!
Hail, the everlasting Lord!
Thee with thankful hearts we prove,—
God of power, and God of love!
Christ our Lord and God we own,—
Christ the Father's only Son;
Lamb of God, for sinners slain,
Saviour of offending man.

3 Jesus! in thy name we pray,
Take, oh, take our sins away!
Powerful Advocate with God!
Justify us by thy blood.
Hear, for thou, O Christ! alone,
Art with thy great Father one;
One the Holy Ghost with thee;
One supreme eternal Three.

OH, what the joy and the glory must be,
Those endless Sabbaths the blessed ones see,
Crowns for the valiant, to weary ones rest;
God shall be all, and in all ever blest!

2 Truly Jerusalem name we that shore,
Vision of peace, that brings joy evermore!
Wish and fulfilment can severed be ne'er,
Nor the thing prayed for come short of the prayer.

3 There, where no troubles distraction can

We the sweet anthems of Zion shall sing,
While for thy grace, Lord, their voices of praise,
Thy blessed people eternally raise.

4 There dawns no Sabbath, no Sabbath is

Those Sabbath-keepers have one evermore;
One and unending is that triumph-song
Which to the angels and us shall belong.

5 Low before him with our praises we fall,

Of whom, the Father; and in whom, the Son;
Through whom, the Spirit, with them ever
one.

Glory to the Lamb.

BLESSING, and honor, and glory, and
power,
Wisdom, and riches, and strength, evermore,

Give ye to him who our battle hath won,
Whose are the kingdom, the crown, and the throne.

2 Dwelleth the light of the glory with him,
Light of a glory that cannot grow dim,
Light in its silence and beauty and calm,
Light in its gladness and brightness and balm.

3 Ever ascendeth the song and the joy,
Ever descendeth the love from on high,
Blessing, and honor, and glory, and praise,
This is the theme of the hymns that we raise.

4 Life of all life, and true Light of all
light,
Star of the dawning, unchangingly bright,
Sun of the Salem whose lamp is the Lamb,
Theme of the ever-new, ever-glad psalm!

5 Give we the glory and praise to the Lamb,
Take we the robe and the harp and the palm,
Sing we the song of the Lamb that was slain,
Dying in weakness, but rising to reign.

HONOR and glory, thanksgiving and praise,
Maker of all things, to thee we upraise;
God the Almighty, the Father, the Lord;
God by the angels obeyed and adored.

2 Thou art the Father of heaven and earth;
Worlds uncreated to thee owe their birth;
All the creation, thy voice when it heard,
Started to light and to life at thy word.

Span with the rainbow the firmament's arch;
Stars yet unknown, and whose light is to come,
Find in creation their place and a home.

4 Earth with the mountain, the river, the plain,
Sky with the dew-drop, the wind, and the rain,
Beast of the forest, wild bird of the air,
All are thy creatures, and all are thy care.

5 Ocean the restless, and waters that swell,
Lightnings that flash over flood, over fell,
Own thee the Master Almighty, and call
Thee the Creator, the Father of all.

6 Yea, thou art Father of all, and thy love
Pity for man that is fallen doth move;
Sharing our nature, though sinless, thy Son
Came to redeem us, by Satan undone.

7 God in three Persons! give ear to our

Guide us in life, and protect to the last;
And, at thine advent, Lord, pardon the past.

THE God of Abraham praise,
 Who reigns enthroned above,
 Ancient of everlasting days,
 And God of love!
 Jehovah! great I AM!
 By earth and heaven confessed;
 I bow and bless the sacred name,
 For ever blest!

2 The God of Abraham praise!
 At whose supreme command
 From earth I rise, and seek the joys
 At his right hand:

I all on earth forsake,
 Its wisdom, fame, and power,
 And him my only portion make,
 My shield and tower.

2 The God of Abraham praise!
 Whose all-sufficient grace
 Shall guide me all my happy days
 In all my ways:
 He calls a worm his friend!
 He calls himself my God!
 And he shall save me to the end
 Through Jesus' blood!

Now, when the terrors of the dark are

Awoke bright rays across the dim earth stealing,

And bade the eve and morn complete

Thy light and truth, and guide us on-

Still let thy mercy, as of old, be near us,
And lead us safely to thy holy hill.

4 So, when that morn of endless light is waking,

And shades of evil from its splendors flee,
Safe may we rise, this earth's dark vale forsaking,

Through all the long bright day to dwell

Whose name by men and angels is confest.

My God, how endless is thy love!
 Thy gifts are every evening new;

193 Evening.

THUS far the Lord has led me on;
 Thus far his power prolongs my days;
 And every evening shall make known
 Some fresh memorial of his grace.

2 Much of my time has run to waste,
 And I, perhaps, am near my home,
 But he forgives my follies past,
 And gives me strength for days to come.

3 I lay my body down to sleep;
 Peace is the pillow for my head;
 While well-appointed angels keep
 Their watchful stations round my bed.

4 Thus when the night of death shall come,
 My flesh shall rest beneath the ground,
 And wait thy voice to break my tomb,
 With sweet salvation in the sound.

DISMISS us with thy blessing, Lord!
 Help us to feed upon thy word;

 Give every burdened soul release,
 And bid us all depart in peace.

This holy seed remove,
But give it root in every heart
To bring forth fruits of love.

3 Let not the world's deceitful cares
The rising plant destroy,
But let it yield, a hundred-fold,
The fruits of peace and joy.

4 Nor let thy word, so kindly sent
To raise us to thy throne,
Return to thee, and sadly tell
That we reject thy Son.

196 "Keep us."

ANOTHER day is past and gone,
O God, we bow to thee;
Again, as nightly shades come on,
To thy defence we flee.

The good undone, to-day;
And keep us from the Wicked One,
Now, Father, and for aye.

3 When shall that day of gladness come,
Ne'er sinking in the west;
That country and that blessed home,
Where none shall break our rest;—

4 Where we, O God, preserved beneath
The shelter of thy wing,
For evermore thy praise shall breathe,
And of thy mercy sing?

Jesus, bless us ere we part!
2 Comfort those in pain or sorrow,
Watch each sleeping child of thine;
Let us all arise to-morrow,

Strengthened by thy grace divine;
Set thy seal on every heart,
Jesus, bless us ere we part!

3 Pardon thou each deed unholy;
Lord, forgive each sinful thought;
Make us contrite, pure, and lowly,
By thy great example taught:
Set thy seal on every heart,
Jesus, bless us ere we part!

SAVIOUR, again to thy dear name we raise
With one accord our parting hymn of praise;
We rise to bless thee ere our worship cease,
And now, departing, wait thy word of peace.

2 Grant us thy peace upon our homeward
way;
With thee began, with thee shall end the day;
Guard thou the lips from sin, the hearts
from shame,
That in this house have called upon thy name.

3 Grant us thy peace, Lord, through the coming night;
Turn thou for us its darkness into light;
From harm and danger keep thy children
free,
For dark and light are both alike to thee.

4 Grant us thy peace throughout our earth-

Our balm in sorrow, and our stay in strife;
Then, when thy voice shall bid our conflict
cease,
Call us, O Lord, to thine eternal peace.

210 Evening.

THE swift declining day,
How fast its moments fly!
While evening's broad and gloomy shade
Gains on the western sky.

2 Ye mortals, mark its pace,
And use the hours of light;
And know, its Maker can command
At once eternal night.

3 Give glory to the Lord,
Who rules the whirling sphere;
Submissive at his footstool bow,
And seek salvation there.

4 Then shall new luster break
Through death's impending gloom,
And lead you to unchanging light,
In your celestial home.

211 Home Hymn.

THE day is past and gone,
The evening shades appear;
Oh, may we all remember well
The night of death draws near!

2 We lay our garments by,
Upon our beds to rest;
So death will soon disrobe us all
Of what we here possessed.

3 Lord, keep us safe this night,
Secure from all our fears;

May angels guard us while we sleep,
Till morning light appears.

4 And when we early rise,
And view the unwearied sun,
May we set out to win the prize,
And after glory run.

5 And when our days are past,
And we from time remove,
Oh, may we in thy bosom rest,
The bosom of thy love!

Bid us now depart in peace;
Still on heavenly manna feeding,
Let our faith and love increase.

2 Fill each breast with consolation;
Up to thee our hearts we raise;
When we reach our blissful station,
Then we'll give thee nobler praise.

"Keep us, Lord."

God, that madest earth and heaven,
Darkness and light;

Slumber sweet thy mercy send us,
Holy dreams and hopes attend us,

Do not thou our God forsake us,
But to reign in glory take us

BREAK thou the bread of life,

Beyond the sacred page
I seek thee, Lord;
My spirit pants for thee,

BOOK of grace, and book of glory!
 Gift of God to age and youth,
 Wondrous is thy sacred story,
 Bright, bright with truth.

2 Book of love! in accents tender
 Speaking unto such as we;
 May it lead us, Lord, to render
 All, all to thee.

3 Book of hope! the spirit, sighing,
 Sweetest comfort finds in thee,
 As it hears the Saviour crying,
 "Come, come to me!"

4 Book of life, when we, reposing,
 Bid farewell to friends we love,
 Give us, for the life then closing,
 Life, life above.

241 Psalm 19.

THE heavens declare thy glory, Lord!
 In every star thy wisdom shines;
 But, when our eyes beheld thy word,
 We read thy name in fairer lines.

2 The rolling sun, the changing light,
 And nights and days thy power confess;
 But the blest volume thou hast writ
 Reveals thy justice and thy grace.

3 Sun, moon, and stars convey thy praise
 Round the whole earth, and never stand;
 So, when thy truth began its race,
 It touched and glanced on every land.

4 Nor shall thy spreading gospel rest,
 Till through the world thy truth has run,
 Till Christ has all the nations blessed,
 That see the light, or feel the sun.

Isaac Watts.

242 Psalm 19.

GREAT Sun of Righteousness, arise!
 Oh, bless the world with heavenly light!
 Thy gospel makes the simple wise:
 Thy laws are pure, thy judgments right.

2 Thy noblest wonders here we view,
 In souls renewed and sins forgiven:—
 Lord, cleanse my sins, my soul renew,
 And make thy word my guide to heaven

Isaac Watts.

243 Psalm 19.

ALMIGHTY Lord, the sun shall fail,
 The moon forget her nightly tale,
 And deepest silence hush on high,
 The radiant chorus of the sky;—

 Thy word shall shine in cloudless day,
 When heaven and earth have passed away.

GOD, in the gospel of his Son,
Makes his eternal counsels known:
Where love in all its glory shines,
And truth is drawn in fairest lines.

2 Here sinners, of an humble frame,
May taste his grace, and learn his name;
May read, in characters of blood,
The wisdom, power, and grace of God.

3 Here faith reveals to mortal eyes
A brighter world beyond the skies;
Here shines the light which guides our way
From earth to realms of endless day.

Its truth with meekness to receive,
And by its holy precepts live.

UPON the Gospel's sacred page
The gathered beams of ages shine;
And, as it hastens, every age
But makes its brightness more divine.

2 On mightier wing, in loftier flight,
From year to year does knowledge soar;
And, as it soars, the Gospel light
Becomes effulgent more and more.

3 More glorious, still, as centuries roll,
New regions blest, new powers unfurled,
Expanding with the expanding soul,
Its radiance shall o'erflow the world—

Pours out its floods of light and joy,
And sweeps the lingering mists away.

Psalm 119.

THE Spirit breathes upon the word,
And brings the truth to sight;
Precepts and promises afford
A sanctifying light.

- 2 A glory gilds the sacred page,
Majestic, like the sun;
It gives a light to every age;—
It gives, but borrows none.
- 3 The hand, that gave it, still supplies
The gracious light and heat;
Its truths upon the nations rise,—
They rise, but never set.
- 4 Let everlasting thanks be thine,
For such a bright display,
As makes a world of darkness shine
With beams of heavenly day.
- 5 My soul rejoices to pursue
The steps of him I love,
Till glory breaks upon my view,
In brighter worlds above.

William Cowper.

Psalm 119.

HOW SHALL the young secure their hearts,
And guard their lives from sin?
Thy word the choicest rules imparts
To keep the conscience clean.

- 2 When once it enters to the mind,
It spreads such light abroad;
The meanest souls instruction find,
And raise their thoughts to God.
- 3 'T is like the sun, a heavenly light,
That guides us all the day;
And, through the dangers of the night,
A lamp to lead our way.
- 4 Thy precepts make me truly wise;
I hate the sinner's road;
I hate my own vain thoughts that rise,
But love thy law, my God!
- 5 Thy word is everlasting truth;
How pure is every page!
That holy book shall guide our youth,
And well support our age.

Of life, shall guide our way,

3 Oh, make thy Church, dear Saviour,
A lamp of burnished gold,

253 Psalm 19.

THE heavens declare thy glory,
The firmament thy power;
Day unto day the story
Repeats from hour to hour:
Night unto night replying,
Proclaims in every land,
O Lord, with voice undying
The wonders of thy hand.

2 How perfect, just, and holy
The precepts thou hast given;
Still making wise the lowly,
They lift the thoughts to heaven:
How pure, how soul-restoring,
Thy gospel's heavenly ray,
A brighter radiance pouring
Than noon of brightest day!

3 All heaven on high rejoices
To do its Maker's will;
The stars with solemn voices
Resound thy praises still:
So let my whole behavior,
Thoughts, words, and actions be,
O Lord, my strength, my Saviour,
One ceaseless song to thee.

254 Everlasting.—Ps. 90.

O God, the Rock of Ages,
Who evermore hast been,
What time the tempest rages,
Our dwelling-place serene:
Before thy first creations,
O Lord, the same as now,
To endless generations,
The Everlasting thou!

2 Our years are like the shadows
On sunny hills that lie,
Or grasses in the meadows
That blossom but to die:
A sleep, a dream, a story,
By strangers quickly told,
An unremaining glory
Of things that soon are old.

3 O thou who canst not slumber,
Whose light grows never pale,
Teach us aright to number
Our years before they fail!
On us thy mercy lighten,
On us thy goodness rest,
And let thy Spirit brighten
The hearts thyself hast blessed!

2 Above me and beside me,
My God is ever near,

Though death itself assail me,
I'm ever safe with God.

WITH deepest reverence at thy throne,
Jehovah, peerless and unknown!
Our feeble spirits strive, in vain,

Nor men, nor angels can explore

259

Long-suffering.

GOD of my life, to thee belong
The grateful heart, the joyful song;
Touched by thy love, each tuneful chord
Resounds the goodness of the Lord.

2 Yet why, dear Lord, this tender care?
Why doth thy hand so kindly rear
A useless cumberer of the ground,
On which so little fruit is found?

3 Still let the barren fig-tree stand
Upheld and fostered by thy hand;
And let its fruit and verdure be
A grateful tribute, Lord, to thee.

Elizabeth Scott.

Fasting.

WAIT, O my soul! thy Maker's will;
Tumultuous passions, all be still!
Nor let a murmuring thought arise;
His ways are just, his counsels wise.

2 He in the thickest darkness dwells,
Performs his work, the cause conceals;
But, though his methods are unknown,
Judgment and truth support his throne.

3 In heaven, and earth, and air, and seas,
He executes his firm decrees;
And by his saints it stands confessed,
That what he does is ever best.

4 Wait, then, my soul! submissive wait,
Prostrate before his awful seat;
And, 'mid the terrors of his rod,
Trust in a wise and gracious God.

"Thou art near"

- O LOVE Divine! that stooped to share
Our sharpest pang, our bitterest tear,
On thee we cast each earth-borne care,
We smile at pain, while thou art near.
- 2 Though long the weary way we tread,
And sorrow crown each lingering year,
No path we shun, no darkness dread,
Our hearts still whispering, thou art near.
- 3 When drooping pleasure turns to grief,
And trembling faith is changed to fear,
The murmuring wind, the quivering leaf,
Shall softly tell us thou art near.
- 4 On thee we fling our burdening woe,
O Love Divine, for ever dear;
Content to suffer while we know,
Living or dying, thou art near!

The cross, the cross,—its hallowed light
Shall drive from earth her cheerless night.

Our hearts in grateful anthems rise;
And to thy service shall be given
The rest of life, the whole of heaven.

- 2 Let every star withhold its ray;
Clouds hide the earth and sky from sight;
Fearless I still pursue my way
Toward thee, my everlasting light.
- 3 Thou art the only source of day,
Forgetting thee alone is night;
All things for which we hope or pray
Flow from thine everlasting light
- 4 Still nearer thee my soul would rise,
Thus she attains her highest flight.
And, as the eagle sunward flies,
Seeks thee, her everlasting light.

LORD! thou hast searched and seen me thro';
Thine eye commands, with piercing view,
My rising, and my resting hours,
My heart and flesh, with all their powers.

2 My thoughts, before they are my own,
Are to my God distinctly known;
He knows the words I mean to speak,
Ere from my opening lips they break.

3 Within thy circling power I stand;
On every side I find thy hand;
Awake, asleep, at home, abroad,
I am surrounded still with God.

4 Amazing knowledge, vast and great!
What large extent! what lofty height!

My soul, with all the powers I boast
Is in the boundless prospect lost.

And grace erects our ruined frame
A fairer temple to thy name.

3 Oh, give to every human heart
To taste, and feel how good thou art;
With grateful love and reverent fear,
To know how blest thy children are.

Philip Doddridge.

Psalm 29.

GIVE to the Lord, ye sons of fame,
Give to the Lord renown and power;
Ascribe due honors to his name,
And his eternal might adore.

2 The Lord proclaims his power aloud,
O'er all the ocean and the land;
His voice divides the watery cloud,
And lightnings blaze at his command.

3 The Lord sits Sovereign on the flood;
The Thunderer reigns for ever King;
But makes his church his blest abode,
Where we his awful glories sing.

4 In gentler language, there the Lord
The counsels of his grace imparts;
Amid the raging storm, his word
Speaks peace and courage to our hearts.

En Natur.—Ps. 19.

THE spacious firmament on high,
With all the blue ethereal sky,
And spangled heavens, a shining frame,
Their great Original proclaim:
The unwearied sun, from day to day,
Does his Creator's power display;
And publishes to every land
The work of an almighty hand.

2 Soon as the evening shades prevail,
The moon takes up the wondrous tale;
And nightly, to the listening earth,
Repeats the story of her birth;
While all the stars that round her burn,
And all the planets in their turn,
Confirm the tidings as they roll,
And spread the truth from pole to pole.

3 What though in solemn silence, all
Move round the dark terrestrial ball,—
What though no real voice nor sound
Amid their radiant orbs be found,—
In reason's ear they all rejoice,
And utter forth a glorious voice,
For ever singing as they shine,—
"The hand that made us is divine."

Joseph Addison.

273

En the Seasons.

ETERNAL Source of every joy,
Well may thy praise our lips employ,
While in thy temple we appear,
To hail thee, sovereign of the year!
Wide as the wheels of nature roll,
Thy hand supports and guides the whole,
The sun is taught by thee to rise,
And darkness when to veil the skies.

2 The flowery spring at thy command,
Perfumes the air, adorns the land;
The summer rays with vigor shine,
To raise the corn, to cheer the vine.
Thy hand, in autumn, richly pours,
Through all our coasts redundant stores:
And winters, softened by thy care,
No more the face of horror wear.

4 Seasons and months, and weeks and days,
Demand successive songs of praise;
And be the grateful homage paid,
With morning light and evening shade.
Here in thy house let incense rise,
And circling Sabbaths bless our eyes,
Till to those lofty heights we soar,
Where days and years revolve no more.

LORD of all being; throned afar,
Thy glory flames from sun and star;
Center and soul of every sphere,
Yet to each loving heart how near!

2 Sun of our life, thy quickening ray
Sheds on our path the glow of day;
Star of our hope, thy softened light
Cheers the long watches of the night.

3 Our midnight is thy smile withdrawn;
Our noontide is thy gracious dawn;
Our rainbow arch thy mercy's sign;
All, save the clouds of sin, are thine!

4 Lord of all life, below, above,
Whose light is truth, whose warmth is love,
Before thy ever-blazing throne
We ask no luster of our own.

5 Grant us thy truth to make us free,

Soberriente.

LORD, my weak thought in vain would climb
To search the starry vault profound;
In vain would wing her flight sublime,
To find creation's outmost bound.

2 But weaker yet that thought must prove
To search thy great eternal plan,—
Thy sovereign counsels, born of love,
Long ages ere the world began.

3 When my dim reason would demand
Why that, or this, thou dost ordain,
By some vast deep I seem to stand,
Whose secrets I must ask in vain.

4 When doubts disturb my troubled breast,
And all is dark as night to me,
Here, as on solid rock, I rest;
That so it seemeth good to thee.

5 Be this my joy, that evermore

How blind are we, how mean our praise!

And everlasting Father art,
By all the earth adored.

2 To thee all angels cry aloud;
To thee the powers on high,
Both cherubim and seraphim,
Continually do cry:—

3 O holy, holy, holy Lord,
Whom heavenly hosts obey,

The world is with the glory filled
Of thy majestic sway!

4 The apostles' glorious company,
And prophets crowned with light,
With all the martyrs' noble host,
Thy constant praise recite. -

5 The holy church throughout the world,
O Lord, confesses thee,
That thou the eternal Father art,
Of boundless majesty.

KEEP silence, all created things!
And wait your Maker's nod;
My soul stands trembling, while she sings
The honors of her God.

2 Life, death, and hell, and worlds unknown,
Hang on his firm decree;
He sits on no precarious throne,
Nor borrows leave to be.

3 His providence unfolds the book,
And makes his counsels shine;

Each opening leaf, and every stroke,
Fulfills some deep design.

4 My God! I would not long to see
My fate with curious eyes—
What gloomy lines are writ for me,
Or what bright scenes may rise.

5 In thy fair book of life and grace,
Oh, may I find my name
Recorded in some humble place,
Beneath my Lord, the Lamb.

THE Lord, our God, is full of might,
The winds obey his will;

He speaks,—and, in his heavenly height,
The rolling sun stands still.

2 Rebel, ye waves, and o'er the land
With threatening aspect roar;
The Lord uplifts his awful hand,
And chains you to the shore.

3 Howl, winds of night, your force combine;
Without his high behest,

Ye shall not, in the mountain pine,
Disturb the sparrow's nest.

4 His voice sublime is heard afar,
In distant peals it dies;
He yokes the whirlwind to his car,
And sweeps the howling skies.

5 Ye nations, bend—in reverence bend;
Ye monarchs, wait his nod,
And bid the choral song ascend
To celebrate your God.

Majesty.—Ps. 18.

THE Lord descended from above,
And bowed the heavens most high:
And underneath his feet he cast
The darkness of the sky.

2 On cherub and on cherubim
Full royally he rode;
And on the wings of mighty winds
Came flying all abroad.

3 He sat serene upon the floods,
Their fury to restrain;

And he, as sovereign Lord and King,
For evermore shall reign.

4 The Lord will give his people strength,
Whereby they shall increase;
And he will bless his chosen flock
With everlasting peace.

WHILE thee I seek, protecting Power!
Be my vain wishes stilled;
And may this consecrated hour
With better hopes be filled;
Thy love the power of thought bestowed;
To thee my thoughts would soar:
Thy mercy o'er my life has flowed;
That mercy I adore.

2 In each event of life how clear
Thy ruling hand I see!
Each blessing to my soul more dear
Because conferred by thee.
In every joy that crowns my days,
In every pain I bear,
My heart shall find delight in praise
Or seek relief in prayer.

3 When gladness wings my favored hour,
Thy love my thoughts shall fill;
Resigned, when storms of sorrow lower,
My soul shall meet thy will.

My lifted eye, without a tear,
The gathering storm shall see;
My steadfast heart shall know no fear;
That heart will rest on thee.

WHAT shall I render to my God,
For all his kindness shown?
My feet shall visit thine abode,
My songs address thy throne.

2 Among the saints that fill thine house,
My offering shall be paid;
There shall my zeal perform the vows,
My soul in anguish made.

3 How much is mercy thy delight,
Thou ever blessed God!
How dear thy servants in thy sight!
How precious is their blood!

4 How happy all thy servants are!
How great thy grace to me!
My life, which thou hast made thy care,
Lord, I devote to thee.

When all thy mercies, O my God!

My rising soul surveys,
 Transported with the view, I'm lost
 In wonder, love, and praise.

Unnumbered comforts, to my soul,
 Thy tender care bestowed,

Before my infant heart conceived
 From whom those comforts flowed.

2 When, in the slippery paths of youth,
 With heedless steps, I ran,
 Thine arm, unseen, conveyed me safe,
 And led me up to man.

Ten thousand, thousand precious gifts
 My daily thanks employ;
 Nor is the least a cheerful heart,
 That tastes those gifts with joy.

3 Through every period of my life,
 Thy goodness I'll pursue;
 And after death, in distant worlds,
 The glorious theme renew.
 Through all eternity, to thee
 A joyful song I'll raise;
 For, oh, eternity's too short
 To utter all thy praise!

Our God, our help in ages past,
 Our hope for years to come;
 Our shelter from the stormy blast,
 And our eternal home!
 Under the shadow of thy throne
 Thy saints have dwelt secure;
 Sufficient is thine arm alone,
 And our defence is sure.
 2 Before the hills in order stood,
 Or earth received her frame,
 From everlasting thou art God
 To endless years the same.

A thousand ages, in thy sight,
 Are like an evening gone;
 Short as the watch that ends the night
 Before the rising sun.

3 Time, like an ever-rolling stream
 Bears all its sons away;
 They fly, forgotten, as a dream
 Dies at the opening day.
 Our God, our help in ages past,
 Our hope for years to come,
 Be thou our guard while troubles last,
 And our eternal home.

FATHER! how wide thy glory shines!
 How high thy wonders rise!
 Known through the earth by thousand signs,
 By thousand through the skies.
 Those mighty orbs proclaim thy power,
 Their motions speak thy skill;
 And on the wings of every hour,
 We read thy patience still.

2 But, when we view thy strange design
 To save rebellious worms,
 Where vengeance and compassion join
 In their divinest forms,—
 Here the whole Deity is known;
 Nor dares a creature guess
 Which of the glories brightest shown,
 The justice, or the grace.

3 Now the full glories of the Lamb
 Adorn the heavenly plains;
 Bright seraphs learn Immanuel's name,
 And try their choicest strains.
 Oh, may I bear some humble part,
 In that immortal song;
 Wonder and joy shall tune my heart
 And love command my tongue.

God in Nature.

THERE is a book, who runs may read,
 Which heavenly truth imparts,
 And all the lore its scholars need,
 Pure eyes and Christian hearts
 The works of God above, below,
 Within us and around,
 Are pages in that book, to show
 How God himself is found.

2 The glorious sky, embracing all,
 Is like the Maker's love,
 Wherewith encompassed, great and small
 In peace and order move.
 The Moon above, the Church below,
 A wondrous race they run,
 But all their radiance, all their glow,
 Each borrows of its Sun.

3 Two worlds are ours: 't is only sin
 Forbids us to desery
 The mystic heaven and earth within,
 Plain as the sea and sky.
 Thou, who hast given me eyes to see
 And love this sight so fair,
 Give me a heart to find out thee,
 And read thee every where.

Goodness.—Ps. 145.

SWEET is the memory of thy grace,
My God, my heavenly King;
Let age to age thy righteousness
In sounds of glory sing.
God reigns on high; but ne'er confines
His goodness to the skies:
Through the whole earth his bounty shines
And every want supplies.

2 With longing eyes thy creatures wait
On thee for daily food;
Thy liberal hand provides their meat,
And fills their mouth with good.
How kind are thy compassions, Lord!
How slow thine anger moves!
But soon he sends his pardoning word
To cheer the souls he loves.

Isaac Watts.

THY way, O Lord, is in the sea;
Thy paths I cannot trace,
Nor comprehend the mystery
Of thine unbounded grace.
As through a glass, I dimly see
The wonders of thy love;
How little do I know of thee,
Or of the joys above!
2 'Tis but in part I know thy will;
I bless thee for the sight:
When will thy love the rest reveal,
In glory's clearer light?
With rapture shall I then survey
Thy providence and grace;
And spend an everlasting day,
In wonder, love and praise.

 New attributes sublime.
 I see thee when the doom is o'er,

3 Angelic spirits, countless souls,
 Of thee have drunk their fill;

Perfections.

I SING the almighty power of God,
 That made the mountains rise,
 That spread the flowing seas abroad,
 And built the lofty skies.
 I sing the wisdom that ordained
 The sun to rule the day;
 The moon shines full at his command,
 And all the stars obey.

2 I sing the goodness of the Lord,
 That filled the earth with food;
 He formed the creatures with his word,
 And then pronounced them good.
 Lord! how thy wonders are displayed
 Where'er I turn mine eye!
 If I survey the ground I tread,
 Or gaze upon the sky!

3 There's not a plant or flower below
 But makes thy glories known;
 And clouds arise, and tempests blow,
 By order from thy throne
 Creatures that borrow life from thee
 Are subject to thy care;
 There's not a place where we can flee,
 But God is present there

LIVING STREAM. C. M. D.

FROM ORATORY HYMNS.

My Shepherd will sup-ply my need; Je - ho - vah is his name; In pastures fresh he makes me feed, Be - side the liv - ing stream. He brings my wand'ring spirit back, When I for sake his ways; And leads me, for his mer - cy's sake, In paths of truth and grace.

296 Our Shepherd.—Ps. 23.

My Shepherd will supply my need,
 Jehovah is his name;
 In pastures fresh he makes me feed,
 Beside the living stream.
 He brings my wandering spirit back,
 When I forsake his ways;
 And leads me, for his mercy's sake,
 In paths of truth and grace.

2 When I walk through the shades of death,
 Thy presence is my stay;
 A word of thy supporting breath,
 Drives all my fears away.
 Thy hand, in sight of all my foes,
 Doth still my table spread;
 My cup with blessings overflows,
 Thine oil anoints my head.

3 The sure provisions of my God
 Attend me all my days;
 Oh, may thine house be mine abode,
 And all my works be praise:
 There would I find a settled rest,
 While others go and come,—
 No more a stranger, or a guest,
 But like a child at home.

297 Our Father.—Ps. 31.

My God, my Father!—blissful name!
 Oh, may I call thee mine?
 May I, with sweet assurance, claim
 A portion so divine?
 This only can my fears control,
 And bid my sorrows fly:
 What harm can ever reach my soul,
 Beneath my Father's eye?

2 Whate'er thy providence denies,
 I calmly would resign;
 For thou art just, and good, and wise;
 Oh, bend my will to thine.
 Whate'er thy sacred will ordains,
 Oh, give me strength to bear;
 And let me know my Father reigns,
 And trust his tender care.

3 If pain and sickness rend this frame,
 And life almost depart,
 Is not thy mercy still the same,
 To cheer my drooping heart?
 My God, my Father! be thy name
 My solace and my stay;
 Oh, wilt thou seal my humble claim,
 And drive my fears away?

301 Faithfulness.

BEGIN, my tongue, some heavenly theme,
And speak some boundless thing;
The mighty works, or mightier name
Of our eternal King.

2 Tell of his wondrous faithfulness,
And sound his power abroad;
Sing the sweet promise of his grace,
The love and truth of God.

3 His very word of grace is strong,
As that which built the skies;
The voice that rolls the stars along,
Speaks all the promises.

But whisper, "Thou art mine!"
Those gentle words should raise my song
To notes almost divine.

Isaac Watts.

302 Providence.

GOD moves in a mysterious way
His wonders to perform:
He plants his footsteps in the sea,
And rides upon the storm.

2 Deep in unfathomable mines
Of never-failing skill,
He treasures up his bright designs,
And works his sovereign will.

3 Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take!
The clouds ye so much dread,
Are big with mercy, and will break
In blessings on your head.

4 Judge not the Lord by feeble sense,
But trust him for his grace;
Behind a frowning providence
He hides a smiling face.

5 His purposes will ripen fast,
Unfolding every hour;
The bud may have a bitter taste,
But sweet will be the flower.

6 Blind unbelief is sure to err,
And scan his work in vain;
God is his own interpreter,
And he will make it plain.

William Cowper.

303 Holiness.

HOLY and reverend is the name
Of our Eternal King,
Thrice holy Lord! the angels cry;
Thrice holy! let us sing.

2 The deepest reverence of the mind,
Pay, O my soul! to God,
Lift with thy hands a holy heart
To his sublime abode.

3 With sacred awe pronounce his name,
Whom words nor thoughts can reach;
A broken heart shall please him more
Than the best forms of speech.

4 Thou holy God! preserve our souls
From all pollution free;
The pure in heart are thy delight,
And they thy face shall see.

"Heilig, heilig, heilig"

HOLY, holy, holy, Lord
 God of Hosts! when heaven and earth,
 Out of darkness, at thy word
 Issued into glorious birth,
 All thy works before thee stood,
 And thine eye beheld them good,
 While they sung with sweet accord,
 Holy, holy, holy Lord!

2 Holy, holy, holy! thee,
 One Jehovah evermore,
 Father, Son, and Spirit! we,
 Dust and ashes, would adore:

Lightly by the world esteemed,
 From that world by thee redeemed,
 Sing we here with glad accord,
 Holy, holy, holy Lord!

3 Holy, holy, holy! all
 Heaven's triumphant choir shall sing,
 While the ransomed nations fall
 At the footstool of their King.
 Then shall saints and seraphim,
 Harps and voices, swell one hymn,
 Blending in sublime accord,
 Holy, holy, holy Lord!

Divine Presence.

LORD of earth! thy forming hand
 Well this beauteous frame hath planned;
 Woods that wave, and hills that tower,
 Ocean rolling in his power:
 Yet, amid this scene so fair,
 Should I cease thy smile to share,
 What were all its joys to me?
 Whom have I on earth but thee?

2 Lord of heaven! beyond our sight
 Shines a world of purer light;
 There in love's unclouded reign
 Parted hands shall meet again:
 Oh, that world is passing fair!
 Yet, if thou wert absent there,
 What were all its joys to me?
 Whom have I in heaven but thee?

 Thy name, with all our powers.

2 Thy goodness, like the dew
 On Hermon's hill descending,
 Is every morning new,
 And tells of love unending.
 We bless thy tender care
 That led our wayward feet,
 Past every fatal snare,
 To streams and pastures sweet.

3 We bless thy Son, who bore
 The cross, for sinners dying;
 Thy Spirit we adore,
 The precious blood applying.
 Let work and worship send
 Their incense unto thee;
 Till song and service blend,
 Beside the crystal sea.

Oh, for a shout of joy, Worthy the theme we sing; To this di-vine employ Our hearts and voices bring; Sound, sound, thro' all the earth a - broad, The love, th'e - ter - nal love of God.

310 Eternal Love.

OH, for a shout of joy,
Worthy the theme we sing;
To this divine employ
Our hearts and voices bring;
Sound, sound, through all the earth abroad,
The love, the eternal love of God.

2 Unnumbered myriads stand,
Of seraphs bright and fair,
Or bow at thy right hand,
And pay their homage there;
But strive in vain with loudest chord,
To sound thy wondrous love, O Lord.

3 Yet sinners saved by grace,
In songs of lower key,
In every age and place,
Have sung the mystery,—
Have told in strains of sweet accord,
Thy love, thy sovereign love, O Lord.

4 Though earth and hell assail,
And doubts and fears arise,
The weakest shall prevail,
And grasp the heavenly prize,
And through an endless age record
Thy love, thy changeless love, O Lord.

J. Young.

311 God's Truth.

THE promises I sing,
Which sovereign love hath spoke;
Nor will the Eternal King
His words of grace revoke,
They stand secure and steadfast still;
Not Zion's hill abides so sure.

2 The mountains melt away
When once the Judge appears,
And sun and moon decay,
That measure mortal years;
But still the same, in radiant lines
The promise shines through all the flame.

3 Their harmony shall sound
Through my attentive ears,
When thunders cleave the ground
And dissipate the spheres;
Midst all the shock of that dread scene,
I stand serene, thy word my rock.

Philip Doddridge.

312 Sovereignty.

TO HIM that chose us first,
Before the world began;
To him that bore the curse
To save rebellious man;
To him that formed our hearts anew,
Is endless praise and glory due.

2 The Father's love shall run
Through our immortal songs;
We bring to God the Son
Hosannas on our tongues;
Our lips address the Spirit's name
With equal praise and zeal the same.

3 Let every saint above,
And angel round the throne,
For ever bless and love
The sacred Three in One;
Thus heaven shall raise his honors high.
When earth and time grow old and die.

We give immortal praise For God the Father's love, For all our comforts here, And 313 The Trinity.

We give immortal praise
For God the Father's love,
For all our comforts here,
And better hopes above:
He sent his own eternal Son
To die for sins that we had done.

2 To God the Son belongs
Immortal glory too,
Who bought us with his blood
From everlasting woe:
And now he lives, and now he reigns,
And sees the fruit of all his pains.

3 To God the Spirit's name
Immortal worship give,
Whose new-creating power
Makes the dead sinner live:
His work completes the great design,
And fills the soul with joy divine.

4 Almighty God! to thee
Be endless honors done,
The undivided Three,
The great and glorious One:
Where reason fails, with all her powers,
There faith prevails and love adores.

Isaac Watts.

2 The thunders of his hand
Keep the wide world in awe;
His wrath and justice stand
To guard his holy law;
And where his love resolves to bless,
His truth confirms and seals the grace.

3 And can this mighty King
Of glory condescend,
And will he write his name,
My Father and my Friend?
I love his name, I love his word;
Join all my powers, and praise the Lord!

Isaac Watts.

315 The Living God.

THE Lord Jehovah lives,
And blesséd be my Rock!—
Though earth her bosom heaves
And mountains feel the shock,
Though oceans rage and torrents roar,
He is the same for evermore.

2 The Lord Jehovah lives,
The dying sinner's Friend;
How freely he forgives
The follies that offend!
He wipes the penitential tear,
Bids faith and hope the spirit cheer.

3 The Lord Jehovah lives
To hear and answer prayer;
Whoe'er in him believes
And trusts his guardian care,
A Father's tender love shall know,
Whence living streams of comfort flow.

Thomas Hastings.

314 Psalm 93.

THE Lord Jehovah reigns;
His throne is built on high;
The garments he assumes
Are light and majesty;
His glories shine with beams so bright
No mortal eye can bear the sight.

Lord, thy glo - ry fills the heav-en; Earth is with its fullness stored; Un - to thee be glo - ry giv - en, Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord! Heaven is still with anthems ring - ing; Earth takes Holiness.

LORD, thy glory fills the heaven;
Earth is with its fullness stored;
Unto thee be glory given,
Holy, holy, holy Lord!
Heaven is still with anthems ringing;
Earth takes up the angels' cry,
Holy, holy, holy, singing,
Lord of hosts, thou Lord most high.

2 Ever thus in God's high praises,
Brethren, let our tongues unite,
While our thoughts his greatness raises,
And our love his gifts excite;
With his seraph train before him,
With his holy church below,
Thus unite we to adore him,
Bid we thus our anthem flow.

3 Lord, thy glory fills the heaven;
Earth is with its fullness stored;
Unto thee be glory given,
Holy, holy, holy Lord!
Thus thy glorious name confessing,
We adopt the angels' cry,
Holy, holy, holy, blessing
Thee, the Lord our God most high!

Richard Mant.

317

Grace.

LORD, with glowing heart I'd praise thee
For the bliss thy love bestows;
For the pardoning grace that saves me,
And the peace that from it flows:
Help, O God, my weak endeavor,
This dull soul to rapture raise;
Thou must light the flame, or never
Can my soul be warmed to praise.

2 Praise, my soul, the God that sought thee,
Wretched wanderer, far astray;
Found thee lost, and kindly brought thee
From the paths of death away;
Praise, with love's devoutest feeling,
Him who saw thy guilt-born fear,
And, the light of hope revealing,
Bade the blood-stained cross appear.

3 Lord, this bosom's ardent feeling
Vainly would my lips express:
Low before thy footstool kneeling,
Deign thy suppliant's prayer to bless;
Let thy grace, my soul's chief treasure,
Love's pure flame within me raise;
And, since words can never measure,
Let my life show forth thy praise.

God's Welcome.

THERE'S a wideness in God's mercy,

Like the wideness of the sea:

There's a kindness in his justice,

Which is more than liberty.

There is welcome for the sinner,

And more graces for the good;

There is mercy with the Saviour;

There is healing in his blood.

2 There is no place where earth's sorrows

Are more felt than up in heaven;

There is no place where earth's failings

Have such kindly judgment given.

There is plentiful redemption

In the blood that has been shed;

There is joy for all the members

In the sorrows of the Head.

3 For the love of God is broader

Than the measure of man's mind;

And the heart of the Eternal

Is most wonderfully kind.

If our love were but more simple,

We should take him at his word;

And our lives would be all sunshine

In the sweetness of our Lord.

319 Beneficent Wisdom.

WHAT our Father does is well;
Blesséd truth his children tell!
Though he send for plenty want,
Though the harvest store be scant,
Yet we rest upon his love,
Seeking better things above.

2 What our Father does is well;
Shall the wilful heart rebel?
If a blessing he withhold
In the field, or in the fold,
Is it not himself to be
All our store eternally?

3 What our Father does is well;
May the thought within us dwell;
Though nor milk nor honey flow
In our barren Caanan now,
God can save us in our need,
God can bless us, God can feed.

4 Therefore unto him we raise
Hymns of glory, songs of praise;
To the Father, and the Son,
And the Spirit, Three in One,
Honor, might, and glory be,
Now, and through eternity!

320 Three in One.

GREAT Creator! who this day
From thy perfect work didst rest,
By the souls that own thy sway
Hallowed be its hours and blest;
Cares of earth aside be thrown,
This day given to heaven alone.

2 Saviour! who this day didst break
The dark prison of the tomb,
Bid my slumbering soul awake,

Shine through all its sin and gloom;
Let me, from my bonds set free,
Rise from sin, and live to thee.

3 Blesséd Spirit! Comforter!
Sent this day from Christ on high,
Lord, on me thy gifts confer,
Cleanse, illumine, sanctify;
All thine influence shed abroad;
Lead me to the truth of God.

The musical score consists of two staves. The top staff is a treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 4/4 time signature. It contains a melody with various note values including quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes, along with rests. The bottom staff is a bass clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 4/4 time signature, providing a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines. The lyrics are written below the top staff, with some words in italics and some in bold.

321 "The Blessed Trinity."

HOLY, holy, holy Lord,
 God of hosts, eternal King,
 By the heavens and earth adored;
 Angels and archangels sing,
 Chanting everlastingly
 To the blessed Trinity.

2 Thousands, tens of thousands stand,
 Spirits blest, before the throne,
 Speeding thence at thy command,
 And, when thy commands are done,
 Singing everlastingly
 To the blessed Trinity.

3 Cherubim and seraphim
 Vail their faces with their wings;
 Eyes of angels are too dim
 To behold the King of kings,
 While they sing eternally
 To the blessed Trinity.

4 Thee apostles, prophets thee,
 Thee the noble martyr band,
 Praise with solemn jubilee,
 Thee, the church in every land;
 Singing everlastingly
 To the blessed Trinity.

5 Hallelujah! Lord, to thee,
 Father, Son, and Holy Ghost;
 Godhead one, and Persons three;
 Join us with the heavenly host,
 Singing everlastingly
 To the blessed Trinity.

C. Wordsworth.

322 Nature's King.

OH, give thanks to him who made
 Morning light and evening shade;
 Source and giver of all good,
 Nightly sleep and daily food;
 Quickener of our wearied powers;
 Guard of our unconscious hours.

2 Oh, give thanks to nature's King,
 Who made every breathing thing:
 His, our warm and sentient frame.

His, the mind's immortal flame.
 Oh, how close the ties that bind
 Spirits to the Eternal Mind!

3 Oh, give thanks with heart and lip,
 For we are his workmanship;
 And all creatures are his care:
 Not a bird that cleaves the air
 Falls unnoticed; but who can
 Speak the Father's love to man?

4 Oh, give thanks to him that came
 In a mortal, suffering frame—
 Temple of the Deity—
 Came, for rebel man to die;
 In the path himself hath trod,
 Leading back his saints to God.

Josiah Couder.

323 The Babe of Bethlehem.

AS WITH gladness men of old
 Did the guiding star behold,
 As with joy they hailed its light,
 Leading onward, beaming bright;
 So, most gracious Lord, may we
 Evermore be led to thee.

2 As with joyful steps they sped,
 Saviour, to thy manger bed,
 There to bend the knee before
 Thee whom heaven and earth adore;
 So may we with willing feet
 Ever seek the mercy-seat.

3 As they offered gifts most rare
 At thy cradle rude and bare,
 So may we with holy joy,
 Pure and free from sin's alloy,
 All our costliest treasures bring,
 Christ, to thee our heavenly King.

4 Holy Jesus, every day
 Keep us in the narrow way;
 And, when earthly things are past,
 Bring our ransomed souls at last
 Where they need no star to guide,
 Where no clouds thy glory hide.

OH, come, all ye faithful,
Joyfully triumphant,
To Bethlehem hasten now with glad accord; Oh, come, let us adore him, Christ the Lord.
Lo! in a manger
Lies the King of angels;
Oh, come, let us adore him, Christ the Lord.

Now to our God be
Glory in the highest;
Oh, come, let us adore him, Christ the Lord.

3 Amen! Lord, we bless thee,
Born for our salvation,
O Jesus! for ever be thy name adored;
Word of the Father,
Late in flesh appearing;
Oh, come, let us adore him, Christ the Lord.

Praises to the new-born Lord,
Strains of sweetest music fing'ing,
Not a note or word unheard.

As their lowly flocks they tended,
Came new tidings from the skies.

4 All the hosts of heaven are chanting
Songs with power to stir and thrill,
And the universe is panting
Joy's deep longings to fulfill.

God's high praises sounded forth,
While the angels' songs were telling
Of the Lord's mysterious birth.

Let the glorious hymn ring out;
Let men hail the great salvation,
"God with us," with song and shout.

Low lies his head with the beasts of the stall:

Angels adore him, in slumber reclining,
Maker, and Monarch, and Saviour of all!

Odors of Edom, and offerings divine?

Gems of the mountains, and pearls of the ocean,

Myrrh from the forest, or gold from the mine?

4 Vainly we offer each ample oblation,

Vainly with gold would his favor secure:
Richer, by far, is the heart's adoration;

Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.

They fled like the chaff from the scourge that pursued them;

For vain were their steeds and their chariots of war!

Extolled with the harp and the timbrel should be:

The oppressor is vanquished, and Zion is free!

ALL praise to thee, eternal Lord,
Clothed in a garb of flesh and blood;
Choosing a manger for thy throne,
While worlds on worlds are thine alone!

2 Once did the skies before thee bow;
A virgin's arms contain thee now;
Angels, who did in thee rejoice,
Now listen for thine infant voice.

3 A little child, thou art our guest,
That weary ones in thee may rest;
Forlorn and lowly is thy birth,
That we may rise to heaven from earth.

To make us children of the light;
To make us, in the realms divine,
Like thine own angels round thee shine.

By this to thee our love is won;
For this we tune our cheerful lays,
And shout our thanks in ceaseless praise.

Incarnation.

BEFORE the heavens were spread abroad,
From everlasting was the Word;
With God he was, the Word was God!
And must divinely be adored.

2 Ere sin was born, or Satan fell,
He led the host of morning stars:
His generation who can tell,
Or count the number of his years?

3 But lo, he leaves those heavenly forms:
The Word descends and dwells in clay,
That he may converse hold with worms,
Dressed in such feeble flesh as they.

4 Mortals with joy behold his face,
The eternal Father's only Son:
How full of truth, how full of grace,
When in his eyes the Godhead shone!

5 Archangels leave their high abode,
To learn new mysteries here, and tell
The love of our descending God,
The glories of Immanuel.

Isaac Watts.

"God with us."

ETERNAL Father, when to thee,
Beyond all worlds, by faith I soar,
Before thy boundless majesty
I stand in silence and adore.

2 But, Saviour, thou art by my side;
Thy voice I hear, thy face I see:
Thou art my friend, my daily guide;
God over all, yet God with me!

3 And thou, Great Spirit, in my heart
Dost make thy temple day by day:
The Holy Ghost of God thou art,
Yet dwellest in this house of clay.

All things created move or rest,
High in the heavens thou hast thy throne,
Thou hast thy throne within my breast.

The storm was loud, the night was dark,
The ocean roared, and rudely blowed
The wind that tossed my foundering bark.
Deep horror then my vitals froze;
Death-struck, I ceased the tide to stem;
When suddenly a star arose,
It was the Star of Bethlehem!

3 It was my guide, my light, my all;
It bade my dark forebodings cease,
And through the storm and danger's thrall
It led me to the port of peace.
Now safely moored, my perils o'er,
I'll sing, first in night's diadem,
For ever and for evermore,
The Star, the Star of Bethlehem!

335 "Prince of Salem."

WHEN Jordan hushed his waters still,
And silence slept on Zion's hill;
When Salem's shepherds through the night
Watched o'er their flocks by starry light;
Hark! from the midnight hills around,
A voice of more than mortal sound
In distant hallelujahs stole,
Wild murmuring o'er the raptured soul.

2 On wheels of light, on wings of flame,
The glorious hosts of Zion came;
High heaven with songs of triumph rung,
While thus they struck their harps and sung:
"O Zion! lift thy raptured eye;
The long-expected hour is nigh:
The joys of nature rise again,
The Prince of Salem comes to reign.

3 "He comes to cheer the trembling heart,
Bids Satan and his host depart;
Again the Daystar gilds the gloom,
Again the bowers of Eden bloom."
O Zion! lift thy raptured eye;
The long-expected hour is nigh:
The joys of nature rise again,
The Prince of Salem comes to reign.

It came upon the midnight clear,

That glorious song of old,

From angels bending near the earth,

To touch their harps of gold;

"Peace to the earth, good-will to men,

From heaven's all-gracious King;"

The earth in solemn stillness lay,

To hear the angels sing.

2 Still through the cloven skies they come,

With peaceful wings unfurled;

And still celestial music floats

O'er all the weary world;

Above its sad and lowly plains

They bend on heavenly wing,

And ever o'er its Babel sounds,

The blessed angels sing.

3 O ye, beneath life's crushing load,

Whose forms are bending low,

Who toil along the climbing way,

With painful steps and slow;—

Look up! for glad and golden hours

Come swiftly on the wing;

Oh, rest beside the weary road,

And hear the angels sing!

4 For lo! the days are hastening on,

By prophet-bards foretold,

When with the ever-circling years

Comes round the age of gold!

When peace shall over all the earth

Its final splendors fling,

And the whole world send back the song

Which now the angels sing!

337 Bethlehem Song.

WHILE shepherds watched their flocks by
 All seated on the ground; [night,
 The angel of the Lord came down,
 And glory shone around.
 "Fear not," said he,—for mighty dread
 Had seized their troubled mind,—
 "Glad tidings of great joy I bring,
 To you and all mankind.

2 "To you, in David's town this day,
 Is born of David's line
 The Saviour, who is Christ, the Lord,
 And this shall be the sign:—
 The heavenly babe you there shall find
 To human view displayed,
 All meanly wrapped in swathing bands,
 And in a manger laid."

3 Thus spake the seraph—and forthwith
 Appeared a shining throng
 Of angels, praising God, who thus Addressed their joyful song:—
 "All glory be to God on high,
 And to the earth be peace;
 Good-will henceforth from heaven to men
 Begin, and never cease!"

338 Angels' Music.

CALM on the listening ear of night
 Come heaven's melodious strains,
 Where wild Judea stretches far
 Her silver-mantled plains.
 Celestial choirs, from courts above,
 Shed sacred glories there,
 And angels, with their sparkling lyres,
 Make music on the air.

2 The answering hills of Palestine
 Send back the glad reply,
 And greet from all their holy heights
 The Dayspring from on high:
 O'er the blue depths of Galilee
 There comes a holier calm;
 And Sharon waves in solemn praise
 Her silent groves of palm.

3 "Glory to God!" the lofty strain
 The realms of ether fills;
 How sweeps the song of solemn joy
 O'er Judah's sacred hills!
 "Glory to God!" the sounding skies
 Loud with their anthems ring:
 "Peace on the earth; good-will to men,
 From heaven's eternal King."

Hark! the her-ald an-gels sing "Glo-ry to the new-born King; Peace on earth, and mer-cy mild,
God and sin-ners rec-on-ciled!" { Joy-ful, all ye nations, rise, } { Join the triumph of the skies; } With th' angelic host proclaim,
Christ is born in Beth-le-hem! With th' angelic host proclaim, Christ is born in Beth-le-hem!

339

The Nativity.

HARK! the herald angels sing
"Glory to the new-born King;
Peace on earth, and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled!"
Joyful, all ye nations, rise,
Join the triumph of the skies;
With the angelic host proclaim,
Christ is born in Bethlehem!

2 Christ, by highest heaven adored;
Christ, the everlasting Lord;
Late in time behold him come,
Offspring of the Virgin's womb:
Vailed in flesh the Godhead see;
Hail the incarnate Deity,
Pleased as man with men to dwell;
Jesus, our Immanuel!

3 Hail! the heaven-born Prince of Peace!
Hail the Sun of Righteousness!
Light and life to all he brings
Risen with healing in his wings:
Mild he lays his glory by,
Born that man no more may die:
Born to raise the sons of earth,
Born to give them second birth.

"The Christ of God."

HE has come! the Christ of God
Left for us his glad abode
Stooping from his throne of bliss,
To this darksome wilderness.
He has come! the Prince of Peace;
Come to bid our sorrows cease;
Come to scatter with his light
All the shadows of our night.

2 He the mighty King has come!
Making this poor earth his home;
Come to bear our sin's sad load;
Son of David, Son of God!
He has come, whose name of grace
Speaks deliverance to our race;
Left for us his glad abode;
Son of Mary, Son of God!

3 Unto us a child is born!
Ne'er has earth beheld a morn,
Among all the morns of time,
Half so glorious in its prime.
Unto us a Son is given!
He has come from God's own heaven,
Bringing with him from above
Holy peace and holy love.

Joy to the world; the Lord is come! Let earth receive her King; { Let ev-ery heart }

Psalm 98.

Joy to the world; the Lord is come!
Let earth receive her King;
Let every heart prepare him room,
And heaven and nature sing.

2 Joy to the earth; the Saviour reigns;
Let men their songs employ;
While fields and floods, rocks, hills and plains,
Repeat the sounding joy.

3 No more let sins and sorrows grow,
Nor thorns infest the ground;
He comes to make his blessings flow
Far as the curse is found.

4 He rules the world with truth and grace,
And makes the nations prove
The glories of his righteousness,
And wonders of his love.

342 7s. D. Tune—HERALD ANGELS.

HAIL the night, all hail the morn,
When the Prince of Peace was born
When, amid the wakeful fold,
Tidings good the angels told.
Now our solemn chant we raise
Duly to the Saviour's praise;
Now with carol hymns we bless
Christ the Lord, our righteousness.

2 While resounds the joyful cry,
"Glory be to God on high,
Peace on earth, good-will to men!"
Gladly we respond, "Amen!"
Thus we greet this holy day,
Pouring forth our festive lay;
Thus we tell, with saintly mirth,
Of Immanuel's wondrous birth.

Anon., 1837.

343 7s. D. Tune—HERALD ANGELS.

GOD with us! oh, glorious name!
Let it shine in endless fame;
God and man in Christ unite;
Oh, mysterious depth and height!
God with us! the eternal Son
Took our soul, our flesh, and bone;
Now, ye saints, his grace admire,
Swell the song with holy fire.

2 God with us! but tainted not
With the first transgressor's blot;
Yet did he our sins sustain,
Bear the guilt, the curse, the pain.
God with us! oh, wondrous grace!
Let us see him face to face;
That we may Immanuel sing,
As we ought, our God and King!

Angels, from the realms of glo-ry, Wing your flight o'er all the earth; Ye who sang creation's sto-ry,

344 "The new-born King."

ANGELS, from the realms of glory,
Wing your flight o'er all the earth;
Ye who sang creation's story,
Now proclaim Messiah's birth:
Come and worship,—
Worship Christ, the new-born King.

2 Shepherds in the field abiding,
Watching o'er your flocks by night,
God with man is now residing;
Yonder shines the infant light:
Come and worship,—
Worship Christ, the new-born King.

3 Sages, leave your contemplations,—
Brighter visions beam afar:
Seek the great Desire of nations:

Ye have seen his natal star:
Come and worship,—
Worship Christ, the new-born King.

4 Saints, before the altar bending,
Watching long in hope and fear,
Suddenly the Lord, descending,
In his temple shall appear:
Come and worship,—
Worship Christ, the new-born King.

5 Sinners, wrung with true repentance,
Doomed for guilt to endless pains,
Justice now revokes the sentence,—
Mercy calls you,—break your chains:
Come and worship,—
Worship Christ, the new-born King.

OF the Father's love begotten,
Ere the worlds began to be,
He, the Alpha and Omega,
He the source, the ending he,
Of the things that are, that have been,
And that future years shall see,
Evermore and evermore!

2 At his word the worlds were framéd;
He commanded; it was done:
Heaven and earth and depths of ocean
In their threefold order one;
All that grows beneath the shining
Of the moon and burning sun,
Evermore and evermore!

3 He is found in human fashion,
Death and sorrow here to know,
That the race of Adam's children,
Doomed by law to endless woe,

346 Foretold and Manifested.

HE is here, whom seers in old time
Chanted of, while ages ran;
Whom the writings of the prophets
Promised since the world began:
Then foretold, now manifested,
To receive the praise of man,
Evermore and evermore!

2 Praise him, O ye heaven of heavens!
Praise him, angels in the height!
Every power and every virtue,
Sing the praise of God aright:
Let no tongue of man be silent,
Let each heart and voice unite,
Evermore and evermore!

3 Thee let age, and thee let manhood,
Thee let choirs of infants sing;
Thee the matrons and the virgins,
And the children answering:
Let their modest song re-echo,
And their heart its praises bring,
Evermore and evermore!

ALL my heart this night rejoices,
As I hear, far and near,
Sweetest angel voices;
"Christ is born!" their choirs are singing,
Till the air everywhere
Now with joy is ringing.

2 For it dawns, the promised morrow
Of his birth, who the earth
Rescues from her sorrow.

God to wear our form descendeth;
Of his grace to our race
Here his Son he lendeth.

3 Come, then, let us hasten yonder;
Here let all, great and small,
Kneel in awe and wonder.
Love him who with love is yearning;
Hail the Star, that from far
Bright with hope is burning

348 The Song of the Angels.

O LITTLE town of Bethlehem,
How still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep,
The silent stars go by;
Yet in thy dark streets shineth
The everlasting Light;
The hopes and fears of all the years
Are met in thee to-night.

2 For Christ is born of Mary,
And gathered all above;
While mortals sleep, the angels keep
Their watch of wondering love.
O morning stars, together
Proclaim the holy birth!
And praises sing to God the King,
And peace to men on earth.

3 How silently, how silently,
The wondrous gift is given!
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of his heaven.
No ear may hear his coming,
But in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive him still,
The dear Christ enters in.

4 O holy child of Bethlehem!
Descend to us, we pray;
Cast out our sin, and enter in,
Be born in us to-day.
We hear the Christmas angels
The great glad tidings tell;
Oh, come to us, abide with us,
Our Lord Immanuel!

349 Bethlehem Star.

AS SHADOWS cast by cloud and sun
Flit o'er the summer grass,
So, in thy sight, Almighty One,
Earth's generations pass.
And as the years, an endless host,
Come swiftly pressing on,
The brightest names that earth can boast
Just glisten and are gone.

2 Yet doth the star of Bethlehem shed
A luster pure and sweet;
And still it leads, as once it led,
To the Messiah's feet.
O Father, may that holy star
Grow every year more bright,
And send its glorious beams afar
To fill the world with light.

351 The Child Jesus.

ONCE in royal David's city
Stood a lowly cattle shed,
Where a mother laid her Baby,
In a manger for his bed:
Mary was that mother mild,
Jesus Christ her little child.

2 He came down to earth from heaven
Who is God and Lord of all,
And his shelter was a stable,
And his cradle was a stall;
With the lowly, poor, and mean,
Lived on earth our Saviour then.

3 And, through all his wondrous childhood,
He would honor and obey,
Love, and watch the lowly maiden
In whose gentle arms he lay:
Christian children all must be
Mild, obedient, good as he.

4 Oh, our eyes at last shall see him,
Through his own redeeming love;
For that child so dear and gentle
Is our God in heaven above;
And he leads his children on
To the place where he is gone.

5 Not in that poor lowly stable,
With the oxen standing by,
We shall see him; but in heaven,
Set at God's right hand on high;
When like stars his children crowned
All in white shall wait around.

352 "Blesséd Lord!"

SHOUT, O earth! from silence waking,
Tune with joy thy varied tongue;
Shout! as when from chaos breaking
Sweetly flowed thy natal song:
Shout! for thy Creator's love
Sends redemption from above.

2 Downward from his star-paved dwelling
Comes the incarnate Son of God;
Countless voices, thrilling, swelling,
Tell the triumphs of his blood:
Shout! he comes thy tribes to bless
With his spotless righteousness.

3 See his glowing hand uplifted!
Clustering bounties drop around;
Rebels ev'n are richly gifted,
Pardon, peace, and joy abound!
Shout, O earth! and let thy song
Ring the vaulted heavens along.

4 Call him blesséd! on thy mountains
In thy wild and citted plains;
Call him blesséd! where thy fountains
Speak in softly murmuring strains.
Let thy captives, let thy kings
Join the lyre of thousand strings.

5 Blesséd Lord, and Lord of blessing!
Pour thy quickening gifts abroad;
Raptured tongues, thy love confessing,
Shall extol the living God.
Blesséd, blesséd, blesséd Lord!
Heaven shall chant no other word.

One there is, a-bove all others, Well deserves the name of Friend; His is love be-yond a brother's,

Costly, free, and knows no end: They who once his kindness prove Find it ev - er - lasting love.

353 "Friend of Sinners."

- ONE there is, above all others,
Well deserves the name of Friend;
His is love beyond a brother's,
Costly, free, and knows no end:
They who once his kindness prove
Find it everlasting love.
- 2 Which of all our friends, to save us,
Could or would have shed his blood?
But our Jesus died to have us
Reconciled in him to God:
This was boundless love indeed!
Jesus is a friend in need.
- 3 When he lived on earth abaséd,
"Friend of sinners" was his name;
Now above all glories raiséd,
He rejoices in the same;
Still he calls them brethren, friends,
And to all their wants attends.
- 4 Could we bear from one another
What he daily bears from us?
Yet this glorious Friend and Brother
Loves us though we treat him thus:
Though for good we render ill,
He accounts us brethren still.
- 5 Oh, for grace our hearts to soften!
Teach us, Lord, at length to love;
We, alas! forget too often
What a Friend we have above:
But when home our souls are brought
We will love thee as we ought.

354 Healing the Sick.

- THOU to whom the sick and dying
Ever came, nor came in vain,
Still with healing word replying
To the weary cry of pain;
Hear us, Jesus, as we meet,
Suppliants at thy mercy-seat.
- 2 Every care and every sorrow,
Be it great, or be it small;
Yesterday, to-day, to-morrow,
When, where'er it may befall;
Lay we humbly at thy feet,
Suppliants round thy mercy-seat.
- 3 Still the weary, sick, and dying
Need a brother's, sister's care;
On thy higher help relying,
May we now their burden share:
Bringing all our offerings meet,
Suppliants to thy mercy-seat.
- 4 May each child of thine be willing,
Willing both in hand and heart,
Every law of love fulfilling,
Every comfort to impart:
Ever bringing offerings meet,
Suppliants at thy mercy-seat.
- 5 Then shall sickness, sin, and sadness
To thy healing power yield;
Till the sick and sad in gladness,
Rescued, ransomed, cleanséd, healed,
Shall the saints together meet,
Pardoned at thy judgment-seat!

How sweetly flowed the gospel sound From lips of gentleness and grace, When listening thousands gathered round, And joy and gladness filled the place! And joy and gladness filled the place!

355*The Great Teacher.*

HOW SWEETLY flowed the gospel sound
From lips of gentleness and grace,
When listening thousands gathered round,
And joy and gladness filled the place!

2 From heaven he came, of heaven he spoke,
To heaven he led his followers' way;
Dark clouds of gloomy night he broke,
Unveiling an immortal day

3 "Come, wanderers, to my Father's home,
Come, all ye weary ones, and rest:"
Yes, sacred Teacher, we will come,
Obey thee, love thee, and be blest!

4 Decay then, tenements of dust;
Pillars of earthly pride, decay:
A nobler mansion waits the just,
And Jesus has prepared the way.

John Bowring

356*"Mild, Harmless."*

HOW BEAUTEOUS were the marks divine,
That in thy meekness used to shine,
That lit thy lonely pathway, trod
In wondrous love, O Son of God!

2 Oh, who like thee, so calm, so bright,
So pure, so made to live in light?
Oh, who like thee did ever go
So patient through a world of woe?

3 Oh, who like thee so humbly bore
The scorn, the scoffs of men, before?
So meek, forgiving, godlike, high,
So glorious in humility?

4 Even death, which sets the prisoner free,
Was pang, and scoff, and scorn to thee;
Yet love through all thy torture glowed,
And mercy with thy life-blood flowed.

5 Oh, in thy light be mine to go,
Illuming all my way of woe!
And give me ever on the road
To trace thy footsteps, Son of God.

Arthur C. Cox

357*"He Healed Them."*

WHEN, like a stranger on our sphere,
The lowly Jesus wandered here,
Where'er he went, affliction fled,
And sickness reared her fainting head.

2 The eye that rolled in irksome night,
Beheld his face—for God is light;
The opening ear, the loosened tongue,
His precepts heard, his praises sung.

3 With bounding steps the halt and lame,
To hail their great Deliverer came;
O'er the cold grave he bowed his head,
He spake the word, and raised the dead

4 Despairing madness, dark and wild,
In his inspiring presence smiled;
The storm of horror ceased to roll,
And reason lightened through the soul.

5 Through paths of loving-kindness led,
Where Jesus triumphed we would tread,
To all, with willing hands dispense
The gifts of our benevolence.

The Divine Pattern.

My dear Redeemer, and my Lord,
I read my duty in thy word,
But in thy life the law appears,
Drawn out in living characters.

2 Such was thy truth and such thy zeal.
Such deference to thy Father's will,
Such love, and meekness so divine,
I would transcribe and make them mine.

3 Cold mountains and the midnight air
Witnessed the fervor of thy prayer;
The desert thy temptations knew,
Thy conflict and thy victory too.

4 Be thou my pattern; make me bear
More of thy gracious image here;
Then God, the Judge, shall own my name

368 The Words of Jesus.

I HEARD the voice of Jesus say,—
 "Come unto me and rest;
 Lay down, thou weary one, lay down
 Thy head upon my breast!"
 I came to Jesus as I was,
 Weary, and worn, and sad;
 I found in him a resting-place,
 And he hath made me glad.
 2 I heard the voice of Jesus say,—
 "Behold, I freely give
 The living water; thirsty one,
 Stoop down, and drink, and live!"
 I came to Jesus, and I drank
 Of that life-giving stream;
 My thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
 And now I live in him
 3 I heard the voice of Jesus say,—
 "I am this dark world's light;
 Look unto me, thy morn shall rise,
 And all thy day be bright!"

I looked to Jesus, and I found
 In him my Star, my Sun;
 And in that light of life I'll walk,
 Till all my journey's done.

Horatius Bonas.

369 The Perfect Pattern.

LET worldly minds the world pursue,
 It has no charms for me;
 Once I admired its trifles too,
 But grace has set me free.
 As by the light of opening day,
 The stars are all concealed;
 So earthly pleasures fade away,
 When Jesus is revealed
 2 Creatures no more divide my choice,
 I bid them all depart;
 His name, and love, and gracious voice,
 Have fixed my roving heart.
 But may I hope that thou wilt own
 A worthless worm like me?
 Now, Lord! I would be thine alone,
 And wholly live to thee.

We may not climb the heavenly steeps To bring the Lord Christ down; In vain we search the lowest deeps, For him no depths can drown.

The true Test

WE may not climb the heavenly steeps
To bring the Lord Christ down;
In vain we search the lowest deeps,
For him no depths can drown

2 But warm, sweet, tender, even yet
A present help is he;
And faith has yet its Olivet,
And love its Galilee.

3 The healing of the seamless dress
Is by our beds of pain;

We touch him in life's throng and press,
And we are whole again.

4 Through him the first fond prayers are said
Our lips of childhood frame;
The last low whispers of our dead
Are burdened with his name.

5 O Lord and Master of us all,
Whate'er our name or sign,
We own thy sway, we hear thy call,
We test our lives by thine!

Oh, could I speak the match-less worth, Oh, could I sound the glories forth Which in my Saviour shine!

"He is Precious"

OH, could I speak the matchless worth,
Oh, could I sound the glories forth,
Which in my Saviour shine!
I'd soar and touch the heavenly strings,
And vie with Gabriel while he sings
In notes almost divine.

2 I'd sing the precious blood he spilt,
My ransom from the dreadful guilt
Of sin and wrath divine!
I'd sing his glorious righteousness,
In which all-perfect heavenly dress
My soul shall ever shine.

3 I'd sing the characters he bears,
And all the forms of love he wears,
Exalted on his throne.
In loftiest songs of sweetest praise,
I would to everlasting days
Make all his glories known.

4 Well—the delightful day will come,
When my dear Lord will bring me home,
And I shall see his face:
Then with my Saviour, Brother, Friend,
A blest eternity I'll spend,
Triumphant in his grace.

Musical score for 'Majestic Sweetness' in G major, 4/4 time. The score consists of two systems of two staves each (treble and bass clef). The lyrics are: 'Ma-jes-tic sweet-ness sits enthroned Up on the Sav-iour's brow; His head with radi-ant glo-ries crowned, His lips with grace o'er-flow. His lips with grace o'er-flow'.

372 — "Altogether Lovely."

MAJESTIC sweetness sits enthroned
 Upon the Saviour's brow;
 His head with radiant glories crowned.
 His lips with grace o'erflow

- 2 No mortal can with him compare,
 Among the sons of men;
 Fairer is he than all the fair
 That fill the heavenly train.
- 3 He saw me plunged in deep distress,
 He flew to my relief;
 For me he bore the shameful cross,
 And carried all my grief.

- 4 To him I owe my life and breath,
 And all the joys I have;
 He makes me triumph over death,
 He saves me from the grave.
- 5 To heaven, the place of his abode,
 He brings my weary feet;
 Shows me the glories of my God,
 And makes my joy complete.
- 6 Since from his bounty I receive
 Such proofs of love divine,
 Had I a thousand hearts to give,
 Lord! they should all be thine.

Musical score for 'The Name Jesus' in D minor, 4/4 time. The score consists of two systems of two staves each (treble and bass clef). The lyrics are: 'There is a name I love to hear; I love to sing its worth; It sounds like music in mine ear—The sweetest name on earth.'

373 The Name Jesus.

THERE is a name I love to hear;
 I love to sing its worth;
 It sounds like music in mine ear—
 The sweetest name on earth.

- 2 It tells me of a Saviour's love
 Who died to set me free;
 It tells me of his precious blood—
 The sinner's perfect plea.
- 3 It tells me of a Father's smile
 Beaming upon his child;

- It cheers me through this "little while,"
 Through desert, waste, and wild.
- 4 It tells of One whose loving heart
 Can feel my smallest woe—
 Who in each sorrow bears a part
 That none can bear below
 - 5 It bids my trembling soul rejoice,
 And dries each rising tear;
 It tells me in a "still small voice."
 To trust, and not to fear

374 "All in Jesus."

BEHOLD, where, in a mortal form,
Appears each grace divine!
The virtues, all in Jesus met,
With mildest radiance shine.

2 To spread the rays of heavenly light,
To give the mourner joy,
To preach glad tidings to the poor,
Was his divine employ.

3 'Mid keen reproach and cruel scorn,
He meek and patient stood;
His foes, ungrateful, sought his life,
Who labored for their good.

4 In the last hour of deep distress,
Before his Father's throne,
With soul resigned he bowed and said,—
"Thy will, not mine, be done!"

5 Be Christ our pattern, and our guide,
His image may we bear;
Oh, may we tread his holy steps,—
His joy and glory share.

William Enfield.

375 A Lonely Life.

A PILGRIM through this lonely world,
The blesséd Saviour passed;
A mourner all his life was he,
A dying Lamb at last.

2 That tender heart which felt for all,
For all its life-blood gave;
It found on earth no resting-place,
Save only in the grave.

3 Such was our Lord; and shall we fear
The cross, with all its scorn?
Or love a faithless evil world
That wreathed his brow with thorn?

4 No! facing all its frowns or smiles,
Like him, obedient still,
We homeward press through storm or calm,
To Zion's blesséd hill.

Edward Denny.

376 for our Example.

WHAT grace, O Lord, and beauty shone
Around thy steps below;
What patient love was seen in all
Thy life and death of woe.

2 For ever on thy burdened heart
A weight of sorrow hung;
Yet no ungentle, murmuring word
Escaped thy silent tongue.

3 Thy foes might hate, despise, revile,
Thy friends unfaithful prove;
Unwearied in forgiveness still,
Thy heart could only love.

4 Oh, give us hearts to love like thee!
Like thee, O Lord, to grieve
Far more for others' sins, than all
The wrongs that we receive.

5 One with thyself, may every eye,
In us, thy brethren, see
The gentleness and grace that spring
From union, Lord! with thee.

From sin and death we flee;
And he who would the Father seek,
Must seek him, Lord, by thee.

2 Thou art the Truth: thy word alone
True wisdom can impart;
Thou only canst inform the mind,
And purify the heart.

3 Thou art the Life: the rending tomb
Proclaims thy conquering arm;
And those who put their trust in thee
Nor death nor hell shall harm.

378 Pattern of forgiveness.

LORD, as to thy dear cross we flee,
And pray to be forgiven,
So let thy life our pattern be,
And form our souls for heaven.

2 Help us, through good report and ill,
Our daily cross to bear;
Like thee, to do our Father's will,
Our brother's griefs to share.

3 Let grace our selfishness expel,
Our earthliness refine;
And kindness in our bosoms dwell
As free and true as thine.

4 If joy shall at thy bidding fly,
And grief's dark day come on,
We, in our turn, would meekly cry,
"Father, thy will be done!"

5 Kept peaceful in the midst of strife,
Forgiving and forgiven,
Oh, may we lead the pilgrim's life,
And follow thee to heaven!

John H. Gurney.

379 "Shall we forget."

JESUS! thy love shall we forget,
And never bring to mind
The grace that paid our hopeless debt,
And bade us pardon find?

2 Shall we thy life of grief forget,
Thy fasting and thy prayer;
Thy locks with mountain vapors wet,
To save us from despair?

3 Gethsemane can we forget—
Thy struggling agony
When night lay dark on Olivet,
And none to watch with thee?

4 Our sorrows and our sins were laid
On thee, alone on thee;
Thy precious blood our ransom paid—
Thine all the glory be!

5 Life's brightest joys we may forget—
Our kindred cease to love;
But he who paid our hopeless debt,
Our constancy shall prove.

380 "The King in his Beauty."

LORD Jesus! when I think of thee,
Of all thy love and grace,
My spirit longs and fain would see
Thy beauty, face to face.

2 And though the wilderness I tread,
A barren, thirsty ground,
With thorns and briars overspread,
Where foes and snares abound;—

3 Yet in thy love such depths I see,
My soul o'erflows with praise—
Contents itself, while, Lord, to thee
A joyful song I raise.

4 My Lord, my Life, my Rest, my Shield,
My Rock, my Food, my Light;
Each thought of thee doth constant yield
Unchanging, fresh delight.

5 My Saviour, keep my spirit stayed,
Hard following after thee;
Till I, in robes of white arrayed,
Thy face in glory see.

James G. Deck.

381 Christ's earthly Path.

O LORD, we now the path retrace
Which thou on earth hast trod,
To man thy wondrous love and grace,
Thy faithfulness to God!

2 Thy love, by man so sorely tried,
Proved stronger than the grave;
The very spear that pierced thy side
Drew forth the blood to save.

3 Unmoved by Satan's subtle wiles,
Or suffering, shame, or loss,
Thy path uncheered by earthly smiles,
Led only to the cross.

4 O Lord, with sorrow and with shame,
We meekly would confess,
How little we, who bear thy name,
Thy mind, thy ways, express.

5 Give us thy meek, thy lowly mind;
We would obedient be,
And all our rest and pleasure find
In fellowship with thee.

Jesus, and didst thou condescend, When veiled in human clay, To heal the sick, the lame, the blind, And drive disease a-way?

382 "Our Infirmities."

JESUS, and didst thou condescend,
When veiled in human clay,
To heal the sick, the lame, the blind,
And drive disease away?

2 Didst thou regard the beggar's cry,
And give the blind to see?
Jesus, thou Son of David, hear—
Have mercy, too, on me.

3 And didst thou pity mortal woe,
And sight and health restore?
Then pity, Lord, and save my soul,
Which needs thy mercy more.

I perish, Lord, oh, save my soul!
For thou alone canst save.

JESUS is God! The glorious bands
Of holy angels sing
Songs of adoring praise to him,
Their Maker and their King.
He was true God in Bethlehem's crib,
On Calvary's cross true God,
He who in heaven eternal reigned,
In time on earth abode.

2 Jesus is God! If on the earth
This blessed faith decays,
More tender must our love become,
More plentiful our praise.
We are not angels, but we may
Down in earth's corners kneel,
And multiply sweet acts of love,
And murmur what we feel.

3 Jesus is God! Let sorrow come,
And pain, and every ill;
All are worth while, for all are means
His glory to fulfill;
Worth while a thousand years of life,
To speak one little word,
If only by our faith we own
The Godhead of our Lord!

Jesus' Miracles.

OH, where is he that trod the sea?
Oh, where is he that spake,—
And demons from their victims flee,
The dead from slumber wake?
The palsied rise in freedom strong,
The dumb men talk and sing,
And from blind eyes, benighted long,
Bright beams of morning spring.

2 Oh, where is he that trod the sea?
'T is only he can save;
To thousands hungering wearily,
A wondrous meal he gave:
Full soon, celestially fed,
Their plenteous food they take;
'T was springtide when he blest the bread,
'T was harvest when he brake.

3 Oh, where is he that trod the sea?
My soul! the Lord is here:
Let all thy fears be hushed in thee,
And leap, and look, and hear.
Thy utmost needs he'll satisfy:
Art thou diseased or dumb?
Or dost thou in thy hunger cry?
Behold thy Helper come!

386 "With Palms."

ALL glory, laud, and honor
To thee, Redeemer, King!
To whom the lips of children
Made sweet hosannas ring.
Thou art the King of Israel,
Thou David's royal Son,
Who in the Lord's name comest,
The King and blessed One.

2 The company of angels
Are praising thee on high,
And mortal men, and all things
Created make reply.
The people of the Hebrews
With palms before thee went,
Our praise and prayer and anthems
Before thee we present.

3 To thee before thy passion
They sang their hymns of praise;
To thee now high exalted
Our melody we raise.
Thou didst accept their praises;
Accept the prayers we bring,
Who in all good delightest,
Thou good and gracious King.

B TOURS.

The musical score consists of three systems, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The lyrics are: "To thee, my God and Saviour! My heart exulting sings, Rejoicing in thy favor, Almighty King of kings! I'll celebrate thy glory. With all thy saints above, And tell the joyful story Of thy redeeming love."

387 "God, our Saviour."

TO THEE, my God and Saviour!
 My heart exulting sings,
 Rejoicing in thy favor,
 Almighty King of kings!
 I'll celebrate thy glory,
 With all thy saints above,
 And tell the joyful story
 Of thy redeeming love.

2 Soon as the morn with roses
 Bedecks the dewy east,
 And when the sun reposes
 Upon the ocean's breast,
 My voice, in supplication,
 Well-pleas'd the Lord shall hear:
 Oh, grant me thy salvation,
 And to my soul draw near.

3 By thee, through life supported,
 I'll pass the dangerous road,
 With heavenly hosts escorted,
 Up to thy bright abode;
 Then cast my crown before thee,
 And, all my conflicts o'er,
 Unceasingly adore thee:—
 What could an angel more?

Thomas Haweis.

388 Children's Hosannas.

WHEN, his salvation bringing,
 To Zion Jesus came,
 The children all stood singing
 Hosanna to his name;
 Nor did their zeal offend him,
 But, as he rode along,
 He let them still attend him,
 Well pleas'd to hear their song.

2 And since the Lord retaineth
 His love for children still,
 Though now as King he reigneth
 On Zion's heavenly hill,
 We'll flock around his banner,
 Who sits upon the throne,
 And raise a loud hosanna,
 To David's royal Son.

3 For should we fail proclaiming
 Our great Redeemer's praise,
 The stones, our silence shaming,
 Would their hosanna raise.
 But should we only render
 The tribute of our words?
 No; while our hearts are tender,
 They, too, should be the Lord's.

Our hearts were filled with sadness,
And we had lost our way,
But morning brings us gladness,
And songs the break of day.

3 "Come unto me, ye fainting,

The foe is stern and eager,
The fight is fierce and long;
But thou hast made me mighty,
And stronger than the strong.

4 "And whosoever cometh
I will not cast him out."
Oh, patient love of Jesus,

Unworthy though we be
Of love so free and boundless,—
To come, dear Lord, to thee.

My Saviour, I would own thee
 Amid the world's proud scorn,
 The world that mocked and crowned thee
 With diadem of thorn;
 The world that now rejects thee
 Makes nothing of thy love,
 Counts not the grace and pity
 That brought thee from above.

 To walk apart with thee
 Outside the camp, where only
 Thy beauty I may see:
 Far from the world's loud turmoil,
 Far from its busy din,
 Far from its praise and honor,
 Its unbelief and sin.

 From all the world beside,
 In close communion, ever
 Thus with thee to abide—
 So all thy whispered breathings
 Of love and truth to hear;
 And hail thee with rejoicing,
 When thou shalt soon appear

WE saw thee not when thou didst come
 To this poor world of sin and death,
 Nor e'er beheld thy cottage home
 In that despis'd Nazareth;
 But we believe thy footsteps trod
 Its streets and plains, thou Son of God.

2 We did not see thee lifted high,
 Amid that wild and savage crew;
 Nor heard thy meek, imploring cry,
 "Forgive, they know not what they do!"
 Yet we believe the deed was done,
 Which shook the earth, and veiled the sun.

3 We stood not by the empty tomb,
 Wherein thy sacred body lay;
 Nor sat within that upper room,
 Nor met thee in the open way;
 But we believe that angels said,
 "Why seek the living with the dead?"

4 We did not mark the chosen few,
 When thou didst thro' the clouds ascend,
 First lift to heaven their wandering view,
 Then to the earth all prostrate bend;
 Yet we believe that mortal eyes
 Beheld thee taken to the skies.

5 And now that thou dost reign on high,
 And thence thy waiting people bless,
 No ray of glory from the sky
 Doth shine upon our wilderness;
 But we believe thy faithful word,
 And trust in our redeeming Lord.

394 Light, Way, Truth, Life.

O LIGHT, whose beams illumine all
 From twilight dawn till perfect day,
 Shine thou before the shadows fall
 That lead our wandering feet astray:
 At morn and eve thy radiance pour,
 That youth may love and age adore.

2 O Way, through whom our souls draw
 To yon eternal home of peace, ' [near
 Where perfect love shall cast out fear,
 And earth's vain toil and wandering cease;
 In strength or weakness may we see
 Our heavenward path, O Lord, thro' thee.

3 O Truth, before whose shrine we bow,
 Thou priceless pearl for all who seek,
 To thee our earliest strength we vow,
 Thy love will bless the pure and meek;
 When dreams or mists beguile our sight,
 Turn thou our darkness into light.

4 O Life, the well that ever flows
 To slake the thirst of those who faint,
 Thy power to bless what seraph knows?
 Thy joy supreme what words can paint?
 In earth's last hour of fleeting breath
 Be thou our Conqueror over death.

5 O Light, O Way, O Truth, O Life,
 O Jesus, born mankind to save,
 Give thou thy peace in deadliest strife,
 Shed thou thy calm on stormiest wave;
 Be thou our Hope, our Joy, our Dread,
 Lord of the living and the dead.

AS OFT with worn and weary feet,
We tread earth's rugged valley o'er,
The thought, how comforting and sweet,
Christ trod this very path before!
Our wants and weaknesses he knows,
From life's first dawning till its close.

2 Does sickness, feebleness, or pain,
Or sorrow in our path appear?
The recollection will remain,
More deeply did he suffer here;
His life how truly sad and brief,
Filled up with suffering and with grief.

3 If Satan tempt our hearts to stray,
And whisper evil things within,
So did he in the desert way
Assail our Lord with thoughts of sin:
When worn, and in a feeble hour,
The tempter came with all his power.

4 Just such as I, this earth he trod,
With every human ill but sin;
And, though indeed the very God,
As I am now, so he has been;
My God, my Saviour, look on me
With pity, love, and sympathy.

2 O Love, who ere life's earliest dawn
On me thy choice has gently laid;
O Love, who here as Man wast born,
And like to us in all things made;
O Love, I give myself to thee,
Thine ever, only thine to be.

3 O Love, who once in time wast slain,
Pierced thro' and thro' with bitter woe,
O Love, who wrestling thus didst gain
That we eternal joy might know;
O Love, I give myself to thee,
Thine ever, only thine to be.

O LOVE, who formedst me to wear

The Good Shepherd.

THE Lord my pasture shall prepare,
And feed me with a shepherd's care;
His presence shall my wants supply,
And guard me with a watchful eye:
My noon-day walks he shall attend,
And all my midnight hours defend.

2 When in the sultry glebe I faint,
Or on the thirsty mountain pant,
To fertile vales and dewy meads,
My weary, wandering steps he leads,
Where peaceful rivers, soft and slow,
Amid the verdant landscape flow.

3 Though in a bare and rugged way,
Through devious, lonely wilds I stray,
Thy bounty shall my pains beguile,
The barren wilderness shall smile,
With sudden greens and herbage crowned,
And streams shall murmur all around.

"Jesus Wept."

JESUS wept! those tears are over,
 But his heart is still the same;
 Kinsman, Friend, and elder Brother,
 Is his everlasting name.
 Saviour, who can love like thee,
 Gracious One of Bethany ?

3 Jesus wept! and still in glory,
 He can mark each mourner's tear;
 Living to retrace the story
 Of the hearts he solaced here.
 Lord, when I am called to die,
 Let me think of Bethany.

2 When the pangs of trial seize us,
 When the waves of sorrow roll,
 I will lay my head on Jesus,
 Pillow of the troubled soul.
 Surely, none can feel like thee,
 Weeping One of Bethany!

4 Jesus wept! that tear of sorrow
 Is a legacy of love;
 Yesterday, to-day, to-morrow,
 He the same doth ever prove.
 Thou art all in all to me,
 Living One of Bethany!

"Near the Cross."

NEAR the cross was Mary weeping,
 There her mournful station keeping,
 Gazing on her dying Son:
 There in speechless anguish groaning,
 Yearning, trembling, sighing, moaning,
 Through her soul the sword had gone!

3 When no eye its pity gave us,
 When there was no arm to save us,
 He his love and power displayed;
 By his stripes he wrought our healing;
 By his death, our life revealing.
 He for us the ransom paid.

2 But we have no need to borrow
 Motives from the mother's sorrow,
 At our Saviour's cross to mourn.
 'T was our sins brought him from heaven,
 These the cruel nails had driven:
 All his griefs for us were borne.

4 Jesus, may thy love constrain us,
 That from sin we may refrain us,
 In thy griefs may deeply grieve:
 Thee our best affections giving,
 To thy glory ever living,
 May we in thy glory live.

 Hopes deceive, and fears annoy,

401 Jesus in the Grave.

SO REST, our Rest, thou ever blest,
 Thy grave with sinners making:
 By thy precious death, from sin
 Our dead souls awaking.

- 2 Here hast thou lain after much pain.
 Life of our life, reposing:
 Round thee now a rock-hewn grave,
 Rock of Ages, closing.
- 3 Breath of all breath! we know from death
 Thou wilt our dust awaken;
 Wherefore should we dread the grave,
 Or our faith be shaken?

- 4 To us the tomb is but a room
 Where we lie down on roses:
 He, who dying conquered death,
 Sweetly there reposes.
- 5 The body dies—naught else—and lies
 In dust until victorious
 From the grave it shall arise
 Beautiful and glorious.
- 6 Meantime we will, O Jesus, still
 Deep in remembrance lay thee,
 Musing on thy death; in death
 Be with us, we pray thee.

'T is midnight; and on Olive's brow
The star is dimmed that lately shone;
'T is midnight; in the garden, now
The suffering Saviour prays alone.

2 'T is midnight; and from all removed,
The Saviour wrestles lone with fears;
Ev'n that disciple whom he loved
Heeds not his Master's grief and tears.

3 'T is midnight; and for others' guilt
The Man of Sorrows weeps in blood;
Yet he that hath in anguish knelt
Is not forsaken by his God.

4 'T is midnight; and from ether-plains
Is borne the song that angels know;
Unheard by mortals are the strains
That sweetly soothe the Saviour's woe.

William B. Tappan.

"T is finished!"

"T is finished!"—so the Saviour cried,
And meekly bowed his head and died:
"T is finished!"—yes, the race is run,
The battle fought, the victory won.

2 'T is finished!—all that heaven foretold
By prophets in the days of old;
And truths are opened to our view
That kings and prophets never knew.

3 'T is finished! Son of God, thy power
Hath triumphed in this awful hour;
And yet our eyes with sorrow see
That life to us was death to thee.

4 'T is finished!—let the joyful sound
Be heard through all the nations round:
'T is finished!—let the triumph rise,
And swell the chorus of the skies.

WHEN I survey the wondrous cross,
On which the Prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.

2 Forbid it, Lord! that I should boast,
Save in the death of Christ, my God;
All the vain things that charm me most
I sacrifice them to his blood.

3 See, from his head, his hands, his feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down;
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

4 His dying crimson, like a robe,
Spreads o'er his body on the tree;
Then I am dead to all the globe,
And all the globe is dead to me.

5 Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were a present far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

405 "For Him."

JESUS, whom angel hosts adore,
Became a man of griefs for me;
In love, though rich, becoming poor;
That I through him enriched might be.

2 Though Lord of all, above, below,
He went to Olivet for me;
There drank my cup of wrath and woe,
When bleeding in Gethsemane.

3 The ever-blesséd Son of God
Went up to Calvary for me;
There paid my debt, there bore my load,
In his own body on the tree.

4 Jesus, whose dwelling is the skies,
Went down into the grave for me;
There overcame my enemies,
There won the glorious victory.

406 "Upon the Cross."

O JESUS, we adore thee,
Upon the cross, our King:
We bow our hearts before thee;
Thy gracious Name we sing:
That Name hath brought salvation,
That Name, in life our stay;
Our peace, our consolation
When life shall fade away.

2 Yet doth the world disdain thee,
Still pressing by thy cross:
Lord, may our hearts retain thee;—
All else we count but loss.
The grief thy soul enduréd,
Who can that grief declare?
Thy pains have thus assuréd
That thou thy foes wilt spare.

3 Ah, Lord, our sins arraigned thee,
And nailed thee to the tree:
Our pride, O Lord, disdained thee;—
Yet deign our hope to be.
O glorious King, we bless thee,
No longer pass thee by;
O Jesus; we confess thee
Our Lord enthroned on high.

O LAMB of God! still keep me
Near to thy wounded side;
'T is only there in safety
And peace I can abide!
What foes and snares surround me,
What doubts and fears within!
The grace that sought and found me,
Alone can keep me clean.

2 'T is only in thee hiding
I know my life secure—
Only in thee abiding,
The conflict can endure:
Thine arm the victory gaineth
O'er every hateful foe;
Thy love my heart sustaineth
In all its care and woe.

3 Soon shall my eyes behold thee,
With rapture, face to face;
One half hath not been told me
Of all thy power and grace:
Thy beauty, Lord, and glory,
The wonders of thy love,
Shall be the endless story
Of all the saints above.

With thorns, thine only crown;
O sacred Head, what glory,
What bliss, till now was thine!
Yet, though despised and gory,
I joy to call thee mine.

2 What thou, my Lord, hast suffered
Was all for sinners' gain:
Mine, mine was the transgression,
But thine the deadly pain;
Lo, here I fall, my Saviour!
'Tis I deserved thy place;
Look on me with thy favor,
Vouchsafe to me thy grace.

3 What language shall I borrow,
To thank thee, dearest Friend,
For this, thy dying sorrow,
Thy pity without end?
Lord, make me thine for ever,
Nor let me faithless prove:
Oh, let me never, never,
Abuse such dying love.

4 Be near when I am dying,
Oh, show thy cross to me!
And for my succor flying,
Come, Lord, and set me free!

These eyes, new faith receiving,
From Jesus shall not move;
For he who dies believing,
Dies safely — through thy love.

LIEE of the world! I hail thee;
Hail, Jesus, Saviour
I to thy cross could yield me,
Might I to thee be near.
Thyself, in all thy fullness,
My Lord, to me impart:
To thee I come as with me,
Yea, find thee in my heart.

3 Look on me, All-Forgiving!
Low at thy feet I bow:
Oh, all-divine thou seemest,
As I behold thee now!
I clasp with tender passion,
Thy feet, so pierced for us,
The cruel wounds deep graven,
O'erwhelmed to see thee thus!

3 While here with thee I linger,
Take me, dear Saviour mine!
Oh, draw me to thee closer,
And make me wholly thine;
Say, "Be thou saved, O sinner!"
And gladly at thy call,
On thy sure word relying,
To thee I give my all.

 Where the dear Lord was crucified,
 Who died to save us all.

We may not know, we cannot tell
 What pains he had to bear;
 But we believe it was for us
 He hung and suffered there.

2 He died that we might be forgiven,
 He died to make us good,
 That we might go at last to heaven,
 Saved by his precious blood.

There was no other good enough
 To pay the price of sin;
 He only could unlock the gate
 Of heaven, and let us in.

3 Oh, dearly, dearly, has he loved,
 And we must love him too,
 And trust in his redeeming blood,
 And try his works to do.

 All, all is finished now, —
 All that he left his throne above
 To do for us below.

2 No work is left undone
 Of all the Father willed;
 His toil, his sorrows, one by one,
 The Scripture have fulfilled.

3 No pain that we can share
 But he has felt its smart;

All forms of human grief and care
 Have pierced that tender heart.

4 And on his thorn-crowned head,
 And on his sinless soul,
 Our sins in all their guilt were laid,
 That he might make us whole.

 I cling by faith to thee!

413 The Two Looks.

- I SAW One hanging on a tree,
In agony and blood;
Who fixed his languid eyes on me,
As near the cross I stood.
- 2 Sure, never, till my latest breath,
Can I forget that look:
It seemed to charge me with his death,
Though not a word he spoke.
- 3 Alas! I knew not what I did,—
But now my tears are vain;
Where shall my trembling soul be hid?
For I the Lord have slain!
- 4 A second look he gave, that said,
"I freely all forgive:
This blood is for thy ransom paid;
I die that thou mayst live."
- 5 Thus while his death my sin displays
In all its blackest hue,
Such is the mystery of grace,
It seals my pardon too!

John Newton.

414 "O Christ of God!"

- O JESUS, sweet the tears I shed,
While at thy cross I kneel,
Gaze on thy wounded, fainting head,
And all thy sorrows feel.
- 2 My heart dissolves to see thee bleed,
This heart so hard before;
I hear thee for the guilty plead,
And grief o'erflows the more.
- 3 I know this cleansing blood of thine
Was shed, dear Lord, for me:
For me, for all,—oh, grace divine!—
Who look by faith on thee.
- 4 O Christ of God, O spotless Lamb,
By love my soul is drawn;
Henceforth, for ever, thine I am;
Here life and peace are born.
- 5 In patient hope, the cross I'll bear,
Thine arm shall be my stay;
And thou, enthroned, my soul shalt spare,
On thy great judgment-day.

Alas! and did my Saviour bleed, And did my Sovereign die? Would he devote that sacred head For such a worm as I?

416 "Grace Unknown."

ALAS! and did my Saviour bleed,
And did my Sovereign die?
Would he devote that sacred head
For such a worm as I?

2 Was it for crimes that I had done
He groaned upon the tree?
Amazing pity! grace unknown!
And love beyond degree!

3 Well might the sun in darkness hide,
And shut his glories in,
When Christ, the great Creator, died
For man, the creature's sin.

4 Thus might I hide my blushing face
While his dear cross appears;
Dissolve my heart in thankfulness,
And melt my eyes to tears.

5 But drops of grief can ne'er repay
The debt of love I owe;
Here, Lord, I give myself away,
'T is all that I can do.

Isaac Watts.

417 Suffered for Sin.

OH, if my soul were formed for woe,
How would I vent my sighs!
Repentance should like rivers flow
From both my streaming eyes.

2 'T was for my sins my dearest Lord
Hung on the curséd tree,
And groaned away a dying life
For thee, my soul! for thee.

3 Oh, how I hate these lusts of mine
That crucified my Lord;
Those sins that pierced and nailed his flesh
Fast to the fatal wood!

4 Yes, my Redeemer—they shall die;
My heart has so decreed;
Nor will I spare the guilty things
That made my Saviour bleed.

5 While with a melting, broken heart,
My murdered Lord I view,
I'll raise revenge against my sins,
And slay the murderers too.

419 Sinai and Calvary.

FROM Sinai's cloud of darkness
 The vivid lightnings play,
 They serve the God of vengeance,
 The Lord who shall repay.
 Each fault must bring its penance,
 Each sin the avenging blade;
 For God upholds in justice
 The laws that he hath made.

2 But Calvary stands to ransom
 The earth from utter loss,
 In shade than light more glorious,
 The shadow of the Cross.
 To heal a sick world's trouble,
 To soothe its woe and pain,
 On Calvary's sacred summit
 The Paschal Lamb was slain.

3 The boundless might of Heaven
 Its law in mercy furled,
 As once the bow of promise
 O'erarched a drowning world.
 The law said—As you keep me
 It shall be done to you;
 But Calvary prays—Forgive them,
 They know not what they do.

4 Almighty God! direct us
 To keep thy perfect Law!
 O blesséd Saviour, help us
 Nearer to thee to draw;
 Let Sinai's thunders aid us
 To guard our feet from sin,
 And Calvary's light inspire us
 The love of God to win.

420 Sin seen at Gethsemane.

My sins, my sins, my Saviour!
 Their guilt I never knew
 Till, with thee, in the desert
 I near thy passion drew;
 Till, with thee, in the garden,
 I heard thy pleading prayer,
 And saw the sweat-drops bloody,
 That told thy sorrow there.

2 Therefore my songs, my Saviour,
 Ev'n in this time of woe,
 Shall tell of all thy goodness
 To suffering man below.
 Thy goodness and thy favor,
 Whose presence from above,
 Rejoice those hearts, my Saviour,
 That live in thee and love.

Accepting pain as pleasure,
All for my sinful sake.

Earth's hatred and affliction
In patience thou didst bear,

422 The Pierced Side.

LORD Jesus, by thy passion,
To thee I make my prayer;
Thou who in mercy suitest,
Have mercy, Lord, and spare:
Oh, wash me in the fountain
That floweth from thy side;
Oh, clothe me in the raiment
Thy blood hath purified

2 Oh, hold thou up my goings,
And lead from strength to strength,
That unto thee in Zion
I may appear at length.
Oh, make my spirit worthy
To join the ransomed throng;
Oh, teach my lips to utter
That everlasting song.

3 Oh, give that last, best blessing
That even saints can know,
To follow in thy footsteps
Wherever thou dost go.
Not wisdom, might, or glory,
I ask to win above;
I ask for thee, thee only,
O thou eternal Love!

423 The bleeding Lamb.

JESUS, Lamb of God, for me
Thou, the Lord of life, didst die;
Whither—whither, but to thee,
Can a trembling sinner fly!
Death's dark waters o'er me roll,
Save, oh, save my sinking soul!

2 Never bowed a martyr's head
Weighed with equal sorrow down;
Never blood so rich was shed,
Never king wore such a crown;
To thy cross and sacrifice
Faith now lifts her tearful eyes.

3 All my soul by love subdued,
Melts in deep contrition there;
By thy mighty grace renewed,
New-born hope forbids despair:
Lord! thou canst my guilt forgive,
Thou hast bid me look and live.

4 While with broken heart I kneel
Sinks the inward storm to rest;
Life—immortal life—I feel
Kindled in my throbbing breast
Thine—for ever thine—I am!
Glory to thee, bleeding Lamb!

Ray Palmer.

424 "I am Thine."

JESUS, Master, whose I am,
Purchased thine alone to be,
By thy blood, O spotless Lamb,
Shed so willingly for me;
Let my heart be all thine own,
Let me live to thee alone.

2 Other lords have long held sway;
Now thy name alone to bear,
Thy dear voice alone obey,
Is my daily, hourly prayer.
Whom have I in heaven but thee?
Nothing else my joy can be.

3 Jesus, Master, I am thine;
Keep me faithful, keep me near;
Let thy presence in me shine
All my homeward way to cheer.

Jesus, at thy feet I fall,
Oh, be thou my All in all.

Francis R. Havergal.

425 "Only Thee."

BLESSED Saviour! thee I love;
All my other joys above;
All my hopes in thee abide,
Thou my hope, and naught beside:
Ever let my glory be,
Only, only, only thee.

2 Once again beside the cross,
All my gain I count but loss;
Earthly pleasures fade away,—
Clouds they are that hide my day:
Hence, vain shadows! let me see
Jesus crucified for me.

3 Blessed Saviour, thine am I,
Thine to live, and thine to die;
Height, or depth, or earthly power,
Ne'er shall hide my Saviour more:
Ever shall my glory be
Only, only, only thee.

426 "Come and Welcome."

FROM the cross uplifted high,
Where the Saviour deigns to die,
What melodious sounds we hear,
Bursting on the ravished ear!—
"Love's redeeming work is done—
Come and welcome, sinner, come!"

2 "Spread for thee, the festal board
See with richest bounty stored;
To thy Father's bosom pressed,
Thou shalt be a child confessed,
Never from his house to roam;
Come and welcome, sinner, come!"

3 "Soon the days of life shall end—
Lo, I come—your Saviour, Friend!
Safe your spirit to convey
To the realms of endless day,
Up to my eternal home—
Come and welcome, sinner, come!"

SEPTEN VOCES. P. M.

Arr by A. S. SULLIVAN.

Je - sus, in thy dy-ing woes, Even while thy life-blood flows, Craving pardon for thy foes:— Hear us, ho-ly Je - sus!

427 "Father, forgive Them."

JESUS, in thy dying woes,
Even while thy life-blood flows,
Craving pardon for thy foes:—
Hear us, holy Jesus!

2 Saviour, for our pardon sue,
When our sins thy pangs renew,
For we know not what we do.

3 Oh, may we, who mercy need,
Be like thee in heart and deed,
When with wrong our spirits bleed!

PART II. "To-day in Paradise."

JESUS, pitying the sighs
Of the thief, who near thee dies,
Promising him Paradise:—
Hear us, holy Jesus!

2 May we in our guilt and shame,
Still thy love and mercy claim,
Calling humbly on thy name!

3 Oh, remember us who pine,
Looking from our cross to thine:
Cheer our souls with hope divine!

PART III. "Women, Behold thy Son."

JESUS, loving to the end
Her whose heart thy sorrows rend,
And thy dearest human friend!
Hear us, holy Jesus!

2 May we in thy sorrow share,
And for thee all peril dare,
And enjoy thy tender care!

3 May we all thy loved ones be,
All one holy family,
Loving for the love of thee!

PART IV. "Why hast Thou forsaken Me!"

JESUS, whelmed in fears unknown,
With our evil left alone
While no light from heaven is shown:—
Hear us, holy Jesus!

2 When we vainly seek to pray,
And our hope seems far away,
In the darkness be our stay!

3 Though no Father seem to hear,
Though no light our spirits cheer,
Tell our faith that God is near!

PART V. "I Thirst."

JESUS, in thy thirst and pain,
While thy wounds thy life-blood drain,
Thirsting more our love to gain:—
Hear us, holy Jesus!

2 Thirst for us in mercy still;
All thy holy work fulfill—
Satisfy thy loving will!

3 May we thirst thy love to know;
Lead us in our sin and woe
Where the healing waters flow!

PART VI. "It is finished."

JESUS, all our ransom paid,
All thy Father's will obeyed,—
By thy sufferings perfect made:—
Hear us, holy Jesus!

2 Save us in our soul's distress,
Be our help to cheer and bless,
While we grow in holiness!

3 Brighten all our heavenward way,
With an ever holier ray,
Till we pass to perfect day!

PART VII. "Father, into thy Hands."

JESUS,—all thy labor vast,
All thy woe and conflict past—
Yielding up thy soul at last:—
Hear us, holy Jesus!

2 When the death shades round us lower,
Guard us from the tempter's power,
Keep us in that trial hour!

3 May thy life and death supply
Grace to live and grace to die,
Grace to reach the home on high!

On wings of liv - ing light, At ear - liest dawn of day, Came down the an - gel bright,

And rolled the stone a - way. Your voices raise with one accord To bless and praise your risen Lord!

428 The Stone rolled away.

ON wings of living light,
At earliest dawn of day,
Came down the angel bright,
And rolled the stone away.
Your voices raise with one accord
To bless and praise your risen Lord!

2 The keepers watching near,
At that dread sight and sound,
Fell down with sudden fear
Like dead men to the ground.
Your voices raise, &c.

3 Then rose from death's dark gloom,
Unseen by mortal eye,
Triumphant o'er the tomb
The Lord of earth and sky!
Your voices raise, &c.

4 Oh, let your hearts be strong!
For we, like him, shall rise,
To dwell with him ere long
In bliss beyond the skies!
Your voices raise, &c.

W. Walsham How.

429 "The Debt of Love."

COME, every pious heart,
That loves the Saviour's name,
Your noblest powers exert
To celebrate his fame;
Tell all above, and all below,
The debt of love to him you owe.

2 From the dark grave he rose,
The mansions of the dead,
And thence his mighty foes

In glorious triumph led;
Up through the sky the Conqueror rode,
And reigns on high, the Saviour God.

3 Jesus, we ne'er can pay
The debt we owe thy love;
Yet tell us how we may
Our gratitude approve;
Our hearts, our all to thee we give;
The gift, though small, thou wilt receive.

Samuel Stennett

430 "Captivity Captive."

THE happy morn is come!
Triumphant o'er the grave,
The Lord hath left the tomb,
Omnipotent to save:
Captivity is captive led;
For Jesus liveth that was dead.

2 Who now accuseth them
For whom their Surety died?
Who now shall those condemn
Whom God hath justified?
Captivity, &c.

3 Christ hath the ransom paid;
The glorious work is done;
On him our help is laid,
By him our victory won;
Captivity, &c.

4 Hail, 'the triumphant Lord!
The resurrection thou!
We bless thy sacred Word;
Before thy throne we bow;
Captivity, &c.

DAY OF REST. 7^a, 6^a, D.

J. W. ELLIOTT.

The day of res - ur - rec - tion, Earth, tell it out a - broad: The Pass - o - ver of glad - ness, The Pass - o - ver of God. From death to life e - ter - nal,

Voices in Unison.In Harmony.

From earth un - to the sky, Our Christ hath brought us o - ver, With hymns of vic - to - ry.

431 The Lord's Day.

THE day of resurrection,
Earth, tell it out abroad:
The Passover of gladness,
The Passover of God.
From death to life eternal,
From earth unto the sky,
Our Christ hath brought us over,
With hymns of victory.

2 Our hearts be pure from evil,
That we may see aright
The Lord in rays eternal
Of resurrection light;
And, listening to his accents,
May hear, so calm and plain,
His own "All hail!" and, hearing,
May raise the victor-strain.

3 Now let the heavens be joyful,
And earth her song begin,
The round world keep high triumph,
And all that is therein;
Let all things seen and unseen
Their notes of gladness blend,
For Christ the Lord is risen,
Our Joy that hath no end.

J. M. Neale, tr.

432 The Ascension.

O CHRIST, thou hast ascended
Triumphantly on high,
By cherub guards attended
And armies of the sky:
There, there thou standest pleading
The virtue of thy blood,
For sinners interceding,
Our Advocate with God.

2 Heaven's gates unfold above thee:
But canst thou, Lord, forget
The little band who love thee
And gaze on Olivet?
Nay, on thy breast engraven
Thou bearest every name,
Our Priest in earth and heaven
Eternally the same.

3 Oh, for the priceless merit
Of thy redeeming cross,
Vouchsafe thy sevenfold Spirit,
And turn to gain our loss;
Till we by strong endeavor
In heart and mind ascend,
And dwell with thee for ever
In raptures without end.

E. H. Bickersteth.

433 "He Lives Again."

CHRIST, the Lord, is risen to-day,
Sons of men, and angels, say;
Raise your joys and triumphs high!
Sing, ye heavens! and earth, reply!

2 Love's redeeming work is done,
Fought the fight, the battle won;
Lo, our Sun's eclipse is o'er;
Lo, he sets in blood no more.

3 Vain the stone, the watch, the seal;
Christ hath burst the gates of hell;
Death in vain forbids his rise;
Christ hath opened Paradise.

4 Lives again our glorious King;
"Where, O Death, is now thy sting?"
Once he died our souls to save;
"Where 's thy victory, boasting Grave?"

5 Soar we now where Christ has led,
Following our exalted Head;
Made like him, like him we rise;
Ours 'the cross, the grave, the skies!

Charles Wesley.

434 "Joy in the Lord."

JOYFUL be the hours to-day;
Joyful let the seasons be;
Let us sing, for well we may:
Jesus! we will sing of thee.

2 Should thy people silent be,
Then the very stones would sing:
What a debt we owe to thee,
Thee our Saviour, thee our King!

3 Joyful are we now to own,
Rapture thrills us as we trace
All the deeds thy love hath done,
All the riches of thy grace.

4 'T is thy grace alone can save;
Every blessing comes from thee—
All we have, and hope to have,
All we are, and hope to be.

5 Thine the Name to sinners dear!
Thine the Name all names before!
Blesséd here and everywhere;
Blesséd now and evermore!

Hail the day that sees him rise, Glorious, to his native skies! Christ, awhile to mortals given, Enters now the gates of heav'n.

435 The Lord's Day.

HAIL the day that sees him rise,
Glorious, to his native skies!
Christ, awhile to mortals given,
Enters now the gates of heaven.

2 There the glorious triumph waits;
Lift your heads, eternal gates!
Christ hath vanquished death and sin;
Take the King of glory in.

3 See, the heaven its Lord receives!
Yet he loves the earth he leaves:

Though returning to his throne,
Still he calls mankind his own.

4 Still for us he intercedes,
His prevailing death he pleads;
Near himself prepares a place,
Great Forerunner of our race.

5 What, though parted from our sight,
Far above yon starry height;
Thither our affections rise,
Following him beyond the skies.

Singing evermore on high,
Hallelujah! Praise the Lord!

2 He who bore all pain and loss,
Comfortless, upon the cross,
Lives in glory now on high,
Pleads for us, and hears our cry:
Hallelujah! Praise the Lord!

3 He who slumbered in the grave
Is exalted now to save;
Now through Christendom it rings
That the Lamb is King of kings:
Hallelujah! Praise the Lord!

4 Now he bids us tell abroad
How the lost may be restored,
How the penitent forgiven,
How we, too, may enter heaven:
Hallelujah! Praise the Lord!

clouds are breaking, Soon the storms of time shall cease, In God's likeness, man a-wak-ing, Knows the ev-er-last-ing peace.

444 Easter Anthem.

SING with all the sons of glory,
Sing the resurrection song!
Death and sorrow, earth's dark story,
To the former days belong:
All around the clouds are breaking,
Soon the storms of time shall cease,
In God's likeness, man awaking,
Knows the everlasting peace.

2 Oh, what glory, far exceeding
All that eye has yet perceived!
Holiest hearts for ages pleading,
Never that full joy conceived.
God has promised, Christ prepares it,
There on high our welcome waits;
Every humble spirit shares it,
Christ has passed the eternal gates.

3 Life eternal! heaven rejoices,
Jesus lives who once was dead;
Join, O man, the deathless voices,
Child of God, lift up thy head!
Patriarchs from the distant ages,
Saints all longing for their heaven,
Prophets, psalmists, seers and sages,
All await the glory given.

4 Life eternal! oh, what wonders
Crowd on faith; what joy unknown,
When, amidst earth's closing thunders,
Saints shall stand before the throne!

Oh, to enter that bright portal,
See that glowing firmament,
Know, with thee, O God immortal,
"Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent!"
William J. Irons.

445 "The First-fruits."

HALLELUJAH! hallelujah!
Hearts to heaven and voices raise;
Sing to God a hymn of gladness,
Sing to God a hymn of praise;
He, who on the cross a victim
For the world's salvation bled,
Jesus Christ, the King of glory,
Now is risen from the dead.

2 Christ is risen, Christ the first-fruits
Of the holy harvest-field,
Which will all its full abundance
At his second coming yield,
When the golden ears of harvest
Will their heads before him wave,
Ripened by his glorious sunshine,
From the furrows of the grave.

3 Christ is risen; we are risen;
Shed upon us heavenly grace,
Rain and dew, and gleams of glory
From the brightness of thy face,
That we, with our hearts in heaven,
Here on earth may fruitful be,
And by angel-hands be gathered,
And be ever, Lord, with thee.

We live in Him.

SEE, the Conqueror mounts in triumph!
 See the King in royal state,
 Riding on the clouds, his chariot,
 To his heavenly palace gate!
 Hark! the choirs of angel voices
 Joyful hallelujahs sing,
 And the portals high are lifted
 To receive their heavenly King

2 Who is this that comes in glory
 With the trump of jubilee?

- Lord of battles, God of armies,
 He has gained the victory;
 He, who on the cross did suffer,
 He, who from the grave arose,
 He has vanquished sin and Satan,
 He by death has spoiled his foes.
- 3 Thou hast raised our human nature,
 On the clouds to God's right hand;
 There we sit in heavenly places,
 There with thee in glory stand;
 Jesus reigns, adored by angels;
 Man with God is on the throne;
 Mighty Lord! in thine ascension,
 We by faith behold our own.
- 4 Lift us up from earth to heaven,
 Give us wings of faith and love,
 Gales of holy aspirations,
 Wafting us to realms above;
 That, with hearts and minds uplifted,
 We with Christ our Lord may dwell,
 Where he sits enthroned in glory,
 In the heavenly citadel.
- 5 So at last, when he appeareth,
 We from out our graves may spring,
 With our youth renewed like eagles',
 Flocking round our heavenly King,
 Caught up on the clouds of heaven,
 And may meet him in the air—
 Rise to realms where he is reigning,
 And may reign for ever there.

HE is gone—a cloud of light
Has received him from our sight;
High in heaven, where eye of men
Follows not, nor angels ken;
Through the veils of time and space,
Passed into the holiest place;
All the toil, the sorrow done,
All the battle fought and won.

2 He is gone—towards their goal
World and church must onward roll:
Far behind we leave the past;
Forward are our glances cast:
Still his words before us range
Through the ages, as they change:
Wheresoe'er the truth shall lead,
He will give whate'er we need.

3 He is gone—but we once more
Shall behold him as before;
In the heaven of heavens the same,
As on earth he went and came.
In the many mansions there,
Place for us he will prepare:
In that world unseen, unknown,
He and we may yet be one.

4 He is gone—but not in vain,
Wait until he comes again:
He is risen, he is not here;
Far above this earthly sphere
Evermore in heart and mind
There our peace in him we find:
To our own eternal Friend,
Thitherward let us ascend.

SING, O heavens! O earth! rejoice;
Angel harp, and human voice!
Round him, as he rises, raise
Your ascending Saviour's praise.

Your ascended Saviour's praise.

 Ye who have felt his blood
 Sealing your peace with God,
 Sound his dear name abroad,
 "Worthy the Lamb!"

3 Join, all ye ransomed race,
 Our Lord and God to bless;
 Praise ye his name!
 In him we will rejoice,
 And make a joyful noise,
 Shouting with heart and voice,
 "Worthy the Lamb!"

4 Soon must we change our place,
 Yet will we never cease
 Praising his name;
 To him our songs we bring;
 Hail him our gracious King;
 And, through all ages, sing,
 "Worthy the Lamb!"

James Allen.

ITALIAN HYMN. 6s, 4s.

F. GIARDINI.

Christ for the world we sing; The world to Christ we bring, With lov-ing zeal;

The poor, and them that mourn, The faint and overborne, Sin-sick and sorrow-worn, Whom Christ doth heal.

453 Christ for the World.
 CHRIST for the world we sing;
 The world to Christ we bring,
 With loving zeal;
 The poor, and them that mourn,
 The faint and overborne,
 Sin-sick and sorrow-worn,
 Whom Christ doth heal.
 2 Christ for the world we sing;
 The world to Christ we bring,
 With fervent prayer;
 The wayward and the lost,
 By restless passions tossed,
 Redeemed at countless cost,
 From dark despair.
 3 Christ for the world we sing;
 The world to Christ we bring,
 With one accord;
 With us the work to share,
 With us reproach to dare,
 With us the cross to bear,
 For Christ our God.
 4 Christ for the world we sing;
 The world to Christ we bring,
 With joyful song;
 The new-born souls, whose days,
 Reclaimed from error's ways,
 Inspired with hope and praise,
 To Christ belong.

Samuel Wolcott.

454 The Angels' Praise.
 SING, sing his lofty praise,
 Whom angels cannot raise,
 But whom they sing;

Jesus who reigns above,
 Object of angels' love,
 Jesus, whose grace we prove,
 Jesus, our King.
 2 Rich is the grace we sing,
 Poor is the praise we bring,
 Not as we ought;
 But when we see his face,
 In yonder glorious place,
 Then shall we sing his grace,
 Sing without fault.

Thomas Kelly.

455 "Jesus is King."
 LET us awake our joys,
 Strike up with cheerful voice,
 Each creature sing—
 Angels, begin the song,
 Mortals, the strain prolong,
 In accents sweet and strong,
 "Jesus is King."
 2 Proclaim abroad his name,
 Tell of his matchless fame:
 What wonders done!
 Shout through hell's dark profound,
 Let all the earth resound,
 'Till heaven's high arch rebound,
 "Victory is won."
 3 All hail the glorious day,
 When through the heavenly way
 Lo, he shall come!
 While they who pierced him wail,
 His promise shall not fail;
 Saints, see your King prevail:
 Great Saviour, come.

W. Kingsbury.

NEWBOLD. C. M.

GEO. KINGSLEY.

Oh! for a shout of sa-cred joy To God, the sovereign King: Let all the lands their tongues employ, And hymns of tri-umph sing, And hymns of tri-umph sing.

456 "A Thoughtless Tongue."

OH! for a shout of sacred joy
To God, the sovereign King:
Let all the lands their tongues employ,
And hymns of triumph sing.

- 2 Jesus, our God, ascends on high;
His heavenly guards around
Attend him rising through the sky,
With trumpets' joyful sound.
- 3 While angels shout and praise their King,
Let mortals learn their strains;
Let all the earth his honor sing;—
O'er all the earth he reigns.
- 4 Rehearse his praise, with awe profound;
Let knowledge lead the song;
Nor mock him with a solemn sound
Upon a thoughtless tongue.

Isaac Watts.

457 "Crowned with Honor."

- THE head that once was crowned with thorns,
Is crowned with glory now;
A royal diadem adorns
The mighty Victor's brow.
- 2 The highest place that heaven affords
Is his by sovereign right:
The King of kings, and Lord of lords,
He reigns in glory bright;—
 - 3 The joy of all who dwell above,
The joy of all below,
To whom he manifests his love,
And grants his name to know.

- 4 To them the cross with all its shame,
With all its grace is given;
Their name—an everlasting name,
Their joy—the joy of heaven.
- 5 They suffer with their Lord below,
They reign with him above;
Their profit and their joy to know
The mystery of his love.
- 6 The cross he bore is life and health,
Though shame and death to him;
His people's hope, his people's wealth,
Their everlasting theme.

Thomas Kelly.

458 Reconciliation.

- COME, let us lift our joyful eyes
Up to the courts above,
And smile to see our Father there,
Upon a throne of love.
- 2 Now we may bow before his feet,
And venture near the Lord:
No fiery cherub guards his seat,
Nor double flaming sword.
 - 3 The peaceful gates of heavenly bliss
Are opened by the Son;
High let us raise our notes of praise,
And reach the almighty throne.
 - 4 To thee ten thousand thanks we bring,
Great Advocate on high,
And glory to the eternal King,
Who lays his anger by.

Isaac Watts.

All hail the power of Jesus' name! Let angels prostrate fall; Bring forth the royal di - a - dem, And crown him Lord of all; Bring forth the royal di - a - dem, And crown him Lord of all.

459

"Lord of All."

ALL hail the power of Jesus' name!

Let angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown him Lord of all.

2 Crown him, ye martyrs of our God,
Who from his altar call;
Extol the stem of Jesse's rod,
And crown him Lord of all.

3 Ye chosen seed of Israel's race,
Ye ransomed from the fall;
Hail him, who saves you by his grace,
And crown him Lord of all.

4 Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall;
Go, spread your trophies at his feet,
And crown him Lord of all.

5 Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To him all majesty ascribe,
And crown him Lord of all.

6 Oh, that with yonder sacred throng,
We at his feet may fall;
We'll join the everlasting song
And crown him Lord of all.

"Worthy the Lamb."

COME, let us join our cheerful songs

With angels round the throne;
Ten thousand thousand are their tongues,
But all their joys are one.

2 "Worthy the Lamb that died," they cry,
"To be exalted thus!"

"Worthy the Lamb!" our lips reply,
"For he was slain for us."

3 Jesus is worthy to receive
Honor and power divine;

And blessings more than we can give,
Be, Lord, for ever thine!

4 Let all that dwell above the sky,
And air, and earth, and seas,
Conspire to lift thy glories high,
And speak thine endless praise.

5 The whole creation join in one
To bless the sacred name
Of him who sits upon the throne,
And to adore the Lamb!

Our Joy and Reward.

O CHRIST! our hope, our heart's desire,
Redemption's only spring!
Creator of the world art thou,
Its Saviour and its King.

2 How vast the mercy and the love,
Which laid our sins on thee,
And led thee to a cruel death
To set thy people free!

3 But now the bonds of death are burst,
The ransom has been paid:

And thou art on thy Father's throne,
In glorious robes arrayed.

4 Oh, may thy mighty love prevail,
Our sinful souls to spare!
Oh, may we come before thy throne
And find acceptance there!

5 O Christ! be thou our present joy,
Our future great reward!
Our only glory may it be,
To glory in the Lord.

THE golden gates are lifted up,
The doors are opened wide,
The King of glory is gone in

2 Thou art gone up before us, Lord,
To make for us a place,
That we may be where now thou art,
And look upon God's face.

3 And ever on thine earthly path
A gleam of glory lies;

A light still breaks behind the cloud
That veiled thee from our eyes.

4 Lift up our hearts, lift up our minds,
Let thy dear grace be given,
That while we tarry here below,
Our treasure be in heaven!

Dwell thou in us, that we may dwell
For evermore in thee!

Job 19: 25.

I KNOW that my Redeemer lives,
And ever prays for me:
A token of his love he gives,
A pledge of liberty.

2 I find him lifting up my head;
He brings salvation near:
His presence makes me free indeed,
And he will soon appear.

3 He wills that I should holy be:
What can withstand his will?
The counsel of his grace in me
He surely shall fulfill.

4 Jesus, I hang upon thy word:
I steadfastly believe
Thou wilt return, and claim me, Lord,
And to thyself receive.

Names on his Heart.

NOW LET our cheerful eyes survey
Our great High-Priest above;
And celebrate his constant care,
And sympathetic love.

2 Though raised to a superior throne,
Where angels bow around,
And high o'er all the shining train,
With matchless honors crowned:—

3 The names of all his saints he bears
Deep graven on his heart;
Nor shall the meanest Christian say,
That he hath lost his part.

4 Those characters shall fair abide
Our everlasting trust,
When gems, and monuments, and crowns,
Are mouldered down to dust.

5 So, gracious Saviour! on my breast,
May thy dear name be worn,
A sacred ornament and guard,
To endless ages borne.

Phillip Doddridge.

465

Christ, our Priest.

COME, let us join our songs of praise
To our ascended Priest;
He entered heaven with all our names
Engraven on his breast.

2 Below he washed our guilt away,
By his atoning blood;
Now he appears before the throne,
And pleads our cause with God.

3 Clothed with our nature still, he knows
The weakness of our frame,
And how to shield us from the foes
Which he himself o'ercame.

4 Nor time, nor distance, e'er shall quench
The fervor of his love;
For us he died in kindness here,
For us he lives above.

5 Oh! may we ne'er forget his grace,
Nor blush to bear his name;
Still may our hearts hold fast his faith—
Our lips his praise proclaim.

466 Entering Ebermore.

"THE Lord is risen indeed!"
And are the tidings true?
Yes, they beheld the Saviour bleed,
And saw him living too.
"The Lord is risen indeed!"
Then justice asks no more;
Mercy and truth are now agreed,
Who stood opposed before.

2 "The Lord is risen indeed!"
Then is his work performed;
The mighty Captive now is freed,
And death, our foe, disarmed.
"The Lord is risen indeed!"
He lives to die no more;
He lives, the sinner's cause to plead,
Whose curse and shame he bore.

3 "The Lord is risen indeed!"
Attending angels! hear;
Up to the courts of heaven with speed
The joyful tidings bear.
Then wake your golden lyres,
And strike each cheerful chord;
Join, all ye bright, celestial choirs!
To sing our risen Lord.

Thomas Kelly.

467 1 Peter 1:12.

BEYOND the starry skies,
Far as the eternal hills,
There in the boundless world of light
Our great Redeemer dwells.
Around him angels fair
In countless armies shine;
And ever, in exalted lays,
They offer songs divine.

2 "Hail, Prince of life!" they cry,
"Whose unexampled love,
Moved thee to quit these glorious realms
And royalties above."
And when he stooped to earth,
And suffered rude disdain,
They cast his honors at his feet,
And waited in his train.

3 They saw him on the cross,
While darkness veiled the skies,
And when he burst the gates of death,
They saw the conqueror rise.
They thronged his chariot wheels,
And bore him to his throne;
Then swept their golden harps and sung,—
"The glorious work is done."

Hark! how the heavenly anthem drowns
All music but its own!
Awake, my soul, and sing
Of him who died for thee;
And hail him as thy matchless King
Through all eternity.

2 Crown him the Lord of love!
Behold his hands and side,—
Those wounds, yet visible above,
In beauty glorified:
No angel in the sky
Can fully bear that sight,
But downward bends his wondering eye
At mysteries so bright.

3 Crown him the Lord of heaven!
One with the Father known,—
And the blest Spirit through him given
From yonder Triune throne!
All hail, Redeemer, hail!

To Send the Comforter.

THOU art gone up on high
To mansions in the skies,
And round thy throne unceasingly
The songs of praise arise.
But we are lingering here
With sin and care oppressed:
Lord! send thy promised Comforter,
And lead us to thy rest!

2 Thou art gone up on high:
But thou didst first come down,
Through earth's most bitter misery
To pass unto thy crown.
And girt with griefs and fears
Our onward course must be;
But only let that path of tears
Lead us at last to thee!

3 Thou art gone up on high:
But thou shalt come again
With all the bright ones of the sky
Attendant in thy train.
Oh, by thy saving power
So make us live and die,
That we may stand in that dread hour
At thy right hand on high!

MIGHTY God! while angels bless thee,
May a mortal is thy name?
Lord of men, as well as angels!
Thou art every creature's theme:
Lord of every land and nation!
Ancient of eternal days!
Sounded through the wide creation—
Be thy just and awful praise.

2 For the grandeur of thy nature,—
Grand, beyond a seraph's thought;
For the wonders of creation,
Works with skill and kindness wrought;
For thy providence, that governs
Through thine empire's wide domain,
Wings an angel, guides a sparrow;—
Blesséd be thy gentle reign.

3 For thy rich, thy free redemption,
Bright, though veiled in darkness long,
Thought is poor, and poor expression;
Who can sing that wondrous song?
Brightness of the Father's glory!
Shall thy praise unuttered lie?
Break, my tongue! such guilty silence,
Sing the Lord who came to die.—

4 From the highest throne of glory,
To the cross of deepest woe,
Came to ransom guilty captives!—
Flow, my praise! for ever flow.

Re-ascend, immortal Saviour!
Leave thy footstool, take thy throne;
Thence return and reign for ever;—
Be the kingdom all thine own!

"Lo, Jehovah!"

CROWN his head with endless blessing,
Who, in God the Father's name,
With compassions never ceasing,
Comes salvation to proclaim.
Hail, ye saints, who know his favor,
Who within his gates are found;
Hail, ye saints, the exalted Saviour,
Let his courts with praise resound.

2 Lo, Jehovah, we adore thee;
Thee our Saviour! thee our God!
From his throne his beams of glory
Shine through all the world abroad.
In his word his light arises,
Brightest beams of truth and grace:
Bind, oh, bind your sacrifices,
In his courts your offerings place.

3 Jesus, thee our Saviour hailing,
Thee our God in praise we own;
Highest honors, never failing,
Rise eternal round thy throne;
Now, ye saints, his power confessing,
In your grateful strains adore;
For his mercy, never ceasing,
Flows, and flows for evermore.

 Speaking in thine ears above:
 From impending wrath release us;
 Manifest thy pardoning love.
 Oh, receive us to thy favor, —
 For his only sake receive;
 Give us to the bleeding Saviour,
 Let us by his dying live.

2 "To thy pardoning grace receive them,"
 Once he prayed upon the tree;

 All their sins were laid on me!
 Still our Advocate in heaven
 Prays the prayer on earth begun, —
 "Father, show their sins forgiven;
 Father, glorify thy Son!"

473 "Shall see his face."
 "WE shall see Him," in our nature,
 Seated on his lofty throne,
 Loved, adored, by every creature,
 Owned as God, and God alone!
 There the hosts of shining spirits
 Strike their harps, and loudly sing
 To the praise of Jesus' merits,
 To the glory of their King.

2 When we pass o'er death's dark river,
 "We shall see him as he is,"
 Resting in his love and favor,
 Owning all the glory his.
 There to cast our crowns before him,
 Oh, what bliss the thought affords!
 There for ever to adore him,
 King of kings, and Lord of lords!

474 The Paschal Lamb.
 HAIL, thou once despised Jesus!
 Hail, thou Galilean King!
 Thou didst suffer to release us;
 Thou didst free salvation bring.
 Hail, thou agonizing Saviour,
 Bearer of our sin and shame!
 By thy merits we find favor;
 Life is given through thy name.

2 Paschal Lamb, by God appointed,
 All our sins on thee were laid;
 By Almighty Love anointed,
 Thou hast full atonement made:
 All thy people are forgiven
 Through the virtue of thy blood;
 Opened is the gate of heaven,
 Peace is made 'twixt man and God.

O Christ, the Lord of heav'n! to thee, Cloth'd with all majes-ty di-vine, E-ter-nal pow'r and

475

"Lord of Heav'n."

O CHRIST, the Lord of heaven! to thee,
 Clothed with all majesty divine,
 Eternal power and glory be!
 Eternal praise of right is thine.

2 Reign, Prince of life! that once thy brow
 Didst yield to wear the wounding thorn;
 Reign, throned beside the Father now,
 Adored the Son of God first-born.

3 From angel hosts that round thee stand,
 With forms more pure than spotless snow,
 From the bright burning seraph band,
 Let praise in loftiest numbers flow.

4 To thee, the Lamb, our mortal songs,
 Born of deep fervent love, shall rise;
 All honor to thy name belongs,
 Our lips would sound it to the skies.

5 "Jesus!"—all earth shall speak the word;
 "Jesus!"—all heaven resound it still;
 Immanuel, Saviour, Conqueror, Lord!
 Thy praise the universe shall fill.

Ray Palmer.

476

"The Song of Songs."

COME, let us sing the song of songs,—
 The saints in heaven began the strain—
 The homage which to Christ belongs:
 "Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!"

2 Slain to redeem us by his blood,
 To cleanse from every sinful stain,
 And make us kings and priests to God—
 "Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!"

3 To him, enthroned by filial right,
 All power in heaven and earth proclaim,
 Honor, and majesty, and might:
 "Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!"

4 Long as we live, and when we die,
 And while in heaven with him we reign:
 This song, our song of songs shall be:
 "Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!"

James Montgomery.

477

The atoning Priest.

Now TO the Lord, who makes us know
 The wonders of his dying love,
 Be humble honors paid below,
 And strains of nobler praise above.

2 'T was he who cleansed our foulest sins,
 And washed us in his precious blood;
 'T is he who makes us priests and kings,
 And brings us rebels near to God.

3 To Jesus, our atoning Priest,
 To Jesus, our eternal King,
 Be everlasting power confessed!
 Let every tongue his glory sing.

4 Behold! on flying clouds he comes,
 And every eye shall see him move;
 Though with our sins we pierced him once,
 He now displays his pardoning love.

5 The unbelieving world shall wail,
 While we rejoice to see the day;
 Come, Lord! nor let thy promise fail,
 Nor let thy chariot long delay.

Isaac Watts.

Saviour, King, Let earth, let heaven, Hosanna sing. Ho - san - na, Lord! Hosan - na in the high - est!

478

"Hosanna!"

HOSANNA to the living Lord!
Hosanna to the incarnate Word!
To Christ, Creator, Saviour, King,
Let earth, let heaven, Hosanna sing.

2 Hosanna, Lord! thine angels cry;
Hosanna, Lord! thy saints reply;
Above, beneath us, and around,
The dead and living swell the sound.

3 O Saviour, with protecting care,
Return to this thy house of prayer:
Assembled in thy sacred name,
Where we thy parting promise claim.

4 But, chiefest, in our cleanséd breast,
Eternal! bid thy Spirit rest;
And make our secret soul to be
A temple pure, and worthy thee.

5 So in the last and dreadful day,
When earth and heaven shall melt away,
Thy flock, redeemed from sinful stain,
Shall swell the sound of praise again.

Reginald Heber.

479

Christ is God.

WHAT equal honors shall we bring,
To thee, O Lord our God, the Lamb,
When all the notes that angels sing
Are far inferior to thy name?

2 Worthy is he that once was slain,
The Prince of Peace that groaned and died,
Worthy to rise, and live, and reign
At his almighty Father's side.

3 Honor immortal must be paid,
Instead of scandal and of scorn;
While glory shines around his head,
And a bright crown without a thorn.

4 Blessings for ever on the Lamb,
Who bore the curse for wretched men;
Let angels sound his sacred name,
And every creature say, Amen.

Isaac Watts.

480

"King, Creator, Lord."

O CHRIST! our King, Creator, Lord!
Saviour of all who trust thy word!
To them who seek thee ever near,
Now to our praises bend thine ear.

2 In thy dear cross a grace is found, —
It flows from every streaming wound, —
Whose power our inbred sin controls,
Breaks the firm bond, and frees our souls.

3 Thou didst create the stars of night;
Yet thou hast veiled in flesh thy light,
Hast deigned a mortal form to wear,
A mortal's painful lot to bear.

4 When thou didst hang upon the tree,
The quaking earth acknowledged thee;
When thou didst there yield up thy breath,
The world grew dark as shades of death.

5 Now in the Father's glory high,
Great Conqueror! never more to die,
Us by thy mighty power defend,
And reign through ages without end.

SANCTUARY. 8s, 7s. D.

J. B. DYKES.

He is coming, he is coming, Not as once he came before, Wailing infant, born in weakness On a lowly stable floor: But upon his cloud of glory, In the crimson-tinted sky, Where we see the golden sunrise In the rosy distance lie.

481 The Judgment.

HE is coming, he is coming,
Not as once he came before,
Wailing infant, born in weakness
On a lowly stable floor:
But upon his cloud of glory,
In the crimson-tinted sky,
Where we see the golden sunrise
In the rosy distance lie.

2 He is coming, he is coming,
Not in pain, and shame, and woe,
With the thorn-crown on his forehead,
And the blood-drops trickling slow;
But with diadem upon him,
And the scepter in his hand,
And the dead all ranged before him,
Raised from death, hell, sea, and land.

3 He is coming, he is coming,
Not as once he wandered through
All the hostile land of Judah,
With his followers poor and few:
But with all the holy angels
Waiting round his judgment-seat,
And the chosen twelve apostles
Sitting crowned at his feet.

4 He is coming, he is coming;
Let his lowly first estate,
And his tender love, so teach us
That in faith and hope we wait,
Till in glory eastward burning,
Our redemption draweth near;
And we see the sign in heaven
Of our Judge and Saviour dear.

Mrs. C. F. Alexander.

482 "Desire of the Nations."

COME, thou long-expected Jesus.
Born to set thy people free;
From our fears and sins release us,
Let us find our rest in thee:
Israel's Strength and Consolation,
Hope of all the saints thou art;
Dear Desire of every nation,
Joy of every longing heart.

2 Born, thy people to deliver;
Born a child, and yet a King;
Born to reign in us for ever,
Now thy precious kingdom bring:
By thine own eternal Spirit,
Rule in all our hearts alone;
By thine all-sufficient merit,
Raise us to thy glorious throne.

Musical score for 'Coming Again' in 3/4 time, featuring a treble and bass clef. The score includes a 'FINER.' section and a 'D.C.' (Da Capo) instruction. The lyrics are written below the notes.

(Light of those whose dreary dwelling Borders on the shades of death!)
 Rise on us, thy love re-vealing, Dissipate the clouds beneath: Thou of heav'n and earth Creator, In our deepest darkness rise,—
 D.C.—Scattering all the night of nature, Pouring day upon our eyes.

483 The Prince of Peace.

LIGHT of those whose dreary dwelling
 Borders on the shades of death!
 Rise on us, thy love revealing,
 Dissipate the clouds beneath:
 Thou of heaven and earth Creator,
 In our deepest darkness rise,—
 Scattering all the night of nature,
 Pouring day upon our eyes.

2 Still we wait for thine appearing;
 Life and joy thy beams impart,
 Chasing all our fears, and cheering
 Every poor benighted heart:
 Come and manifest thy favor
 To the ransomed, helpless race;
 Come, thou glorious God and Saviour!
 Come, and bring the gospel grace.

3 Save us, in thy great compassion,
 O thou mild, pacific Prince!
 Give the knowledge of salvation,
 Give the pardon of our sins;
 By thine all-sufficient merit,
 Every burdened soul release;
 Every weary, wandering spirit,
 Guide into thy perfect peace.

Charles Wesley.

Though the cloud from sight received him,
 When the forty days were o'er;
 Shall our hearts forget his promise,
 "I am with you evermore"?

3 Hallelujah! Bread of angels,
 Thou on earth our food, our stay!
 Hallelujah! hear the sinful
 Flee to thee from day to day;
 Intercessor, Friend of sinners;
 Earth's Redeemer, plead for me,
 Where the songs of all the sinless
 Sweep across the crystal sea.

William C. Dix.

485 The Sinner's Friend.

FRIEND of sinners! Lord of Glory!
 Lowly, mighty! Brother, King!
 Musing o'er thy wondrous story,
 Fain would I thy praises sing.
 Friend to help us, comfort, save us,
 In whom power and pity blend,
 Praise we must the grace which gave us,
 Jesus Christ, the sinner's Friend.

2 Friend who never fails nor grieves us,
 Faithful, tender, constant, kind!
 Friend who at all times receives us,
 Friend who came the lost to find!
 Sorrow soothing, joys enhancing,
 Loving until life shall end,
 Then conferring bliss entrancing,
 Still in heaven the sinner's Friend.

3 Oh, to love and serve thee better!
 From all evil set us free;
 Break, Lord, every sinful fetter,
 Be each thought conformed to thee.
 Looking for thy bright appearing,
 May our spirits upward tend;
 Till no longer doubting, fearing,
 We behold the sinner's Friend!

Newman Hall.

484 "Earth's Redeemer."

HALLELUJAH! sing to Jesus!
 His the scepter, his the throne;
 Hallelujah! his the triumph,
 His the victory alone;
 Hark! the songs of peaceful Zion
 Thunder like a mighty flood;
 Jesus out of every nation
 Hath redeemed us by his blood.

2 Hallelujah! not as orphans
 Are we left in sorrow now;
 Hallelujah! he is near us,
 Faith believes, nor questions how:

The True Messiah.

LO, HE comes, with clouds descending,
Once for favored sinners slain;
Thousand thousand saints attending
Swell the triumph of his train;
Hallelujah!
God appears on earth to reign.

2 Every eye shall now behold him,
Robed in dreadful majesty;
Those who set at naught and sold him,
Pierced, and nailed him to the tree,
Deeply wailing,
Shall the true Messiah see.

3 Yea, Amen; let all adore thee,
High on thine eternal throne:
Saviour, take the power and glory;
Claim the kingdom for thine own.
Oh, come quickly,
Hallelujah! Come, Lord, come.

C. Wesley, alt.

Waiting and Watching.

O'ER the distant mountains breaking
Comes the reddening dawn of day;
Rise, my soul, from sleep awaking,
Rise, and sing, and watch, and pray;
'T is thy Saviour,
On his bright returning way.

2 O thou long-expected! weary
Waits my anxious soul for thee,
Life is dark, and earth is dreary,
Where thy light I do not see;
O my Saviour,
When wilt thou return to me?

3 Nearer is my soul's salvation,
Spent the night, the day at hand;
Keep me in my lowly station,
Watching for thee, till I stand,
O my Saviour,
In thy bright, thy promised land.

4 With my lamp well trimmed and burning,
Swift to hear and slow to roam,
Watching for thy glad returning
To restore me to my home.
Come, my Saviour,
Thou hast promised: quickly come.

J. S. B. Monsell.

488

"Christ is Coming!"

CHRIST is coming! let creation
Bid her groans and travail cease:
Let the glorious proclamation
Hope restore and faith increase;
Christ is coming!
Come, thou blessed Prince of peace!

2 Earth can now but tell the story
Of thy bitter cross and pain;
She shall yet behold thy glory
When thou comest back to reign;
Christ is coming!
Let each heart repeat the strain.

3 Long thy exiles have been pining,
Far from rest, and home, and thee:
But, in heavenly vesture shining,
Soon they shall thy glory see;
Christ is coming!
Haste the joyous jubilee.

VICTORY. 8s, 7s, 4s.

H. H. BEADLE

Look, ye saints, the sight is glorious, See the Man of Sorrows now: From the fight returned victorious,
 Ev - ery knee to him shall bow: Crown him, crown him! Crowns become the Victor's brow.

489

"Bing of Bings."

- LOOK, ye saints, the sight is glorious,
 See the Man of Sorrows now:
 From the fight returned victorious,
 Every knee to him shall bow:
 Crown him, crown him!
 Crowns become the Victor's brow.
- 2 Crown the Saviour, angels, crown him;
 Rich the trophies Jesus brings;
 In the seat of power enthrone him;
 While the vault of heaven rings:
 Crown him, crown him;
 Crown the Saviour, "King of kings."
- 3 Sinners in derision crowned him;
 Mocking thus the Saviour's claim:
 Saints and angels crowd around him,
 Own his title, praise his name:
 Crown him, crown him;
 Spread abroad the Victor's fame.
- 4 Hark, those bursts of acclamation!
 Hark, those loud triumphant chords!
 Jesus takes the highest station;
 Oh, what joy the sight affords:
 Crown him, crown him;
 "King of kings and Lord of lords."

Thomas Kelly.

Creation Groans.

SAVIOUR! hasten thine appearing;
 Take thy waiting people home!
 'T is this hope, our spirits cheering,
 While we in the desert roam,
 Makes thy people
 Strangers here till thou shalt come.

- 2 Lord! how long shall the creation
 Groan and travail sore in pain;
 Waiting for its sure salvation,
 When thou shalt in glory reign,
 And, like Eden,
 This sad earth shall bloom again?
- 3 Reign, oh, reign! almighty Saviour!
 Heaven and earth in one unite;
 Make it known, that in thy favor
 There alone is life and light.
 When we see thee,
 We shall have unmixed delight.

James G. Deck.

491 "Thou art Worthg."

- HOLY Saviour! we adore thee,
 Seated on the throne of God;
 While the heavenly hosts before thee,
 Gladly sing thy praise aloud.
 "Thou art worthy!
 We are ransomed by thy blood."
- 2 Saviour! though the world despised thee,
 Though thou here wast crucified,
 Yet the Father's glory raised thee,
 Lord of all creation wide;
 "Thou art worthy!
 We shall live, for thou hast died."
- 3 Haste the day of thy returning
 With thy ransomed church to reign:
 Then shall end our days of mourning,
 We shall sing with rapture then,
 "Thou art worthy!
 Come, Lord Jesus, come, Amen."

492 The Lamb's Bridal.

THE marriage feast is ready,
 The marriage of the Lamb,
 He calls the faithful children
 Of faithful Abraham:
 Now from the golden portals
 The sounds of triumph ring;
 The triumph of the Victor,
 The marriage of the King.

2 Nor sigh nor sorrow enters
 Where Jesus leads them in;
 Nor death may cross the threshold,
 Nor pain, nor fear, nor sin:
 Now shades of night and darkness
 Are past and fled away,
 Before the radiant brightness
 Of everlasting day.

3 No tear-drops stain that threshold,
 No weeping eyes are there;
 For God hath wiped all tear-drops,
 And God hath stilled all care:
 The sunlight of the Presence,
 The bright Shechinah-flame,
 Lights up the bridal banquet
 Of God and of the Lamb.

Gerard Moultrie.

493 "Four Lamps Trimmed."

REJOICE, rejoice, believers!
 And let your lights appear;
 The shades of eve are thickening,
 And darker night is near;
 The Bridegroom is advancing;
 Each hour he draws more nigh;
 Up! watch and pray, nor slumber;
 At midnight comes the cry.

2 See that your lamps are burning,
 Your vessels filled with oil;
 Wait calmly your deliverance
 From earthly pain and toil;
 The watchers on the mountains
 Proclaim the Bridegroom near;
 Go, meet him, as he cometh,
 With hallelujahs clear.

3 Our hope and expectation,
 O Jesus, now appear!
 Arise, thou sun so looked-for,
 O'er this benighted sphere!
 With hearts and hands uplifted,
 We plead, O Lord, to see
 The day of our redemption,
 And ever be with thee.

Re-joice, re-joice, be-lievers! And let your lights ap-pear; The shades of eve are thick-ning, And dark-er night is near; The Bridegroom is ad-vanc-ing; Each hour he draws more nigh; Up! watch and pray, nor slum-ber; At mid-night comes the cry.

494 Isaiah 52: 1.

AWAKE, awake, O Zion,
Put on thy strength divine,
Thy garments bright in beauty,
The bridal dress be thine:
Jerusalem the holy,
To purity restored;
Meek Bride all fair and lowly,
Go forth to meet thy Lord.

2 From henceforth pure and spotless,
All glorious within,
Prepared to meet the Bridegroom,
And cleansed from every sin;
With love and wonder smitten,
And bowed in guileless shame,
Upon thy heart be written
The new mysterious name.

3 The Lamb who bore our sorrows,
Comes down to earth again;
No sufferer now, but victor,
For evermore to reign:
To reign in every nation,
To rule in every zone,
Oh, world-wide coronation,
In every heart a throne.

4 Awake, awake, O Zion,
The bridal day draws nigh,
The day of signs and wonders,
And marvels from on high.
The sun uprises slowly,
But keep thy watch and ward:
Fair Bride, all pure and lowly,
Go forth to meet thy Lord.

Benjamin Gough

495 "How long, O Lord?"

How LONG, O Lord our Saviour,
Wilt thou remain away?
Our hearts are growing weary
At thy so long delay;
Oh, when shall come the moment,
When, brighter far than morn,
The sunshine of thy glory
Shall on thy people dawn?

2 How long, O heavenly Bridegroom,
How long wilt thou delay?
And yet how few are grieving
That thou dost absent stay!
Oh, may our lamps be burning,
Our loins well girded be,
Each longing heart preparing
With joy thy face to see!

{ Watchman, tell us of the night, What its signs of promise are. } { Trav'ler, o'er yon mountain's height, See that glory-beaming star! } Watchman, does its beauteous ray

496

Esaiah 21: 11.

WATCHMAN, tell us of the night,
 What its signs of promise are.
 Traveler, o'er yon mountain's height,
 See that glory-beaming star!
 Watchman, does its beauteous ray
 Aught of joy or hope foretell?
 Traveler, yes: it brings the day,
 Promised day of Israel.

2 Watchman, tell us of the night:
 Higher yet that star ascends.
 Traveler, blessedness and light,
 Peace and truth, its course portends.
 Watchman, will its beams alone
 Gild the spot that gave them birth?
 Traveler, ages are its own;
 See! it bursts o'er all the earth!

3 Watchman, tell us of the night,
 For the morning seems to dawn.
 Traveler, darkness takes its flight,
 Doubt and terror are withdrawn.
 Watchman, let thy wanderings cease;
 Hie thee to thy quiet home.
 Traveler, lo! the Prince of Peace,
 Lo! the Son of God is come!

John Bowring.

The triumphant Victor.

SONS of Zion, raise your songs;
 Praise to Zion's King belongs;
 His, the Victor's crown and fame:
 Glory to the Saviour's name!

Sore the strife, but rich the prize,
 Precious in the Victor's eyes:
 Glorious is the work achieved,—
 Satan vanquished, man relieved!

2 Sing we then the Victor's praise;
 Go ye forth and strew the ways;
 Bid him welcome to his throne:
 He is worthy, he alone!
 Place the crown upon his brow;
 Every knee to him shall bow:
 Him the brightest seraph sings;
 Heaven proclaims him "King of kings!"

Thomas Kelly.

498

The World's Conversion.

HASTEN, Lord! the glorious time
 When, beneath Messiah's sway,
 Every nation, every clime,
 Shall the gospel's call obey.
 Mightiest kings his power shall own,
 Heathen tribes his name adore;
 Satan and his host, o'erthrown,
 Bound in chains, shall hurt no more.

2 Then shall wars and tumults cease,
 Then be banished grief and pain;
 Righteousness and joy and peace
 Undisturbed shall ever reign.
 Bless we, then, our gracious Lord;
 Ever praise his glorious name;
 All his mighty acts record;
 All his wondrous love proclaim.

Hark! the song of Ju-bi-lee, Loud as mighty thunders roar, Or the full-ness of the sea, When it breaks up-on the shore! Hal-le-lu-jah! for the Lord God om-nip-o-tent shall reign! Hal-le-lu-jah! let the word E-cho round the earth and main.

499 "Then Cometh the End."

HARK! the song of Jubilee,
Loud as mighty thunders roar,
Or the fullness of the sea,
When it breaks upon the shore!
Hallelujah! for the Lord
God omnipotent shall reign!
Hallelujah! let the word
Echo round the earth and main.

2 Hallelujah! hark, the sound,
From the depths unto the skies,
Wakes above, beneath, around,
All creation's harmonies!
See Jehovah's banners furled,
Sheathed his sword, he speaks—'t is done!
And the kingdoms of this world
Are the kingdoms of his Son!

3 He shall reign from pole to pole,
With illimitable sway;
He shall reign, when like a scroll
Yonder heavens are passed away.
Then the end: beneath his rod
Man's last enemy shall fall:
Hallelujah! Christ in God,
God in Christ, is all in all!

James Montgomery.

500 "Desire of Nations."

COME, Desire of nations, come!
Hasten, Lord, the general doom!
Hear the Spirit and the Bride;
Come, and take us to thy side;
Thou, who hast our place prepared,
Make us meet for our reward;
Then, with all thy saints descend.
Then, our earthly trials end.

2 Mindful of thy chosen race,
Shorten these vindictive days;
Hear us now, and save thine own,
Who for full redemption groan!
Now destroy the Man of Sin,
Now thine ancient flock bring in!
Filled with righteousness divine,
Claim a ransomed world for thine.

3 Plant thy heavenly kingdom here;
Glorious in thy saints appear:
Speak the sacred number sealed,
Speak the mystery revealed;
Take to thee thy royal power;
Reign! when sin shall be no more;
Reign! when death no more shall be;
Reign to all eternity!

King eternal, strong to save!

To thee, Death, by death defeated,
Triumph high and glory gave.

2 Thou art gone where now is given
What no mortal might could gain,
On the eternal throne of heaven,
In thy Father's power to reign.

3 There thy kingdoms all adore thee,
Heaven above and earth below,

While the depths of hell before thee,
Trembling and defeated bow.

4 We, O Lord! with hearts adoring,
Follow thee above the sky:
Hear our prayers thy grace imploring,
Lift our souls to thee on high.

WAKE, awake! for night is flying;
The watchmen on the heights are crying;
Awake, Jerusalem, at last!
Midnight hears the welcome voices,
And at the thrilling cry rejoices;
Come forth, ye virgins, night is past!
The Bridegroom comes; awake,
Your lamps with gladness take;
Hallelujah!
And for his marriage feast prepare,
For ye must go to meet him there.

2 Zion hears the watchmen singing,
And all her heart with joy is springing;
She wakes, she rises from her gloom;
For her Lord comes down all-glorious;
The strong in grace, in truth victorious;

Her Star is risen, her Light is come!
Ah, come, thou blessed One,
God's own beloved Son;
Hallelujah!
We follow till the halls we see,
Where thou hast bid us sup with thee.

3 Now let all the heavens adore thee,
And men and angels sing before thee
With harp and cymbal's clearest tone;
Of one pearl each shining portal,
Where we are with the choir immortal
Of angels round thy dazzling throne;
Nor eye hath seen, nor ear
Hath yet attained to hear,
What there is ours;
But we rejoice, and sing to thee
Our hymn of joy eternally.

BRIDE of the Lamb, awake, awake!
Why sleep for sorrow now?
The hope of glory, Christ, is thine,
A child of glory thou.
Thy spirit, through the lonely night,
From earthly joy apart,
Hath sighed for one that's far away,—
The Bridegroom of thy heart.

2 But see! the night is waning fast,
The breaking morn is near;
And Jesus comes, with voice of love,
Thy drooping heart to cheer.
Then weep no more; 't is all thine own,
His crown, his joy divine;
And, sweeter far than all beside,
He, he himself is thine!

Edward Denny.

2 Jesus! thy fair creation groans,—
The air, the earth, the sea,—

Be thine the crown of glory now,
The palm of victory thine.

"Come, blessed Lord."

LIGHT of the lonely pilgrim's heart!
Star of the coming day!
Arise, and with thy morning beams
Chase all our griefs away.
Come, blessed Lord! let every shore
And answering island sing
The praises of thy royal name,
And own thee as their King.

506

"Come, Lord Jesus."

HOPE of our hearts, O Lord, appear,
Thou glorious Star of day!
Shine forth, and chase the dreary night,
With all our tears, away.
No resting-place we seek on earth,
No loveliness we see;
Our eye is on the royal crown,
Prepared for us—and thee!

2 But, dearest Lord, however bright,
That crown of joy above,
What is it to the brighter hope
Of dwelling in thy love?
What to the joy, the deeper joy,
Unmingled, pure, and free,
Of union with our living Head,
Of fellowship with thee?

Soon will the heavenly Bridegroom come; Ye wedding-guests, draw near, And slumber not in

507 "Behold, I come Quickly."

Soon will the heavenly Bridegroom come;
Ye wedding-guests, draw near,
And slumber not in sin, when he,
The Son of God, is here!
Come, let us haste to meet our Lord,
And hail him with delight;
Who saved us by his precious blood,
And sorrows infinite!

2 Beside him all the patriarchs old,
And holy prophets stand:
The glorious apostolic choir,
And noble martyr band.
As brethren dear they welcome us,
And lead us to the throne,
Where angels bow their vailéd heads,
Before the Three in One;—

3 Where we, with all the saints of God,
A white-robed multitude,
Shall praise the ascended Lord, who deigns
To bear our flesh and blood!
Our lot shall be for aye to share
His reign of peace above:
And drink, with unexhausted joy,
The river of his love.

508 The New Jerusalem.

Lo! WHAT a glorious sight appears,
To our believing eyes!
The earth and seas are passed away,
And the old rolling skies.
From the third heaven where God resides—
That holy, happy place,—
The New Jerusalem comes down,
Adorned with shining grace.

2 Attending angels shout for joy,
And the bright armies sing,—
"Mortals! behold the sacred seat
Of your descending King:—
The God of glory, down to men,
Removes his blest abode;
Men, the dear objects of his grace,
And he their loving God:—

3 "His own soft hand shall wipe the tears
From every weeping eye;
And pains, and groans, and griefs, and fears,
And death itself shall die!"
How long, dear Saviour! oh, how long
Shall this bright hour delay?
Fly swifter round, ye wheels of time!
And bring the welcome day.

The Church has waited long Her absent Lord to see; And still in loneliness she waits, A friendless stranger she.

How long, O Lord our God, Holy and true and good, Wilt thou not judge thy suffering Church, Her sighs and tears and blood?

509 "How long, O Lord?"

THE Church has waited long
Her absent Lord to see;
And still in loneliness she waits,
A friendless stranger she,
How long, O Lord our God,
Holy and true and good,
Wilt thou not judge thy suffering Church,
Her sighs and tears and blood?

2 Saint after saint on earth,
Has lived and loved and died;
And as they left us, one by one,
We laid them side by side.
We laid them down to sleep,
But not in hope forlorn;
We laid them but to ripen there,
Till the last glorious morn.

3 We long to hear thy voice,
To see thee face to face,
To share thy crown and glory then.
As now we share thy grace.
Come, Lord, and wipe away
The curse, the sin, the stain,
And make this blighted world of ours
Thine own fair world again.

Horatius Bonar.

510 "Thy Kingdom come!"

COME, kingdom of our God,
Sweet reign of light and love!
Shed peace and hope and joy abroad,
And wisdom from above.

Over our spirits first
Extend thy healing reign;
There raise and quench the sacred thirst,
That never pains again.

2 Come, kingdom of our God!
And make the broad earth thine;
Stretch o'er her lands and isles the rod
That flowers with grace divine.
Soon may all tribes be blest
With fruit from life's glad tree;
And in its shade like brothers rest,
Sons of one family.

511 Philippians 2: 10, 11.

O THOU whom we adore!
To bless our earth again,
Assume thine own almighty power,
And o'er the nations reign.
The world's Desire and Hope,
All power to thee is given;
Now set the last great empire up,
Eternal Lord of heaven!

2 A gracious Saviour, thou
Wilt all thy creatures bless;
And every knee to thee shall bow,
And every tongue confess.
According to thy word,
Now be thy grace revealed;
And with the knowledge of the Lord,
Let all the earth be filled.

512 "Come, Lord Jesus."

COME, Lord, and tarry not!
Bring the long-looked-for day;
Oh, why these years of waiting here,
These ages of delay?

2 Come, for thy saints still wait;
Daily ascends their sigh;
The Spirit and the Bride say, Come!
Dost thou not hear the cry?

3 Come, for creation groans,
Impatient of thy stay,
Worn out with these long years of ill,
These ages of delay.

4 Come, and make all things new,
Build up this ruined earth,
Restore our faded paradise,—
Creation's second birth.

5 Come, and begin thy reign
Of everlasting peace;
Come, take the kingdom to thyself,
Great King of Righteousness!

513 The hidden life.

OUR life is hid with Christ,
With Christ in God above;
Upward our heart would go to him,
Whom, seeing not, we love.

2 When he who is our life
Appears, to take the throne,
We too shall be revealed, and shine
In glory like his own.

3 He liveth, and we live!
His life for us prevails;
His fullness fills our mighty void,
His strength for us avails.

4 Life worketh in us now,
Life is for us in store;
So death is swallowed up of life;
We live for evermore.

5 Like him we then shall be,
Transformed and glorified;
For we shall see him as he is,
And in his light abide.

The Promise.

OUR blest Redeemer, ere he breathed
His tender, last farewell,
A Guide, a Comforter bequeathed,
With us to dwell.

2 He came in tongues of living flame,
To teach, convince, subdue;
All-powerful as the wind he came,
And viewless, too.

3 He came, sweet influence to impart,
A gracious, willing Guest,
While he can find one humble heart
Wherein to rest.

4 Spirit of purity and grace!
Our weakness pitying see;
Oh, make our hearts thy dwelling-place,
And worthier thee!

518 The Comforter's Lobe.

O HOLY Ghost, the Comforter,
How is thy love despised,
While the heart longs for sympathy
And friends are idolized.

2 O Spirit of the living God,
Brooding with dove-like wings
Over the helpless and the weak
Among created things!

3 Where should our feebleness find strength,
Our helplessness a stay,

Didst thou not bring us hope and help,
And comfort, day by day?

4 Great are thy consolations, Lord,
And mighty is thy power,
In sickness and in solitude,
In sorrow's darkest hour.

5 Oh, if the souls that now despise
And grieve thee, heavenly Dove,
Would seek thee, and would welcome thee,
How would they prize thy love!

Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove! With all thy quick'ning powers, Kindle a flame of sacred love In these cold hearts of ours

519 Inboration.

COME, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove!
With all thy quickening powers,
Kindle a flame of sacred love
In these cold hearts of ours.

2 Look! how we grovel here below,
Fond of these trifling toys!
Our souls can neither fly nor go
To reach eternal joys.

3 In vain, we tune our formal songs;
In vain we strive to rise;

Hosannas languish on our tongues,
And our devotion dies.

4 Dear Lord, and shall we ever live
At this poor dying rate—
Our love so faint, so cold to thee,
And thine to us so great?

5 Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove!
With all thy quickening powers;
Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,
And that shall kindle ours.

520 Guidance and Growth.

COME thou, oh, come:
Sweetest and kindest,
Giver of tranquil rest
Unto the weary soul;
In all anxiety
With power from heaven on high
Console.

2 Come thou, oh, come:
Help in the hour of need,
Strength of the broken reed,
Guide of each lonely one;
Orphans' and widows' stay,
Who tread in life's hard way
Alone.

3 Come thou, oh, come:
Glorious and shadow-free,
Star of the stormy sea,
Light of the tempest-tost;
Harbor our souls to save
When hope upon the wave
Is lost.

4 Come thou, oh, come:
Joy in life's narrow path,
Hope in the hour of death,
Come, blessed Spirit, come;
Lead thou us tenderly,
Till we shall find with thee
Our home.

Come, Holy Ghost! our hearts inspire, Let us thine influence prove; Source of the old prophetic fire! Fountain of light and love!

521 The Fount of Light.

COME, Holy Ghost! our hearts inspire,
Let us thine influence prove;
Source of the old prophetic fire!
Fountain of light and love!

2 Come, Holy Ghost! for, moved by thee,
The prophets wrote and spoke;
Unlock the truth,—thyself the key;
Unseal the sacred book.

3 Expand thy wings, celestial Dove!
Brood o'er our nature's night;
On our disordered spirits move,
And let there now be light.

4 God, through himself, we then shall know,
If thou within us shine;
And sound, with all thy saints below,
The depths of love divine.

Assurance.

- WHY should the children of a King
Go mourning all their days?
Great Comforter, descend, and bring
Some tokens of thy grace.
- 2 Dost thou not dwell in all the saints,
And seal the heirs of heaven?
When wilt thou banish my complaints,
And show my sins forgiven?
- 3 Assure my conscience of her part
In the Redeemer's blood;
And bear thy witness with my heart,
That I am born of God.
- 4 Thou art the earnest of his love,
The pledge of joys to come;
And thy soft wings, celestial Dove,
Will safe convey me home.

Sanctification.

- ETERNAL Spirit, God of truth,
Our contrite hearts inspire;
Revive the flame of heavenly love,
And feed the pure desire.
- 2 'Tis thine to soothe the sorrowing mind,
With guilt and fear oppressed;
'Tis thine to bid the dying live,
And give the weary rest.
- 3 Subdue the power of every sin,
Whate'er that sin may be,
That we, with humble, holy heart,
May worship only thee.
- 4 Then with our spirits witness bear
That we are sons of God,
Redeemed from sin, from death and hell,
Through Christ's atoning blood.

524 "Veni, Creator."

COME, O Creator Spirit blest!
And in our souls take up thy rest;
Come, with thy grace, and heavenly aid,
To fill the hearts which thou hast made.

2 Great Comforter! to thee we cry;
O highest gift of God most high!
O fount of life! O fire of love!
Send sweet anointing from above!

3 Kindle our senses from above,
And make our hearts o'erflow with love;
With patience firm and virtue high,
The weakness of our flesh supply.

4 Far from us drive the foe we dread,
And grant us thy true peace instead;
So shall we not, with thee for guide,
Turn from the path of life aside.

525 "Inward Teachings."

ETERNAL Spirit, we confess
And sing the wonders of thy grace:
Thy power conveys our blessings down
From God the Father and the Son.

2 Enlightened by thy heavenly ray,
Our shades and darkness turn to day;
Thine inward teachings make us know
Our danger and our refuge too.

3 Thy power and glory work within,
And break the chains of reigning sin;
All our imperious lusts subdue,
And form our wretched hearts anew.

Isaac Watts.

526 Spirit of Grace.

COME, sacred Spirit, from above,
And fill the coldest heart with love:
Oh, turn to flesh the flinty stone,
And let thy sovereign power be known.

2 Speak thou, and from the haughtiest eyes
Shall floods of contrite sorrow rise;
While all their glowing souls are borne
To seek that grace which now they scorn.

3 Oh, let a holy flock await
In crowds around thy temple-gate!
Each pressing on with zeal to be
A living sacrifice to thee.

527 "The Book Unfold."

COME, blessed Spirit! source of light!
Whose power and grace are unconfin'd;
Dispel the gloomy shades of night—
The thicker darkness of the mind.

2 To mine illumined eyes, display
The glorious truths thy word reveals;
Cause me to run the heavenly way,
Thy book unfold, and loose the seals.

3 Thine inward teachings make me know
The mysteries of redeeming love,
The vanity of things below,
And excellence of things above.

4 While through this dubious maze I stray,
Spread, like the sun, thy beams abroad,
To show the dangers of the way,
And guide my feeble steps to God.

3 Lead us to holiness — the road
That we must take to dwell with God;
Lead us to Christ, the living way,
Nor let us from his precepts stray.

Sending the Spirit.

WE are not left to walk alone,
The Spirit of our God hath come,
For ever with us to abide,
Our Teacher, Comforter and Guide.

2 Jesus, the Father's only Son,
Jesus, his own beloved One,
Jesus, now seated at his side,
Hath claimed us for his own, his bride.

3 Of him and his the Spirit tells,
Upon his love he sweetly dwells;
And, while we listen to his voice,
We wonder, worship and rejoice.

The Spirit near.

SURE the blest Comforter is nigh,
'T is he sustains my fainting heart;
Else would my hopes for ever die,
And every cheering ray depart.

2 When'er, to call the Saviour mine,
With ardent wish my heart aspires, —
Can it be less than power divine,
That animates these strong desires?

3 And, when my cheerful hope can say, —
I love my God and taste his grace, —
Lord! is it not thy blissful ray,
That brings this dawn of sacred peace?

4 Let thy good Spirit in my heart
For ever dwell, O God of love!
And light and heavenly peace impart, —
Sweet earnest of the joys above.

HOLY Ghost! with light divine,
Shine upon this heart of mine;
Chase the shades of night away,
Turn my darkness into day.

2 Holy Ghost! with power divine,
Cleanse this guilty heart of mine;
Long hath sin, without control,
Held dominion o'er my soul.

3 Holy Ghost! with joy divine,
Cheer this saddened heart of mine;
Bid my many woes depart,
Heal my wounded, bleeding heart.

4 Holy Spirit! all divine,
Dwell within this heart of mine;
Cast down every idol-throne,
Reign supreme — and reign alone.

HOLY Spirit, in my breast
Grant that lively faith may rest,
And subdue each rebel thought

Extinguish passion's fires;
Heal every wound;
Our stubborn spirits bend;
Our icy coldness end;
Our devious steps attend,
While heavenward bound.

Give virtue's rich reward;

Victorious death accord,
And, with our glorious Lord,
Eternal joy!

Help me on Jesus day by day to live,
And loosen more and more each earthly tie.

SPIRIT of God! descend upon my heart;
Wean it from earth, through all its pulses move;

Stoop to my weakness, mighty as thou art,
And make me love thee as I ought to love.

2 Teach me to feel that thou art always nigh;
Teach me the struggles of the soul to bear;
To check the rising doubt, the rebel sigh;
Teach me the patience of unanswered prayer.

3 Teach me to love thee as thine angels love,
One holy passion filling all my frame;
The baptism of the heaven-descended Dove,
My heart an altar, and thy love the flame.

GRACIOUS Spirit, Holy Ghost,
Taught by thee, we covet most
Of thy gifts at Pentecost,
Holy, heavenly love.

2 Faith, that mountains could remove,
Tongues of earth or heaven above,
Knowledge—all things—empty prove,
Without heavenly love.

3 Love is kind, and suffers long;
Love is meek, and thinks no wrong;
Love, than death itself more strong:
Give us heavenly love.

4 Prophecy will fade away,
Melting in the light of day;

Love will ever with us stay:
Give us heavenly love.

5 Faith will vanish into sight;
Hope be emptied in delight;
Love in heaven will shine more bright:
Give us heavenly love.

6 Faith and hope and love we see
Joining hand in hand agree;
But the greatest of the three,
And the best, is love.

Of thy gold and silver wing,
Shed on us, who to thee sing,
Holy, heavenly love.

 Let thy bright beams arise;
 Dispel the sorrow from our minds,
 The darkness from our eyes.

2 Convince us of our sin,
 Then lead to Jesus' blood,
 And to our wondering view reveal
 The mercies of our God.

3 Revive our drooping faith,
 Our doubts and fears remove,
 And kindle in our breasts the flame
 Of never-dying love.

4 'Tis thine to cleanse the heart,
 To sanctify the soul,
 To pour fresh life in every part,

Read - ing all with searching eyes— Hear us, Ho - ly Spir - it. A - men.

Last verse.

553 "The Spirit searcheth."

SPRIT of the Only Wise,
Thou in whom all knowledge lies,
Reading all with searching eyes—
Hear us, Holy Spirit

2 Comforter, to whom we owe
All that we rejoice to know
Of our Saviour's work below,
Hear us, Holy Spirit.

3 Spirit, whom our failings grieve,
Whom the world will not receive,

Who dost help us to believe,
Hear us, Holy Spirit.

4 Spirit, guarding us from ill,
Bend aright our stubborn will;
Though we grieve thee, patient still—
Hear us, Holy Spirit.

5 Thou whose grace the Church doth fill,
Showing her God's perfect will,
Making Jesus present still;
Hear us, Holy Spirit.

Spirit blest, who art a-dored With the Father and the Word, One eternal God and Lord: Hear us, Ho-ly Spir-it.

554 Keeping and Warning.

SPRIT blest, who art adored
With the Father and the Word,
One eternal God and Lord:
Hear us, Holy Spirit.

2 Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
Dew descending from above,
Breath of life, and fire of love;
Hear us, Holy Spirit.

3 Spirit guiding us aright,
Spirit making darkness light,

Spirit of resistless might;
Hear us, Holy Spirit.

4 Keep us in the narrow way,
Warn us when we go astray,
Plead within us when we pray;
Hear us, Holy Spirit.

5 Holy, loving, as thou art,
Come, and live within our heart,
Never from us to depart;
Hear us, Holy Spirit.

own bright rays im - part. { Come, Fa - ther of the fa - therless, }
{ Come, Giv - er of all hap - pi - ness, } Come, Lamp of ev - ery heart.

555 The Solace in all Woes.

COME, Holy Spirit, from above,
And from the realms of light and love
Thine own bright rays impart.

Come, Father of the fatherless,
Come, Giver of all happiness,
Come, Lamp of every heart.

2 O thou, of comforters the best,
O thou, the soul's most welcome guest,
O thou, our sweet repose,
Our resting-place from life's long care,
Our shadow from the world's fierce glare,
Our solace in all woes.

3 Wash out each dark and sordid stain,
Waver each dry and arid plain,
Raise up the bruised reed.
Enkindle what is cold and chill,
Relax the stiff and stubborn will,
Guide those that goodness need.

A. P. Stanley, tr.

556 Giver of Truth.

O HOLY Ghost, thou Fount of light,
Thy blessed radiance puts to flight
The darkness of the mind;
The pure are only pure through thee;
And thou the prisoner dost set free,
And cheer with light the blind.

2 Thy grace eternal truth instills,
The ignorant with knowledge fills,
Awakens those who sleep,
Inspires the tongue, informs the eye,
Expands the heart with charity,
And comforts all who weep.

3 Teach us to aim at heaven's high prize,
And for its glory to despise
The world and all below;
Cleanse us from sin, direct us right,
Illumine us with thy heavenly light,
Thy peace on us bestow.

4 Lord of all sanctity and might,
Eternal thou and infinite,
The life of earth and heaven;
To thee the High and Holy One,
To thee, with Father, and with Son,
Be praise and glory given.

Edward Caswall, tr.

557 The Valley of Dry Bones.

DESCEND from heaven, celestial Dove,
With flames of pure seraphic love
Our ravished breasts inspire.
O Fount of joy, blest Paraclete,
Warm our cold hearts with heavenly heat,
And set our souls on fire.

2 Breathe on these bones, so dry and dead;
Thy sweetest, softest influence shed
In all our hearts abroad.
Point out the place where grace abounds:
Direct us to the bleeding wounds
Of our incarnate God.

3 Conduct, blest Guide, thy sinner-train
To Calvary, where the Lamb was slain;
And with us there abide.
Let us our loved Redeemer meet,
Weep o'er his pierced hands and feet,
And view his wounded side.

Lord, bid thy light arise On all thy peo-ple here, And when we raise our longing eyes, Oh, may we find thee near!

558 The Light.

- LORD, bid thy light arise
On all thy people here,
And when we raise our longing eyes,
Oh, may we find thee near!
- 2 Thy Holy Spirit send,
To quicken every soul;
And hearts, the most rebellious, bend
To thy divine control.
- 3 Let all that own thy name
Thy sacred image bear,
And light in every heart the flame
Of watchfulness and prayer.
- 4 Since in thy love we see
Our only sure relief,
Oh, raise our earthly minds to thee,
And help our unbelief!

W. H. Bathurst.

559 Teaching Truth.

- COME, Spirit, source of light,
Thy grace is unconfin'd;
Dispel the gloomy shades of night,
The darkness of the mind.
- 2 Now to our eyes display
The truth thy words reveal;
Cause us to run the heavenly way,
Delighting in thy will.
- 3 Thy teachings make us know
The mysteries of thy love,
The vanity of things below,
The joy of things above.
- 4 While through this maze we stray,
Oh, spread thy beams abroad,
Disclose the dangers of the way,
And guide our steps to God.

560 The Heart Melted.

- COME, Holy Spirit, come,
With energy divine;
And on this poor benighted soul,
With beams of mercy shine.
- 2 Oh, melt this frozen heart;
This stubborn will subdue;
Each evil passion overcome,
And form me all anew.
- 3 Mine will the profit be,
But thine shall be the praise;
And unto thee will I devote
The remnant of my days.

561 The Works in Us.

- 'T is God the Spirit leads
In paths before unknown;
The work to be performed is ours,
The strength is all his own.

We still pursue our way;
And hope at last to reach the prize,
Secure in endless day.

His be the glory too.

562 The Comforter.

BLEST Comforter divine!
Let rays of heavenly love
Amid our gloom and darkness shine,
And guide our souls above.

2 Turn us, with gentle voice,
From every sinful way,
And bid the mourning saint rejoice,
Though earthly joys decay.

3 By thine inspiring breath
Make every cloud of care,
And ev'n the gloomy veil of death,
A smile of glory wear.

4 Oh! fill thou every heart
With love to all our race;
Great Comforter, to us impart
These blessings of thy grace.

Mrs. L. H. Sigourney.

563 "How We be Sanctified."

LORD God, the Holy Ghost,
In this accepted hour,
As on the day of Pentecost,
Descend in all thy power!

2 We meet with one accord
In our appointed place,
And wait the promise of our Lord,
The Spirit of all grace.

3 Like mighty rushing wind
Upon the waves beneath,
Move with one impulse every mind,
One soul, one feeling breathe.

4 The young, the old, inspire
With wisdom from above,
And give us hearts and tongues of fire
To pray, and praise, and love,

5 Spirit of light, explore
And chase our gloom away,
With luster shining more and more
Unto the perfect day.

6 Spirit of truth, be thou
In life and death our guide:
O Spirit of adoption, now
May we be sanctified!

James Montgomery.

564 Grieving the Spirit.

THE Comforter has come,
We feel his presence here,
Our hearts would now no longer roam,
But bow in filial fear.

2 This tenderness of love,
This hush of solemn power,—
'T is heaven descending from above,
To fill this favored hour.

3 Earth's darkness all has fled,
Heaven's light serenely shines,
And every heart, divinely led,
To holy thought inclines.

4 No more let sin deceive,
Nor earthly cares betray,
Oh, let us never, never grieve
The Comforter away!

Not all the outward forms on earth, Nor rites that God has given, Nor will of man, nor blood, nor birth, Can raise a soul to heav'n.

565

Utter Helplessness.

NOR all the outward forms on earth,
Nor rites that God has given,
Nor will of man, nor blood, nor birth,
Can raise a soul to heaven.

- 2 The sovereign will of God alone
Creates us heirs of grace;
Born in the image of his Son,
A new, peculiar race.
- 3 The Spirit, like some heavenly wind,
Breathes on the sons of flesh,
New-models all the carnal mind,
And forms the man afresh.
- 4 Our quickened souls awake and rise
From the long sleep of death;
On heavenly things we fix our eyes,
And praise employs our breath.

Isaac Watts.

566

The Soul Ruined.

HOW SAD our state by nature is!
Our sin—how deep it stains!
And Satan holds our captive minds
Fast in his slavish chains

- 2 But there's a voice of sovereign grace,
Sounds from the sacred word;
"Ho! ye despairing sinners, come,
And trust a pardoning Lord."
- 3 My soul obeys the almighty call,
And runs to this relief;
I would believe thy promise, Lord:
Oh, help my unbelief!
- 4 A guilty, weak, and helpless worm,
On thy kind arms I fall;
Be thou my Strength and Righteousness,
My Saviour and my All.

Isaac Watts.

567

The Load of Sin.

HOW HELPLESS guilty nature lies,
Unconscious of its load!
The heart, unchanged, can never rise
To happiness and God.

- 2 Can aught, beneath a power divine,
The stubborn will subdue?
'T is thine, almighty Spirit! thine,
To form the heart anew.
- 3 'T is thine, the passions to recall,
And upward bid them rise;

To make the scales of error fall
From reason's darkened eyes;—

- 4 To chase the shades of death away,
And bid the sinner live;
A beam of heaven, a vital ray,
'T is thine alone to give.
- 5 Oh, change these wretched hearts of ours,
And give them life divine;
Then shall our passions and our powers,
Almighty Lord! be thine.

569 "Blood of Jesus."

PRECIOUS, precious blood of Jesus,
Shed on Calvary,
Shed for rebels, shed for sinners,
Shed for thee!

2 Though thy sins are red like crimson,
Deep in scarlet glow,
Jesus' precious blood shall wash thee
White as snow.

3 Precious blood that hath redeemed us!
All the price is paid!
Perfect pardon now is offered,
Peace is made.

Not all the blood of beasts On Jewish altars slain, Could give the guilty conscience peace, Or wash away the stain.

570 "No Other Name."

Nor all the blood of beasts
On Jewish altars slain,
Could give the guilty conscience peace,
Or wash away the stain.

2 But Christ the heavenly Lamb
Takes all our sins away,
A sacrifice of nobler name
And richer blood than they.

3 My faith would lay her hand
On that dear head of thine,

While like a penitent I stand,
And there confess my sin.

4 My soul looks back to see
The burdens thou didst bear,
When hanging on the cursed tree
And hopes her guilt was there.

5 Believing, we rejoice
To see the curse remove;
We bless the Lamb with cheerful voice,
And sing his dying love.

Oh, where shall rest be found—Rest for the weary soul! 'T were vain the ocean's depths to sound, Or pierce to either pole.

571 Deut. 30: 19.

Oh, where shall rest be found—
Rest for the weary soul?
'T were vain the ocean's depths to sound,
Or pierce to either pole.

2 The world can never give
The bliss for which we sigh:
'T is not the whole of life to live,
Nor all of death to die.

3 Beyond this vale of tears
There is a life above,
Unmeasured by the flight of years;
And all that life is love.

4 There is a death whose pang
Outlasts the fleeting breath:
Oh, what eternal horrors hang
Around the second death!

5 Lord God of truth and grace!
Teach us that death to shun,

Lest we be banished from thy face,
And evermore undone.

James Montgomery.

572 A Physician Wanted.

AND wilt thou hear, O Lord,
Thy suppliant people's cry?
And pardon, though thy book record
Our crimes of crimson dye?

2 So deep are they engraved,—
So terrible their fear:
The righteous scarcely shall be saved,
And where shall we appear?

3 Let us make all things known
To him who all things sees:
That so his blood may yet atone
For our iniquities.

4 O thou, Physician blest,
Make clean the guilty soul;
And us, by many a sin oppressed,
Restore, and keep us whole!

573 Pardon and Purity.

CAN sinners hope for heaven,
Who love this world so well?
Or dream of future happiness,
While on the road to hell?
2 Shall they hosannas sing,
With an unhallowed tongue?
Shall palms adorn the guilty hand
Which does its neighbor wrong?
3 Thy grace, O God, alone,
Good hope can e'er afford!
The pardoned and the pure shall see
The glory of the Lord.

Benjamin Beddome.

574 "Jesus Only."

NOT what these hands have done
Can save this guilty soul:
Not what this toiling flesh has borne
Can make my spirit whole.
2 Not what I feel or do
Can give me peace with God;
Not all my prayers, and sighs, and tears,
Can bear my awful load.
3 Thy work alone, O Christ,
Can ease this weight of sin:
Thy blood alone, O Lamb of God,
Can give me peace within.

A CHARGE to keep I have,
A God to glorify,
A never-dying soul to save,
And fit it for the sky.
2 To serve the present age,
My calling to fulfill;
Oh, may it all my powers engage
To do my Master's will.
3 Arm me with jealous care,
As in thy sight to live;
And oh, thy servant, Lord, prepare
A strict account to give.

Assured, if I my trust betray,

576 "All Downward."

LIKE sheep we went astray,
And broke the fold of God—
Each wandering in a different way,
But all the downward road.
2 How dreadful was the hour,
When God our wanderings laid,
And did at once his vengeance pour
Upon the Shepherd's head!
3 How glorious was the grace,
When Christ sustained the stroke!
His life and blood the Shepherd pays,
A ransom for the flock.
4 But God shall raise his head,
O'er all the sons of men,
And make him see a numerous seed,
To recompense his pain.

AMAZING grace! how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found—
Was blind, but now I see.

2 'T was grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear,
The hour I first believed!

3 Through many dangers, toils, and snares,
I have already come;
'T is grace hath brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.

4 Yea, when this flesh and heart shall fail
And mortal life shall cease,
I shall possess within the veil
A life of joy and peace.

5 The earth shall soon dissolve like snow,

But God, who called me here below,

3 Salvation!—let the echo fly

Zech. 13: 1.

THERE is a fountain filled with blood,
Drawn from Immanuel's veins;
And sinners, plunged beneath that flood,
Lose all their guilty stains.

2 The dying thief rejoiced to see
That fountain in his day;
And there may I, though vile as he,
Wash all my sins away.

3 Dear dying Lamb, thy precious blood
Shall never lose its power,
Till all the ransomed church of God
Be saved to sin no more.

4 E'er since, by faith, I saw the stream
Thy flowing wounds supply,
Redeeming love has been my theme,
And shall be, till I die.

5 Then in a nobler, sweeter song,
I'll sing thy power to save,
When this poor lisping, stammering tongue
Lies silent in the grave.

William Cowper.

580 "The Strainless Robe."

AWAKE, my heart, arise, my tongue,
Prepare a tuneful voice;
In God, the life of all my joys,
Aloud will I rejoice.
'T is he adorned my naked soul,
And made salvation mine;
Upon a poor, polluted worm,
He makes his graces shine.

2 And lest the shadow of a spot
Should on my soul be found,
He took the robe the Saviour wrought,
And cast it all around.

How far the heavenly robe exceeds
What earthly princes wear!
These ornaments, how bright they shine!
How white the garments are!

3 The Spirit wrought my faith and love,
And hope and every grace;
But Jesus spent his life to work
The robe of righteousness.
Strangely, my soul, art thou arrayed,
By the great sacred Three;
In sweetest harmony of praise,
Let all thy powers agree.

CHORUS.
For I am weak and wea - ry, And helpless and de - filed. Tell me the old, old sto - ry,

Tell me the old, old sto - ry. Tell me the old, old sto - ry Of Je - sus and his love.

582 The Story of the Cross.

TELL me the old, old story
Of unseen things above,
Of Jesus and his glory,
Of Jesus and his love.
Tell me the story simply,
As to a little child,
For I am weak and weary,
And helpless and defiled.—CHO.

2 Tell me the story slowly,
That I may take it in—
That wonderful Redemption,
God's remedy for sin!
Tell me the story often,
For I forget so soon!
The "early dew" of morning
Has passed away at noon!—CHO.

3 Tell me the story softly,
With earnest tones and grave;
Remember! I'm the sinner
Whom Jesus came to save.
Tell me that story always,
If you would really be,
In any time of trouble,
A comforter to me.—CHO.

4 Tell me the same old story,
When you have cause to fear
That this world's empty glory
Is costing me too dear.
Yes, and when that world's glory
Is drawing on my soul,
Tell me the old, old story:
"Christ Jesus makes thee whole."—CHO.

TELL THE STORY 7c, 6a, D

W. G. FISCHER.

I love to tell the sto-ry Of un-seen things a-bove, Of Je-sus and his glo-ry, Of Je-sus and his love.

I love to tell the sto-ry. Be-cause I know 't is true; It sat-is-fies my longings As no-thing else can do.

CHORUS.

I love to tell the sto-ry. 'T will be my theme in glory, To tell the old, old sto-ry Of Je-sus and his love.

583 The Old, Old Story.

I LOVE to tell the story
Of unseen things above,
Of Jesus and his glory,
Of Jesus and his love.
I love to tell the story,
Because I know 't is true;
It satisfies my longings
As nothing else can do.—CHO.

2 I love to tell the story:
'T is pleasant to repeat
What seems, each time I tell it,
More wonderfully sweet.
I love to tell the story:
For some have never heard
The message of salvation,
From God's own holy word.—CHO.

3 I love to tell the story;
For those who know it best
Seem hungering and thirsting
To hear it like the rest.
And when, in scenes of glory,
I sing the NEW, NEW SONG,
'T will be the OLD, OLD STORY
That I have loved so long.—CHO.

K. Hankey.

584 Jesus' Cross.

I SAW the cross of Jesus,
When burdened with my sin;
I sought the cross of Jesus,
To give me peace within;
I brought my soul to Jesus,
He cleansed it in his blood;
And in the cross of Jesus
I found my peace with God.

CHO.—No righteousness, no merit,
No beauty can I plead;
Yet in the cross I glory,
My title there I read.

2 Sweet is the cross of Jesus!
There let my weary heart
Still rest in peace unshaken,
Till with him, ne'er to part;
And then in strains of glory
I'll sing his wondrous power,
Where sin can never enter,
And death is known no more.

CHO.—I love the cross of Jesus,
It tells me what I am:
A vile and guilty creature,
Saved only through the Lamb.

F. Whitesell.

E - ter - nal Light! e - ter - nal Light! How pure the soul must be, When, placed within thy searching sight, It shrinks not, but, with calm de-light Can live, and look on thee!

585

The Father.

ETERNAL Light! eternal Light!
 How pure the soul must be,
 When, placed within thy searching sight,
 It shrinks not, but, with calm delight
 Can live, and look on thee!

2 The spirits that surround thy throne,
 May bear the burning bliss;
 But that is surely theirs alone,
 Since they have never, never known
 A fallen world like this.

3 There is a way for man to rise
 To that sublime abode:—
 An offering and a sacrifice,
 A Holy Spirit's energies,
 An advocate with God.

4 These, these prepare us for the sight
 Of holiness above:
 The sons of ignorance and night
 May dwell in the eternal Light,
 Through the eternal Love!

Thomas Binney.

586

The Son.

O SAVIOUR, where shall guilty man
 Find rest except in thee?
 Thine was the warfare with his foe,
 The cross of pain, the cup of woe,
 And thine the victory.

2 How came the everlasting Son,
 The Lord of life, to die?
 Why didst thou meet the tempter's power,
 Why, Jesus, in thy dying hour,
 Endure such agony?

3 To save us by thy precious blood,
 To make us one in thee,
 That ours might be thy perfect life,
 Thy thorny crown, thy cross, thy strife,
 And ours the victory.

4 Oh, make us worthy, gracious Lord,
 Of all thy love to be;
 To thy blest will our wills incline,
 That unto death we may be thine,
 And ever live in thee.

C. E. May.

587

The Holy Ghost.

COME, thou who dost the soul endue
 With sevenfold gifts of grace;
 Come, thou who dost the world renew,
 Author of peace, consoler true,
 Spirit of holiness.

2 Thou didst the gospel-trumpet sound
 O'er all the world afar;
 And summon from their sleep profound
 The dead, who lay in darkness round,
 To hail the Morning Star.

3 Thine be all praise for evermore,
 From all salvation's heirs;
 Thy goodness, truth, and love, and power,
 Let all created worlds adore
 In holy hymns and prayers.

4 O thou, who teachest us to place
 In thee our hope and trust,
 The stains of former guilt efface,
 Confirm the innocent in grace,
 And glorify the just.

TAPPAN. C. M. 51.

GEO. KINGSLEY.

Go, tune thy voice to sa-cred song, Ex-ert thy no - - blest powers; Go, mingle with the cho - ral throng, The Saviour's praises to pro - long, A - mid life's fleet - ing hours.

588 "A Saviour's Blood."

GO, TUNE thy voice to sacred song,
Exert thy noblest powers;
Go, mingle with the choral throng,
The Saviour's praises to prolong,
Amid life's fleeting hours.

2 Hast found the pearl of price unknown,
That cost a Saviour's blood?
Heir of a bright celestial crown,
That sparkles near the eternal throne,
Oh, sing the praise of God!

3 Sing of the Lamb that once was slain
That man might be forgiven;
Sing how he broke death's bars in twain,
Ascending high in bliss to reign,
The God of earth and heaven!

Thomas Hastings.

589 "Eternal Life."

WOULDEST thou eternal life obtain?
Now to the cross repair;
There stand and gaze and weep and pray
Where Jesus breathes his life away;
Eternal life is there!

2 Go—there from every streaming wound
Flows rich atoning blood:
That blood can cleanse thy deepest stain,
Bid frowning justice smile again,
And seal thy peace with God.

3 Go—at that cross thy heart subdued
With thankful love shall glow;
By wondrous grace thy soul set free,
Eternal life from Christ to thee
A vital stream shall flow!

Ray Palmer.

Wouldst thou e - ter - nal life ob - tain? Now to the cross re - pair; There stand and gaze and weep and pray Where Je - sus weeps his life a - way; E - ter - nal life is there.

A - rise, my soul, a-rise! Shake off thy guilty fears; The bleeding Sacrifice In my behalf appears;
 Before the throne my Surety stands, Before the throne my Surety stands: My name is written on his hands.

590 Our Surety.

ARISE, my soul, arise!
 Shake off thy guilty fears;
 The bleeding Sacrifice
 In my behalf appears;
 Before the throne my Surety stands:
 My name is written on his hands.

2 He ever lives above,
 For me to intercede,
 His all-redeeming love,
 His precious blood to plead;
 His blood atoned for all our race,
 And sprinkles now the throne of grace.

3 My God is reconciled;
 His pardoning voice I hear;
 He owns me for his child;
 I can no longer fear;
 With confidence I now draw nigh,
 And Father, Abba, Father, cry.

Charles Wesley.

591 Year of Jubilee.

BLOW ye the trumpet, blow;—
 The gladly solemn sound;—
 Let all the nations know,
 To earth's remotest bound,
 The year of jubilee is come:
 Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

2 Jesus, our great High Priest,
 Hath full atonement made;
 Ye weary spirits, rest;
 Ye mournful souls, be glad:
 The year of jubilee is come:
 Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

3 Extol the Lamb of God,
 The all-atoning Lamb;
 Redemption in his blood
 Throughout the world proclaim:
 The year of jubilee is come;
 Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

4 The gospel trumpet hear,
 The news of heavenly grace;
 And, saved from earth, appear
 Before your Saviour's face:
 The year of jubilee is come!
 Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

Charles Wesley.

592 "The Cross Alone."

YE saints, your music bring,
 Attuned to sweetest sound,
 Strike every trembling string,
 Till earth and heaven resound;
 The triumphs of the cross we sing;
 Awake, ye saints, each joyful string.

2 The cross, the cross alone,
 Subdued the powers of hell;
 Like lightning from his throne
 The prince of darkness fell;
 The triumphs of the cross we sing;
 Awake, ye saints, each joyful string.

3 The cross hath power to save
 From all the foes that rise;
 The cross hath made the grave
 A passage to the skies;
 The triumphs of the cross we sing;
 Awake, ye saints, each joyful string.

ST. GODRIC. H. M.

J. B. DYKES.

Thy works, not mine, O Christ, Speak gladness to this heart; They tell me all is done; They bid my fear de - part : To whom, save thee, who canst alone For sin a-tone, Lord, shall I flee?

593

Thine, not mine.

THY works, not mine, O Christ,
Speak gladness to this heart!
They tell me all is done;
They bid my fear depart:
To whom, save thee, who canst alone
For sin atone, Lord, shall I flee?

2 Thy tears, not mine, O Christ,
Have wept my guilt away,
And turned this night of mine
Into a blessed day:
To whom, save thee, who canst alone
For sin atone, Lord, shall I flee?

3 Thy wounds, not mine, O Christ,
Can heal my bruised soul;
Thy stripes, not mine, contain
The balm that makes me whole:
To whom, save thee, who canst alone
For sin atone, Lord, shall I flee?

4 Thy death, not mine, O Christ,
Has paid the ransom due;
Ten thousand deaths like mine
Would have been all too few:
To whom, save thee, who canst alone
For sin atone, Lord, shall I flee?

Horatius Bonar.

594

The Sacrifice Offered.

THE atoning work is done,
The Victim's blood is shed,
And Jesus now is gone
His people's cause to plead:
He stands in heaven their great High Priest,
And bears their names upon his breast.

2 He sprinkled with his blood
The mercy-seat above;
For justice had withstood
The purposes of love;
But justice now withstands no more,
And mercy yields her boundless store.

3 No temple made with hands,
His place of service is;
In heaven itself he stands,
A heavenly priesthood his:
In him the shadows of the law
Are all fulfilled, and now withdraw.

Thomas Kelly.

595

Christ the Surety.

JESUS, my great High Priest,
Offered his blood and died;
My guilty conscience seeks
No sacrifice beside.
His precious blood did once atone;
And now it pleads before the throne.

2 To this dear Surety's hand
Will I commit my cause;
He answers and fulfills
His Father's broken laws.
Behold my soul at freedom set;
My Surety paid the dreadful debt.

3 My great and glorious Lord,
My Conqueror and my King,
Thy scepter and thy sword,
Thy reigning grace I sing.
Thine is the power; behold I sit
In willing bonds beneath thy feet.

Isaac Watts.

He lives! the great Re-deem-er lives! What joy the blest as - sur-ance gives! And now, be -

596

Christ, our Advocate.

HE lives! the great Redeemer lives!
What joy the blest assurance gives!
And now, before his Father, God,
Pleads the full merits of his blood. .

2 Repeated crimes awake our fears,
And justice armed with frowns appears;
But in the Saviour's lovely face
Sweet mercy smiles, and all is peace.

3 In every dark, distressful hour,
When sin and Satan join their power,
Let this dear hope repel the dart,
That Jesus bears us on his heart.

4 Great Advocate, almighty Friend!
On him our humble hopes depend;
Our cause can never, never fail,
For Jesus pleads, and must prevail.

Anne Steele.

597

"Behold the Way."

JESUS, my All, to heaven is gone,
He whom I fix my hopes upon;
His track I see, and I'll pursue
The narrow way till him I view.

2 The way the holy prophets went,
The road that leads from banishment,
The King's highway of holiness,
I'll go for all his paths are peace.

3 This is the way I long had sought,
And mourned because I found it not;
My grief, my burden, long had been
Because I could not cease from sin.

4 The more I strove against its power,
I sinned and stumbled but the more;
Till late I heard my Saviour say,
"Come hither, soul, I am the Way!"

5 Lo! glad I come; and thou, dear Lamb,
Shalt take me to thee as I am,
Nothing but sin I thee can give;
Nothing but love shall I receive.

6 Then will I tell to sinners round
What a dear Saviour I have found;
I'll point to thy redeeming blood,
And say, "Behold the way to God!"

John Cennick.

598

Atonement Feared.

Now to the power of God supreme
Be everlasting honors given;
He saves from hell, — we bless his name, —
He guides our wandering feet to heaven.

2 'T was his own purpose that began
To rescue rebels doomed to die;
He gave us grace in Christ, his Son,
Before he spread the starry sky.

3 Jesus, the Lord, appears at last,
And makes his Father's counsels known;
Declares the great transaction past,
And brings immortal blessings down.

4 He dies; and in that dreadful night
Doth all the powers of hell destroy;
Rising, he brings our heaven to light,
And takes possession of the joy.

Isaac Watts.

J. B. DYKES.

Je - sus, thy Blood and Righteous - ness My beau - ty are, my glo - rious dress;
 'Midst flam - ing worlds, in these ar - rayed, With joy shall I lift up my head.

599 Robe of Righteousness.

JESUS, thy Blood and Righteousness
 My beauty are, my glorious dress;
 'Midst flaming worlds, in these arrayed,
 With joy shall I lift up my head.

2 Lord, I believe thy precious blood,—
 Which, at the mercy-seat of God,
 For ever doth for sinners plead,—
 For me, ev'n for my soul, was shed.

3 When from the dust of death I rise
 To claim my mansion in the skies—
 Ev'n then, this shall be all my plea:
 Jesus hath lived, hath died for me.

4 This spotless robe the same appears,
 When ruined nature sinks in years;
 No age can change its glorious hue,
 The robe of Christ is ever new.

5 Oh, let the dead now hear thy voice:
 Bid, Lord, thy mourning ones rejoice;
 Their beauty this, their glorious dress,
 Jesus, the Lord our Righteousness.

John Wesley, tr.

600 The Seeking Robe of God.

NOW TO the Lord a noble song!
 Awake, my soul! awake, my tongue!
 Hosanna to the eternal name,
 And all his boundless love proclaim.

'2 See where it shines in Jesus' face,—
 The brightest image of his grace!
 God, in the person of his Son,
 Hath all his mightiest works outdone.

3 Grace!—'t is a sweet, a charming theme:
 My thoughts rejoice at Jesus' name:
 Ye angels! dwell upon the sound:
 Ye heavens! reflect it to the ground.

4 Oh, may I reach that happy place,
 Where he unveils his lovely face,
 Where all his beauties you behold,
 And sing his name to harps of gold.

Isaac Watts.

601 Constraining Grace.

BEFORE the throne of God above
 I have a strong, a perfect plea—
 A great High Priest, whose name is Love,
 Who ever lives and pleads for me.

2 My name is graven on his hands,
 My name is written on his heart;
 I know that while in heaven he stands,
 No tongue can bid me thence depart.

3 When Satan tempts me to despair,
 And tells me of the guilt within,
 Upward I look, and see him there
 Who made an end of all my sin.

4 Because the sinless Saviour died,
 My sinful soul is counted free;
 For God, the Just, is satisfied
 To look on him, and pardon me.

5 One with himself, I cannot die,
 My soul is purchased by his blood;
 My life is hid with Christ on high,
 With Christ, my Saviour and my God.

Mrs. C. L. Bancroft.

Let us love and sing and wonder... Let us praise the Saviour's name! He has hushed the law's loud thun-der,

He has quenched Mount Sin-ai's flame: He has washed us in his blood, He has brought us nigh to God.

602

"Lamb of God."

LET us love and sing and wonder,
 Let us praise the Saviour's name!
 He has hushed the law's loud thunder,
 He has quenched Mount Sinai's flame:
 He has washed us in his blood,
 He has brought us nigh to God.

2 Let us love the Lord who bought us,
 Pitied us when enemies;
 Called us by his grace, and taught us,
 Healed the blindness of our eyes:
 He has washed us in his blood,
 He presents our souls to God.

3 Let us sing, though fierce temptation
 Threaten hard to bear us down!
 For the Lord, our strong salvation,
 Holds in view the conqueror's crown:
 He, who washed us in his blood,
 Soon will bring us home to God.

4 Let us praise, and join the chorus
 Of the saints enthroned on high;
 Here they trusted him before us,
 Now their praises fill the sky:
 "Thou hast washed us in thy blood,
 Thou art worthy, Lamb of God!"

John Newton.

2 Oh, the wisdom of the Eternal!
 Oh, the depth of love divine!
 Oh, the sweetness of that mercy
 Which in Jesus Christ did shine!
 For the guilty, doomed to die,
 Jesus paid the penalty.

3 When before the judge we tremble,
 Conscious of his broken laws,
 May the blood of his atonement
 Cry aloud, and plead our cause;
 Bid our guilty terrors cease;
 Be our pardon and our peace.

Edward Caswall, tr.

604

The Return to Heaven.

JESUS comes, his conflict over,—
 Comes to claim his great reward;
 Angels round the Victor hover,
 Crowding to behold their Lord;
 Haste, ye saints! your tribute bring,
 Crown him, everlasting King.

2 Yonder throne, for him erected,
 Now becomes the Victor's seat;
 Lo, the Man on earth rejected!
 Angels worship at his feet:
 Haste, ye saints! your tribute bring,
 Crown him, everlasting King.

3 Day and night they cry before him,—
 "Holy, holy, holy Lord!"
 All the powers of heaven adore him,
 All obey his sovereign word;
 Haste, ye saints! your tribute bring,
 Crown him, everlasting King.

Thomas Kelly.

603

The Atonement.

HE, who once in righteous vengeance
 Whelmed the world beneath the flood,
 Once again in mercy cleansed it
 With his own most precious blood;
 Coming from his throne on high,
 On the painful cross to die.

NEANDER. 8s, 7s, 7s.

Who is this that comes from Edom, All his raiment stained with blood; To the captive speaking freedom;

Bringing and bestowing good: Glorious in the garb he wears, Glorious in the spoils he bears?

605

Isaiah 63: 1.

WHO is this that comes from Edom,
All his raiment stained with blood;
To the captive speaking freedom;
Bringing and bestowing good:
Glorious in the garb he wears,
Glorious in the spoils he bears?

2 'T is the Saviour, now victorious,
Traveling onward in his might;
'T is the Saviour, oh, how glorious
To his people is the sight!
Satan conquered, and the grave,
Jesus now is strong to save.

3 Why that blood his raiment staining?
'T is the blood of many slain;
Of his foes there's none remaining,
None the contest to maintain:
Fallen they, no more to rise,
All their glory prostrate lies.

4 Mighty Victor, reign for ever;
Wear the crown so dearly won;
Never shall thy people, never
Cease to sing what thou hast done;
Thou hast fought thy people's foes;
Thou hast healed thy people's woes.

Thomas Kelly.

BAVARIA. 8s, 7s. 6 l.

Fr. the German.

Come to Calvary's holy mountain, Sinners, ruined by the fall! Here a pure and healing fountain Flows to you, to me, to all,—
D.C.—In a full, perpetual tide, Opened when our Saviour died.

606

A Fountain Opened.

COME to Calvary's holy mountain,
Sinners, ruined by the fall!
Here a pure and healing fountain
Flows to you, to me, to all,—
In a full, perpetual tide,
Opened when our Saviour died.

2 Come, in sorrow and contrition,
Wounded, impotent, and blind!
Here the guilty, free remission,

Here the troubled, peace may find;
Health this fountain will restore,
He that drinks shall thirst no more—

3 He that drinks shall live for ever;
'T is a soul-renewing flood:
God is faithful; God will never
Break his covenant in blood,
Signed when our Redeemer died,
Sealed when he was glorified.

Ancient Melody

Be-hold the Lamb of God! O thou for sinners slain, Let it not be in vain That thou hast died;

Thee for my Saviour let me take, My on-ly ref-uge let me make Thy pierc-ed side.

607 Light and Lobr.

BEHOLD the Lamb of God!
O thou for sinners slain,
Let it not be in vain
That thou hast died:
Thee for my Saviour let me take,
My only refuge let me make
Thy piercéed side.

2 Behold the Lamb of God!
Into the sacred flood
Of thy most precious blood
My soul I cast:
Wash me and make me clean within,
And keep me pure from every sin,
Till life be past.

3 Behold the Lamb of God!
All hail, Incarnate Word,
Thou everlasting Lord,
Saviour most blest;
Fill us with love that never faints,
Grant us with all thy blesséd saints
Eternal rest.

4 Behold the Lamb of God!
Worthy is he alone,
That sitteth on the throne
Of God above;
One with the Ancient of all days,
One with the Comforter in praise,
All light and love.

LOVING-KINDNESS. L. M.

Western Melody.

A-wake, my soul, to joyful lays, And sing thy great Re-deemer's praise; He just-ly claims a song from me:

His lov-ing-kind-ness, oh, how free! Lov-ing-kindness, lov-ing-kind-ness, His lov-ing-kind-ness, oh, how free!

SCOTLAND. 12a.

J. CLARK.

The voice of free grace cries, Es-cape to the mountain, For A-dam's lost race Christ hath

o-pened a fountain; { For sin and unclean-ness, and ev-ery transgression, His Hal-le-lu-jah to the Lamb, who hath purchased our pardon, We'll blood flows most freely in streams of salva-tion, His blood flows most freely in streams of salva-tion. } praise him a - gain, when we pass o-ver Jordan, We'll praise him again, when we pass o-ver Jordan. }

608

"Flee for Life."

THE voice of free grace cries, Escape to the mountain,
For Adam's lost race Christ hath opened a fountain;
For sin and uncleanness, and every transgression,
His blood flows most freely in streams of salvation.
Hallelujah to the Lamb, etc.

2 Ye souls that are wounded! oh, flee to the Saviour!
He calls you in mercy, 't is infinite favor;

Your sins are increasing, escape to the mountain—
His blood can remove them, it flows from the fountain.
Hallelujah to the Lamb, etc.

3 With joy shall we stand when escaped to the shore;
With harps in our hands we will praise him the more!
We'll range the sweet plains on the banks of the river,
And sing of salvation for ever and ever!
Hallelujah to the Lamb, etc.

R. Burdissall.

609

Tune—LOVING-KINDNESS.

AWAKE, my soul, to joyful lays,
And sing thy great Redeemer's praise;
He justly claims a song from me:
His loving-kindness, oh, how free!

2 He saw me ruined in the fall,
Yet loved me, notwithstanding all;
He saved me from my lost estate:
His loving-kindness, oh, how great!

3 Though numerous hosts of mighty foes,
Though earth and hell my way oppose,
He safely leads my soul along:
His loving-kindness, oh, how strong!

4 When trouble, like a gloomy cloud,
Has gathered thick and thundered loud,
He near my soul has always stood:
His loving-kindness, oh, how good!

Why will ye waste on tri - fling cares That life which God's com - pas - sion spares?

While, in the va - rious range of thought, The one thing need - ful is for - got?

610 One Thing Needful.

WHY will ye waste on trifling cares
That life which God's compassion spares?
While, in the various range of thought,
The one thing needful is forgot?

2 Shall God invite you from above?
Shall Jesus urge his dying love?
Shall troubled conscience give you pain?
And all these pleas unite in vain?

3 Not so your eyes will always view
Those objects which you now pursue;
Not so will heaven and hell appear,
When death's decisive hour is near.

4 Almighty God! thy grace impart;
Fix deep conviction on each heart:
Nor let us waste on trifling cares
That life which thy compassion spares.

Philip Doddridge.

611 'God Calling Yet.'

GOD calling yet! shall I not hear?
Earth's pleasures shall I still hold dear?
Shall life's swift passing years all fly,
And still my soul in slumber lie?

2 God calling yet! shall I not rise?
Can I his loving voice despise,
And basely his kind care repay?
He calls me still; can I delay?

3 God calling yet! and shall I give
No heed, but still in bondage live?
I wait, but he does not forsake;
He calls me still; my heart, awake!

4 God calling yet! I cannot stay;
My heart I yield without delay;
Vain world, farewell! from thee I part;
The voice of God hath reached my heart.

612 "Why not To-night?"

OH, do not let the word depart,
And close thine eyes against the light;
Poor sinner, harden not thy heart:
Thou wouldst be saved; why not to-night?

2 To-morrow's sun may never rise
To bless thy long-deluded sight;

This is the time; oh, then be wise!
Thou wouldst be saved; why not to-night?

3 Our God in pity lingers still;

Renounce at length thy stubborn will;
Thou wouldst be saved; why not to-night?

"Take up thy cross," the Sav-iour said, "If thou wouldst my dis-ci-ple be;
De-ny thy-self, the world for-sake, And hum-bly fol-low af-ter me."

613

Our Cross.

- "TAKE up thy cross," the Saviour said,
"If thou wouldst my disciple be;
Deny thyself, the world forsake,
And humbly follow after me."
- 2 Take up thy cross; let not its weight
Fill thy weak spirit with alarm;
His strength shall bear thy spirit up,
And brace thy heart and nerve thine arm.
- 3 Take up thy cross, nor heed the shame;
Nor let thy foolish pride rebel;
Thy Lord for thee the cross endured,
To save thy soul from death and hell.
- 4 Take up thy cross, and follow Christ;
Nor think till death to lay it down;
For only he who bears the cross
May hope to wear the glorious crown.

"At thy Door."

- BEHOLD a Stranger at the door!
He gently knocks, has knoched before,
Has waited long, is waiting still;
You treat no other friend so ill.
- 2 Oh, lovely attitude! he stands
With melting heart and laden hands;
Oh, matchless kindness! and he shows
This matchless kindness to his foes.
- 3 But will he prove a friend indeed?
He will, the very friend you need—
The Friend of sinners; yes, 't is he,
With garments dyed on Calvary.
- 4 Rise, touched with gratitude divine,
Turn out his enemy and thine,
That soul-destroying monster sin,
And let the heavenly Stranger in.

- COME, said Jesus' sacred voice,
Come, and make my paths your choice;
I will guide you to your home;
Weary pilgrim, hither come.
- 2 Thou who, homeless and forlorn,
Long hast borne the proud world's scorn;

Long hast roamed the barren waste,
Weary wanderer, hither haste.

COME, ye disconsolate, where'er ye languish;
Come to the mercy-seat, fervently kneel;
Here bring your wounded hearts, here tell

Hope of the penitent, fadeless and pure;

Herespeaks the Comforter, tenderly saying—
Earth hath no sorrow that heaven cannot

Come to the feast of love: come, ever knowing
Earth hath no sorrow but heaven can remove.

EXPOSTULATION. 11s.

J. HOPKINS.

Oh, turn ye, oh, turn ye, for why will ye die, (When God in great mercy is coming so nigh!) And angels are waiting to welcome you (home.
(Now Jesus invites you, the Spirit says, Come,))

617

"Why will ye Die?"

OH, turn ye, oh, turn ye, for why will ye die,
When God in great mercy is coming so nigh?
Now Jesus invites you, the Spirit says, Come,
And angels are waiting to welcome you home.

2 And now Christ is ready your souls to receive,

Oh, how can you question, if you will believe?
If sin is your burden, why will you not come?
'Tis you he bids welcome; he bids you come home.

Josiah Hopkins.

No price is demanded; the Saviour is here;
Redemption is purchased, salvation is free.

2 Delay not, delay not, the Spirit of grace,
Long grieved and resisted, may take his sad flight,

And leave thee in darkness to finish thy race,
To sink in the gloom of eternity's night.

3 Delay not, delay not; the hour is at hand,
The earth shall dissolve, and the heavens
shall fade,

The dead, small and great, in the judgment
shall stand;

What helper, then, sinner, shall lend thee
his aid?

Now is th'ac-cepted time, Now is the day of grace; O sinners! come, without delay, And seek the Saviour's face.

619 The Accepted Time.

Now is the accepted time,
 Now is the day of grace;
 O sinners! come, without delay,
 And seek the Saviour's face.

2 Now is the accepted time,
 The Saviour calls to-day;
 To-morrow it may be too late;—
 Then why should you delay?

3 Now is the accepted time,
 The gospel bids you come;
 And every promise in his word
 Declares there yet is room.

4 Lord, draw reluctant souls,
 And feast them with thy love;
 Then will the angels spread their wings,
 And bear the news above.

John Dobbell.

620 "Sinner, come!"

THE Spirit, in our hearts,
 Is whispering, "Sinner, come:"
 The bride, the Church of Christ, proclaims
 To all his children, "Come!"

2 Let him that heareth say
 To all about him, "Come!"
 Let him that thirsts for righteousness,
 To Christ, the fountain, come!

3 Yea, whosoever will,
 Oh, let him freely come,
 And freely drink the stream of life;
 'T is Jesus bids him come.

4 Lo! Jesus, who invites,
 Declares, "I quickly come;"
 Lord, even so! we wait thine hour;
 O blest Redeemer, come!

Did Christ o'er sinners weep, And shall our cheeks be dry? Let floods of pen-ten-tial grief Burst forth from every eye.

621 Weeping for Sinners.

DID Christ o'er sinners weep,
 And shall our cheeks be dry?
 Let floods of penitential grief
 Burst forth from every eye.

2 The Son of God in tears
 Angels with wonder see;
 Be thou astonished, O my soul!
 He shed those tears for thee.

3 He wept that we might weep;
 Each sin demands a tear:
 In heaven alone no sin is found,
 And there's no weeping there.

622 The Call of Love.

AND canst thou, sinner! slight
 The call of love divine?
 Shall God, with tenderness, invite,
 And gain no thought of thine?

2 Wilt thou not cease to grieve
 The Spirit from thy breast,
 Till he thy wretched soul shall leave
 With all thy sins oppressed?

3 To-day a pardoning God
 Will hear the suppliant pray;
 To-day a Saviour's cleansing blood,
 Will wash thy guilt away.

Sinners, turn, why will ye die? God, your Maker, asks you—Why? God, who did your being give, Why, ye thankless creatures, why 623 Ezekiel 33: 11.

SINNERS, turn, why will ye die?
 God, your Maker, asks you—Why?
 God, who did your being give,
 Made you with himself to live;
 He the fatal cause demands,
 Asks the work of his own hands,—
 Why, ye thankless creatures, why
 Will ye cross his love, and die?

2 Sinners, turn, why will ye die?
 God, your Saviour, asks you—Why?
 He who did your souls retrieve,
 Died himself that ye might live.

Will ye let him die in vain?
 Crucify your Lord again?
 Why, ye ransomed sinners, why
 Will ye slight his grace, and die?

3 Sinners, turn, why will ye die?
 God, the Spirit, asks you—Why?
 He, who all your lives hath strove,
 Urged you to embrace his love:
 Will ye not his grace receive?
 Will ye still refuse to live?
 Why, ye long-sought sinners! why,
 Will ye grieve your God, and die?

Depth of mercy!—can there be Mer-cy still reserved for me? Can my God his wrath forbear? Me, the chief of sinners, spare?

624 "My Repentings are Kindled."

DEPTH of mercy!—can there be
 Mercy still reserved for me?
 Can my God his wrath forbear?
 Me, the chief of sinners, spare?

2 I have long withstood his grace;
 Long provoked him to his face:
 Would not hearken to his calls;
 Grieved him by a thousand falls.

3 Kindled his relentings are;
 Me he now delights to spare;
 Cries, How shall I give thee up?—
 Lets the lifted thunder drop.

4 There for me the Saviour stands;
 Shows his wounds and spreads his hands!
 God is love! I know, I feel:
 Jesus weeps, and loves me still.

HOLY OFFERINGS. P. M.

R. REDHEAD.

Ho - ly off'ings, rich and rare, Of - fer - ings of praise and pray'r, Pur - er life and pur - pose high, Clasp - ed hands, up - lift - ed eye, Low - ly acts of ad - o - ra - tion To the God of our sal - va - tion—On his al - tar laid we leave them: Christ, present them! God, receive them!

625 Vows Renewed.

HOLY offerings, rich and rare,
Offerings of praise and prayer,
Purer life and purpose high,
Claspéd hands, uplifted eye,
Lowly acts of adoration
To the God of our salvation—
On his altar laid we leave them:
Christ, present them! God, receive them!

2 Promises in sorrow made,
Left, alas! too long unpaid;
Fervent wishes, earnest thought,
Never into action wrought—
Long withheld, we now restore them,
On thy holy altar pour them:
There in trembling faith to leave them:
Christ, present them! God, receive them!

3 Vows and longings, hopes and fears,
Broken-hearted sighs and tears,
Dreams of what we yet might be
Could we cling more close to thee,
Which, despite of faults and failings,
Help thy grace in its prevailings—
On thine altar laid we leave them:
Christ, present them! God, receive them!

4 Sinful thoughts and wilful ways,
Love of self and human praise,
Pride of life and lust of eye,
Worldly pomp and vanity—
Faults that let and will not leave us,
Though their staying sorely grieve us,
Help, oh, help us to outlive them;
Christ, atone for! God, forgive them!

5 Brighter joys and tenderer tears,
Fonder faith, more faithful fears,
Lowlier penitence for sin,
More of Christ our souls within;
Love which, when its life was newer,
Burnt within us deeper, truer—
Lost too long, while we deplore them:
Jesus, plead for! God, restore them!

6 To the Father, and the Son,
And the Spirit, Three in One,
Though our mortal weakness raise
Offerings of imperfect praise,
Yet with hearts bowed down most lowly,
Crying, Holy! Holy! Holy!
On thine altar laid we leave them:
Christ, present them! God, receive them!

LORD, I hear of showers of blessing,
Thou art scattering full and free:
Showers the thirsty land refreshing;
Let some droppings fall on me—Even me,

2 Pass me not, O gracious Father;
Sinful though my heart may be;
Thou mightst leave me, but the rather
Let thy mercy light on me—Even me.

3 Pass me not, O gracious Saviour;
Let me love and cling to thee:
I am longing for thy favor, [me]
Whilst thou'rt calling, oh, call me—Even

4 Pass me not, O mighty Spirit;
Thou canst make the blind to see;
Witnesser of Jesus' merit,
Speak the word of power to me—Even'ne.

5 Love of God, so pure and changeless;
Blood of Christ, so rich and free;
Grace of God, so strong and boundless,
Magnify it all in me—Even me.

6 Pass me not, but, pardon bringing,
Bind my heart, O Lord, to thee;
Whilst the streams of life are springing,
Blessing others, oh, bless me—Even me.

"God be Merciful."

LORD, in this thy mercy's day,
Ere from us it pass away,
On our knees we fall and pray.

2 Holy Jesus, grant us tears,
Fill us with heart-searching fears,
Ere the hour of doom appears.

3 Lord, on us thy Spirit pour,
Kneeling lowly at the door,
Ere it close for evermore.

4 By thy night of agony,
By thy supplicating cry,
By thy willingness to die,—

5 By thy tears of bitter woe
For Jerusalem below,
Let us not thy love forego.

6 Judge and Saviour of our race,
Grant us, when we see thy face,
With thy ransomed ones a place.

THY life was given for me,
Thy blood, O Lord, was shed,
That I might ransomed be,
And quickened from the dead;
Thy life was given for me;
What have I given for thee?

2 Long years were spent for me
In weariness and woe,
That through eternity
Thy glory I might know;
Long years were spent for me;
Have I spent one for thee?

3 Thy Father's home of light,
The rainbow-circled throne,
Were left for earthly night,
For wanderings sad and lone;
Yea; all was left for me;
Have I left aught for thee?

4 Thou, Lord, hast borne for me
More than my tongue can tell
Of bitterest agony,
To rescue me from hell;
Thou sufferedst all for me;
What have I borne for thee?

5 And thou hast brought to me
Down from thy home above
Salvation full and free,
Thy pardon and thy love;
Great gifts thou broughtest me;
What have I brought to thee?

6 Oh, let my life be given,
My years for thee be spent;
World-fetters all be riven,
And joy with suffering blent;
Thou gavest thyself for me,
I give myself to thee.

630 "Jesus, Our Salvation."

O JESUS, our salvation,
 Low at thy cross we lie;
 Lord, in thy great compassion,
 Hear our bewailing cry.
 We come to thee with mourning,
 We come to thee in woe;
 With contrite hearts returning,
 And tears that overflow.

2 O gracious Intercessor,
 O Priest within the veil,
 Plead, for each lost transgressor,
 The blood that cannot fail.
 We spread our sins before thee,
 We tell them one by one;
 Oh, for thy name's great glory,
 Forgive all we have done.

3 Oh, by thy cross and passion,
 Thy tears and agony,
 And crown of cruel fashion,
 And death on Calvary;
 By all that untold suffering,
 Endured by thee alone;
 O Priest, O spotless offering,
 Plead for us, and atone!

4 And in these hearts now broken
 Re-enter thou and reign,
 And say, by that dear token,
 We are absolved again.
 And build us up, and guide us,
 And guard us day by day;
 And in thy presence hide us,
 And take our sins away.

James Hamilton.

631 Hope at the Cross.

WHEN human hopes all wither,
 And friends no aid supply,
 Then whither, Lord, ah! whither
 Can turn my straining eye?
 'Mid storms of grief still rougher,
 'Midst darker, deadlier shade,
 That cross where thou didst suffer,
 On Calvary was displayed.

2 On that my gaze I fasten,
 My refuge that I make;
 Though sorely thou mayst chasten,
 Thou never canst forsake;
 Thou on that cross didst languish,
 Ere glory crowned thy head!
 And I, through death and anguish,
 Must be to glory led.

632

At the Door.

O JESUS, thou art standing
 Outside the fast-closed door,
 In lowly patience waiting
 To pass the threshold o'er:
 We bear the name of Christians,
 His name and sign we bear:
 Oh, shame, thrice shame upon us!
 To keep him standing there.

2 O Jesus, thou art knocking:
 And lo! that hand is scarred,
 And thorns thy brow encircle,
 And tears thy face have marred:
 Oh, love that passeth knowledge,
 So patiently to wait!
 Oh, sin that hath no equal,
 So fast to bar the gate!

3 O Jesus, thou art pleading
 In accents meek and low,—
 "I died for you, my children,
 And will ye treat me so?"
 O Lord, with shame and sorrow
 We open now the door:
 Dear Saviour, enter, enter,
 And leave us nevermore!

William W. How.

633

"Give Us Pardon."

WE stand in deep repentance,
 Before thy throne of love;
 O God of grace, forgive us;
 The stain of guilt remove;
 Behold us while with weeping
 We lift our eyes to thee;
 And all our sins subduing,
 Our Father, set us free!

2 Oh, shouldst thou from us fallen
 Withhold thy grace to guide,
 For ever we should wander,
 From thee, and peace, aside;
 But thou to spirits contrite
 Dost light and life impart,
 That man may learn to serve thee—
 With thankful, joyous heart.

3 Our souls—on thee we cast them,
 Our only refuge thou!
 Thy cheering words revive us,
 When pressed with grief we bow:
 Thou bearest the trusting spirit
 Upon thy loving breast,
 And givest all thy ransomed
 A sweet, unending rest.

There is a ho - ly sac - ri - fice, Which God in heav'n will not de - spise,
Yea, which is pre - cious in his eyes,— The con - trite heart.

634 The Contrite Heart.

THERE is a holy sacrifice,
Which God in heaven will not despise,
Yea, which is precious in his eyes,—
The contrite heart.

2 That lofty One, before whose throne
The countless hosts of heaven bow down,
Another dwelling-place will own,—
The contrite heart.

3 The holy One, the Son of God,
His pardoning love will shed abroad,
And consecrate as his abode
The contrite heart.

4 The Holy Spirit from on high
Will listen to its faintest sigh,
And cheer, and bless, and purify
The contrite heart.

5 Saviour, I cast my hopes on thee;
Such as thou art I fain would be;
In mercy, Lord, bestow on me
The contrite heart.

Charlotte Elliott.

3 Spirit of glory and of God!
Long hast thou dign'd my guide to be;
Now be thy comfort sweet bestowed;
I come to thee.

4 I come to join that countless host,
Who praise thy name unceasingly;
Blest Father, Son, and Holy Ghost!
I come to thee.

Charlotte Elliott.

636 "O Lamb of God."

O LAMB of God! that tak'st away
Our sin, and bidd'st our sorrow cease,
Turn thou, oh, turn this night to day,
Grant us thy peace!

2 The troubled world hath war without;
The restless, wayward heart within
Hath fear and weariness and doubt,
And death and sin.

3 And there are needs that none can know,
And tears no eye but thine can see;
Hopes naught can satisfy below;
We look to thee.

4 'Tis not the calm, deceitful dream
That earth calls peace, we ask for now:
No dropping down the fatal stream
With careless prow.

5 Probe deep the wound if so thou wilt,
If pain must wake us. Purge our dross;
Help us to lay our load of guilt
Beneath thy cross.

Mrs. Alassie B. Faussett.

635 The Heart Surrendered.

God of my life! thy boundless grace
Chose, pardoned, and adopted me;

Whose precious blood was shed for me,
Into thy hands my soul I yield;

2 Look down on me, for I am weak,
I feel the toilsome journey's length;
Thine aid omnipotent I seek:
Thou art my Strength.

3 I am bewildered on my way,
Dark and tempestuous is the night;
Oh, send thou forth some cheering ray:
Thou art my Light.

4 When Satan flings his fiery darts,
I look to thee; my terrors cease;
Thy cross a hiding-place imparts:
Thou art my Peace.

5 Standing alone on Jordan's brink,
In that tremendous latest strife,
Thou wilt not suffer me to sink:
Thou art my Life.

6 Thou wilt my every want supply,

Through life, in death, eternally,
Thou art my All.

638 Leaning on Christ.

LEANING on thee, my guide and friend,
My gracious Saviour, I am blest:
Though weary thou dost condescend
To be my rest.

2 Leaning on thee, with childlike faith,
To thee the future I confide;
Each step of life's untrodden path
Thy love will guide.

3 Leaning on thee, I breathe no moan,
Tho' faint with languor, parched with heat:
Thy will has now become my own —
That will is sweet.

4 Leaning on thee, though faint and weak,
Too weak another voice to hear,
Thy heavenly accents comfort speak,
"Be of good cheer."

639 Help from Above.

My heart lies dead; and no increase
Doth my dull husbandry improve:
Oh, let thy graces, without cease,
Drop from above.

2 Thy dew doth every morning fall:
And shall the dew outstrip thy Dove?—
The dew for which earth cannot call,
Drop from above!

3 The world is tempting still my heart
Unto a hardness void of love;
Let heavenly grace, to cross its art,
Drop from above!

4 Oh, come; for thou dost know the way!
Or if to me thou wilt not move,
Remove me where I need not say,
"Drop from above!"

Because thy promise I believe,

Can for a single sin atone;
To Calvary alone I flee:

Psalm 51.

SHOW pity, Lord! O Lord! forgive;
Let a repenting rebel live;
Are not thy mercies large and free?
May not a sinner trust in thee?

2 Oh, wash my soul from every sin,
And make my guilty conscience clean;
Here on my heart the burden lies,
And past offences pain mine eyes.

3 My lips with shame my sins confess,
Against thy law, against thy grace:
Lord! should thy judgments grow severe,
I am condemned, but thou art clear.

4 Should sudden vengeance seize my breath,
I must pronounce thee just in death;
And if my soul were sent to hell,
Thy righteous law approves it well.

5 Yet save a trembling sinner, Lord!
Whose hope, still hovering round thy word,
Would light on some sweet promise there,
Some sure support against despair.

Isaac Watts.

A trembling sinner, Lord, I cry:

Christ and his cross my only plea:
O God, be merciful to me!

646

Psalm 51.

A BROKEN heart, my God, my King,
Is all the sacrifice I bring:
The God of grace will ne'er despise
A broken heart for sacrifice.
2 My soul lies humbled in the dust,
And owns thy dreadful sentence just;
Look down, O Lord, with pitying eye,
And save the soul condemned to die.
3 Then will I teach the world thy ways;
Sinners shall learn thy sovereign grace;
I'll lead them to my Saviour's blood,
And they shall praise a pardoning God.
4 Oh, may thy love inspire my tongue!
Salvation shall be all my song;
And all my powers shall join to bless

Philippians 3: 7-10.

NO MORE, my God! I boast no more,
Of all the duties I have done;
I quit the hopes I held before,
To trust the merits of thy Son.
2 Now for the love I bear his name,
What was my gain, I count but loss;
My former pride I call my shame,
And nail my glory to his cross.
3 Yes—and I must, and will esteem
All things but loss for Jesus' sake;
Oh, may my soul be found in him,
And of his righteousness partake.
4 The best obedience of my hands
Dares not appear before thy throne;
But faith can answer thy demands,
By pleading what my Lord has done.

648 "Return."

O THOU, whose tender mercy hears
Contrition's humble sigh;
Whose hand indulgent wipes the tears
From sorrow's weeping eye;—

2 See, Lord, before thy throne of grace,
A wretched wanderer mourn;

Hast thou not bid me seek thy face?
Hast thou not said—"Return"?

3 And shall my guilty fears prevail
To drive me from thy feet?
Oh, let not this dear refuge fail,
This only safe retreat!

4 Oh, shine on this benighted heart,
With beams of mercy shine!
And let thy healing voice impart
The sense of joy divine.

Anne Steele.

649 "Remember still."

O THOU, from whom all goodness flows,
I lift my soul to thee;
In all my sorrows, conflicts, woes,
O Lord, remember me!

2 When on my aching, burdened heart
My sins lie heavily,
Thy pardon grant, new peace impart;
Thus, Lord, remember me!

3 When trials sore obstruct my way,
And ills I cannot flee,
Oh, let my strength be as my day—
Dear Lord, remember me!

4 When in the solemn hour of death
I wait thy just decree:
Be this the prayer of my last breath:
Now, Lord, remember me!

650 Deep Penitence.

PROSTRATE, dear Jesus, at thy feet,
A guilty rebel lies;
And upwards, to thy mercy-seat,
Presumes to lift his eyes.

2 Let not thy justice frown me hence;
Oh, stay the vengeful storm;
Forbid it, that Omnipotence
Should crush a feeble worm.

3 If tears of sorrow could suffice
To pay the debt I owe,

Tears should, from both my weeping eyes,
In ceaseless currents flow.

4 But no such sacrifice I plead
To expiate my guilt;
No tears, but those which thou hast shed,—
No blood, but thou hast spilt.

5 Think of thy sorrows, dearest Lord!
And all my sins forgive,
Then justice will approve the word,
That bids the sinner live.

Love divine, all love excelling,—Joy of heav'n, to earth come down! Fix in us thy humble dwelling,

En-ter ev-ery trem-bling heart.

651 "Finish Thy New Creation."

LOVE divine, all love excelling,—
Joy of heaven, to earth come down!
Fix in us thy humble dwelling,
All thy faithful mercies crown;
Jesus! thou art all compassion,
Pure, unbounded love thou art;
Visit us with thy salvation,
Enter every trembling heart.

2 Breathe, oh, breathe thy loving Spirit,
Into every troubled breast!
Let us all in thee inherit,
Let us find the promised rest;
Take away the love of sinning;
Alpha and Omega be;
End of faith, as its beginning!
Set our hearts at liberty.

3 Come, almighty to deliver,
Let us all thy life receive!
Speedily return, and never,
Never more thy temples leave!
Thee we would be always blessing,
Serve thee as thy hosts above,
Pray, and praise thee without ceasing,
Glory in thy perfect love.

4 Finish then thy new creation,
Pure, unspotted may we be:
Let us see our whole salvation,
Perfectly secured by thee!

Changed from glory into glory,
Till in heaven we take our place;
Till we cast our crowns before thee,
Lost in wonder, love, and praise.

Charles Wesley.

652 "Tahr sār."

TAKE me, O my Father, take me!
Take me, save me, through thy Son;
That which thou wouldst have me, make me,
Let thy will in me be done.
Long from thee my footsteps straying,
Thorny proved the way I trod;
Weary come I now, and praying—
Take me to thy love, my God!

2 Fruitless years with grief recalling,
Humbly I confess my sin;
At thy feet, O Father, falling,
To thy household take me in.
Freely now to thee I proffer
This relenting heart of mine;
Freely life and soul I offer—
Gift unworthy love like thine.

3 Once the world's Redeemer, dying,
Bare our sins upon the tree;
On that sacrifice relying,
Now I look in hope to thee;
Father, take me! all forgiving,
Fold me to thy loving breast;
In thy love for ever living,
I must be for ever blest!

"Ecep Sic Ebrt."

HOLY Father, thou hast taught me
I should live to thee alone;
Year by year thy hand hath brought me
On through dangers oft unknown.
When I wandered, thou hast found me;
When I doubted, sent me light;
Still thine arm has been around me,
All my paths were in thy sight,

2 In the world will foes assail me,
Craftier, stronger far than I;
And the strife may never fail me,
Well I know, before I die.

Therefore, Lord, I come believing
Thou canst give the power I need;
Through the prayer of faith receiving
Strength—the Spirit's strength, indeed.

3 I would trust in thy protection,
Wholly rest upon thine arm;
Follow wholly thy direction,
Thou, mine only guard from harm!
Keep me from mine own undoing,
Help me turn to thee when tried,
Still my footsteps, Father, viewing,
Keep me ever at thy side.

654

A Closer Walk.

OH, for a closer walk with God,
A calm and heavenly frame,—
A light to shine upon the road
That leads me to the Lamb!

2 Where is the blessedness I knew
When first I saw the Lord?
Where is the soul-refreshing view
Of Jesus and his word?

3 What peaceful hours I once enjoyed!
How sweet their memory still!
But they have left an aching void
The world can never fill.

4 Return, O holy Dove, return,
Sweet messenger of rest!
I hate the sins that made thee mourn,
And drove thee from my breast.

5 The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from thy throne,
And worship only thee.

6 So shall my walk be close with God,
Calm and serene my frame;
So purer light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

Greatness in Service.

OH, not to fill the mouth of fame
My longing soul is stirred:
Oh, give me a diviner name!
Call me thy servant, Lord!

2 No longer would my soul be known
As uncontrolled and free;
Oh, not mine own, oh, not mine own!
Lord, I belong to thee!

3 Thy servant,— me thy servant choose;
Naught of thy claim abate!
The glorious name I would not lose,
Nor change the sweet estate.

4 In life, in death, on earth, in heaven,
This is the name for me!
The same sweet style and title given
Through all eternity.

"Tremblingly at my Word."

OH, for that tenderness of heart,
That bows before the Lord;
That owns how just and good thou art,
And trembles at thy word.

2 Oh, for those humble, contrite tears,
Which from repentance flow;
That sense of guilt which, trembling, fears
The long-suspended blow!

3 Saviour! to me, in pity give,
For sin, the deep distress;
The pledge thou wilt, at last, receive,
And bid me die in peace.

4 Oh, fill my soul with faith and love,
And strength to do thy will;
Raise my desires and hopes above,—
Thyself to me reveal.

Psalm 42.

AS PANTS the hart for cooling streams,
When heated in the chase,
So longs my soul, O God, for thee,
And thy refreshing grace.

- 2 For thee, my God—the living God,
My thirsty soul doth pine;
Oh, when shall I behold thy face,
Thou Majesty divine!
- 3 Why restless, why cast down, my soul?
Trust God; who will employ
His aid for thee, and change these sighs
To thankful hymns of joy.
- 4 I sigh to think of happier days,
When thou, O Lord! wast nigh;
When every heart was tuned to praise,
And none more blest than I.
- 5 Why restless, why cast down, my soul?
Hope still; and thou shalt sing
The praise of him who is thy God,
Thy health's eternal spring.

Henry F. Lyte.

658

"I shall be with Him."

LORD, it belongs not to my care
Whether I die or live;
To love and serve thee is my share,
And this thy grace must give.

- 2 If life be long, I will be glad
That I may long obey;
If short, yet why should I be sad
To soar to endless day?
- 3 Christ leads me through no darker rooms
Than he went through before;
No one into his kingdom comes,
But through his opened door.
- 4 Come, Lord, when grace has made me meet,
Thy blessed face to see;
For if thy work on earth be sweet,
What will thy glory be!
- 5 My knowledge of that life is small;
The eye of faith is dim;
But 't is enough that Christ knows all,
And I shall be with him.

"Through Peace to Light."

I DO not ask that life may be,
O Lord, a pleasant road;
Nor that thou wouldst take from me,
Aught of its weary load.

- 2 For one thing chiefly do I plead,
Dear Lord, lead me aright; [bleed,
Though strength should fail, and heart should
Lead me through peace to light.

3 I do not ask to understand
My cross, my way to see;
Let me, in darkness, feel thy hand,
And simply follow thee.

- 4 Joy is like day, but peace divine
May rule the quiet night:
Lead me, till perfect day shall shine,
O Lord, through peace to light.

SAVIOUR, when, in dust, to thee
Low we bend the adoring knee;
When, repentant, to the skies
Scarce we lift our weeping eyes;
Oh, by all thy pains and woe
Suffered once for man below,
Bending from thy throne on high,
Hear our solemn Litany!

2 By thy helpless infant years,
By thy life of want and tears,
By thy days of sore distress
In the savage wilderness;
By the dread mysterious hour
Of the insulting tempter's power,
Turn, oh, turn a favoring eye:
Hear our solemn Litany!

3 By thine hour of dire despair;
By thine agony of prayer;
By the cross, the nail, the thorn,
Piercing spear, and torturing scorn;
By the gloom that veiled the skies
O'er the dreadful sacrifice;—
Listen to our humble cry
Hear our solemn Litany!

4 By thy deep expiring groan;
By the sad sepulchral stone;
By the vault whose dark abode
Held in vain the rising God;—
Oh, from earth to heaven restored,
Mighty re-ascending Lord!
Listen, listen to the cry
Of our solemn Litany!

JESUS! lover of my soul,
 Let me to thy bosom fly
 While the billows near me roll,
 While the tempest still is high;
 Hide me, O my Saviour! hide,
 Till the storm of life is past;
 Safe into the haven guide;
 Oh, receive my soul at last!
 2 Other refuge have I none;
 Hangs my helpless soul on thee;
 Leave, ah! leave me not alone,
 Still support and comfort me.
 All my trust on thee is stayed;
 All my help from thee I bring;
 Cover my defenceless head
 With the shadow of thy wing.

3 Thon, O Christ! art all I want;
 More than all in thee I find;
 Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
 Heal the sick, and lead the blind.
 Just and holy is thy name,
 I am all unrighteousness;
 Vile and full of sin I am,
 Thou art full of truth and grace.
 4 Plenteous grace with thee is found,-
 Grace to pardon all my sin;
 Let the healing streams abound,
 Make and keep me pure within;
 Thou of life the fountain art,
 Freely let me take of thee;
 Spring thou up within my heart,
 Rise to all eternity.

CHOSEN not for good in me,
 Waked from coming wrath to flee,
 Hidden in the Saviour's side,
 By the Spirit sanctified —
 Teach me, Lord, on earth to show,
 By my love, how much I owe.

2 Oft I walk beneath the cloud,
 Dark as midnight's gloomy shroud:
 But, when fear is at the height,
 Jesus comes, and all is light;
 Blesséd Jesus! bid me show
 Doubting saints how much I owe.

3 Oft the nights of sorrow reign —
 Weeping, sickness, sighing, pain;
 But a night thine anger burns —
 Morning comes, and joy returns;
 God of comforts! bid me show
 To thy poor how much I owe.

3 There are soft and flowery glades,
 Decked with golden-fruited trees —
 Sunny slopes, and scented shades;
 Keep us, Lord, from slothful ease:
 Holy Jesus! day by day
 Lead us in the narrow way.

4 Upward still to purer heights,
 Onward yet to scenes more blest,
 Calmer regions, clearer lights,
 Till we reach the promised rest —
 Holy Jesus! day by day
 Lead us in the narrow way.

The Narrow Way.

LORD, thy children guide and keep,
 As with feeble steps they press
 On the pathway rough and steep
 Through this weary wilderness:
 Holy Jesus! day by day
 Lead us in the narrow way.

2 There are sandy wastes that lie
 Cold and sunless, vast and drear,
 Where the feeble faint and die;
 Grant us grace to persevere —
 Holy Jesus! day by day
 Lead us in the narrow way.

665 "Chief of Sinners."

CHIEF of sinners though I be,
 Jesus shed his blood for me;
 Died that I might live on high,
 Died that I might never die;
 As the branch is to the vine,
 I am his and he is mine.

2 Oh, the height of Jesus' love!
 Higher than the heavens above,
 Deeper than the depths of sea,
 Lasting as eternity;
 Love that found me, — wondrous thought! —
 Found me when I sought him not!

3 Chief of sinners though I be,
 Christ is all in all to me;
 All my wants to him are known,
 All my sorrows are his own;
 Safe with him from earthly strife,
 He sustains my hidden life.

Firmly fixed no more to move;
Then my Saviour was my song,
Then my soul was filled with love;
Those were happy, golden days,
Sweetly spent in prayer and praise.

2 Little then myself I knew,
Little thought of Satan's power;
Now I feel my sins anew;
Now I feel the stormy hour!
Sin has put my joys to flight;
Sin has turned my day to night.

"Prayer of Prayer."

O THOU God who hearest prayer
Every hour and everywhere!
For his sake, whose blood I plead,
Hear me in my hour of need:
Only hide not now thy face,
God of all-sufficient grace!

2 Leave me not, my strength, my trust;
Oh, remember I am dust:
Leave me not again to stray;
Leave me not the tempter's prey:
Fix my heart on things above;
Make me happy in thy love.

3 Hear and save me, gracious Lord!
For my trust is in thy word;
Wash me from the stain of sin,
That thy peace may rule within:
May I know myself thy child,
Ransomed, pardoned, reconciled.

669 "Where is the Blessedness?"

SWEET was the time when first I felt
The Saviour's pardoning blood
Applied to cleanse my soul from guilt,
And bring me home to God.

2 Soon as the morn the light revealed,
His praises tuned my tongue;
And, when the evening shade prevailed,
His love was all my song.

3 In prayer, my soul drew near the Lord,
And saw his glory shine;
And when I read his holy word,
I called each promise mine.

4 Now, when the evening shade prevails,
My soul in darkness mourns;
And when the morn the light reveals,
No light to me returns.

5 Rise, Saviour! help me to prevail,
And make my soul thy care;
I know thy mercy cannot fail,
Let me that mercy share.

670 "What Hourly Dangers!"

ALAS! what hourly dangers rise!
What snares beset my way!
To heaven, oh, let me lift mine eyes,
And hourly watch and pray.

2 How oft my mournful thoughts complain,
And melt in flowing tears!
My weak resistance, ah, how vain!
How strong my foes and fears!

3 O gracious God! in whom I live,
My feeble efforts aid;
Help me to watch, and pray, and strive,
Though trembling and afraid.

4 Increase my faith, increase my hope,
When foes and fears prevail;
And bear my fainting spirit up;
Or soon my strength will fail.

5 Oh, keep me in thy heavenly way,
And bid the tempter flee!
And let me never, never stray
From happiness and thee.

671 "Peace, be Still."

FIERCE raged the tempest o'er the deep,
Watch did thine anxious servants keep,
But thou wast wrapped in guileless sleep,
Calm and still.

2 "Save, Lord, we perish," was their cry,
"Oh, save us in our agony!"
Thy word above the storm rose high,
"Peace, be still."

3 The wild winds hushed; the angry deep
Sank, like a little child, to sleep;
The sullen billows ceased to leap,
At thy will.

4 So, when our life is clouded o'er,
And storm-winds drift us from the shore,
Say, lest we sink to rise no more,
"Peace, be still."

672 God's Plan for Us.

FATHER, I know that all my life
Is portioned out for me;
The changes that will surely come
I do not fear to see:
I ask thee for a present mind,
Intent on pleasing thee.

2 I ask thee for a thoughtful love,
Through constant watching wise,
To meet the glad with joyful smiles,
And wipe the weeping eyes;
A heart at leisure from itself,
To soothe and sympathize.

3 I would not have the restless will
That hurries to and fro,
Seeking for some great thing to do,
Or secret thing to know:
I would be treated as a child,
And guided where I go.

4 I ask thee for the daily strength,
To none that ask denied,
A mind to blend with outward life,
While keeping at thy side;
Content to fill a little space,
If thou be glorified.

WHEN, wounded sore, the stricken soul
Lies bleeding and unbound,
One only hand, a pierced hand,
Can heal the sinner's wound.

2 When sorrow swells the laden breast,
And tears of anguish flow,
One only heart, a broken heart,
Can feel the sinner's woe.

3 When penitence has wept in vain

 Since on thine arm thou bid'st me lean,
 Help me, throughout life's changing scene,

 My joy, my recompense be this,

 With patient, uncomplaining love,
 Still would I cling to thee.

4 Though oft I seem to tread alone
 Life's dreary waste, with thorns o'ergrown,
 Thy voice of love, in gentlest tone,

 I ask not, need not, aught beside;
 So safe, so calm, so satisfied,

 In vain the sage's thoughts I scan;
 I only feel how weak I am,
 How poor and blind is man.

For earth and heaven above.—CHO.

4 And he the witness gives
To loyal hearts and free,
That every promise is fulfilled
If faith but brings the plea.—CHO.

5 All hail! atoning blood!
All hail! redeeming grace!
All hail! the gift of Christ, our Lord,
Our Strength and Righteousness.—CHO.

LANGRAN. 10s.

J. LANGRAN.

Wea-ry of earth, and lad-en with my sin, I look 'at heaven and long to en-ter in;

But there no e-vil thing may find a home: And yet I hear a voice that bids me "Come."

683

"The Voice of Jesus."

WEARY of earth, and laden with my sin,
I look at heaven and long to enter in;
But there no evil thing may find a home:
And yet I hear a voice that bids me "Come."

2 So vile I am, how dare I hope to stand
In the pure glory of that holy land?
Before the whiteness of that throne appear?
Yet there are hands stretched out to draw
me near.

3 The while I fain would tread the heavenly
way,
Evil is ever with me day by day;
Yet on mine ears the gracious tidings fall,
"Repent, confess, thou shalt be loosed from all."

4 It is the voice of Jesus that I hear,
His are the hands stretched out to draw
me near,
And his the blood that can for all atone,
And set me faultless there before the throne.

5 'T was he who found me on the deathly
wild,
And made me heir of heaven, the Father's child,
And day by day, whereby my soul may live,
Gives me his grace of pardon, and will give.

Samuel J. Stone.

684

"Thine all the Merit."

O JESUS Christ the righteous! live in me,
That, when in glory I thy face shall see,

Within the Father's house, my glorious dress
May be the garment of thy righteousness.

2 Then thou wilt welcome me, O righteous
Lord,
Thine all the merit, mine the great reward;
Mine the life won, and thine the life laid
down,
Thine the thorn-plaited, mine the righteous crown.

3 Naught can I bring, dear Lord, for all I owe;
Yet let my full heart what it can bestow;
Like Mary's gift let my devotion prove,
Forgiven greatly, how I greatly love.

Samuel J. Stone, tr.

685

"Jesus Died."

LORD, I am come! thy promise is my plea,
Without thy word I durst not venture nigh!
But thou hast called the burdened soul to
thee,
A weary, burdened soul, O Lord, am I!

2 Bowed down beneath a heavy load of sin,
By Satan's fierce temptations sorely prest,
Beset without, and full of fears within,
Trembling and faint I come to thee for rest.

3 Be thou my refuge, Lord, my hiding-
place;
I know no force can tear me from thy side;
Unmoved, I then may all accusers face,
And answer every charge with—"Jesus died."

"Lord, when thy kingdom comes, remember me;" Thus spake the dy-ing lips to dy-ing ears;

Oh, faith, which in that darkest hour could see The promised glo-ry of the far-off years!

686

The Dying Thief.

"LORD, when thy kingdom comes, remember me;"

Thus spake the dying lips to dying ears;
Oh, faith, which in the darkest hour could see

The promised glory of the far-off years!

2 No kingly sign declares that glory now,
No ray of hope lights up that awful hour;

A thorny crown surrounds the bleeding brow,

The hands are stretched in weakness, not in power.

3 Yet hear the word the dying Saviour saith,

"Thou too shalt rest in Paradise to-day;"

Oh, words of love to answer words of faith!

Oh, words of hope for those who live to pray!

W. D. MacLagan.

687

"Remember Me."

LORD, when with dying lips my prayer is said,

Grant that in faith thy kingdom I may see;

And, thinking on thy cross and bleeding head,

May breathe my parting words, "Remember me."

2 Remember me, but not my shame or sin;
Thy cleansing blood hath washed them all away;

Thy precious death for me did pardon win;
Thy blood redeemed me in that awful day.

3 Remember me; yet how canst thou forget
What pain and anguish I have caused to thee,

The cross, the agony, the bloody sweat,
And all the sorrow thou didst bear for me?

4 Remember me; and, ere I pass away,
Speak thou the assuring word that sets us free,

And make thy promise to my heart, "To-day
Thou too shalt rest in Paradise with me."

W. D. MacLagan.

688

"Lord, I Believe."

YES, I do feel, my God, that I am thine;
Thou art my joy, — myself, mine only grief;

Hear my complaint, low bending at thy shrine, —

"Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief."

2 Unworthy even to approach so near,
My soul lies trembling like a summer's leaf;
Yet, oh, forgive! I doubt not, though I fear,
"Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief."

3 Oh, draw me nearer; for, too far away,
The beamings of thy brightness are too brief;

While faith, tho' fainting, still has strength to pray, —

"Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief."

J. S. B. Monseil.

We are but strangers here, Heav'n is our home; Earth is a des-ert drear, Heav'n is our home.

Dan-ger and sorrow stand Round us on every hand, Heav'n is our Father-land, Heav'n is our home.

689 "Home at Last."

We are but strangers here,
 Heaven is our home;
 Earth is a desert drear,
 Heaven is our home.
 Danger and sorrow stand
 Round us on every hand,
 Heaven is our Fatherland,
 Heaven is our home.

2 What though the tempest rage?

Heaven is our home;
 Short is our pilgrimage,
 Heaven is our home.
 And Time's wild wintry blast
 Soon shall be overpast,
 We shall reach home at last;
 Heaven is our home.

3 There at our Saviour's side,

Heaven is our home;
 May we be glorified;
 Heaven is our home:
 There are the good and blest,
 Those we love most and best,
 Grant us with them to rest;
 Heaven is our home.

4 Grant us to murmur not,

Heaven is our home;
 Whate'er our earthly lot,
 Heaven is our home.
 Grant us at last to stand
 There at thine own right hand,
 Jesus, in Fatherland:
 Heaven is our home!

690 Jesus is Mine.

Now I have found a Friend;
 Jesus is mine;—
 His love shall never end;
 Jesus is mine:
 Though earth'y joys decrease,
 Though earthly friendships cease
 Now I have lasting peace:
 Jesus is mine.

2 Though I grow poor and old,

Jesus is mine;
 Though I grow faint and cold,
 Jesus is mine:
 He shall my wants supply;
 His precious blood is nigh,
 Naught can my hope destroy;
 Jesus is mine.

3 When earth shall pass away,—

Jesus is mine,—
 In the great judgment day,—
 Jesus is mine:
 Oh! what a glorious thing,
 Then to behold my King,
 On tuneful harp to sing,
 Jesus is mine.

4 Father! thy name I bless;

Jesus is mine;
 Thine was the sovereign grace;
 Praise shall be thine;
 Spirit of holiness!
 Sealing the Father's grace,
 Thou mad'st my soul embrace
 Jesus, as mine.

REST of the weary, joy of the sad;
 Hope of the dreary, light of the glad;
 Home of the stranger, strength to the end;
 Refuge from danger, Saviour and Friend.

2 Pillow where lying, love rests its head;
 Peace of the dying, life of the dead;
 Path of the lowly, prize at the end;
 Breath 'of the holy, Saviour and Friend.

3 When my feet stumble, I'll to thee cry,
 Crown of the humble, cross of the high;
 When my steps wander, over me bend,
 Truer and fonder, Saviour and Friend!

4 Ever confessing thee, I will raise
 Unto thee blessing, glory, and praise;
 All my endeavor, world without end,
 Thine to be ever, Saviour and Friend!

Saviour, thy dying love Thou gavest me:
 (Nor should I aught withhold, Dear Lord, from thee:)
 In love my soul would bow,
 My heart fulfill its vow,
 Something for thee.
 Some offering bring thee now,

692 "Something for Thee."

SAVIOUR, thy dying love
 Thou gavest me:
 Nor should I aught withhold,
 Dear Lord, from thee:
 In love my soul would bow,
 My heart fulfill its vow,
 Some offering bring thee now,
 Something for thee.

2 O'er the blest mercy-seat,
 Pleading for me,
 My feeble faith looks up,
 Jesus, to thee:
 Help me the cross to bear,
 Thy wondrous love declare,
 Some song to raise, or prayer,
 Something for thee.

3 Give me a faithful heart —
 Likeness to thee,
 That each departing day
 Henceforth may see
 Some work of love begun,
 Some deed of kindness done,
 Some wanderer sought and won,
 Something for thee.

4 All that I am and have —
 Thy gifts so free —
 In joy, in grief, through life,
 Dear Lord, for thee:
 And when thy face I see,
 My ransomed soul shall be,
 Through all eternity,
 Something for thee.

Near-er, O God, to thee! Hear thou our prayer; Ev'n tho' a heav-y cross fainting we bear.

Still all our prayer shall be, Near-er, O God, to thee, near-er to thee! near-er to thee!

Close to God.

NEARER, O God, to thee! Hear thou our prayer;
Ev'n though a heavy cross fainting we bear,
Still all our prayer shall be
Nearer, O God, to thee, nearer to thee!

2 If, where they led the Lord, we too are borne,
Planting our steps in his, weary and worn;
There even let us be
Nearer, O God, to thee, nearer to thee!

3 If thou the cup of pain givest to drink,
Let not the trembling lip from the draught
shrink;

So by our woes to be
Nearer, O God, to thee, nearer to thee!

4 And when thou, Lord, once more, glorious shalt come,
Oh, for a dwelling-place, in thy bright
home!

Through all eternity
Nearer, O God, to thee, nearer to thee!

"More Love."

MORE love to thee, O Christ, more love to
thee!
Hear thou the prayer I make on bended

This is my earnest plea,—
More love, O Christ, to thee, more love to thee!

2 Once earthly joy I craved, sought peace
and rest,
Now thee alone I seek,— give what is best;
This all my prayer shall be,—
More love, O Christ, to thee, more love to thee!

3 Let sorrow do its work, send grief and pain;
Sweet are thy messengers, sweet their refrain,

When they can sing with me,
More love, O Christ, to thee, more love to thee!

4 Then shall my latest breath whisper thy
praise,
This be the parting cry my heart shall raise;
This still its prayer shall be,—

More love, O Christ, to thee, more love to thee!

"A Mag Ther Ench not."

SAVIOUR! I follow on, guided by thee,
Seeing not yet the hand that leadeth me;
Hushed be my heart and still,
Fear I no further ill;
Only to meet thy will
My will shall be.

2 Riven the rock for me, thirst to relieve,
Manna from heaven falls fresh every eve;
Never a want severe
Causeth my eye a tear,
But thou dost whisper near,
"Only believe!"

3 Often to Marah's brink have I been brought;
Shrinking the cup to drink, help I have sought;
And with the prayer's ascent,
Jesus the branch hath rent—
Quickly relief hath sent,
Sweetening the draught.

4 Saviour! I long to walk closer with thee;
Led by thy guiding hand, ever to be;
Constantly near thy side,
Quickened and purified,
Living for him who died
Freely for me!

Genesis 28: 10-22.

NEARER, my God, to thee, nearer to thee!
Ev'n though it be a cross that raiseth me;
Still all my song shall be—
Nearer, my God, to thee, nearer to thee!

2 Though like the wanderer (the sun gone down),
Darkness comes over me—my rest a stone;
Yet in my dreams I'd be
Nearer, my God, to thee, nearer to thee!

3 There let the way appear steps unto
heaven,
All that thou sendest me in mercy given;

Angels to beckon me

Nearer, my God, to thee, nearer to thee!

4 Then, with my waking thoughts bright with thy praise,
Out of my stony griefs Bethel I'll raise;
So by my woes to be
Nearer, my God, to thee, nearer to thee!

5 Or if on joyful wing cleaving the sky,
Sun, moon, and stars forgot, upward I fly,
Still all my song shall be,
Nearer, my God, to thee, nearer to thee!

In the hour of tri - al, Je - sus, plead for me; Lest by base de - ni - al, I de - part from thee;

When thou see'st me wa - ver, With a look re - call, Nor for fear or fa - vor Suffer me to fall.

697 Look from Christ.

In the hour of trial,
Jesus, plead for me;
Lest by base denial,
I depart from thee;
When thou see'st me waver,
With a look recall,
Nor for fear or favor
Suffer me to fall.

2 With forbidden pleasures
Would this vain world charm;
Or its sordid treasures
Spread to work me harm;
Bring to my remembrance
Sad Gethsemane,
Or, in darker semblance,
Cross-crowned Calvary.

3 Should thy mercy send me
Sorrow, toil, and woe;
Or should pain attend me
On my path below;
Grant that I may never
Fail thy hand to see;
Grant that I may ever
Cast my care on thee.

4 When my last hour cometh,
Fraught with strife and pain,
When my dust returneth
To the dust again;

On thy truth relying
Through that mortal strife,
Jesus, take me, dying,
To eternal life.

James Montgomery.

698 Earnest Longings.

PURER yet, and purer
I would be in mind,
Dearer yet and dearer
Every duty find,
Hoping still and trusting
God without a fear,
Patiently believing
He will make all clear.

2 Calmer yet and calmer
Trial bear and pain,
Surer yet and surer
Peace at last to gain;
Suffering still and doing,
To his will resigned,
And to God subduing
Heart and will and mind.

3 Higher yet and higher
Out of clouds and night,
Nearer yet and nearer
Rising to the light—
Oft these earnest longings
Swell within my breast,
Yet their inner meaning
Ne'er can be expressed.

Saviour, bless-ed Sav-iour, Listen while we sing, Hearts and voices raising Praises to our King.

All we have we of-fer, All we hope to be, Bod-y, soul, and spir-it, All we yield to thee.

699 All for Jesus.

SAVIOUR, blessed Saviour,
Listen while we sing,
Hearts and voices raising
Praises to our King.
All we have we offer,
All we hope to be,
Body, soul, and spirit,
All we yield to thee.

2 Great and ever greater
Are thy mercies here,
True and everlasting
Are the glories there,
Where no pain, or sorrow,
Toil, or care, is known,
Where the angel-legions
Circle round thy throne.

3 Dark and ever darker
Was the wintry past;
Now a ray of gladness
O'er our path is cast.
Every day that passeth,
Every hour that flies,
Tells of love unfeigned,
Love that never dies.

4 Clearer still and clearer
Dawns the light from heaven,
In our sadness bringing
News of sin forgiven.

Life has lost its shadows,
Pure the light within;
Thou hast shed thy radiance
On a world of sin.

Godfrey Thring.

700 "Backward never Looking."

NEARER, ever nearer,
Christ, we draw to thee,
Deep in adoration
Bending low the knee:
Thou for our redemption
Cam'st on earth to die;
Thou, that we might follow,
Hast gone up on high.

2 Onward, ever onward,
Journeying o'er the road
Worn by saints before us,
Journeying on to God;
Leaving all behind us
May we hasten on,
Backward never looking
Till the prize is won.

3 Higher then and higher
Bear the ransomed soul,
Earthly toils forgotten,
Saviour, to its goal:
Where in joys unthought of
Saints with angels sing,
Never weary raising
Praises to their King.

O Love, that wilt not let me go, I rest my weary soul in thee; I give thee back the life I owe,

701 Christ Our Bist.

1 O Love, that wilt not let me go,
I rest my weary soul in thee;
I give thee back the life I owe,
That in thine ocean depths its flow
May richer, fuller be.

2 O Light, that followest all my way,
I yield my flickering torch to thee;
My heart restores its borrowed ray,
That in thy sunshine's blaze its day
May brighter, fairer be.

3 O Joy, that seekest me through pain,
I cannot close my heart to thee;
I trace the sunshine through the rain,
And feel the promise is not vain
That morn shall tearless be.

4 O Cross, that liftest up my head,
I dare not ask to fly from thee;
I lay in dust life's glory dead,
And from the ground there blossoms red
Life that shall endless be.

I hear a sweet voice ring-ing clear, All is well! All is well! It is my Father's voicé I hear, All is well! All is well! Wher-e'er I walk that voice is heard: It is my God, my Father's word, "Fear not, but trust: I am the Lord:" All is well! All is well!

Dear Lord and Fa-ther of mankind, For-give our fev-erish ways! Re-clothe us in our right-ful mind; In pur-er lives thy ser-vice find, In deep-er rev-erence, praise.

702 Longing for Peace.

DEAR Lord and Father of mankind,
 Forgive our feverish ways!
 Reclothe us in our rightful mind;
 In purer lives thy service find,
 In deeper reverence, praise.

2 In simple trust like theirs who heard,
 Beside the Syrian sea,
 The gracious calling of the Lord,
 Let us, like them, without a word
 Rise up and follow thee.

3 Oh, Sabbath rest by Galilee!
 Oh, calm of hills above,
 Where Jesus knelt to share with thee
 The silence of eternity,
 Interpreted by love!

4 Drop thy still dews of quietness,
 Till all our strivings cease:
 Take from our souls the strain and stress;

And let our ordered lives confess
 The beauty of thy peace.

J. G. Whittier

703 God's face Hidden.

O SAVIOUR, lend a listening ear,
 And answer my request!
 Forgive, and wipe the falling tear,
 Now with thy love my spirit cheer,
 And set my heart at rest.

2 I mourn the hidings of thy face;
 The absence of that smile,
 Which led me to a throne of grace,
 And gave my soul a resting-place,
 From earthly care and toil.

3 Up to the place of thine abode
 I lift my waiting eye;
 To thee, O holy Lamb of God!
 Whose blood for me so freely flowed,
 I raise my ardent cry.

Thomas Hastings.

704 Tune—GRASSMERE.

I HEAR a sweet voice ringing clear,
 All is well!
 It is my Father's voice I hear;
 All is well!

Where'er I walk that voice is heard:
 It is my God, my Father's word,
 "Fear not, but trust: I am the Lord;"
 All is well!

2 Clouds cannot long obscure my sight;
 All is well!
 I know there is a land of light;
 All is well!

From strength to strength, from day to day,
 I tread along the world's highway;
 Or often stop to sing or say,
 All is well!

3 In morning hours, serene and bright,
 All is well!
 In evening hours or darkening night
 All is well!

And when to Jordan's side I come,
 'Midst chilling waves and raging foam,
 Oh, let me sing as I go home,
 All is well!

And grants the Spirit's quick'ning ray
To those who seek his power.

705 "Watch and Pray."

THE Saviour bids thee watch and pray
Through life's momentous hour;
And grants the Spirit's quickening ray
To those who seek his power.

2 The Saviour bids thee watch and pray,
Maintain a warrior's strife;

0 Christian! hear his voice to-day:
Obedience is thy life.

3 The Saviour bids thee watch and pray;
For soon the hour will come
That calls thee from the earth away
To thy eternal home.

4 The Saviour bids thee watch and pray,
Oh, hearken to his voice,
And follow where he leads the way,
To heaven's eternal joys!

Thomas Hastings.

706 "Nearer to Thee."

OH, could I find, from day to day,
A nearness to my God,
Then would my hours glide sweet away
While leaning on his word.

2 Lord, I desire with thee to live
Anew from day to day,
In joys the world can never give,
Nor ever take away.

3 Blest Jesus, come and rule my heart,
And make me wholly thine,
That I may never more depart,
Nor grieve thy love divine.

4 Thus, till my last, expiring breath,
Thy goodness I'll adore;
And when my frame dissolves in death,
My soul shall love thee more.

Oh, mean may seem this house of clay, Yet 't was the Lord's abode;
Our feet may mourn this thorny way, Yet here Im-man-uel trod.

707 "Our frail Body."

OH, MEAN may seem this house of clay,
Yet 't was the Lord's abode;
Our feet may mourn this thorny way,
Yet here Immanuel trod.

2 This fleshly robe the Lord did wear;
This watch the Lord did keep;
These burdens sore the Lord did bear;
These tears the Lord did weep!

3 This world the Master overcame;
This death the Lord did die:

Oh, vanquished world! oh, glorious shame!
Oh, hallowed agony!

4 Oh, vale of tears, no longer sad,
Wherein the Lord did dwell!
Oh, holy robe of flesh that clad
Our own Immanuel!

5 Our very frailty brings us near
Unto the Lord of heaven;
To every grief, to every tear,
Such glory strange is given.

Tell me, my Saviour! Where thou dost feed thy flock, Resting beside the rock, Cool in the shade:

Why should I be as one Turning aside alone, Left, when thy sheep have gone, Where I have strayed?

708 Cant. 1:7.

TELL me, my Saviour!
Where thou dost feed thy flock,
Resting beside the rock,
Cool in the shade:
Why should I be as one
Turning aside alone,
Left, when thy sheep have gone,
Where I have strayed?

2 Seek me, my Saviour!
For I have lost the way:
I will thy voice obey;
Speak to me here!

Help me to find the gate
Where all thy chosen wait:
Ere it shall be too late,
Oh, call me near!

3 Show me, my Saviour!
How I can grow like thee;
Make me thy child to be,
Taught from above:
Help me thy smile to win;
Keep me safe folded in,
Lest I should rove in sin,
Far from thy love.

All for Jesus.

TAKE my life, and let it be
Consecrated, Lord, to thee;
Take my hands, and let them move
At the impulse of thy love;
Take my feet, and let them be
Swift and beautiful for thee;
Take my voice, and let me sing
Always, only, for my King.

2 Take my lips, and let them be Filled with messages from thee;
Take my silver and my gold,
Not a mite would I withhold;
Take my moments and my days,
Let them flow in ceaseless praise;
Take my intellect, and use
Every power as thou shalt choose.

3 Take my will, and make it thine;
It shall be no longer mine;
Take my heart, it is thine own!
It shall be thy royal throne;
Take my love; my Lord, I pour
At thy feet its treasure-store;
Take myself, and I will be,
Ever, only, all, for thee!

A Hard Heart.

OH, this soul, how dark and blind!
Oh, this foolish, earthly mind!
Oh, this forward, selfish will,
Which refuses to be still!
Oh, these ever-roaming eyes,
Upward that refuse to rise!
Oh, these wayward feet of mine,
Found in every path but thine!

2 Oh, this stubborn, prayerless knee,
Hands so seldom clasped to thee,
Longings of the soul, that go
Like the wild wind, to and fro!
To and fro, without an aim,
Turning idly whence they came,
Bringing in no joy, no bliss,
Only adding weariness!

3 Giver of the heavenly peace!
Bid, oh, bid these tumults cease;
Minister thy holy balm;
Fill me with thy Spirit's calm:
Thou, the Life, the Truth, the Way,
Leave me not in sin to stay;
Bearer of the sinner's guilt,
Lead me, lead me, as thou wilt.

Brethren, while we sojourn here, Fight we must, but should not fear; Foes we have, but we've a Friend, One that loves us to the end:
Forward, then, with courage go; Long we shall not dwell below; Soon the joyful news will come, "Child, your Father calls—come home!"

"Come Home."

BRETHREN, while we sojourn here,
Fight we must, but should not fear;
Foes we have, but we've a Friend,
One that loves us to the end:
Forward, then, with courage go;
Long we shall not dwell below;
Soon the joyful news will come,
"Child, your Father calls—come home!"

2 In the way a thousand snares
Lie, to take us unawares;
Satan, with malicious art,
Watches each unguarded part:

But, from Satan's malice free,
Saints shall soon victorious be;
Soon the joyful news will come,
"Child, your Father calls—come home!"

3 But of all the foes we meet,
None so oft mislead our feet,
None betray us into sin,
Like the foes that dwell within;
Yet let nothing spoil our peace,
Christ shall also conquer these;
Soon the joyful news will come,
"Child, your Father calls—come home!"

MORNING. P. M.

The gloomy night will soon be past, The morning will ap - pear, The rays of bless-ed light at last Each eye will cheer.

713

The Morning Star.

THE gloomy night will soon be past,
The morning will appear,
The rays of blessed light at last
Each eye will cheer.
2 Thou bright and morning Star, thy light
Will to our joy be seen;
Thou, Lord, wilt meet our longing sight;
No cloud between.
3 Thy love sustains us on our way
While pilgrims here below;

Thou dost, O Saviour, day by day,
Thy grace bestow.

4 But oh! the more we learn of thee,
And thy rich mercy prove,
The more we long thy face to see,
And know thy love.

5 Then shine, thou bright and morning Star,
Dispel the dreary gloom;
Oh take from sin and grief afar
Thy people home.

PORTUGUESE HYMN. 11a.

M. PORTUGAL.

How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord! Is laid for your faith in his excellent word! What more can he say, than to you he hath said,— To you, who for refuge to Je-sus have fled! To you, who for refuge to Je-sus have fled!

714

"Fear not."

HOW FIRM a foundation, ye saints of the Lord!

Is laid for your faith in his excellent word! What more can he say, than to you he hath said,—

To you, who for refuge to Jesus have fled?

2 "Fear not, I am with thee, oh, be not dismayed,

For I am thy God, I will still give thee aid;

I'll strengthen thee, help thee, and cause thee to stand,

Upheld by my gracious, omnipotent hand.

3 "When through the deep waters I call thee to go,

The rivers of sorrow shall not overflow; For I will be with thee thy trouble to bless, And sanctify to thee thy deepest distress.

4 "When through fiery trials thy pathway shall lie,

My grace, all-sufficient, shall be thy supply; The flame shall not hurt thee; I only design Thy dross to consume, and thy gold to refine.

5 "Ev'n down to old age all my people shall prove

My sovereign, eternal, unchangeable love; And then, when gray hairs shall their temples adorn,

Like lambs they shall still in my bosom be borne.

6 "The soul that on Jesus hath leaned for repose,

I will not—I will not desert to his foes; That soul—though all hell should endeavor to shake,

I'll never—no never—no never forsake!"

Psalm 23.

THE Lord is my Shepherd, no want shall I know;
 I feed in green pastures, safe-folded I rest;
 He leadeth my soul where the still waters flow,
 Restores me when wandering, redeems when oppressed.

2 Through the valley and shadow of death though I stray,
 Since thou art my Guardian, no evil I fear;
 Thy rod shall defend me, thy staff be my stay;
 No harm can befall, with my Comforter near.

3 In the midst of affliction, my table is spread;
 With blessings unmeasured my cup runneth o'er;
 With perfume and oil thou anointest my head;
 Oh, what shall I ask of thy providence more?

4 Let goodness and mercy, my bountiful God!
 Still follow my steps till I meet thee above;
 I seek, by the path which my forefathers trod
 Through the land of their sojourn, thy kingdom of love. James Montgomery.

"Looking unto Jesus."

O EYES that are weary, and hearts that are sore!
 Look off unto Jesus, now sorrow no more!
 The light of his countenance shineth so bright,
 That here, as in heaven, there need be no night.

2 While looking to Jesus, my heart cannot fear;
 I tremble no more when I see Jesus near;
 I know that his presence my safeguard will be,
 For, "Why are you troubled?" he saith unto me.

3 Still looking to Jesus, oh, may I be found,
 When Jordan's dark waters encompass me round;
 They bear me away in his presence to be:
 I see him still nearer whom always I see.

4 Then, then shall I know the full beauty and grace
 Of Jesus, my Lord, when I stand face to face;
 Shall know how his love went before me each day,
 And wonder that ever my eyes turned away. John N. Darby. (1)

717

"Faint, yet Pursuing."

THOUGH faint, yet pursuing, we go on our way;
 The Lord is our Leader, his word is our stay;
 Tho' suffering, and sorrow, and trial be near,
 The Lord is our Refuge, and whom can we fear?

2 He raiseth the fallen, he cheereth the faint;
 The weak, and oppressed—he will hear their complaint;
 The way may be weary, and thorny the road,
 But how can we falter?—our help is in God!

3 Though clouds may surround us, our God is our light;
 Though storms rage around us, our God is our might;
 So, faint yet pursuing, still onward we come;
 The Lord is our Leader, and heaven is our home! John N. Darby. (7)

Psalm 91.

CALL Jehovah thy salvation,
Rest beneath the Almighty's shade;
In his secret habitation
Dwell, and never be dismayed:
There no tumult can alarm thee,
Thou shalt dread no hidden snare;
Guile nor violence can harm thee,
In eternal safeguard there.

2 From the sword, at noon-day wasting,
From the noisome pestilence,
In the depth of midnight, blasting,
God shall be thy sure defence:
Fear not thou the deadly quiver,
When a thousand feel the blow;
Mercy shall thy soul deliver,
Though ten thousand be laid low.

3 Since, with pure and firm affection,
Thou on God hast set thy love,
With the wings of his protection,
He will shield thee from above;
Thou shalt call on him in trouble,
He will hearken, he will save;
Here, for grief reward thee double,
Crown with life beyond the grave.

Day is Breaking.

CHRISTIANS, up! the day is breaking,
Gird your ready armor on;
Slumbering hosts around are waking,
Rouse ye! in the Lord be strong!
While ye sleep or idly linger,
Thousands sink, with none to save;
Hasten! Time's unerring finger
Points to many an open grave.

2 Hark! unnumbered voices crying,
"Save us, or we droop and die!"
Succor bear the faint and dying,
On the wings of mercy fly:
Lead them to the crystal fountain
Gushing with the streams of life;
Guide them to the sheltering mountain,
For the gale with death is rife.

3 See the blest millennial dawning!
Bright the beams of Bethlehem's star:
Eastern lands, behold the morning;
Lo! it glimmers from afar:
O'er the mountain-top ascending,
Soon the scattered light shall rise,
Till, in radiant glory blending,
Heaven's high noon shall greet our eyes.

The Church One.

THROUGH the night of doubt and sorrow,
Onward goes the pilgrim band,
Singing songs of expectation,
Marching to the promised land.
Clear before us, through the darkness,
Gleams and burns the guiding light:
Brother clasps the hand of brother,
Stepping fearless through the night.

2 One the light of God's own presence,
O'er his ransomed people shed,
Chasing far the gloom and terror,
Brightening all the path we tread:
One the object of our journey,
One the faith which never tires,
One the earnest looking forward,
One the hope our God inspires.

3 One the strain the lips of thousands
Lift as from the heart of one;
One the conflict, one the peril,
One the march in God begun:
One the gladness of rejoicing
On the far eternal shore,
Where the one Almighty Father,
Reigns in love for evermore.

Banquet Song.

YES, for me, for me he careth,
With a brother's tender care;
Yes, with me, with me he shareth
Every burden, every fear.

Yes, for me he standeth pleading,
At the mercy-seat above;
Ever for me interceding,
Constant in untiring love.

2 Yes, in me, in me he dwelleth,
I in him, and he in me!
And my empty soul he filleth,
Here and through eternity.
Thus I wait for his returning,
Singing all the way to heaven;
Such the joyous song of morning,
Such the banquet song of even.

The Reproach of Christ.

CROSS, reproach, and tribulation!
Ye to me are welcome guests,
When I have this consolation,
That my soul in Jesus rests.
The reproach of Christ is glorious!
Those who here his burden bear
In the end shall prove victorious,
And eternal gladness share.

2 Bonds and stripes, and evil story,
Are our honorable crowns;
Pain is peace, and shame is glory,
Gloomy dungeons are as thrones.
Bear, then, the reproach of Jesus,
Ye who live a life of faith!
Lift triumphant songs and praises
Ev'n in martyrdom and death.

Tune—WALES.

THROUGH the love of God our Saviour,
All will be well;
Free and changeless is his favor;
All, all is well.
Precious is the blood that healed us;
Perfect is the grace that sealed us;
Strong the hand stretched out to shield us;
All must be well.
2 Though we pass through tribulation,
All will be well:
Ours is such a full salvation;
All, all is well.

Happy still in God confiding,
Fruitful, if in Christ abiding,
Holy, through the Spirit's guiding,
All must be well.

3 We expect a bright to-morrow;
All will be well;
Faith can sing through days of sorrow,
All, all is well.
On our Father's love relying,
Jesus every need supplying,
Or in living, or in dying,
All must be well.

Forward! be our watch-word, Steps and voices joined; Seek the things before us, Not a look behind;

FORWARD! be our watchword,
 Steps and voices joined;
 Seek the things before us,
 Not a look behind;
 Burns the fiery pillar.
 At our army's lead;
 Who shall dream of shrinking,
 By our Captain led?
 Forward through the desert,
 Through the toil and fight:
 Jordan flows before us,
 Zion beams with light!

2 Forward, when in childhood
 Buds the infant mind;
 All through youth and manhood,
 Not a thought behind;
 Speed through realms of nature,
 Climb the steps of grace;
 Faint not, till in glory
 Gleams our Father's face.
 Forward, all the life-time,
 Climb from height to height:
 Till the head be hoary,
 Till the eve be light.

3 Forward, flock of Jesus,
 Salt of all the earth;
 Till each yearning purpose
 Spring to glorious birth:
 Sick, they ask for healing,
 Blind, they grope for day;
 Pour upon the nations
 Wisdom's loving ray.
 Forward out of error,
 Leave behind the night;
 Forward through the darkness,
 Forward into light!

4 Glories upon glories
 Hath our God prepared,
 By the souls that love him
 One day to be shared;
 Eye hath not beheld them,
 Ear hath never heard;
 Nor of these hath uttered
 Thought or speech a word:
 Forward, marching eastward
 Where the heaven is bright,
 Till the veil be lifted,
 Till our faith be sight!

727 "Forward into Light!"

FAR o'er yon horizon
 Rise the city towers,
 Where our God abideth;
 That fair home is ours:
 Flash the streets with jasper,
 Shine the gates with gold:
 Flows the gladdening river
 Shedding joys untold:
 Thither, onward thither,
 In the Spirit's might:
 Pilgrims to your country,
 Forward into Light!

2 Into God's high temple
 Onward as we press,
 Beauty spreads around us,
 Born of holiness;
 Arch, and vault, and carving,
 Lights of varied tone;
 Softened words and holy,
 Prayer and praise alone:
 Every thought upraising
 To our city bright,
 Where the tribes assemble
 Round the throne of Light!

3 Naught that city needeth
 Of these aisles of stone:
 Where the Godhead dwelleth,
 Temple there is none:
 All the saints that ever
 In these courts have stood,
 Are but babes, and feeding
 On the children's food.
 On through sign and token,
 Stars amidst the night;
 Forward through the darkness,
 Forward into Light!

4 To the eternal Father
 Loudest anthems raise:
 To the Son and Spirit
 Echo songs of praise:
 To the Lord of Glory
 Blesséd Three in One,
 Be by men and angels
 Endless honor done.
 Weak are earthly praises,
 Dull the songs of night:
 Forward into triumph,
 Forward into Light!

STAND up!—stand up for Jesus!

Ye soldiers of the cross;
Lift high his royal banner,
It must not suffer loss:
From victory unto victory
His army shall he lead,
Till every foe is vanquished,
And Christ is Lord indeed.

2 Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!

The trumpet call obey;
Forth to the mighty conflict,
In this his glorious day:
"Ye that are men, now serve him,"
Against unnumbered foes;
Let courage rise with danger,
And strength to strength oppose.

3 Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!

Stand in his strength alone;
The arm of flesh will fail you—
Ye dare not trust your own:
Put on the gospel armor,
And, watching unto prayer,
Where duty calls, or danger,
Be never wanting there.

4 Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!

The strife will not be long;
This day, the noise of battle,
The next, the victor's song;
To him that overcometh,
A crown of life shall be;
He with the King of Glory
Shall reign eternally!

729 Matthew 6: 25-33.

SOMETIMES a light surprises
The Christian while he sings;
It is the Lord who rises
With healing in his wings:
When comforts are declining,
He grants the soul again
A season of clear shining,
To cheer it after rain.

2 In holy contemplation,
We sweetly then pursue
The theme of God's salvation,
And find it ever new:
Set free from present sorrow,
We cheerfully can say,
Let the unknown to-morrow
Bring with it what it may.

3 It can bring with it nothing,
But he will bring us through;
Who gives the lilies clothing,
Will clothe his people too:
Beneath the spreading heavens,
No creature but is fed;
And he who feeds the ravens,
Will give his children bread

4 Though vine nor fig-tree neither,
Their wonted fruit should bear,
Though all the fields should wither,
Nor flocks, nor herds be there;

Yet God the same abiding,
His praise shall tune my voice,
For while in him confiding,
I cannot but rejoice.

William Cowper.

730 "Follow in His Steps."

O HAPPY band of pilgrims,
If onward ye will tread,
With Jesus as your Fellow,
To Jesus as your Head!
The cross that Jesus carried,
He carried as your due:
The crown that Jesus weareth,
He weareth it for you.

2 The faith by which ye see him,
The hope in which ye yearn,
The love that through all trouble
To him alone will turn:
What are they but forerunners
To lead you to his sight?
What are they save the effluence
Of uncreated light?

3 The trials that beset you,
The sorrows ye endure,
The manifold temptations
That death alone can cure:
What are they, but his jewels
Of right celestial worth?
What are they but the ladder,
Set up to heaven on earth?

CHRISTIAN, dost thou see them
On the holy ground,
How the powers of evil
Rage thy steps around?
Christian, up and smite them,
Counting gain but loss;
Smite them by the merit
Of the holy Cross.

2 Christian, dost thou feel them,
How they work within,
Striving, tempting, luring,
Goading on to sin?
Christian, never tremble;
Never yield to fear:
Smite them by the virtue
Of unceasing prayer.

3 Christian, dost thou hear them,
How they speak thee fair?
"Always fast and vigil?
Always watch and prayer?"
Christian, answer boldly:
"While I breathe, I pray:"
Peace shall follow battle,
Night shall end in day.

4 Well I know thy trouble,
O my servant true;
Thou art very weary,—
I was weary too:
But that toil shall make thee
Some day all mine own;
And the end of sorrow
Shall be near my throne.

From the torture never;
Vain the foeman's sharpest aim,
Satan's best endeavor:

For by faith they saw the land
Decked in all its glory,
Where triumphant now they stand
With the victor's story.

3 Up and follow, Christian men!
Press through toil and sorrow;
Spurn the night of fear, and then,
Oh, the glorious morrow!
Who will venture on the strife?
Blest who first begin it;
Who will grasp the Land of Life?
Warriors, up and win it!

Our Master.

ART thou weary, art thou languid,
Art thou sore distressed?

"Come to me," saith One, "and coming,
Be at rest."

2 Hath he marks to lead me to him,
If he be my Guide?—

"In his feet and hand are wound-prints,
And his side."

3 Is there diadem, as Monarch,
That his brow adorns?—

"Yea, a crown, in very surety;
But of thorns."

4 If I find him, if I follow,
What his guerdon here?—

"Many a sorrow, many a labor,
Many a tear."

5 If I still hold closely to him,
What hath he at last?—

"Sorrow vanquished, labor ended,
Jordan passed."

6 If I ask him to receive me,
Will he say me nay?—

"Not till earth, and not till heaven
Pass away."

7 Finding, following, keeping, struggling,
Is he sure to bless?—

"Saints, apostles, prophets, martyrs, Answer, Yes."

"full Salvation."

I AM trusting thee, Lord Jesus,
Trusting only thee!
Trusting thee for full salvation,
Great and free.

2 I am trusting thee for pardon,
At thy feet I bow;
For thy grace and tender mercy,
Trusting now.

3 I am trusting thee for cleansing
In the crimson flood;
Trusting thee to make me holy
By thy blood.

4 I am trusting thee to guide me;
Thou alone shalt lead,
Every day and hour supplying
All my need.

5 I am trusting thee for power,
Thine can never fail;
Words which thou thyself shalt give me
Must prevail.

6 I am trusting thee, Lord Jesus;
Never let me fall;
I am trusting thee for ever,

The Morning Star.

HOW BRIGHTLY shines the Morning Star!
What ray divine streams from afar!

God's glory there is shining,
Bright beam of God! which scatters night,
And guides the wandering soul aright,

Which after truth is pining:
Jesus! God's Word! truth revealing,
Sorrow healing, soothe our sighing,
Dry our tears, and end our dying.

2 My comfort here, my joy above,
Man's son, son of the Father's love,
Enthroned in highest heaven,
With my whole heart thy praise I sing;
To thee, our Prophet, Priest, and King,
Be endless honors given.

Saviour, to thee, trusting, clinging,
Come I bringing soul and spirit,
Thee, my portion, to inherit.

3 Aid me, my God, to sing thy praise,
Thine ageless love, thy matchless grace,
In Christ our Lord appearing.
When such a gift God gave for thee,

When such a brother true is he,
Why still, my soul, be fearing?
Choose him, know him, greatest, dearest,
Best, and nearest, to befriend thee
'Gainst all foes who may offend thee.

4 To him who conquered death and hell,
To him let joyous anthems swell
Throughout heaven's great Forever.
Praise to the Lamb that once was slain,
Glory to him who bore our pain,
Flow on, an endless river!
Earth and heaven — creatures lowly,
Angels holy — join your voices,
Till the world with praise rejoices.

5 Rejoice, ye heavens; thou, earth, reply:
With praise, ye sinners, fill the sky,
For this his incarnation.
Incarnate God, put forth thy power,
Ride on, ride on, great Conqueror,
Till all know thy salvation.
Amen, amen: hallelujah!
Hallelujah! praise be given
Evermore by earth and heaven!

But hell and sin are vanquished foes;
Thy Saviour nailed them to the cross,

Press forward to the heavenly gate;

AWAKE, our souls! away, our fears!
Let every trembling thought be gone;
Awake, and run the heavenly race,
And put a cheerful courage on!

2 True, 't is a straight and thorny road,
And mortal spirits tire and faint;
But they forget the mighty God,
Who feeds the strength of every saint—

3 The mighty God, whose matchless power
Is ever new and ever young,

And firm endures, while endless years
Their everlasting circles run.

4 From thee, the overflowing spring,
Our souls shall drink a fresh supply:
While such as trust their native strength
Shall melt away, and droop, and die.

5 Swift as an eagle cuts the air,
We'll mount aloft to thine abode;
On wings of love our souls shall fly,
Nor tire amid the heavenly road!

Lead Me On.

TRAVELING to the better land,
O'er the desert's scorching sand,
Father! let me grasp thy hand;
Lead me on, lead me on!

2 When at Marah, parched with heat,
I the sparkling fountain greet,
Make the bitter water sweet;
Lead me on, lead me on!

3 When the wilderness is drear,
Show me Elim's palm-grove near,
And her wells, as crystal clear:
Lead me on, lead me on!

4 Through the water, through the fire,
Never let me fall or tire,

Every step brings Canaan nigher:
Lead me on, lead me on!

5 Bid me stand on Nebo's height,
Gaze upon the land of light,
Then, transported with the sight,
Lead me on, lead me on!

6 When I stand on Jordan's brink,
Never let me fear or shrink;
Hold me, Father, lest I sink:
Lead me on, lead me on!

7 When the victory is won,
And eternal life begun,
Up to glory lead me on!
Lead me on, lead me on!

OH, for a faith that will not shrink
Though pressed by every foe,
That will not tremble on the brink
Of any earthly woe;—

2 That will not murmur nor complain
Beneath the chastening rod,
But in the hour of grief or pain
Will lean upon its God;—

3 A faith that shines more bright and clear
When tempests rage without,
That when in danger knows no fear,
In darkness feels no doubt;—

4 A faith that keeps the narrow way
Till life's last hour is fled,
And with a pure and heavenly ray
Lights up a dying bed.

And then, whate'er may come,
We'll taste ev'n here the hallowed bliss

The Warfare.

AM I a soldier of the cross,
 A follower of the Lamb?
 And shall I fear to own his cause,
 Or blush to speak his name?

2 Must I be carried to the skies
 On flowery beds of ease?
 While others fought to win the prize,
 And sailed through bloody seas?

3 Are there no foes for me to face?
 Must I not stem the flood?
 Is this vile world a friend to grace,
 To help me on to God?

4 Sure I must fight, if I would reign;
 Increase my courage, Lord!
 I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
 Supported by thy word.

5 Thy saints, in all this glorious war,
 Shall conquer, though they die;
 They view the triumph from afar,
 And seize it with their eye.

6 When that illustrious day shall rise,
 And all thine armies shine
 In robes of victory through the skies,
 The glory shall be thine.

THE Son of God goes forth to war,
A kingly crown to gain;
His blood-red banner streams afar:
Who follows in his train?
Who best can drink his cup of woe,
And triumph over pain,
Who patient bears his cross below—
He follows in his train.

2 The martyr first, whose eagle eye
Could pierce beyond the grave,
Who saw his Master in the sky,
And called on him to save:
Like him, with pardon on his tongue,
In midst of mortal pain,
He prayed for them that did the wrong:
Who follows in his train?

3 A glorious band, the chosen few,
On whom the Spirit came: [knew,
Twelve valiant saints, their hope they
And mocked the cross and flame.
They climbed the dizzy steep to heaven
Through peril, toil, and pain:
O God! to us may grace be given
To follow in their train!

LONG as the darkening cloud abode,
So long did Israel rest;
Nor moved they till the guiding Lord
In brightness stood confessed:
Father of spirits! Light of life!
Now lift the cloudy veil!
Shine forth in fire amid that night
Whose blackness makes us quail!

2 'T is done! To Christ the power given;
He rends the veil away;
O'er earth a splendor pours from heaven,
That makes our darkness—day!
Rise then, and follow, all the host,
His glory who precedes!
This true Shechinah, which we boast,
To the true Canaan leads.

3 The city there is jasper-built,
The sea, a golden fire,
And underneath the emerald bow
Sings an immortal choir!
Oh, thither lead us, Lord of light!
Through all this wilderness;
Till in the glory of that sight
We perfect are in bliss!

GOD'S glory is a wondrous thing,
Most strange in all its ways,
And, of all things on earth, least like
What men agree to praise.

2 Oh, blest is he to whom is given
The instinct that can tell
That God is on the field, when he
Is most invisible!

3 And blest is he who can divine
Where real right doth lie,
And dares to take the side that seems
Wrong to man's blindfold eye!

4 Oh, learn to scorn the praise of men!
Oh, learn to lose with God!
For Jesus won the world through shame,
And beckons thee his road.

5 And right is right, since God is God;
And right the day must win;
To doubt would be disloyalty,
To falter would be sin!

Frederick W. Faber.

3 But if some darker lot be good,
Oh, teach us to endure
The sorrow, pain, or solitude,
That makes the spirit pure.

4 Christ by no flowery pathway came,
And we, his followers here,
Must do thy will and praise thy name,
In hope, and love, and fear.

5 And, till in heaven we sinless bow,
And faultless anthems raise,
O Father, Son, and Spirit, now
Accept our feeble praise.

OH, what, if we are Christ's,
Is earthly shame or loss?
Bright shall the crown of glory be,
When we have borne the cross.

2 Keen was the trial once,
Bitter the cup of woe,
When martyred saints, baptized in blood,
Christ's sufferings shared below.

3 Bright is their glory now,
Boundless their joy above,
Where, on the bosom of their God,
They rest in perfect love.

4 Lord, may that grace be ours!
Like them in faith to bear
All that of sorrow, grief, or pain,
May be our portion here!

Thou wilt send me help at length,
And I feel no wild alarms.

2 When my trials tarry long,
Unto thee I look and wait,
Knowing none, though keen and strong,
Can my trust in thee abate.

3 And this faith I long have nursed
Comes alone, O God, from thee;
Thou my heart didst open first,
Thou didst set this hope in me.

4 Let thy mercy's wings be spread
O'er me, keep me close to thee;
In the peace thy love doth shed
Let me dwell eternally.

5 Be my all; in all I do,
Let me only seek thy will:
Where the heart to thee is true,
All is peaceful, calm and still.

Shadow of a Mighty Rock, Stretching o'er a weary land, Hide me from the tempest's shock, Let me in thy shelter stand.

771 "The Shadow of a Rock."

SHADOW of a Mighty Rock,
Stretching o'er a weary land,
Hide me from the tempest's shock,
Let me in thy shelter stand.

2 When thy Presence, O my God,
Brighter is than I can see,
Shadow on the heavenward road,
Let me find my shade in thee.

3 Out of thee are shades of death,
Weary ways, and hours unblest;
Shadow of the Rock, beneath
Thee alone are joy and rest.

4 Till the race of life be run,
Till my soul in rest be laid,
God of gods, thou art my Sun;
Son of God, be thou my Shade!

772 "The Everlasting Arms."

EVERLASTING arms of love
Are beneath, around, above;
He who left his throne of light,
And unnumbered angels bright;—

2 He who on the accursed tree
Gave his precious life for me;
He it is that bears me on,
His the arm I lean upon.

3 All things hasten to decay,
Earth and sea will pass away;
Soon will yonder circling sun
Cease his blazing course to run.

4 Scenes will vary, friends grow strange,
But the Changeless cannot change:
Gladly will I journey on,
With his arm to lean upon.

PLEYEL'S HYMN. 7a.

IGNACE PLEYEL.

773 Isaiah 35: 8-10.

CHILDREN of the heavenly King,
As ye journey, sweetly sing;
Sing your Saviour's worthy praise,
Glorious in his works and ways.

2 Ye are traveling home to God
In the way the fathers trod;
They are happy now, and ye
Soon their happiness shall see.

3 Shout, ye little flock, and blest!
You on Jesus' throne shall rest;
There your seat is now prepared;
There your kingdom and reward.

4 Fear not, brethren; joyful stand
On the borders of your land;
Jesus Christ, your Father's Son,
Bids you undismayed go on.

5 Lord, submissive make us go,
Gladly leaving all below;
Only thou our Leader be,
And we still will follow thee.

John Cennick.

774 Redeeming Love.

NOW BEGIN the heavenly theme,
Sing aloud in Jesus' name;
Ye who Jesus' kindness prove,
Triumph in redeeming love.

2 Ye who see the Father's grace
Beaming in the Saviour's face,
As to Canaan on ye move,
Praise and bless redeeming love.

3 Mourning souls, dry up your tears;
Banish all your guilty fears;
See your guilt and curse remove,
Canceled by redeeming love.

4 Welcome, all by sin oppress,
Welcome to his sacred rest;
Nothing brought him from above,
Nothing but redeeming love.

5 Hither, then, your music bring,
Strike aloud each joyful string;
Mortals, join the host above,
Join to praise redeeming love.

John Langford.

Je - sus, thou source of calm re - pose, All fullness dwells in thee divine; Our strength to quell the proudest foes;

775

"All Fullness."

Jesus, thou source of calm repose,
 All fullness dwells in thee divine;
 Our strength to quell the proudest foes;
 Our light, in deepest gloom to shine;
 Thou art our fortress, strength and tower,
 Our trust and portion, evermore.

2 Jesus, our Comforter thou art;
 Our rest in toil, our ease in pain;
 The balm to heal each broken heart,
 In storms our peace, in loss our gain;
 Our joy beneath the worldling's frown;
 In shame, our glory and our crown;—

3 In want, our plentiful supply;
 In weakness, our almighty power;
 In bonds, our perfect liberty;
 Our refuge in temptation's hour;
 Our comfort when in grief and thrall;
 Our life in death; our all in all.

Venue. Gen. 32: 31.

COME, O thou Traveler unknown!
 Whom still I hold, but cannot see,
 My company before is gone,
 And I am left alone with thee;
 With thee all night I mean to stay,
 And wrestle till the break of day.

2 I need not tell thee who I am;
 My sin and misery declare;
 Thyself hast called me by my name;
 Look on thy hands and read it there;
 But who, I ask thee, who art thou?
 Tell me thy name, and tell me now.

3 My prayer hath power with God; the grace
 Unspeakable I now receive;
 Through faith I see thee face to face—
 I see thee face to face and live!
 In vain I have not wept and strove;
 Thy nature and thy name is Love.

4 I know thee, Saviour! who thou art—
 Jesus, the feeble sinner's Friend;
 Nor wilt thou with the night depart,
 But stay and love me to the end;
 Thy mercies never shall remove;
 Thy nature and thy name is Love.

Charles Wesley.

In Christ Alone.

My hope is built on nothing less
 Than Jesus' blood and righteousness;
 I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
 But wholly lean on Jesus' name:
 On Christ, the solid rock, I stand;
 All other ground is sinking sand.

2 When darkness seems to veil his face,
 I rest on his unchanging grace;
 In every high and stormy gale,
 My anchor holds within the veil;
 On Christ, the solid rock, I stand;
 All other ground is sinking sand.

3 His oath, his covenant, and blood,
 Support me in the whelming flood;
 When all around my soul gives way,
 He then is all my hope and stay:
 On Christ, the solid rock, I stand;
 All other ground is sinking sand.

Je-sus, my Lord, my God, my all! Blest Saviour, hear me when I call; Oh, hear, and from thy dwell-ing-place

778

"Jesus, my Lord."

JESUS, my Lord, my God, my all!
 Blest Saviour, hear me when I call;
 Oh, hear, and from thy dwelling-place
 Pour down the riches of thy grace:
 Jesus, my Lord, I thee adore—
 Oh, make me love thee more and more!

2 Jesus, alas! too coldly sought,
 How can I love thee as I ought?
 And how extol thy matchless fame,
 The glorious beauty of thy name?
 Jesus, my Lord, I thee adore—
 Oh, make me love thee more and more!

3 Jesus! of thee shall be my song;
 To thee my heart and soul belong;
 All that I am or have is thine,
 And thou, my Saviour, thou art mine!
 Jesus, my Lord, I thee adore—
 Oh, make me love thee more and more!

Henry Collins.

3 Uphold me in the doubtful race,
 Nor suffer me again to stray;
 Strengthen my feet, with steady pace,
 Still to press forward in thy way;
 That all my powers, with all their might,
 In thy sole glory may unite.

4 Thee will I love, my Joy, my Crown!
 Thee will I love, my Lord, my God!
 Thee will I love, beneath thy frown
 Or smile, thy scepter or thy rod.
 Though my heart fail and flesh decay,
 Thee shall I love in endless day.

J. Wesley, tr.

780 "Thy Boundless Love."

JESUS, thy boundless love to me
 No thought can reach, no tongue declare;
 Oh, knit my thankful heart to thee,
 And reign without a rival there:
 Thine wholly, thine alone, I am;
 Be thou alone my constant flame.

779

"My Strength, my Tower."

THEE will I love, my Strength, my Tower!
 Thee will I love, my Joy, my Crown!
 Thee will I love, with all my power;
 In all thy works, and thee alone:
 Thee will I love, till thy pure fire
 Fill my whole soul with chaste desire.

2 I thank thee, uncreated Sun!
 That thy bright beams on me have shined.
 I thank thee, who hast overthrown
 My foes, and healed my wounded mind.
 I thank thee, whose enlivening voice
 Bids my freed heart in thee rejoice

2 Oh, grant that nothing in my soul
 May dwell, but thy pure love alone:
 Oh, may thy love possess me whole,—
 My joy, my treasure, and my crown:
 Strange flames far from my heart remove;
 My every act, word, thought, be love.

3 O Love! how cheering is thy ray!
 All pain before thy presence flies;
 Care, anguish, sorrow, melt away,
 Where'er thy healing beams arise:
 O Jesus! nothing may I see,
 Nothing desire, or seek but thee!

781 The Name "Jesus."

JESUS! name of wondrous love!
Name all other names above!
Unto which must every knee
Bow in deep humility.

2 Jesus! name decreed of old:
To the maiden mother told,
Kneeling in her lowly cell,
By the angel Gabriel.

3 Jesus! name of priceless worth
To the fallen sons of earth,
For the promise that it gave—
"Jesus shall his people save."

4 Jesus! only name that's given
Under all the mighty heaven,
Whereby man, to sin enslaved,
Bursts his fetters, and is saved.

5 Jesus! name of wondrous love!
Human name of God above;
Pleading only this we flee,
Helpless, O our God, to thee.

William W. How.

782 "Emmanuel."

SWEETER sounds than music knows
Charm me in Immanuel's name;
All her hopes my spirit owes
To his birth, and cross, and shame.

2 When he came, the angels sung,
"Glory be to God on high:"
Lord, unloose my stammering tongue;
Who should louder sing than I?

3 Did the Lord a man become,
That he might the law fulfill,
Bleed and suffer in my room,—
And canst thou, my tongue, be still?

4 No; I must my praises bring,
Though they worthless are, and weak;
For should I refuse to sing,
Sure the very stones would speak.

5 O my Saviour! Shield and Sun,
Shepherd, Brother, Lord, and Friend—
Every precious name in one!
I will love thee without end.

783 "Altogether Loving."

EARTH has nothing sweet or fair,
Lovely forms or beauties rare,
But before my eyes they bring
Christ, of beauty Source and Spring.

2 When the morning paints the skies,
When the golden sunbeams rise,
Then my Saviour's form I find
Brightly imaged on my mind.

3 When the star-beams pierce the night,
Oft I think on Jesus light;
Think how bright that light will be,
Shining through eternity.

4 Come, Lord Jesus! and dispel
This dark cloud in which I dwell,
And to me the power impart
To behold thee as thou art.

784 "To Live is Christ."

CHRIST, of all my hopes the Ground,
Christ, the Spring of all my joy,
Still in thee let me be found,
Still for thee my powers employ.

2 Fountain of o'erflowing grace!
Freely from thy fullness give;
Till I close my earthly race,
Be it "Christ for me to live!"

3 Firmly trusting in thy blood,
Nothing shall my heart confound;
Safely I shall pass the flood,
Safely reach Immanuel's ground.

4 When I touch the blessed shore,
Back the closing waves shall roll!
Death's dark stream shall nevermore
Part from thee my ravished soul.

5 Thus—oh, thus an entrance give
To the land of cloudless sky;
Having known it "Christ to live,"
Let me know it "gain to die."

Ralph Wardlaw.

785 "He First Loved Us."

SAVIOUR! teach me, day by day,
Love's sweet lesson to obey;
Sweeter lesson cannot be,—
Loving him who first loved me.

2 With a child-like heart of love,
At thy bidding may I move;
I prompt to serve and follow thee,
Loving him who first loved me.

3 Teach me all thy steps to trace,
Strong to follow in thy grace;
Learning how to love from thee,
Loving him who first loved me.

4 Love in loving finds employ—
In obedience all her joy;
Ever new that joy will be,
Loving him who first loved me.

5 Thus may I rejoice to show
That I feel the love I owe;
Singing, till thy face I see,
Of his love who first loved me.

Jane E. Leeson.

786 "Christ the Crucified."

ASK ye what great thing I know
That delights and stirs me so?
What the high reward I win!
Whose the name I glory in?
Jesus Christ, the Crucified.

2 Who is life in life to me?
Who the death of death will be?
Who will place me on his right
With the countless hosts of light?
Jesus Christ, the Crucified.

3 This is that great thing I know;
This delights and stirs me so;
Faith in him who died to save,
Him who triumphed o'er the grave,
Jesus Christ, the Crucified.

2 None but Christ: his Spirit seals me,

788 "Jesus Only."

JESUS only, when the morning
Beams upon the path I tread;
Jesus only, when the darkness
Gathers round my weary head.

2 Jesus only, when the billows
Cold and sullen o'er me roll;
Jesus only, when the trumpet
Rends the tomb and wakes the soul.

3 Jesus only, when, adoring,
Saints their crowns before him bring;
Jesus only, I will, joyous,
Through eternal ages sing.

789 "With You Always."

ALWAYS with us, always with us —
Words of cheer and words of love;
Thus the risen Saviour whispers,
From his dwelling-place above.

2 With us when we toil in sadness,
Sowing much and reaping none:
Telling us that in the future
Golden harvests shall be won.

3 With us when the storm is sweeping
O'er our pathway dark and drear;
Waking hope within our bosoms,
Stilling every anxious fear.

4 With us in the lonely valley
When we cross the chilling stream —
Lighting up the steps to glory
With salvation's radiant beam.

790 A Living Christ.

NOW I KNOW the great Redeemer,
Know he lives and spreads his fame;
Lives — and all the heavens adore him;
Lives — and earth resounds his name.

2 My Redeemer lives within me,
Lives — and heavenly life conveys;
Lives — and glory now surrounds me;
Lives — and I his name shall praise.

3 Pardon, peace, and full salvation
From my living Saviour flow:
Light, and life, and consolation, —
All the good I e'er can know.

4 Soon shall I behold my Saviour;
He who lives and reigns above,
Lives — and I shall live for ever.
Live and sing redeeming love!

Life of Life.

LABORING and heavy-laden,
Wanting help in time of need;
Fainting by the way from hunger,
"Bread of Life!" on thee we feed.

2 Thirsting for the springs of water,
That by love's eternal law,
From the stricken Rock are flowing,
"Well of Life!" from thee we draw.

3 In the land of cloud and shadow,
Where no human eye can see,
Light to those who sit in darkness,
"Light of Life!" we walk in thee.

4 Vexed with passion's hateful bondage,
Longing, struggling to be free;
Where thy loving banner leads us,
"Prince of Life!" we follow thee.

5 Sick of sense's vain deceivings,
Crumbling round us into dust;
Strong alone in faith's believings,
"Word of Life!" in thee we trust.

6 Thou the "Grace of life" supplying,
Thou the "Crown of life" wilt give;
Dead to sin, and daily dying,
"Life of Life" in thee we live.

"Praise the Saviour."

PRAISE the Saviour, ye who know him:
Who can tell how much we owe him?
Gladly let us render to him
All we are and have!

2 With his blood the Lord has bought them;
When they knew him not, he sought them,
And from all their wanderings brought them;
His praise alone.

3 Jesus is the name that charms us;
He for conflicts fits and arms us;
Nothing moves, and nothing harms us,
When we trust in him.

4 Trust in him, ye saints, for ever;
He is faithful, changing never,
Neither force nor guile can sever
Those he loves from him.

Heb. 13: 8.

SAINTS in glory, we together
Know the song that ceases never;
Song of songs thou art, O Saviour,
All that endless day.

2 Come, ye angels, round us gather,
While to Jesus we draw nearer;
In his throne he'll seat for ever
Those for whom he died.

3 Underneath his throne a river,
Clear as crystal, flows for ever,
Like his fullness, failing never:
Hail, enthronéd Lamb!

4 Oh, the unsearchable Redeemer!
Shoreless ocean, sounded never!
Yesterday, to-day, for ever,
Jesus Christ, the same.

"We would see Jesus."

WE would see Jesus—for the shadows
lengthen
Across this little landscape of our life;
We would see Jesus, our weak faith to strengthen
For the last weariness—the final strife.

2 We would see Jesus—the great Rock
Foundation,
Whereon our feet were set with sovereign
grace;
Not life, nor death, with all their agita-
tion,
Can thence remove us, if we see his face.

3 We would see Jesus—other lights are paling,
Which for long years we have rejoiced to see;
The blessings of our pilgrimage are failing,
We would not mourn them, for we go to
thee.

4 We would see Jesus—this is all we're needing,
Strength, joy, and willingness come with the sight;
We would see Jesus, dying, risen, plead-
ing,
Then welcome day, and farewell mortal night!

"We are the Lord's."

WE are the Lord's; his all-sufficient merit,
Sealed on the cross, to us this grace ac-
cords;
We are the Lord's, and all things shall inherit;
Whether we live or die, we are the Lord's.

2 We are the Lord's; then let us gladly tender
Our souls to him, in deeds, not empty
words;
Let heart and tongue, and life, combine to render
No doubtful witness that we are the Lord's.

3 We are the Lord's, no darkness brooding
o'er us
Can make us tremble, while this star affords
A steady light along the path before us—
Faith's full assurance that we are the Lord's.

4 We are the Lord's; no evil can befall us
In the dread hour of life's fast loosening
cords;
No pangs of death shall even then appal us;
Death we shall vanquish, for we are the Lord's.

Still, still with thee, when purple morning breaketh, When the bird waketh, and the shadows flee:

Fair-er than morning, lovelier than the daylight, Dawns the sweet consciousness, I am with thee.

A-lone with thee, a-mid the mystic shadows, The solemn hush of na-ture new-ly born;

Alone with thee, in breathless ad-o-ra-tion, In the calm dew and freshness of the morn.

Still with Jesus.

STILL, still with thee, when purple morning
breaketh,

When the bird waketh, and the shadows
flee:

Fairer than morning, lovelier than the day-
light,

Dawns the sweet consciousness, I am with thee.

Alone with thee, amid the mystic shadows,
The solemn hush of nature newly born;

Alone with thee, in breathless adoration,

In the calm dew and freshness of the morn.

2 When sinks the soul, subdued by toil, to slumber,

Its closing eye looks up to thee in prayer;
Sweet the repose, beneath thy wings o'er-
shadowing,

But sweeter still to wake and find thee
there.

So shall it be at last in that bright morning
When the soul waketh, and life's shadows
flee;

Oh, in that hour, and fairer than day's dawning,

Shall rise the glorious thought, I am with
thee!

"I Love Thee, Lord!"

THOUGH sorrows rise and dangers roll,
In waves of darkness o'er my soul;
Though friends are false, and love decays,
And few and evil are my days;
Though conscience, fiercest of my foes,
Swells with remembered guilt my woes;
Yet ev'n in nature's utmost ill,
I love thee, Lord, I love thee still!

2 Though Sinai's curse, in thunder dread,
Peals o'er mine unprotected head,
And memory points, with busy pain,
To grace and mercy given in vain;
Till nature, shrinking in the strife,
Would fly to hell to 'scape from life;
Though every thought has power to kill,
I love thee, Lord, I love thee still!

3 Oh, by the pangs thyself hast borne,
The ruffian's blow, the tyrant's scorn,
By Sinai's curse, whose dreadful doom
Was buried in thy guiltless tomb;
By these my pangs, whose healing smart,
Thy grace hath planted in my heart—
I know, I feel thy bounteous will,
Thou lov'st me, Lord, thou lov'st me still!

The Name "Jesus."

JESUS!—the very thought is sweet;
In that dear name all heart-joys meet;
But sweeter than sweet honey far
The glimpses of his presence are.
No word is sung more sweet than this:
No name is heard more full of bliss;
No thought brings sweeter comfort nigh,
Than Jesus, Son of God most high.

2 Jesus, the hope of souls forlorn,
How good to them for sin that mourn!
To them that seek thee, oh, how kind!
But what art thou to them that find?
Jesus, thou sweetness, pure, and blest,
Truth's fountain, light of souls distressed,
Surpassing all that heart requires,
Exceeding all that soul desires!

3 No tongue of mortal can express,
No letters write, its blessedness:
Alone who hath thee in his heart
Knows, love of Jesus, what thou art.
We follow Jesus now, and raise
The voice of prayer, the hymn of praise,
That he at last may make us meet
With him to gain the heavenly seat.

What need I, that is not in thee?
Full pardon, strength to meet the day,

2 Doth sickness fill my heart with fear,
'Tis sweet to know that thou art near;
Am I with dread of justice tried,
'Tis sweet to know that Christ hath died.

Forbid my heart to be afraid;
In death, peace gently veils the eyes,—
Christ rose, and I shall surely rise.

Jesus is for ever Mine.

WHEN sins and fears, prevailing, rise,
And fainting hope almost expires,
To thee, O Lord, I lift my eyes;
To thee I breathe my soul's desires.

2 Art thou not mine, my living Lord?
And can my hope, my comfort die?
'Tis fixed on thine almighty word—
That word which built the earth and sky.

3 If my immortal Saviour lives,
Then my immortal life is sure;
His word a firm foundation gives;
Here may I build and rest secure.

4 Here, O my soul, thy trust repose;
If Jesus is for ever mine,
Not death itself—that last of foes—
Shall break a union so divine.

"Complete in Him."

My soul complete in Jesus stands!
It fears no more the law's demands;
The smile of God is sweet within,
Where all before was guilt and sin.

2 My soul at rest in Jesus lives;
Accepts the peace his pardon gives;
Receives the grace his death secured,
And pleads the anguish he endured.

3 My soul its every foe defies,
And cries—'Tis God that justifies!
Who charges God's elect with sin?
Shall Christ, who died their peace to win?

4 A song of praise my soul shall sing,
To our eternal, glorious King!
Shall worship humbly at his feet,
In whom alone it stands complete.

Grace is my shield, and Christ my song.

THE Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want:
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green; he leadeth me
The quiet waters by.

- 2 My soul he doth restore again;
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteousness,
Ev'n for his own name's sake.
- 3 Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale,
Yet will I fear no ill;
For thou art with me, and thy rod
And staff me comfort still.
- 4 My table thou hast furnishéd
In presence of my foes;
My head thou dost with oil anoint,
And my cup overflows.

Shall surely follow me;
And in God's house for evermore
My dwelling-place shall be.

Then truth begins to shine,
Then earthly vanities depart,
Then kindles love divine.

All that we can desire, —
 - 4 May every heart confess thy name,
And ever thee adore;
And, seeking thee, itself inflame
To seek thee more and more.

The image of thine own.

JESUS, who on his glorious throne
Rules heaven, and earth, and sea,
Is pleased to claim me for his own,
And give himself to me.

- 2 His person fixes all my love,
His blood removes my fear;
And while he pleads for me above,
His arm preserves me here.

- 3 His word of promise is my food,
His Spirit is my guide;
Thus daily is my strength renewed,
And all my wants supplied.

Disgrace for him renown;

806 "Whom Unseen, We Love."

JESUS, these eyes have never seen
That radiant form of thine!
The veil of sense hangs dark between
Thy blesséd face and mine!

- 2 I see thee not, I hear thee not,
Yet art thou oft with me;
And earth has ne'er so dear a spot,
As where I meet with thee.
- 3 Like some bright dream that comes un-
When slumbers o'er me roll, [sought,
Thine image ever fills my thought,
And charms my ravished soul.
- 4 Yet though I have not seen, and still Must rest in faith alone;
I love thee, dearest Lord!—and will,
Unseen, but not unknown.
- 5 When death these mortal eyes shall seal,
And still this throbbing heart,
The rending veil shall thee reveal,
All glorious as thou art!

Ray Palmer.

807 "The First Lord's Us."

O BLESSÉD Saviour, is thy love
So great, so full, so free?
Behold, we give our thoughts, our hearts,
Our lives, our all, to thee.

- 2 We love thee for the glorious worth
Which in thyself we see;
We love thee for that cross of shame
Endured so patiently.
- 3 No man of greater love can boast
Than for his friend to die;
Thou for thine enemies wast slain:
What love with thine can vie?
- 4 Make us like thee in meekness, love,
And every beauteous grace;
From glory unto glory changed,
Till we behold thy face.

808 "Altogether Lovelg."

MY God! the spring of all my joys,
The life of my delights,
The glory of my brightest days,
And comfort of my nights!

- 2 In darkest shades if he appear,
My dawning is begun:
He is my soul's sweet morning star
And he my rising sun.
- 3 The opening heavens around me shine
With beams of sacred bliss,
While Jesus shows his heart is mine,
And whispers, I am his.
- 4 My soul would leave this heavy clay,
At that transporting word;
Run up with joy the shining way,
To meet my gracious Lord!

Isaac Watts.

809 "A Heart like Christ's."

OH, for a heart to praise my God,
A heart from sin set free;
A heart that always feels thy blood
So freely shed for me!

- 2 A heart resigned, submissive, meek,
My dear Redeemer's throne;
Where only Christ is heard to speak,
Where Jesus reigns alone!
- 3 Oh, for a lowly, contrite heart,
Believing, true, and clean!
Which neither life nor death can part
From him that dwells within.
- 4 A heart in every thought renewed,
And filled with love divine;
Perfect, and right, and pure, and good;
An image, Lord! of thine.
- 5 Thy nature, gracious Lord, impart;
Come quickly from above;
Write thy new name upon my heart,—
Thy new, best name of Love.

S10

Psalm in Psal.

My heart doth sing for joy;
And sing I must, for Christ is mine;
Christ shall my song employ.

2 Christ is my Prophet, Priest, and King;
A Prophet full of light,
My great High-Priest before the throne,
My King of heavenly might.

3 For he indeed is Lord of lords,
And he the King of kings;
He is the Sun of righteousness,
With healing in his wings.

4 Christ is my Peace; he died for me,
For me he gave his blood;
And as my wondrous Sacrifice
Offered himself to God.

5 Christ Jesus is my All in all,
My Comfort and my Love,
My Life below, and he shall be
My Joy and Crown above.

Loving and Beloved.

Do NOT I love thee, O my Lord?
Behold my heart, and see;
And turn the dearest idol out
That dares to rival thee.

2 Is not thy name melodious still
To mine attentive ear?
Doth not each pulse with pleasure bound,
My Saviour's voice to hear?

3 Hast thou a lamb in all thy flock
I would disdain to feed?
Hast thou a foe, before whose face
I fear thy cause to plead?

4 Would not my heart pour forth its blood
In honor of thy name?
And challenge the cold hand of death
To damp the immortal flame?

5 Thou knowest that I love thee, Lord;
But, oh, I long to soar
Far from the sphere of mortal joys,
And learn to love thee more.

2 Yes!—thou art precious to my soul,
My transport and my trust;
Jewels, to thee, are gaudy toys,

3 All my capacious powers can wish,
In thee doth richly meet;

The cordial of its care.

HOW SWEET the name of Jesus sounds
In a believer's ear!
It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds,

And calms the troubled breast;
'T is manna to the hungry soul,
And to the weary, rest.

3 Jesus! my Shepherd, Guardian, Friend,

3 O Hope of every contrite heart!
O Joy of all the meek!

How good to those who seek!

4 But what to those who find? Ah! this,
Nor tongue nor pen can show;
The love of Jesus, what it is,
None but his loved ones know.

818 Our Elder Brother.

O JESUS, when I think of thee,
Thy manger, cross, and throne,
My spirit trusts exultingly
In thee, and thee alone.

2 I see thee in thy weakness first;
Then, glorious from thy shame,
I see thee death's strong fetters burst,
And reach heaven's mightiest name.

3 In each, a brother's love I trace
By power divine exprest,
One in thy Father God's embrace,
As on thy mother's breast.

4 For me thou didst become a man,
For me didst weep and die;
For me achieve thy wondrous plan,
For me ascend on high.

A love so strange as thine!
No thought of angels ever knew
Compassion so divine!

3 Is there a heart that will not bend
To thy divine control?
Descend, O sovereign love, descend,
And melt that stubborn soul.

4 Oh! may our willing hearts confess
Thy sweet, thy gentle sway;
Glad captives of thy matchless grace,
Thy righteous rule obey.

BLEST JESUS! when my soaring thoughts
O'er all thy graces rove,
How is my soul in transport lost,—
In wonder, joy, and love!

2 Where'er I look, my wondering eyes
Unnumbered blessings see;
But what is life, with all its bliss,
If once compared with thee?

3 Hast thou a rival in my breast?
Search, Lord, for thou canst tell
If aught can raise my passions thus,
Or please my soul so well.

4 No; thou art precious to my heart,
My portion and my joy:
For ever let thy boundless grace
My sweetest thoughts employ.

I should leave half untold the donation of bliss!

I thank thee for sickness, for sorrow, and care,

For the thorns I have gathered, the anguish I bear;—

826 Perfect Peace.

In heavenly love abiding,
 No change my heart shall fear,
 And safe is such confiding,
 For nothing changes here:
 The storm may roar without me,
 My heart may low be laid,
 But God is round about me,
 And can I be dismay'd?

2 Wherever he may guide me,
 No want shall turn me back;
 My Shepherd is beside me,
 And nothing can I lack:
 His wisdom ever waketh,
 His sight is never dim:
 He knows the way he taketh,
 And I will walk with him.

3 Green pastures are before me,
 Which yet I have not seen;
 Bright skies will soon be o'er me,
 Where darkest clouds have been:
 My hope I cannot measure;
 My path to life is free;
 My Saviour has my treasure,
 And he will walk with me.

827 Faithful Saviour.

TO THEE, O dear, dear Saviour!
 My spirit turns for rest,
 My peace is in thy favor,
 My pillow on thy breast;
 Though all the world deceive me,
 I know that I am thine,
 And thou wilt never leave me,
 O blesséd Saviour mine!

2 In thee my trust abideth,
 On thee my hope relies,
 O thou whose love provideth
 For all beneath the skies;
 O thou whose mercy found me,
 From bondage set me free,
 And then for ever bound me
 With threefold cords to thee.

3 Alas, that I should ever
 Have failed in love to thee,
 The only one who never
 Forgot or slighted me!
 Oh, for that choicest blessing
 Of living in thy love,
 And thus on earth possessing
 The peace of heaven above.

Because I live in thee;
Thy death it is that frees us

2 I fear no tribulation,
Since, whatsoe'er it be,
It makes no separation
Between my Lord and me.
If thou, my God and Teacher,
Vouchsafe to be my own,
Though poor, I shall be richer
Than monarch on his throne.

3 If, while on earth I wander,
My heart is right and blest,
Ah, what shall I be yonder,
In perfect peace and rest?
Oh, blessed thought! in dying

Where there shall be no sighing,
A kingdom our reward.

829 "The World's True Light."

O ONE with God the Father
In majesty and might,
The brightness of his glory,
Eternal Light of light;
O'er this our home of darkness
Thy rays are streaming now;
The shadows flee before thee,
The world's true Light art thou.

2 Yet, Lord, we see but darkly:—
O heavenly Light, arise,
Dispel these mists that shroud us,
And hide thee from our eyes!
We long to track the footprints
That thou thyself hast trod;
We long to see the pathway
That leads to thee our God.

3 O Jesus, shine around us
With radiance of thy grace;
O Jesus, turn upon us
The brightness of thy face.
We need no star to guide us,
As on our way we press,
If thou thy light vouchsafest,

John 15: 5.

I COULD not do without thee,
O Saviour of the lost!
Whose wondrous love redeemed me
At such tremendous cost;
Thy righteousness, thy pardon,
Thy precious blood must be
My only hope and comfort,
My glory and my plea.

2 I could not do without thee,
I cannot stand alone,
I have no strength or goodness,
No wisdom of my own;
But thou, beloved Saviour,
Art all in all to me,
And perfect strength in weakness
Is theirs who lean on thee.

3 I could not do without thee,
For, oh, the way is long,
And I am often weary,
And sigh replaces song.
How could I do without thee?
I do not know the way;
Thou knowest, and thou leadest,
And wilt not let me stray.

4 I could not do without thee!
For life is fleeting fast,
And soon in solemn loneliness
The river must be past.

But thou wilt never leave me,
And though the waves roll high,
I know thou wilt be with me,
And whisper, "It is I."

831 The Good Shepherd.

O JESUS, ever present,
O Shepherd, ever kind,
Thy very name is music
To ear, and heart, and mind.
It woke my wondering childhood
To muse on things above;
It drew my harder manhood
With cords of mighty love.

2 How oft to sure destruction
My feet had gone astray,
Wert thou not, patient Shepherd,
The guardian of my way!
How oft in darkness fallen,
And wounded sore by sin,
Thy hand has gently raised me,
And healing balm poured in.

3 O Shepherd good, I follow
Wherever thou wilt lead;
No matter where the pastures,
With thee at hand, to feed.
Thy voice, in life so mighty,
In death shall make me bold:
Oh, bring my ransomed spirit
To thine eternal fold.

MASTER, speak! thy servant heareth,
 Longing for thy gracious word,
 Longing for thy voice that cheereth;
 Master, let it now be heard.
 I am listening, Lord, for thee;
 What hast thou to say to me?

2 Often through my heart is pealing
 Many another voice than thine;
 Many an unwilling echo stealing
 From the walls of this thy shrine.
 Let thy longed-for accents fall;
 Master, speak! and silence all.

3 Master, speak! I do not doubt thee,
 Though so tearfully I plead;
 Saviour, Shepherd! oh, without thee
 Life would be a blank indeed.
 But I long for fuller light,
 Deeper love and clearer sight.

4 Speak to me by name, O Master,

YES, he knows the way is dreary,
 Knows the weakness of our frame,
 Knows that hand and heart are weary,
 He in all points felt the same.
 He is near to help and bless;
 Be not weary, onward press.

2 Look to him, who once was willing
 All his glory to resign,
 That, for thee the law fulfilling,
 All his merit might be thine.
 Strive to follow, day by day,
 Where his footsteps mark the way.

3 Look to him, the Lord of Glory,
 Tasting death to win thy life;
 Gazing on that wondrous story,
 Canst thou falter in the strife?
 Is it not new life to know
 That the Lord hath loved thee so?

4 Look to him, and faith shall brighten,
 Hope shall soar, and love shall burn,
 Peace once more thy heart shall lighten;
 Rise, he calleth thee, return!
 Be not weary on thy way;
 Jesus is thy strength and stay.

How they who seek in God their rest
Shall ever find him near;—

3 How God hath built above
A city fair and new,
Where eye and heart shall see and prove
What faith has counted true.

4 My heart for gladness springs;
It cannot more be sad;
For very joy it smiles and sings,—
Sees naught but sunshine glad.

5 The sun that lights mine eyes
Is Christ, the Lord I love;
I sing for joy of that which lies
Stored up for me above.

Unsern, Wie Lobe.

NOT with our mortal eyes
Have we beheld the Lord;
Yet we rejoice to hear his name;
And love him in his word.

2 On earth we want the sight
Of our Redeemer's face;
Yet, Lord, our inmost thoughts delight
To dwell upon thy grace.

3 And when we taste thy love,
Our joys divinely grow
Unspeakable like those above,
And heaven begins below.

Psalm 23.

THE Lord my Shepherd is,
I shall be well supplied;
Since he is mine, and I am his,
What can I want beside?

2 He leads me to the place
Where heavenly pasture grows,
Where living waters gently pass,
And full salvation flows.

3 If e'er I go astray,
He doth my soul reclaim;
And guide me in his own right way,
For his most holy name.

4 While he affords his aid,
I cannot yield to fear;
Tho' I should walk thro' death's dark shade,
My Shepherd's with me there.

5 In spite of all my foes,
Thou dost my table spread;
My cup with blessings overflows,
And joy exalts my head.

6 The bounties of thy love
Shall crown my future days;
Nor from thy house will I remove,
Nor cease to speak thy praise.

841 Theocistus' Hymn. Part I.

JESUS, name all names above,
 Jesus, best and dearest;
 Jesus, fount of perfect love,
 Holiest, tenderest, nearest;
 Jesus, source of grace completest,
 Jesus, purest, Jesus, sweetest,
 Jesus, well of power divine,
 Make me, keep me, seal me thine.

2 Jesus, open me the gate
 Which the sinner entered,
 Who, in his last dying state,
 Wholly on thee ventured;
 Thou, whose wounds are ever pleading,
 And thy passion interceding,
 From my misery let me rise
 To a home in Paradise.

3 When I cross death's bitter sea,
 And its waves roll higher,
 Help the more forsaking me,
 As the storm draws nigher:
 Jesus, leave me not to languish,
 Helpless, hopeless, full of anguish:
 Tell me, "Varily I say,
 Thou shalt be with me to-day."

J. M. Neale, tr.

842 Part II.—Date G. D. 890.

JESUS, crowned with thorns for me,
 Scourged for my transgression,
 Witnessing, in agony
 That thy good confession;
 Jesus, clad in purple raiment,
 For my evil making payment,
 Let not all thy woe and pain,
 Let not Calvary be in vain.

2 Woe, that I have turned aside
 After fleshly pleasure!
 Woe, that I have faintly tried
 For the heavenly treasure!
 Treasure, safe in home supernal,
 Incorruptible, eternal:
 Treasure no less price hath won
 Than the passion of the Son.

3 Thou didst call the prodigal:
 Thou didst pardon Mary:
 Thou whose words can never fall,
 Love can never vary;
 Lord, to heal my lost condition,
 Give—for thou canst give—contrition;
 Thou canst pardon all my ill
 If thou wilt;—oh, say, "I will!"

I will sing for Je-sus, With his blood he bought me, And all along my pil-grim way His loving hand has brought me.

CHORUS.

Oh, help me sing for Je-sus, Help me tell the sto-ry Of him who did re-deem us, The Lord of life and glo-ry

843 "My Bless'd Master."

I WILL sing for Jesus,
With his blood he bought me,
And all along my pilgrim way
His loving hand has brought me.

CHO.—Oh, help me sing for Jesus,
Help me tell the story
Of him who did redeem us,
The Lord of life and glory.

2 Can there overtake me
Any dark disaster
While I can sing for Jesus,

3 I will sing for Jesus,
His name alone prevailing,
Shall be my sweetest music,
When heart and flesh are failing. — CHO.

Psalm 23.

THE King of love my Shepherd is,
Whose goodness faileth never,
I nothing lack if I am his,
And he is mine for ever.

2 Where streams of living water flow
My ransomed soul he leadeth,
And where the verdant pastures grow,
With food celestial feedeth.

3 Perverse and foolish, oft I strayed,
But yet in love he sought me,
And on his shoulder gently laid,
And home, rejoicing, brought me.

4 In death's dark vale I fear no ill
With thee, dear Lord, beside me,
Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
Thy cross before to guide me.

5 Thou spread'st a table in my sight,
Thy unction grace bestoweth,
And, oh, what transport of delight
From thy pure chalice floweth.

6 And so through all the length of days
Thy goodness faileth never,
Good Shepherd! may I sing thy praise
Within thy house for ever.

Libing by Faith.

OH, blesséd Life! the heart at rest,
When all without tumultuous seems:
That trusts a higher Will, and deems
That higher Will, not mine, the best.

2 Oh, blesséd Life! the mind that sees,
Whatever change the years may bring,
A mercy still in everything,
And shining through all mysteries.

3 Oh, blesséd Life! the soul that soars,
When sense of mortal sight is dim,
Beyond the sense—beyond to him
Whose love unlocks the heavenly doors.

4 Oh, blesséd Life! heart, mind, and soul
From self-born aims and wishes free,
In all at one with Deity,
And loyal to the Lord's control.

5 Oh, Life! how blesséd!—how divine!—
High Life, the earnest of a higher:
Saviour! fulfill my deep desire,
And let this blesséd Life be mine.

Straight Onward.

FIGHT the good fight with all thy might,
Christ is thy strength, and Christ thy right;
Lay hold on life, and it shall be
Thy joy and crown eternally.

2 Run the straight race through God's good
Lift up thine eyes, and seek his face; [grace,
Life with its way before us lies,
Christ is the path, and Christ the prize.

3 Cast care aside, upon thy Guide
Lean, and his mercy will provide;
Lean, and the trusting soul shall prove
Christ is its life, and Christ its love.

4 Faint not, nor fear, his arms are near,
He changeth not, and thou art dear:
Only believe, and thou shalt see
That Christ is all in all to thee.

En the Light of God.

GRANT us thy light, that we may know
The wisdom thou alone canst give;
That truth may guide where'er we go,
And virtue bless where'er we live.

2 Grant us thy light, that we may see
Where error lurks in human lore,
And turn our doubting minds to thee,
And love thy simple word the more.

3 Grant us thy light, that we may learn
How dead is life from thee apart;
How sure is joy for all who turn
To thee an undivided heart.

4 Grant us thy light, in grief and pain,
To lift our burdened hearts above;
And count the very cross a gain,
And bless our Father's hidden love.

5 Grant us, thy light, when soon or late
All earthly scenes shall pass away,
In thee to find the open gate
To deathless home and endless day.

Contentment.

O LORD, how full of sweet content
Our years of pilgrimage are spent!
Where'er we dwell, we dwell with thee,
In heaven, in earth, or on the sea.

2 To us remains nor place nor time:
Our country is in every clime:
We can be calm and free from care
On any shore, since God is there.

3 While place we seek, or place we shun,
The soul finds happiness in none;
But with our God to guide our way,
'Tis equal joy to go or stay.

4 Could we be cast where thou art not,
That were indeed a dreadful lot;
But regions none remote we call,
Secure of finding God in all.

Faith.

'Tis by the faith of joys to come,
We walk through deserts dark as night;
Till we arrive at heaven, our home,
Faith is our guide, and faith our light.

2 The want of sight she well supplies;
She makes the pearly gates appear;
Far into distant worlds she prides,
And brings eternal glories near.

3 Cheerful we tread the desert through
While faith inspires a heavenly ray;
Though lions roar, and tempests blow,
And rocks and dangers fill the way.

Isaac Watts.

850

Consistency.

SO LET our lips and lives express
The holy gospel we profess;
So let our works and virtues shine,
To prove the doctrine all divine.

2 Thus shall we best proclaim abroad
The honors of our Saviour God;
When his salvation reigns within,
And grace subdues the power of sin.

3 Religion bears our spirits up,
While we expect that blessed hope,
The bright appearance of the Lord:
And faith stands leaning on his word.

For God by grace shall dwell in thee,
And God himself is light.

Oh, gift of gifts! oh, grace of faith!
My God! how can it be
That thou, who hast discerning love,
Shouldst give that gift to me?

2 How many hearts thou mightst have had
More innocent than mine!
How many souls more worthy far
Of that sweet touch of thine!

3 Ah, grace! into unlikeliest hearts
It is thy boast to come,
The glory of thy light to find
In darkest spots a home,

4 The crowd of cares, the weightiest cross,
Seem trifles less than light—
Earth looks so little and so low
When faith shines full and bright.

5 Oh, happy, happy that I am!
If thou canst be, O Faith,
The treasure that thou art in life,
What wilt thou be in death!

Frederick W. Faber.

853

Reverence.

LORD! when I all things would possess,
I crave but to be thine;
Oh, lowly is the loftiness
Of these desires divine.

2 Each gift but helps my soul to learn
How boundless is thy store;
I go from strength to strength, and yearn
For thee, my Helper, more.

3 How can my soul divinely soar,
How keep the shining way,
And not more tremblingly adore,
And not more humbly pray!

4 The more I triumph in thy gifts,
The more I wait on thee;
The grace that mightily uplifts
Most sweetly humblcth me.

5 The heaven where I would stand complete
My lowly love shall see,
And stronger grow the yearning sweet,
My holy One! for thee.

CALM me, my God, and keep me calm;
Let thine outstretchéd wing
Be like the shade of Elim's palm,
Beside her desert spring.

2 Yes, keep me calm, though loud and rude
The sounds my ear that greet, —
Calm in the closet's solitude,
Calm in the bustling street, —

3 Calm in the hour of buoyant health,
Calm in my hour of pain,
Calm in my poverty or wealth,
Calm in my loss or gain, —

4 Calm in the sufferance of wrong,
Like him who bore my shame,
Calm 'mid the threatening, taunting throng,
Who hate thy holy name.

5 Calm me, my God, and keep me calm,
Soft resting on thy breast;
Soothe me with holy hymn and psalm,
And bid my spirit rest.

Faith.

FAITH adds new charms to earthly bliss
And saves me from its snares;
Its aid, in every duty, brings,
And softens all my cares.

2 The wounded conscience knows its power
The healing balm to give;
That balm the saddest heart can cheer;
And make the dying live.

3 Wide it unavails celestial worlds,
Where deathless pleasures reign;
And bids me seek my portion there,
Nor bids me seek in vain.

4 It shows the precious promise sealed
With the Redeemer's blood;
And helps my feeble hope to rest
Upon a faithful God.

5 There — there unshaken would I rest,
Till this frail body dies;
And then, on faith's triumphant wings,
To endless glory rise.

Longing for Holiness.

OH, wherefore, Lord, doth thy dear praise
But tremble on my tongue?

Why lack my lips sweet skill to raise
A full, triumphant song?

2 Oh, make me, Lord, thy statutes learn;
Keep in thy ways my feet;
Then shall my lips divinely burn;
Then shall my songs be sweet.

3 Each sin I cast away shall make
My soul more strong to soar;
Each work I do for thee shall wake
A strain divine the more.

4 My voice shall more delight thine ear,
The more I wait on thee;
Thy service bring my song more near
The angelic harmony.

5 Oh, when shall perfect holiness
Make this poor voice divine,
And all harmonious heaven confess
No sweeter song than mine?

I THINK of thee, my God, by night,
And talk of thee by day;
Thy love my treasure and delight,
Thy truth my strength and stay.

2 The day is dark, the night is long,
Unblest with thoughts of thee,

Myself absorbed in thee.

Whose mercies are so great;
Whose anger is so slow to rise,
So ready to abate.
- 2 God will not always chide;
And when his strokes are felt,
His strokes are fewer than our crimes,
And lighter than our guilt.

Nor let me go astray;
Through darkness and perplexity
Point thou the heavenly way.

873 Grateful Confidence.

I BLESS the Christ of God,
 I rest on love divine,
 And with unfaltering lip and heart,
 I call the Saviour mine.
 His cross dispels each doubt;
 I bury in his tomb
 Each thought of unbelief and fear,
 Each lingering shade of gloom.

2 I praise the God of peace;
 I trust his truth and might;
 He calls me his, I call him mine,
 My God, my joy, my light.
 In him is only good,
 In me is only ill;
 My ill but draws his goodness forth,
 And me he loveth still.

3 'T is he who saveth me,

 My death has passed away,
 My clouds have melted into light,
 My midnight into day.

874 Brotherly Love.

BLESSÉD are the sons of God,
They are bought with Christ's own blood;
They are ransomed from the grave;
Life eternal they shall have:
With them numbered may we be,
Here, and in eternity.

2 They are justified by grace,
They enjoy the Saviour's peace;
All their sins are washed away;
They shall stand in God's great day:
With them numbered may we be,
Here, and in eternity.

2 They are lights upon the earth,
Children of a heavenly birth,—
One with God, with Jesus one:
Glory is in them begun!
With them numbered may we be,
Here, and in eternity.

875 Gospel Charity.

THOUGH I speak with angel tongues,
Bravest words of strength and fire,
They are but as idle songs,
If no love my heart inspire;
All the eloquence shall pass
As the noise of sounding brass.

2 Though I lavish all I have
On the poor in charity,
Though I shrink not from the grave,
Or unmoved the stake can see,—
Till by love the work be crowned,
All shall profitless be found.

3 Come, thou Spirit of pure love,
Who didst forth from God proceed,
Never from my heart remove;
Let me all thy impulse heed;
Let my heart henceforward be
Moved, controlled, inspired by thee.

Shepherd! with thy tenderest love, Guide me to thy fold a - bove; Let me hear thy gentle voice; More and more in thee rejoice;
o.c.—From thy fullness grace re - ceive, Ev - er in thy Spir - it live.

876 Psalm 23.

SHEPHERD! with thy tenderest love,
Guide me to thy fold above;
Let me hear thy gentle voice;
More and more in thee rejoice;
From thy fullness grace receive,
Ever in thy Spirit live.

2 Filled by thee my cup o'erflows,
For thy love no limit knows:
Guardian angels, ever nigh,

Lead and draw my soul on high;
Constant to my latest end,
Thou my footsteps wilt attend.

3 Jesus, with thy presence blest,
Death is life, and labor rest;
Guide me while I draw my breath,
Guard me through the gate of death;
And at last, oh, let me stand,
With the sheep at thy right hand.

Qui-et, Lord, my froward heart. Make me teach-a-ble and mild, Upright, simple, free from art,

Make me as a wean-ed child: From distrust and en-vy free, Pleased with all that pleases thee.

877

Psalm 131.

QUIET, Lord, my froward heart,
 Make me teachable and mild,
 Upright, simple, free from art,
 Make me as a weaned child:
 From distrust and envy free,
 Pleased with all that pleases thee.

2 What thou shalt to-day provide,
 Let me as a child receive;
 What to-morrow may betide,
 Calmly to thy wisdom leave:
 'T is enough that thou wilt care;
 Why should I the burden bear?

3 As a little child relies
 On a care beyond his own,
 Knows he's neither strong nor wise,
 Fears to stir a step alone;—
 Let me thus with thee abide,
 As my Father, Guard, and Guide.

John Newton.

3 For the joy of human love,
 Brother, sister, parent, child;
 Friends on earth, and friends above,
 Pleasures pure and undefiled;
 Lord of all, to thee we raise
 This our grateful psalm of praise.

4 For thy church that evermore
 Lifts her holy hands above,
 Offering up on every shore
 Her pure sacrifice of love;
 Lord of all, to thee we raise
 This our grateful psalm of praise.

Trust.

SAVIOUR, happy would I be,
 If I could but trust in thee;
 Trust thy wisdom me to guide;
 Trust thy goodness to provide;
 Trust thy saving love and power;
 Trust thee every day and hour:—

2 Trust thee as the only light
 In the darkest hour of night;
 Trust in sickness, trust in health;
 Trust in poverty and wealth;
 Trust in joy and trust in grief;
 Trust thy promise for relief:—

3 Trust thy blood to cleanse my soul;
 Trust thy grace to make me whole;
 Trust thee living, dying too;
 Trust thee all my journey through;
 Trust thee till my feet shall be
 Planted on the crystal sea.

Progress.—Esa. 40:31.

LIKE the eagle, upward, onward,
Let my soul in faith be borne:
Calmly gazing, skyward, sunward,
Let my eye unshrinking turn!

- 2 Where the cross, God's love revealing,
Sets the fettered spirit free,
Where it sheds its wondrous healing,
There, my soul, thy rest shall be!
- 3 Oh, may I no longer, dreaming,
Idly waste my golden day,
But, each precious hour redeeming,
Upward, onward, press my way!

Horatius Bonar.

881

Self-denial.

PILGRIMS in this vale of sorrow,
Pressing onward toward the prize,
Strength and comfort here we borrow
From the Hand that rules the skies.

- 2 'Mid these scenes of self-denial,
We are called the race to run;
We must meet full many a trial
Ere the victor's crown is won.
- 3 Love shall every conflict lighten,
Hope shall urge us swifter on,
Faith shall every prospect brighten,
Till the morn of heaven shall dawn.
- 4 On the eternal arm reclining,
We at length shall win the day;
All the powers of earth combining,
Shall not snatch our crown away.

Thomas Hastings.

882

Psalm 127.

VAINLY, through night's weary hours,
Keep we watch, lest foes alarm;
Vain our bulwarks and our towers,
But for God's protecting arm.

- 2 Vain were all our toil and labor,
Did not God that labor bless;
Vain, without his grace and favor,
Every talent we possess.
- 3 Vainer still the hope of heaven,
That on human strength relies;
But to him shall help be given,
Who in humble faith applies.
- 4 Seek we, then, the Lord's Anointed;
He will grant us peace and rest:
Ne'er was suppliant disappointed,
Who thro' Christ his prayer addressed.

Harriet Auber.

883

Courage and Faith.

FATHER, hear the prayer we offer!
Not for ease that prayer shall be,
But for strength that we may ever
Live our lives courageously.

- 2 Not for ever by still waters
Would we idly quiet stay;
But would smite the living fountains
From the rocks along our way.
- 3 Be our strength in hours of weakness,
In our wanderings, be our guide;
Through endeavor, failure, danger,
Father, be thou at our side!

886 "Not Your Own."

LORD of glory! thou hast bought us,
With thy life-blood as the price,
Never grudging, for the lost ones,
That tremendous sacrifice.

2 Grant us hearts, dear Lord! to yield thee
Gladly, freely, of thine own;
With the sunshine of thy goodness,
Melt our thankless hearts of stone;—

3 Wondrous honor hast thou given
To our humblest charity,
In thine own mysterious sentence,—
"Ye have done it unto me!"

4 Give us faith, to trust thee boldly,
Hope, to stay our souls on thee;
But, oh,—best of all thy graces,—
Give us thine own charity.

The Beatitudes.

BLEST are the humble souls that see
Their emptiness and poverty;
Treasures of grace to them are given,
And crowns of joy laid up in heaven.

2 Blest are the meek, who stand afar
From rage and passion, noise and war;
God will secure their happy state,
And plead their cause against the great.

3 Blest are the souls that thirst for grace,
Hunger and long for righteousness;
They shall be well supplied and fed
With living streams and living bread.

4 Blest are the men whose pities move
And melt with sympathy and love;
From Christ the Lord shall they obtain
Like sympathy and love again.

5 Blest are the men of peaceful life,
Who quench the coals of growing strife;
They shall be called the heirs of bliss,
The sons of God, the God of peace.

6 Blest are the sufferers, who partake
Of pain and shame for Jesus' sake;
Their souls shall triumph in the Lord;
Glory and joy are their reward.

Security and Rest.

LORD, how secure and blest are they
Who feel the joys of pardoned sin!
Should storms of wrath shake earth and sea,
Their minds have heaven and peace within.

2 The day glides sweetly o'er their heads,
Made up of innocence and love;
And soft and silent as the shades,
Their nightly minutes gently move.

3 Quick as their thoughts their joys come on,
But fly not half so swift away:

Their souls are ever bright as noon,
And calm as summer evenings be.

4 How oft they look to heavenly hills,
Where streams of living pleasures flow;
And longing hopes and cheerful smiles
Sit undisturbed upon their brow!

5 They scorn to seek earth's golden toys,
But spend the day, and share the night,
In numbering o'er the richer joys
That heaven prepares for their delight.

Completeness.

COMPLETE in thee, no work of mine
May take, dear Lord, the place of thine;
Thy blood has pardon bought for me,
And I am now complete in thee.

2 Complete in thee — no more shall sin
Thy grace has conquered, reign within;
Thy voice will bid the tempter flee,
And I shall stand complete in thee.

3 Complete in thee — each want supplied,
And no good thing to me denied,
Since thou my portion, Lord, wilt be,
I ask no more — complete in thee.

BENEATH thy wing, O God, I rest,
Under thy shadow safely lie,
By thine own strength in peace possess,
While dreaded evils pass me by.

2 With strong desire, I here can stay
To see thy love its work complete;
Here can I wait a long delay,
Reposing at my Saviour's feet.

3 My place of lowly service too,
Beneath that sheltering wing I see;
For all the work I have to do,
Is done thro' strengthening trust in thee.

4 In faith and patience is repose,
In faith and rest my strength shall be;
And, when thy joy the church o'erflows,
I know that it will visit me.

Remembrance.

EARTH'S transitory things decay;
Its pomps, its pleasures pass away;
But the sweet memory of the good
Survives in the vicissitude.

2 As, 'mid the ever-rolling sea,
The eternal isles established be,
'Gainst which the surges of the main
Fret dash, and break themselves in vain;—

3 As in the heavens, the urns divine
Of golden light for ever shine;
Tho' clouds may darken, storms may rage,
They still shine on from age to age;—

4 So, through the ocean tide of years,
The memory of the just appears;
So, through the tempest and the gloom,
The good man's virtues light the tomb.

903 The Better Part.

O LOVE Divine! how sweet thou art!
When shall I find my willing heart
All taken up by thee?
I thirst and faint and die to prove
The greatness of redeeming love—
The love of Christ to me.

2 Oh, that I could for ever sit,
With Mary at the Master's feet!
Be this my happy choice,—
My only care, delight, and bliss,
My joy, my heaven on earth be this,
To hear the Bridegroom's voice!

3 Oh, that I could, with favored John,
Recline my weary head upon
The dear Redeemer's breast:
From care, and sin, and sorrow free,
Give me, O Lord! to find in thee
My everlasting rest!

4 God only knows the love of God;
Oh, that it now were shed abroad
In this poor stony heart!
For this I sigh; for thee I pine;
This only portion, Lord, be mine,
Be mine the better part!

COME join, ye saints, with heart and voice,
Alone in Jesus to rejoice,
And worship at his feet:
Come, take his praises on your tongues,
And raise to him your thankful songs,
"In him ye are complete!"

The fullness of the Godhead dwells,
And all perfections meet:
The head of all celestial powers,
Divinely theirs, divinely ours;—

3 Still onward urge your heavenly way,
Dependent on him day by day,
His presence still entreat;
His precious name for ever bless,
Your glory, strength, and righteousness,—
"In him ye are complete!"

Union to Christ.

LORD Jesus, are we one with thee?
Oh, height! oh, depth of love!
With thee we died upon the tree,
In thee we live above.
Such was thy grace, that for our sake
Thou didst from heaven come down,
Thou didst of flesh and blood partake,
In all our sorrows one.

2 Our sins, our guilt, in love divine,
Confessed and borne by thee;
The gall, the curse, the wrath, were thine,
To set thy members free.
Ascended now, in glory bright,
Still one with us thou art;
Nor life, nor death, nor depth, nor height,
Thy saints and thee can part.

3 Oh, teach us, Lord, to know and own
This wondrous mystery,
That thou with us art truly one,
And we are one with thee!
Soon, soon shall come that glorious day,
When, seated on thy throne,
Thou shalt to wondering worlds display
That thou with us art one.

3 Grace led my roving feet
To tread the heavenly road;
And new supplies each hour I meet
While pressing on to God.

4 Grace all the work shall crown,

It lays in heaven the topmost stone,
And well deserves the praise.

Here I can firm-ly rest; I dare to boast of this, That God, the highest and the best, My Friend and Father is.

911 God Our Father.

HERE I can firmly rest;
I dare to boast of this,
That God, the highest and the best,
My Friend and Father is.

2 Naught have I of my own,
Naught in the life I lead;
What Christ hath given, that alone
I dare in faith to plead.

3 I rest upon the ground
Of Jesus and his blood;
It is through him that I have found
My soul's eternal good.

4 At cost of all I have,
At cost of life and limb,
I cling to God who yet shall save;
I will not turn from him.

5 His Spirit in me dwells,
O'er all my mind he reigns,
My care and sadness he dispels,
And soothes away my pains.

6 He prospers day by day
His work within my heart,
Till I have strength and faith to say,
"Thou, God, my Father art!"

2 The soul by faith reclined
On the Redeemer's breast,
'Mid raging storms, exults to find
An everlasting rest.

3 Sorrow and fear are gone,

It stills the sighing orphan's moan,
And dries the widow's tears.

4 Jesus, to whom I fly,
Doth all my wishes fill;
What though created streams are dry?
I have the fountain still.

And heaven, in Christ, alone.

BEHOLD! what wondrous grace
The Father has bestowed
On sinners of a mortal race,
To call them sons of God!

2 Nor doth it yet appear
How great we must be made;
But when we see our Saviour here,
We shall be like our Head.

3 A hope so much divine
May trials well endure,

May purge our souls from sense and sin,
As Christ the Lord is pure.

4 If in my Father's love
I share a filial part,
Send down thy Spirit, like a dove,
To rest upon my heart.

Like slaves beneath the throne;
Our faith shall Abba, Father! cry,
And thou the kindred own.

Yet is my heart by such sweet thoughts be-
guled [stay,
Of him on whom I lean, my strength, my
I can forget the sorrows of the way.

2 Thoughts of his sojourn in this vale of tears—
The tale of love unfolded in those years
Of sinless suffering and of patient grace,
I love again, and yet again, to trace.

3 Thoughts of his glory— on the cross I gaze,
And there behold its sad yet healing rays:
Beacon of hope, which, lifted up on high,
Illumes with heavenly light the tear-dimmed eye.

4 Thoughts of his coming—for that joyful
day
In patient hope I watch and wait and pray;
The dawn draws nigh, the midnight shadows flee;
Oh, what a sunrise will that advent be!

2 Things that once caused wild alarms
 Cannot now disturb my rest,
 Closed in everlasting arms,
 Pillowed on his loving breast.
 Oh, to lie for ever here,
 Care, and doubt, and self resign;
 While he whispers in my ear,
 I am his and he is mine.

3 His for ever, only his!
 Who the Lord and me can part?
 Ah, with what a rest of bliss

Daily Food.

DAY by day the manna fell:
 Oh, to learn this lesson well!
 Still by constant mercy fed,
 Give me, Lord, my daily bread.
 "Day by day" the promise reads,
 Daily strength for daily needs;
 Cast foreboding fears away,
 Take the manna of to-day.

2 Lord, my times are in thy hand;
 All my sanguine hopes have planned,
 To thy wisdom I resign,
 And would make thy purpose mine.
 Thou my daily task shalt give:
 Day by day to thee I live:
 So shall added years fulfill,
 Not mine own—my Father's will.

3 Fond ambition, whisper not;
 Happy is my humble lot.
 Anxious, busy cares, away!
 I'm provided for to-day.
 Oh, to live exempt from care
 By the energy of prayer;
 Strong in faith, with mind subdued,
 Yet elate with gratitude!

 Though the sins were not thine own,
 Thou hast deigned their load to bear:
 Jesus, Son of Mary, hear!

3 When our eyes grow dim in death;
 When we heave the parting breath;
 When our solemn doom is near,

 Thou hast bowed the dying head;
 Thou the blood of life hast shed;
 Thou hast filled a mortal bier:

Looking to Jesus.

WHEN along life's thorny road,
 Faints the soul beneath the load,
 By its cares and sins oppressed,
 Finds on earth no peace or rest;
 When the wily tempter's near,
 Filling us with doubt and fear:
 Jesus, to thy feet we flee,
 Jesus, we will look to thee.

2 Thou, our Saviour, from the throne
 Listenest to thy people's moan;
 Thou, the living Head, dost share
 Every pang thy members bear;
 Full of tenderness thou art,
 Thou wilt heal the broken heart;
 Full of power, thine arm shall quell
 All the rage and might of hell.

3 Mighty to redeem and save,
 Thou hast overcome the grave;
 Thou the bars of death hast riven,
 Opened wide the gates of heaven;
 Soon in glory thou shalt come,
 Taking thy poor pilgrims home;
 Jesus, then we all shall be,
 Ever—ever—Lord, with thee.

Oh, lead me on!
Be my poor heart thy blesséd word's abode,
Lead thou me on!

Thy Holy Spirit gives the light to see,
And leads me by thy word, close following

3 Led by aught else, I tread a devious way,
Oh, lead me on!

MY God, my Father! while I stray Far from my home, on life's rough way,

Oh, teach me from my heart to say,

2 What though in lonely grief I sigh

For friends beloved no longer nigh;

Submissive still would I reply,

"Thy will be done!"

3 If thou should'st call me to resign

What most I prize, — it ne'er was mine;

I only yield thee what was thine:

"Thy will be done!"

4 If but my fainting heart be blest

With thy sweet Spirit for its guest.

My God, to thee I leave the rest;

"Thy will be done!"

5 Renew my will from day to day;

Blend it with thine, and take away

Whate'er now makes it hard to say,

"Thy will be done!"

6 Then when on earth I breathe no more,

The prayer oft mixed with tears before,

I'll sing upon a happier shore:

"Thy will be done!"

To fly the good I would pursue,
Or do the sin I would not do,—
Still he, who felt temptation's power,
Shall guard me in that dangerous hour.

3 When sorrowing o'er some stone, I bend,
Which covers all that was a friend,
And from his voice, his hand, his smile,
Divides me, for a little while,
My Saviour sees the tears I shed,
For Jesus wept o'er Lazarus dead.

4 And, oh, when I have safely past
Through every conflict, but the last,—
Still, still unchanging, watch beside
My painful bed,—for thou hast died;
Then point to realms of cloudless day,
And wipe my latest tear away.

My Jesus, as thou wilt!

Oh, may thy will be mine,
Into thy hand of love

I would my all resign;
Through sorrow, or through joy,
Conduct me as thine own,
And help me still to say,
My Lord, thy will be done!

2 My Jesus, as thou wilt!
Though seen through many a tear,
Let not my star of hope
Grow dim or disappear;
Since thou on earth hast wept,
And sorrowed oft alone,
If I must weep with thee,
My Lord, thy will be done!

3 My Jesus, as thou wilt!
All shall be well for me,
Each changing future scene
I gladly trust with thee:
Straight to my home above
I travel calmly on,
And sing, in life or death,
My Lord, thy will be done!

Jane Borthwick, tr.

941 "He Knoweth the Way."

THY way, not mine, O Lord,
However dark it be!

Lead me by thine own hand;
Choose out my path for me,
I dare not choose my lot:
I would not, if I might;
Choose thou for me, my God,
So shall I walk aright.

2 The kingdom that I seek
Is thine: so let the way
That leads to it be thine,
Else I must surely stray.
Take thou my cup, and it
With joy or sorrow fill,
As best to thee may seem;
Choose thou my good and ill.

3 Choose thou for me my friends,
My sickness or my health;
Choose thou my cares for me,
My poverty or wealth.
Not mine, not mine the choice,
In things or great or small;
Be thou my Guide, my Strength,
My Wisdom and my All.

Horatius Bonar.

BLESSED HOME. 6s. D.

J. STAINER.

There is a bless-ed home Be-yond this land of woe, Where tri-als nev-er come, Nor tears of sor-row flow;
Where faith is lost in sight, And pa-tient hope is crowned, And ev-er-last-ing light Its glory throws a-round.

942 The Homeland.

THERE is a blesséd home
Beyond this land of woe,
Where trials never come,
Nor tears of sorrow flow;
Where faith is lost in sight,
And patient hope is crowned,
And everlasting light
Its glory throws around.

2 There is a land of peace;
Good angels know it well;
Glad songs that never cease
Within its portals swell;
Around its glorious throne
Ten thousand saints adore
Christ, with the Father one,
And Spirit, evermore.

3 Look up, ye saints of God!
Nor fear to tread below
The path your Saviour trod
Of daily toil and woe;

Wait but a little while
In uncomplaining love;
His own most gracious smile
Shall welcome you above.

Henry W. Baker.

943 A Father's Hand.

BE tranquil, O my soul!
Be quiet every fear!
Thy Father hath control,
And he is ever near.
Ne'er of thy lot complain,
Whatever may befall;
Sickness, or care, or pain,
'T is well appointed all.

2 A Father's chastening hand
Is leading thee along;
Nor distant is the land
Where swells the immortal song.
Oh, then, my soul, be still!
Await heaven's high decree;
Seek but thy Father's will,
It shall be well with thee.

Psalm 33: 25.

WAIT, my soul, upon the Lord,
To his gracious promise flee,
Laying hold upon his word,
"As thy days thy strength shall be."

2 If the sorrows of thy case
Seem peculiar still to thee,
God has promised needful grace,
"As thy days thy strength shall be."

3 Days of trial, days of grief,
In succession thou mayst see;
This is still thy sweet relief,
"As thy days thy strength shall be."

4 Rock of Ages, I'm secure,
With thy promise full and free;
Faithful, positive, and sure—
"As thy days thy strength shall be."

945

The Better Portion.

RISE, my soul, and stretch thy wings,
Thy better portion trace;
Rise from transitory things
Toward heaven, thy native place:
Sun and moon and stars decay;
Time shall soon this earth remove;
Rise, my soul, and haste away
To seats prepared above.

2 Rivers to the ocean run,
Nor stay in all their course;
Fire ascending seeks the sun;
Both speed them to their source:

So a soul that's born of God,
Pants to view his glorious face;
Upward tends to his abode,
To rest in his embrace.

3 Cease, ye pilgrims, cease to mourn,
Press onward to the prize;
Soon our Saviour will return
Triumphant in the skies:
Yet a season, — and you know
Happy entrance will be given,
All our sorrows left below,
And earth exchanged for heaven.

946

Comfort.

IN the dark and cloudy day,
When earth's riches flee away,
And the last hope will not stay,
Saviour, comfort me!

2 When the secret idol's gone
That my poor heart yearned upon,— Desolate, bereft, alone,
Saviour, comfort me!

3 Thou, who wast so sorely tried,
In the darkness crucified,
Bid me in thy love confide;
Saviour, comfort me!

4 Comfort me; I am cast down:
'Tis my heavenly Father's frown;
I deserve it all, I own:
Saviour, comfort me!

5 So it shall be good for me
Much afflicted now to be,
If thou wilt but tenderly,
Saviour, comfort me!

George Rawson.

"For the Earth."

CAST thy burden on the Lord,
Only lean upon his word;
Thou wilt soon have cause to bless
His unchanging faithfulness.

2 He sustains thee by his hand,
He enables thee to stand;
Those, whom Jesus once hath loved,
From his grace are never moved.

3 Heaven and earth may pass away,
God's free grace shall not decay;
He hath promised to fulfill
All the pleasure of his will.

4 Jesus! guardian of thy flock,
Be thyself our constant rock;
Make us by thy powerful hand,
Firm as Zion's mountain stand

William Hammond.

948

Love Seen in Trials.

'T is my happiness below
Not to live without the cross,
But the Saviour's power to know,
Sanctifying every loss.

2 Trials must and will befall;
But with humble faith to see
Love inscribed upon them all,—
This is happiness to me.

3 God in Israel sows the seeds
Of affliction, pain and toil;
These spring up and choke the weeds
Which would else o'erspread the soil.

4 Did I meet no trials here,
No chastisement by the way,
Might I not with reason fear
I should prove a castaway?

5 Trials make the promise sweet;
Trials give new life to prayer;
Trials bring me to his feet,
Lay me low, and keep me there.

Consecration.

JESUS! our best beloved Friend,
On thy redeeming name we call;
Jesus! in love to us descend,
Pardon and sanctify us all.

2 Our souls and bodies we resign,
To fear and follow thy commands;
Oh! take our hearts, our hearts are thine,
Accept the service of our hands.

3 Firm, faithful, watching unto prayer,
Our Master's voice will we obey,
Toil in the vineyard here, and bear
The heat and burden of the day.

4 Yet, Lord, for us a resting-place,
In heaven, at thy right hand, prepare;
And till we see thee face to face,
Be all our conversation there.

James Montgomery.

950

Faith and Works.

ONE cup of healing oil and wine,
One offering laid on mercy's shrine,
Is thrice more grateful, Lord, to thee,
Than lifted eye or bended knee.

2 In true and inward faith we trace
The source of every outward grace;
Within the pious heart it plays,
A living fount of joy and praise.

3 Kind deeds of peace and love betray
Where'er the stream has found its way;
But, where these spring not rich and fair,
The stream has never wandered there.

William H. Drummond.

The Poor.—Luk 6: 20.

THOU God of hope, to thee we bow!
Thou art our Refuge in distress;
The Husband of the widow thou,
The Father of the fatherless.

2 The poor are thy peculiar care;
To them thy promises are sure:
Thy gifts the poor in spirit share;
Oh! may we always thus be poor!

3 May we thy law of love fulfill,
To bear each other's burdens here,
Endure and do thy righteous will,
And walk in all thy faith and fear.

Anon.

Not Your Own.

OH, not my own these verdant hills,
And fruits and flowers, and stream, and
But his who all with glory fills, [wood];
Who bought me with his precious blood.

2 Oh, not my own this wondrous frame,
Its curious work, its living soul;
But his who for my ransom came;
Slain for my sake, he claims the whole.

3 Oh, not my own the grace that keeps
My feet from fierce temptations free;
Oh, not my own the thought that leaps,
Adoring, blessed Lord, to thee.

4 Oh, not my own; I'll soar and sing,
When life, with all its toils, is o'er,
And thou thy trembling lamb shalt bring
Safe home, to wander nevermore.

Go, la-bor on, while it is day; The world's dark night is hastening on; Speed, speed, thy work,—cast sloth a way! It is not thus that souls are won—It is not thus that souls are won.

953

Zeal.

- Go, LABOR on, while it is day;
 The world's dark night is hastening on;
 Speed, speed thy work,—cast sloth away!
 It is not thus that souls are won.
- 2 Men die in darkness at your side,
 Without a hope to cheer the tomb;
 Take up the torch and wave it wide—
 The torch that lights time's thickest gloom.
- 3 Toil on,—faint not; keep watch and pray!
 Be wise the erring soul to win;
 Go forth into the world's highway;
 Compel the wanderer to come in.
- 4 Go, labor on: your hands are weak;
 Your knees are faint, your soul cast down;
 Yet falter not; the prize you seek
 Is near,—a kingdom and a crown!

Horatius Bonar.

954

Enouragement.

- It may not be our lot to wield
 The sickle in the ripened field;
 Nor ours to hear, on summer eves,
 The reaper's song among the sheaves.
- 2 Yet ours the grateful service whence
 Comes, day by day, the recompense;
 The hope, the trust, the purpose stayed,
 The fountain, and the noonday shade.
- 3 And were this life the utmost span,
 The only end and aim of man,
 Better the toil of fields like these
 Than waking dream and slothful ease.
- 4 But life, though falling like our grain,
 Like that revives and springs again;
 And, early called, how blest are they
 Who wait, in heaven, their harvest day!

Zeal.—John 12: 23.

- Go, LABOR on; spend and be spent,—
 Thy joy to do the Father's will;
 It is the way the Master went;
 Should not the servant tread it still?
- 2 Go, labor on; 't is not for naught;
 Thine earthly loss is heavenly gain;
 Men heed thee, love thee, praise thee not;
 The Master praises,—what are men?

- 3 Go, labor on; enough, while here,
 If he shall praise thee, if he deign
 Thy willing heart to mark and cheer:
 No toil for him shall be in vain.
- 4 Toil on, and in thy toil rejoice;
 For toil comes rest, for exile home;
 Soon shalt thou hear the Bridegroom's voice,
 The midnight peal: "Behold, I come!"

Fa-ther of mercies! send thy grace, All powerful from above, To form in our obedient souls The im-age of thy love.

956

"So Jesus Looked."

FATHER of mercies! send thy grace,
All powerful from above,
To form in our obedient souls
The image of thy love.

2 Oh, may our sympathizing breasts
The generous pleasure know,
Kindly to share in others' joy,
And weep for others' woe!

3 When the most helpless sons of grief
In low distress are laid,
Soft be our hearts their pains to feel,
And swift our hands to aid.

4 So Jesus looked on dying men,
When throned above the skies;
And 'mid the embraces of his God,
He felt compassion rise.

5 On wings of love the Saviour flew,
To raise us from the ground,
And made the richest of his blood
A balm for every wound.

Philip Doddridge.

957

God's Hidden Ones.

LORD, lead the way the Saviour went,
By lane and cell obscure,
And let love's treasures still be spent,
Like his, upon the poor.

2 Like him, through scenes of deep distress,
Who bore the world's sad weight,
We, in their crowded loneliness,
Would seek the desolate.

3 For thou hast placed us side by side
In this wide world of ill;
And that thy followers may be tried,
The poor are with us still.

4 Mean are all offerings we can make;
Yet thou hast taught us, Lord,
If given for the Saviour's sake,
They lose not their reward.

William Crosswell.

958

Minute Fidelity.

SCORN not the slightest word or deed,
Nor deem it void of power;
There's fruit in each wind-wafted seed,
That waits its natal hour.

2 A whispered word may touch the heart,
And call it back to life;
A look of love bid sin depart,
And still unholy strife.

3 No act falls fruitless; none can'tell
How vast its power may be,
Nor what results infolded dwell
Within it silently.

4 Work on, despair not, bring thy mite,
Nor care how small it be;
God is with all that serve the right,
The holy, true, and free.

Anon., 1845.

Psalm 41.

BLEST is the man whose softening heart
Feels all another's pain;
To whom the supplicating eye
Was never raised in vain:—

2 Whose breast expands with generous
A stranger's woes to feel; [warmth
And bleeds in pity o'er the wound
He wants the power to heal.

3 He spreads his kind supporting arms
To every child of grief;
His secret bounty largely flows,
And brings unasked relief.

4 To gentle offices of love
His feet are never slow:
He views, through mercy's melting eye,
A brother in a foe.

5 Peace from the bosom of his God,
The Saviour's grace shall give;
And, when he kneels before the throne,
His trembling soul shall live.

WORK while it is to-day!

This was our Saviour's rule;
With docile minds let us obey,
As learners in his school.

2 Lord Christ, we humbly ask
Of thee the power and will,
With fear and meekness, every task
Of duty to fulfill.

3 At home, by word and deed,
Adorn redeeming grace;
And sow abroad the precious seed
Of truth in every place:—

4 That thus the wilderness
May blossom like the rose,
And trees spring up of righteousness,
Where'er life's river flows.

THY bounties, gracious Lord!

With gratitude we own;
We bless thy providential grace,
Which showers its blessings down.

2 With joy the people bring
Their offerings round thy throne;
With thankful souls, behold! we pay

And all our follies hide.

4 Oh! may this sacrifice
To thee, the Lord, ascend,
An odor of a sweet perfume,
Presented by his hand.

More Laborers.

OH, still in accents sweet and strong
Sounds forth the ancient word,—
"More reapers for white harvest fields,
More laborers for the Lord!"

2 We hear the call; in dreams no more
In selfish ease we lie,
But, girded for our Father's work,
Go forth beneath his sky.

LORD, speak to me, that I may speak

2 Oh, lead me, Lord, that I may lead
The wandering and the wavering feet;

3 Oh, strengthen me, that, while I stand
Firm on the rock, and strong in thee,
I may stretch out a loving hand
To wrestlers with the troubled sea.

4 Oh, teach me, Lord, that I may teach
The precious things thou dost impart;
And wing my words, that they may reach
The hidden depths of many a heart.

5 Oh, give thine own sweet rest to me,
That I may speak with soothing power
A word in season, as from thee,

LORD of the living harvest,
That whitens o'er the plain,
Where angels soon shall gather
Their sheaves of golden grain.

2 Accept these hands to labor,
These hearts to trust and love,
And deign with them to hasten
Thy kingdom from above.

But to have shared the travail
Which makes thy kingdom come.

Hark! the voice of Jesus calling,—Who will go and work to-day? Fields are white, the harvest waiting,—

966 "The Laborers are few."

HARK! the voice of Jesus calling,—
Who will go and work to-day?
Fields are white, the harvest waiting,—
Who will bear the sheaves away?
Loud and long the Master calleth,
Rich reward he offers free,
Who will answer, gladly saying,
"Here am I, O Lord, send me."

2 If you cannot cross the ocean
And the heathen lands explore,
You can find the heathen nearer,
You can help them at your door;
If you cannot speak like angels,
If you cannot preach like Paul,
You can tell the love of Jesus,
You can say he died for all.

3 While the souls of men are dying,
And the Master calls for you,
Let none hear you idly saying,
"There is nothing I can do!"
Gladly take the task he gives you,
Let his work your pleasure be;
Answer quickly when he calleth,
"Here am I, O Lord, send me."

Dr. March.

967 "What Thy Hand Findeth."

If you cannot on the ocean
Sail among the swiftest fleet,
Rocking on the highest billows,
Laughing at the storms you meet,

You can stand among the sailors,
Anchored yet within the bay,
You can lend a hand to help them,
As they launch their boat away.

2 If you are too weak to journey
Up the mountain steep and high,
You can stand within the valley,
While the multitude go by;
You can chant in happy measure,
As they slowly pass along;
Though they may forget the singer,
They will not forget the song.

3 If you have not gold and silver
Ever ready to command;
If you cannot toward the needy
Reach an ever open hand,
You can visit the afflicted,
O'er the erring you can weep;
You can be a true disciple
Sitting at the Saviour's feet.

4 If you cannot in the harvest
Garner up the richest sheaf,
Many a grain both ripe and golden
Will the careless reapers leave;
Go and glean among the briers,
Growing rank against the wall,
For it may be that the shadow
Hides the heaviest wheat of all.

OH! praise our God to-day,
His constant mercy bless,
Whose love hath helped us on our way,
And granted us success.

2 His arm the strength imparts
Our daily toil to bear;
His grace alone inspires our hearts,
Each other's load to share.

3 Oh! happiest work below,
Earnest of joy above,
To sweeten many a cup of woe,
By deeds of holy love!

4 Lord! may it be our choice
This blessed rule to keep,
"Rejoice with them that do rejoice,
And weep with them that weep."

5 God of the widow! hear;
Our work of mercy bless;
God of the fatherless! be near,
And grant us good success.

970 "Harvest Home."

SOW IN the morn thy seed,
At eve hold not thy hand;
To doubt and fear give thou no heed;
Broad-cast it o'er the land.

2 And duly shall appear
In verdure, beauty, strength,
The tender blade, the stalk, the ear,
And the full corn at length.

3 Thou canst not toil in vain;
Cold, heat, the moist and dry,
Shall foster and mature the grain
For garner in the sky.

4 Then, when the glorious end,
The day of God shall come,
The angel-reapers shall descend,
And heaven sing "Harvest home!"

972 Psalm 126: 6.

HE that goeth forth with weeping,
Bearing precious seed in love,
Never tiring, never sleeping,
Findeth mercy from above.

2 Soft descend the dews of heaven,
Bright the rays celestial shine;
Precious fruit will thus be given,
Through an influence all divine.

3 Sow thy seed, be never weary,
Let no fears thy soul annoy; .
Be the prospect ne'er so dreary,
Thou shalt reap the fruits of joy.

See the rising grain appear;
Look again! the fields are whitening,
For the harvest time is near.

CAST thy bread upon the waters,
Thinking not 't is thrown away;
God himself saith, thou shalt gather
It again some future day.

2 Cast thy bread upon the waters;
Wildly though the billows roll,
They but aid thee as thou toilest
Truth to spread from pole to pole.

3 As the seed, by billows floated,
To some distant island lone,
So to human souls benighted,
That thou flingest may be borne.

4 Cast thy bread upon the waters;
Why wilt thou still doubting stand?
Bounteous shall God send the harvest,
If thou sow'st with liberal hand.

976

A Veteran's Prayer.

DISMISS me not thy service, Lord,
But train me for thy will;
For even I, in fields so broad,
Some duties may fulfill;
And I will ask for no reward,
Except to serve thee still.

2 How many serve, how many more
May to the service come!
To tend the vines, the grapes to store,
Thou dost appoint for some:
Thou hast thy young men at the war,
Thy little ones at home.

3 All works are good, and each is best
As most it pleases thee;
Each worker pleases when the rest
He serves in charity;
And neither man nor work unblest,
Wilt thou permit to be.

4 Our Master all the work hath done
He asks of us to-day;
Sharing his service, every one
Share too his sonship may;
Lord, I would serve and be a son:
Dismiss me not, I pray.

THOU Maker of our mortal frame—
Of all thy works the noblest far,
We bow before thy righteous claim
To all we have, and all we are.

2 Our tongues were fashioned for thy word,
Our hands—to do thy will divine;
Our bodies are thy temple, Lord,
The mind's immortal powers are thine.

3 Its highest thought—to trace thy skill,
Its purest love on thee to rest,

Its noblest action of the will,
To choose thy service, and be blest.

4 Our ransomed spirits rise to thee—
Unfailing source of light and joy!
Thy love has made thy children free,
Thy praise shall life and strength employ.

5 Give grace and mercy to the end—
For we are thine and not our own:
So shall we to thy courts ascend,
And cast our crowns before thy throne.

978 God Gifteth All Things.

O LORD of heaven, and earth, and sea,
To thee all praise and glory be;
How shall we show our love to thee,
Who givest all?

2 For peaceful homes, and healthful days,
For all the blessings earth displays,
We owe thee thankfulness and praise,
Who givest all.

3 Thou didst not spare thine only Son,
But gav'st him for a world undone,

And freely with that blessed One
Thou givest all.

4 For souls redeemed, for sins forgiven,
For means of grace and hopes of heaven,
Father, what can to thee be given,
Who givest all?

5 We lose what on ourselves we spend,
We have as treasure without end
Whatever, Lord, to thee we lend,
Who givest all.

2 O Son of God, whose love so free
For men did make thee man to be,
United to our God in thee,
May we be one.

3 Thou, Lord, didst once for all atone;
Thee may both Jew and Gentile own

Of their two walls the Corner Stone,
Making them one.

4 Join high and low, join young and old,
In love that never waxes cold;
Under one Shepherd, in one fold,

Grant Us Peace.

LORD of our life, and God of our salvation,
Star of our night, and hope of every na-
tion,

Hear and receive thy church's supplication,
Lord God Almighty.

2 Lord, thou canst help when earthly armor faileth,

Lord, thou canst save when deadly sin as-
sailcth,

Lord, o'er thy rock nor death nor hell pre-
vailcth :

Grant us thy peace, Lord :—

3 Peace in our hearts, our evil thoughts
assuaging,

Peace in thy church, where brothers are engaging,

Peace, when the world its busy war is waging ;

Calm thy foes raging.

4 Grant us thy help till backward they are driven,

Grant them thy truth, that they may be forgiven,

Grant peace on earth, and after we have striven,

Peace in thy heaven.

HOW BEAUTEOUS are their feet
Who stand on Zion's hill!
Who bring salvation on their tongues,
And words of peace reveal.
How charming is their voice!
How sweet their tidings are!
"Zion, behold thy Saviour King;
He reigns and triumphs here."

2 How happy are our ears,
That hear this joyful sound!
Which kings and prophets waited for,
And sought, but never found.
How blessed are our eyes,
That see this heavenly light!
Prophets and kings desired it long,
But died without the sight..

3 The watchmen join their voice,
And tuneful notes employ;
Jerusalem breaks forth in songs,
And deserts learn the joy.
The Lord makes bare his arm
Through all the earth abroad;
Let every nation now behold
Their Saviour and their God!

More Laborers.

LORD of the harvest! hear
Thy needy servants cry;
Answer our faith's effectual prayer,
And all our wants supply.
On thee we humbly wait;
Our wants are in thy view;
The harvest truly, Lord! is great,
The laborers are few.

Convert and send forth more
Into thy Church abroad;
And let them speak thy word of power,
As workers with their God.
Give the pure Gospel-word,
The word of general grace;
Thee let them preach, the common Lord,
The Saviour of our race.

3 Oh, let them spread thy name;
Their mission fully prove;
Thy universal grace proclaim
Thy all-redeeming love.
On all mankind forgiven,
Empower them still to call,
And tell each creature under heaven,
That thou hast died for all.

2 Let strangers walk around
The city where we dwell,
Compass and view thy holy ground,
And mark the building well;—

The order of thy house,
The worship of thy court,
The cheerful songs, the solemn vows;
And make a fair report.
3 How decent, and how wise!
How glorious to behold!

O LORD of hosts, whose glory fills
The bounds of the eternal hills,
And yet vouchsafes, in Christian lands,
To dwell in temples made by hands;
Grant that all we, who here to-day
Rejoicing this foundation lay,
May be in very deed thine own,
Built on the precious Corner-stone.

2 Endue the creatures with thy grace,
That shall adorn thy dwelling-place;
The beauty of the oak and pine,
The gold and silver, make them thine:
To thee they all belong; to thee
The treasures of the earth and sea;
And, when we bring them to thy throne,
We but present thee with thine own.

3 The heads that guide endue with skill,
The hands that work preserve from ill,
That we, who these foundations lay,

Be thou in them, and they in thee,

Dedication.—Ezek. 1:26.

COME, Jesus, from the sapphire throne,
Where thy redeemed behold thy face,
Enter this temple, now thine own,
And let thy glory fill the place.
We praise thee that to-day we see
Its sacred walls before thee stand;
'T is thine for us—'t is ours for thee;
Reared by thy kind assisting hand.

2 Oft as returns the day of rest,
Let heartfelt worship here ascend;
With thine own joy fill every breast,
With thine own power thy word attend.
Here, in the dark and sorrowing day,
Bid thou the throbbing heart be still;
Oh, wipe the mourner's tears away,
And give new strength to meet thy will.

3 When round this board thine own shall
And keep the feast of dying love, [meet,
Be our communion ever sweet,
With thee, and with thy Church above.
Come, faithful Shepherd, feed thy sheep;
In thine own arms the lambs enfold;
Give help to climb the heavenward steep,
Till thy full glory we behold

989 "A Mighty Fortress."

A MIGHTY fortress is our God,
 A bulwark never failing;
 Our Helper he, amid the flood
 Of mortal ills prevailing.
 For still our ancient foe
 Doth seek to work his woe;
 His craft and power are great,
 And armed with cruel hate,
 On earth is not his equal.

2 Did we in our own strength confide,
 Our striving would be losing;
 Were not the right man on our side,
 The man of God's own choosing.

Dost ask who that may be?
 Christ Jesus, it is he;
 Lord Sabaoth is his name,
 From age to age the same,
 And he must win the battle.

3 And though this world, with devils filled,
 Should threaten to undo us;
 We will not fear, for God hath willed
 His truth to triumph through us.
 Let goods and kindred go,
 This mortal life also;
 The body they may kill;
 God's truth abideth still,
 His kingdom is for ever.

Sav-our, vis-it thy plan-ta-tion! Grant us, Lord, a gra-cious rain. All will come to Jes-o-la-tion, Un-less thou re-turn a-gain. Keep no long-er at a dis-tance,

Shine up-on us from on high, Lest, for want of thine as-sis-tance, Eve-ry plant should droop and die.

991 Biblical Emphorrb.—Cant. 4: 16.

SAVIOUR, visit thy plantation!
 Grant us, Lord, a gracious rain:
 All will come to desolation,
 Unless thou return again.
 Keep no longer at a distance,
 Shine upon us from on high,
 Lest, for want of thine assistance,
 Every plant should droop and die.

2 Once, O Lord, thy garden flourished;
 Every part looked gay and green;
 Then thy word our spirits nourished:
 Happy seasons we have seen.
 But a drought has since succeeded,
 And a sad decline we see:
 Lord, thy help is greatly needed:
 Help can only come from thee.

3 Let our mutual love be fervent:
 Make us prevalent in prayer;
 Let each one esteemed thy servant
 Shun the world's bewitching snare.
 Break the tempter's fatal power,
 Turn the stony heart to flesh,
 And begin from this good hour
 To revive thy work afresh.

992 Sabbath School Meeting.

SAVIOUR King, in hallowed union
 At thy sacred feet we bow;
 Heart with heart, in blest communion,
 Join to crave thy favor now!
 Though celestial choirs adore thee,
 Let our prayer as incense rise;
 And our praise be set before thee,
 Sweet as evening sacrifice.

2 Heavenly Fount, thy streams of blessing
 Oft have cheered us on our way;
 By thy power and grace unceasing,
 We continue to this day:
 Raise we then with glad emotion
 Thankful lays; and while we sing,
 Vow a pure, a full devotion
 To thy work, O Saviour King!

3 When we tell the wondrous story
 Of thy rich, exhaustless love,
 Send thy Spirit, Lord of glory,
 On the youthful heart to move!
 Oh, that he, the ever-living,
 May descend, as fruitful rain;
 Till the wilderness, reviving,
 Blossoms as the rose again!

GLORIOUS things of thee are spoken,

2 See! the streams of living waters,
Springing from eternal love,
Well supply thy sons and daughters,
And all fear of want remove:
Who can faint, while such a river
Ever flows their thirst to assuage?—
Grace, which, like the Lord, the Giver,
Never fails from age to age.

3 Round each habitation hovering,
See the cloud and fire appear

Showing that the Lord is near!
Thus deriving from their banner,
Light by night, and shade by day,
Safe they feed upon the manna
Which he gives them when they pray.

994 The Covenant.

HEAR what God the Lord hath spoken:
O my people, faint and few,
Comfortless, afflicted, broken,
Fair abodes I build for you;
Scenes of heartfelt tribulation
Shall no more perplex your ways;
You shall name your walls "Salvation,"
And your gates shall all be "Praise."

2 There, like streams that feed the garden,
Pleasures without end shall flow;
For the Lord, your faith rewarding,
All his bounty shall bestow.
Still in undisturbed possession
Peace and righteousness shall reign;
Never shall you feel oppression,
Hear the voice of war again.

3 Ye, no more your suns descending,
Waning moon no more shall see,
But, your griefs for ever ending,
Find eternal noon in me.
God shall rise, and shining o'er you,
Change to day the gloom of night;
He, the Lord, shall be your Glory,
God, your everlasting Light.

O THOU that hearest prayer!
 Attend our humble cry;
 And let thy servants share
 Thy blessing from on high:
 We plead the promise of thy word,
 Grant us thy Holy Spirit, Lord!

 Their children when they cry;
 If they, with love sincere,
 Their children's wants supply;
 Much more wilt thou thy love display,
 And answer when thy children pray.

 Oh, let thy Spirit now
 Descend and fill the place;
 That all may feel the heavenly flame,
 And all unite to praise thy name.

 The preaching of thy word:
 Till heathen lands shall own thy sway,
 And cast their idol gods away.

The Church One.

ONE sole baptismal sign,
 One Lord below, above,
 One faith, one hope divine,
 One only watchword, love;
 From different temples though it rise,
 One song ascendeth to the skies.

2 Our sacrifice is one;
 One Priest before the throne,
 The slain, the risen Son,
 Redeemer, Lord alone;
 And sighs from contrite hearts that spring
 Our chief, our choicest offering.

3 Head of thy church beneath,
 The catholic, the true,
 On all her members breathe,
 Her broken frame renew;
 Then shall thy perfect will be done
 When Christians love and live as one,

If millions tempt us Christ to leave,
Oh, let them ne'er prevail!

3 Thy Spirit shall unite

And teach thy paths to tread.

4 Death may our souls divide

To all that bear thy name.

4 One blessed fellowship of love,
Thy living church should stand,
Till, faultless, she at last above
Shall shine at thy right hand.

5 Oh, glorious day, when she, the Bride,
With her dear Lord appears!
Then, robed in beauty at his side,
She shall forget her tears!

Let saints below in concert sing With those to glory gone; For all the servants of our King In earth and heav'n are one

One fam-i-ly—we dwell in him—One church above, beneath, Tho' now divided by the stream, The narrow stream of death;—

1010 "One Family."

LET saints below in concert sing
With those to glory gone;
For all the servants of our King
In earth and heaven are one.

One family — we dwell in him —
One church above, beneath,
Though now divided by the stream,
The narrow stream of death; —

2 One army of the living God,
To his command we bow;
Part of the host have crossed the flood,
And part are crossing now

Ev'n now to their eternal home
Some happy spirits fly;
And we are to the margin come,
And soon expect to die.

3 Ev'n now by faith, we join our hands
With those that went before,
And greet the ransomed, blessed bands
Upon the eternal shore.
Lord Jesus! be our constant guide:
And, when the word is given,
Bid death's cold flood its waves divide,
And land us safe in heaven.

How sweet, how heavenly is the sight, When those who love the Lord In one another's peace delight, And so ful-fill his word!

1011

1 John 3:21

How SWEET, how heavenly is the sight,
When those who love the Lord
In one another's peace delight,
And so fulfill his word!

2 When each can feel his brother's sigh,
And with him bear a part!
When sorrow flows from every eye,
And joy from heart to heart!

3 When, free from envy, scorn, and pride,
Our wishes all above,

Each can his brother's failings hide,
And show a brother's love!

4 Let love, in one delightful stream,
Through every bosom flow;
And union sweet, and dear esteem
In every action glow.

5 Love is the golden chain that binds
The happy souls above;
And he's an heir of heaven who finds
His bosom glow with love.

1012 Genesis 28: 19-22.

- O GOD of Bethel, by whose hand
Thy people still are fed;
Who through this weary pilgrimage
Hast all our fathers led!
- 2 Our vows, our prayers, we now present
Before thy throne of grace;
God of our fathers! be the God
Of their succeeding race.
- 3 Through each perplexing path of life
Our wandering footsteps guide;
Give us, each day, our daily bread,
And raiment fit provide.
- 4 Oh, spread thy covering wings around
Till all our wanderings cease,
And at our Father's loved abode,
Our souls arrive in peace.

- 5 Such blessings from thy gracious hand
Our humble prayers implore;
And thou shalt be our chosen God,
Our portion evermore.

With all engaging charms!
Hark! how he calls the tender lambs,
And folds them in his arms!
- 2 "Permit them to approach," he cries,
"Nor scorn their humble name;
For 't was to bless such souls as these,
The Lord of angels came."
- 3 We bring them, Lord, in thankful hands,
And yield them up to thee;
Joyful that we ourselves are thine,—
Thine let our offspring be.

- By cool Siloam's shady rill
How fair the lily grows!
How sweet the breath beneath the hill
Of Sharon's dewy rose!
- 2 Lo! such the child whose early feet
The paths of peace have trod;
Whose secret heart, with influence sweet,
Is upward drawn to God.
- 3 By cool Siloam's shady rill
The lily must decay;
The rose that blooms beneath the hill
Must shortly fade away.
- 4 And soon, too soon, the wintry hour
Of man's maturer age
May shake the soul with sorrow's power
And stormy passion's rage.
- 5 O thou, whose infant feet were found
Within thy Father's shrine,
Whose years, with changeless virtue crowned,
Were all alike divine!
- 6 Dependent on thy bon-teous breath,
We seek thy grace alone
In childhood, manhood, age and death,
To keep us still thine own.

DEAR Saviour, if these lambs should stray
From thy secure enclosure's bound,
And, lured by worldly joys away,
Among the thoughtless crowd be found;—

2 Remember still that they are thine,
That thy dear sacred name they bear;
Think that the seal of love divine,
The sign of covenant grace they wear.

3 In all their erring, sinful years,
Oh, let them ne'er forgotten be;
Remember all the prayers and tears
Which made them consecrate to thee.

4 And when these lips no more can pray,
These eyes can weep for them no more,
Turn thou their feet from folly's way;
The wanderers to thy fold restore.

1020 Thine for Ever.

THIS child we dedicate to thee,
O God of grace and purity!
Shield it from sin and threatening wrong,
And let thy love its life prolong.

2 Oh, may thy Spirit gently draw
Its willing soul to keep thy law;
May virtue, piety, and truth,
Dawn even with its dawning youth.

3 We too, before thy gracious sight,
Once shared the blest baptismal rite,
And would renew its solemn vow
With love, and thanks, and praises, now.

4 Grant that, with true and faithful heart,
We still may act the Christian's part,
Cheered by each promise thou hast given,
And laboring for the prize in heaven.

O THOU, my soul, forget no more,
The Friend who all thy sorrows bore,
Let every idol be forgot;
But, O my soul, forget him not.

2 Renounce thy works and ways, with grief,
And fly to this divine relief;
Nor him forget, who left his throne,
And for thy life gave up his own.

3 Eternal truth and mercy shine
In him, and he himself is thine:
And canst thou, then, with sin beset,
Such charms, such matchless charms forget?

4 Oh, no: till life itself depart,
His name shall cheer and warm my heart;
And, lipping this, from earth I'll rise,
And join the chorus of the skies.

Than bursted grape, or bread of wheat,
The Life of life within our souls,
The Cup of our salvation sweet!

2 We come to show thy dying hour,
Thy streaming vein, thy broken flesh;
And still the blood is warm to save,
And still the fragrant wounds are fresh.

3 O Heart! that, with a double tide
Of blood and water, maketh pure;
O Flesh! once offered on the cross,
The gift that makes our pardon sure;—

4 Let never more our sinful souls
The anguish of thy cross renew;
Nor forge again the cruel nails,
That pierced thy victim body through.

5 Come, Bread of heaven, to feed our souls,

Come, Wine of God! and as we drink,

JESUS! and shall it ever be,
A mortal man ashamed of thee?
Ashamed of thee, whom angels praise,
Whose glories shine through endless days?

2 Ashamed of Jesus! sooner far
Let evening blush to own a star;
He sheds the beams of light divine
O'er this benighted soul of mine.

3 Ashamed of Jesus! that dear Friend
On whom my hopes of heaven depend!
No; when I blush, be this my shame,
That I no more revere his name.

4 Ashamed of Jesus! yes, I may,
When I've no guilt to wash away;
No tear to wipe, no good to crave,
No fears to quell, no soul to save.

Till then, I boast a Saviour slain!
And, oh, may this my glory be
That Christ is not ashamed of me!

1048 At Closing.

A PARTING hymn we sing
Around thy table, Lord;
Again our grateful tribute bring,
Our solemn vows record.

2 Here have we seen thy face,
And felt thy presence here;
So may the savor of thy grace
In word and life appear

3 The purchase of thy blood—
By sin no longer led—
The path our dear Redeemer trod
May we rejoicing tread.

4 In self-forgetting love
Be our communion shown,
Until we join the church above,
And know as we are known.

Je-sus, to thy ta-ble led, Now let ev-ery heart be fed With the true and liv-ing bread.

1049 "The Living Bread.

JESUS, to thy table led,
Now let every heart be fed
With the true and living bread.

2 While in penitence we kneel,
Thy sweet presence let us feel,
All thy wondrous love reveal!

3 While on thy dear cross we gaze,
Mourning o'er our sinful ways,
Turn our sadness into praise!

4 When we taste the mystic wine,
Of thine outpoured blood the sign,
Fill our hearts with love divine!

5 From the bonds of sin release,
Cold and wavering faith increase,
Lamb of God, grant us thy peace!

6 Lead us by thy piercéd hand,
Till around thy throne we stand,
In the bright and better land.

The day, O Lord, is spent; A-bide with us, and rest; Our hearts' desires are ful-ly bent On making thee our guest.

1050 "Abide with Us."

THE day, O Lord, is spent;
Abide with us, and rest;
Our hearts' desires are fully bent
On making thee our guest.

2 We have not reached that land,
That happy land, as yet,
Where holy angels round thee stand,
Whose sun can never set.

3 Our sun is sinking now,
Our day is almost o'er;
O Sun of Righteousness, do thou
Shine on us evermore!

4 The grace of Christ our Lord,
The Father's boundless love,
The Spirit's blest communion, too,
Be with us from above.

John M. Neale.

1051 Parting in Love.

BLEST be thy love, dear Lord,
That taught us this sweet way,
Only to love thee for thyself,
And for that love obey.

2 O thou, our souls' chief Hope!
We to thy mercy fly;
Where'er we are, thou canst protect,
Whate'er we need, supply.

3 Whether we sleep or wake,
To thee we both resign;
By night we see, as well as day,
If thy light on us shine.

4 Whether we live or die,
Both we submit to thee;
In death we live, as well as life,
If thine in death we be.

OLD WELSH HYMNAL.

{ O Je-sus, I have prom-ised To serve thee to the end; }
 { Be thou for ev-er near me, My Master and my friend; } I shall not fear the bat-tle

If thou art by my side, Nor wander from the path-way If thou wilt be my guide.

1052 Church Covenant.

O JESUS, I have promised
 To serve thee to the end;
 Be thou for ever near me,
 My Master and my friend;
 I shall not fear the battle
 If thou art by my side,
 Nor wander from the pathway
 If thou wilt be my guide.
 2 Oh, let me feel thee near me;
 The world is ever near;
 I see the sights that dazzle,
 The tempting sounds I hear;

My foes are ever near me,
 Around me and within;
 But, Jesus, draw thou nearer,
 And shield my soul from sin.
 3 O Jesus, thou hast promised
 To all who follow thee,
 That where thou art in glory
 There shall thy servant be;
 And, Jesus, I have promised
 To serve thee to the end;
 Oh, give me grace to follow,
 My Master and my friend.

Sit down beneath his shadow, And rest with great delight; The faith that now be-holds him Is pledge of future sight.

1053 "Beneath His Shadow."

Sit down beneath his shadow,
 And rest with great delight;
 The faith that now beholds him
 Is pledge of future sight.
 2 Our Master's love remember,
 Exceeding great and free;
 Lift up thy heart in gladness,
 For he remembers thee.
 3 His righteousness "all glorious"
 Thy festal robe shall be;

And love that passeth knowledge
 His banner over thee.
 4 A little while, though parted,
 Remember, wait, and love,
 Until he comes in glory,
 Until we meet above.
 5 Till in the Father's kingdom
 The heavenly feast is spread,
 And we behold his beauty,
 Whose blood for us was shed!

I lay my sins on Je - sus, The spot-less Lamb of God; He bears them all, and frees us From the ac - curs - ed load; I bring my guilt to Je - sus, To wash my crim - son stains White in his blood most pre - cious, Till not a stain re - mains.

1054 "None Other Name."

I LAY my sins on Jesus,
The spotless Lamb of God;
He bears them all, and frees us
From the accursed load;
I bring my guilt to Jesus,
To wash my crimson stains
White in his blood most precious,
Till not a stain remains.

2 I lay my wants on Jesus;
All fullness dwells in him;
He healeth my diseases,
He doth my soul redeem:
I lay my griefs on Jesus,
My burdens and my cares;
He from them all releases,
He all my sorrows shares.

3 I long to be like Jesus,
Meek, loving, lowly, mild;
I long to be like Jesus,
The Father's holy child.
I long to be with Jesus,
Amid the heavenly throng;
To sing with saints his praises,
And learn the angels' song.

Horatius Bonar.

1055 "I Need Thee."

I NEED thee, precious Jesus!
For I am full of sin;
My soul is dark and guilty,
My heart is dead within;
I need the cleansing fountain,
Where I can always flee,
The blood of Christ most precious,
The sinner's perfect plea.

2 I need thee, blessed Jesus!
For I am very poor;
A stranger and a pilgrim,
I have no earthly store;
I need the love of Jesus
To cheer me on my way,
To guide my doubting footsteps,
To be my strength and stay.

3 I need thee, blessed Jesus!
And hope to see thee soon,
Encircled with the rainbow,
And seated on thy throne:
There, with thy blood-bought children,
My joy shall ever be
To sing thy praise, Lord Jesus,
To gaze, my Lord, on thee!

The Church's one foundation Is Jesus Christ her Lord; She is his new crea - a - tion By - water and the word:

From heav'n he came and sought her, To be his ho - ly bride; With his own blood he bought her, And for her life he died.

1056 The Church is Christ's.

THE Church's one foundation
Is Jesus Christ her Lord;
She is his new creation
By water and the word:
From heaven he came and sought her,
To be his holy bride;
With his own blood he bought her,
And for her life he died.

2 Elect from every nation
Yet one o'er all the earth,
Her charter of salvation
One Lord, one faith, one birth;
One holy name she blesses,
Partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses,
With every grace endued.

3 'Mid toil and tribulation,
And tumult of her war,
She waits the consummation
Of peace for evermore;
Till with the vision glorious
Her longing eyes are blest,
And the great Church victorious
Shall be the Church at rest.

4 Yet she on earth hath union
With God the Three in One,
And mystic sweet communion
With those whose rest is won;

Oh, happy ones and holy!
Lord, give us grace that we
Like them, the meek and lowly,
On high may dwell with thee.

Samuel J. Stone.

1057 "The Living Bread."

O BREAD, to pilgrims given,
O food that angels eat,
O manna, sent from heaven,
For heaven-born natures meet!
Give us, for thee long pining,
To eat till richly filled;
Till, earth's delights resigning,
Our every wish is stilled.

2 O Water, life-bestowing,
From out the Saviour's heart!
A fountain purely flowing,
A fount of love thou art;
Oh, let us, freely tasting,
Our burning thirst assuage!
Thy sweetness, never wasting,
Avails from age to age.

3 Jesus! this feast receiving,
We thee unseen adore;
Thy faithful word believing,
We take, and doubt no more;
Give us, thou true and loving!
On earth to live in thee;
Then, death the veil removing,
Thy glorious face to see.

Before the Cross.

SWEET the moments, rich in blessing,
Which before the cross we spend;
Life, and health, and peace possessing,
From the sinner's dying Friend.
Truly blessed is this station,
Low before his cross to lie,
While we see divine compassion,
Beaming in his gracious eye.

2 Love and grief our hearts dividing,
With our tears his feet we bathe;
Constant still, in faith abiding,
Life deriving from his death.
For thy sorrows we adore thee,
For the pains that wrought our peace,
Gracious Saviour! we implore thee
In our souls thy love increase.

3 Here we feel our sins forgiven,
While upon the Lamb we gaze,
And our thoughts are all of heaven,
And our lips o'erflow with praise.
Still in ceaseless contemplation,
Fix our hearts and eyes on thee,
Till we taste thy full salvation,
And, unvailed, thy glories see.

"Him We Pierced."

COME, thou everlasting Spirit,
Bring to every thankful mind
All the Saviour's dying merit,
All his sufferings for mankind:

True recorder of his passion,
Now the living faith impart;
Now reveal his great salvation
Unto every faithful heart.

2 Come, thou Witness of his dying;
Come, Remembrancer divine;
Let us feel thy power applying
Christ to every soul, and mine;
Let us groan thine inward groaning;
Look on him we pierced, and grieve;
All partake the grace atoning,—
All the sprinkled blood receive.

Christ on the Cross.

WHEN I view my Saviour bleeding,
For my sins, upon the tree;
Oh, how wondrous!—how exceeding
Great his love appears to me!
Floods of deep distress and anguish,
To impede his labors, came;
Yet they all could not extinguish
Love's eternal, burning flame.

2 Sure such infinite affection
Lays the highest claims to mine;
All my powers, without exception,
Should in fervent praises join.
Jesus, fit me for thy service;
Form me for thyself alone;
I am thy most costly purchase,—
Take possession of thine own.

1061 Bearing the Cross.

JESUS, I my cross have taken,
 All to leave, and follow thee;
 Naked, poor, despised, forsaken,
 Thou, from hence, my all shalt be!
 Perish, every fond ambition,
 All I've sought, or hoped, or known,
 Yet how rich is my condition,
 God and heaven are still my own!

2 Let the world despise and leave me,
 They have left my Saviour, too;
 Human hearts and looks deceive me—
 Thou art not, like them, untrue;
 Oh, while thou dost smile upon me,
 God of wisdom, love, and might,
 Foes may hate, and friends disown me,
 Show thy face, and all is bright.

3 Man may trouble and distress me,
 'T will but drive me to thy breast;
 Life with trials hard may press me;
 Heaven will bring me sweeter rest!
 Oh, 'tis not in grief to harm me,
 While thy love is left to me;
 Oh, 't were not in joy to charm me,
 Were that joy unmixed with thee.

4 Go then, earthly fame and treasure!
 Come, disaster, scorn, and pain!
 In thy service, pain is pleasure,
 With thy favor, loss is gain.
 I have called thee—Abba, Father!
 I have stayed my heart on thee!

Storms may howl, and clouds may gather,
 All must work for good to me.

Henry F. Lyte.

1062 The Crown Coming.

SOUL, then know thy full salvation,
 Rise o'er sin, and fear, and care;
 Joy to find in every station
 Something still to do or bear.
 Think what Spirit dwells within thee;
 Think what Father's smiles are thine;
 Think that Jesus died to win thee!
 Child of heaven, caust thou repine?

2 Haste thee on from grace to glory,
 Armed by faith and winged by prayer!
 Heaven's eternal day's before thee,
 God's own hand shall guide thee there:
 Soon shall close thy earthly mission,
 Soon shall pass thy pilgrim days,
 Hope shall change to glad fruition,
 Faith to sight, and prayer to praise.

1063 A Spotless Soul.

 Poured thy precious blood for me,
 Wash me in its flowing fountain,

 Now the gracious call obeying,
 See, I hasten to thy breast.

JESUS calls us, o'er the tumult
Of our life's wild, restless sea;
Day by day his sweet voice soundeth,
Saying, Christian, follow me!

2 Jesus calls us—from the worship
Of the vain world's golden store;
From each idol that would keep us,—
Saying, Christian, love me more!

3 In our joys and in our sorrows,
Days of toil and hours of ease,
Still he calls, in cares and pleasures,—
Christian, love me more than these!

4 Jesus calls us! by thy mercies,

1067 "Take My Heart."

TAKE my heart, O Father! take it;
Make and keep it all thine own;
Let thy Spirit melt and break it—
This proud heart of sin and stone.

2 Father, make me pure and lowly,
Fond of peace and far from strife;
Turning from the paths unholy
Of this vain and sinful life.

3 Ever let thy grace surround me,
Strengthen me with power divine,
Till thy cords of love have bound me:
Make me to be wholly thine.

4 May the blood of Jesus heal me,
And my sins be all forgiven;
Holy Spirit, take and seal me,
Guide me in the path to heaven.

COME, thou Fount of every blessing,
 Tune my heart to sing thy grace ;
 Streams of mercy, never ceasing,
 Call for songs of loudest praise ;
 Teach me some melodious sonnet,
 Sung by flaming tongues above ;
 Praise the mount—I'm fixed upon it!—
 Mount of thy redeeming love.

2 Here I'll raise mine Eben-ezer ;
 Hither by thy help I'm come ;
 And I hope, by thy good pleasure,
 Safely to arrive at home.

Jesus sought me when a stranger,
 Wandering from the fold of God ;
 He, to rescue me from danger,
 Interposed his precious blood.

3 Oh, to grace how great a debtor
 Daily I'm constrained to be!
 Let thy goodness, like a fetter,
 Bind my wandering heart to thee ;
 Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it ;
 Prone to leave the God I love ;
 Here's my heart ; oh, take and seal it ;
 Seal it for thy courts above.

WHILE in sweet communion feeding
 On this earthly bread and wine,
 Saviour, may we see thee bleeding
 On the cross, to make us thine.

2 Though unseen, now be thou near us,
 With the still small voice of love ;
 Whispering words of peace to cheer us—
 Every doubt and fear remove.

 And, with hopes of endless glory,
 Wean our hearts from all below.

 Ever fighting, fainting never,
 May we march to victory !

3 Daily in the grace increasing
 Of thy Spirit, more and more,
 Watching, praying without ceasing,
 May we reach the heavenly shore !

PEOPLE of the living God,

Paths of sin and sorrow trod,
Peace and comfort nowhere found.

Turns, a fugitive unblest;
Brethren, where your altar burns,
Oh, receive me into rest!

3 Lonely I no longer roam,
Like the cloud, the wind, the wave:
Where you dwell shall be my home,
Where you die shall be my grave; —

4 Mine the God whom you adore,
Your Redeemer shall be mine;
Earth can fill my soul no more,
Every idol I resign.

Rock of Ages, cleft for me!
Let me hide myself in thee;
Let the water and the blood,
From thy wounded side that flowed,
Be of sin the double cure;
Cleanse me from its guilt and power.

2 Not the labor of my hands
Can fulfill the law's demands;
Could my zeal no respite know,
Could my tears for ever flow,
All for sin could not atone;
Thou must save, and thou alone.

3 Nothing in my hand I bring,
Simply to thy cross I cling;
Naked, come to thee for dress,
Helpless, look to thee for grace;
Vile, I to the fountain fly,
Wash me, Saviour, or I die!

4 While I draw this fleeting breath,
When my eyelids close in death,
When I soar to worlds unknown,
See thee on thy judgment throne,
Rock of Ages, cleft for me!
Let me hide myself in thee.

2 While we thus, with glad accord,
Meet around thy table, Lord,
Bid us feast with joy divine,
On the appointed bread and wine;
Emblems may they truly prove,
Of our Saviour's bleeding love.

3 Weak, unworthy, sinful, vile,
Yet we seek thy heavenly smile:
Canst thou all our sins forgive?
Dost thou bid us look and live?
Lord, we wonder and adore!
Oh, for grace to love thee more!

"TILL He come:" oh, let the words
Linger on the trembling chords;
Let the little while between
In their golden light be seen;
Let us think how heaven and home
Lie beyond that—"Till he come."

2 When the weary ones we love
Enter on their rest above,
Seems the earth so poor and vast,
All our life joy overcast?
Hush, be every murmur dumb;
It is only—"Till he come."

3 See, the feast of love is spread,
Drink the wine, and break the bread;
Sweet memorials,—till the Lord
Call us round his heavenly board;
Some from earth, from glory some,
Severed only—"Till he come."

heaven,
Thy flesh is meat, thy blood is drink indeed.

2 I cannot famish, tho' this earth should fail,
Though life through all its fields should pine and die;

Though the sweet verdure should forsake
each vale,
And every stream of every land run dry.

3 True Tree of Life! Of thee I eat and live,
Who eateth of thy fruit shall never die;
'Tis thine the everlasting health to give,
The youth and bloom of immortality.

4 Feeding on thee all weakness turns to
power,
This sickly soul revives, like earth in spring;

Strength floweth on and in, each buoyant hour,
This being seems all energy, all wing.

5 Jesus, our dying, buried, risen Head,
Thy church's Life and Lord, Immanuel!
At thy dear cross we find the eternal bread,
And in thy empty tomb the living well.

Horatius Bonar.

1085 Penitent Prayer.

NOT worthy, Lord! to gather up the crumbs
With trembling hand, that from thy table fall,

A weary, heavy-laden sinner comes
To plead thy promise and obey thy call.

2 I am not worthy to be thought thy child;
Nor sit the last and lowest at thy board;
Too long a wanderer, and too oft beguiled,
I only ask one reconciling word.

3 And is not mercy thy prerogative —
Free mercy, boundless, fathomless, divine?

Me, Lord! the chief of sinners, me forgive,
And thine the greater glory, only thine.

4 I hear thy voice; thou bid'st me come
and rest;
I come, I kneel, I clasp thy piercé'd feet;
Thou bid'st me take my place, a welcome
guest,
Among thy saints, and of thy banquet
eat.

5 My praise can only breathe itself in
prayer,
My prayer can only lose itself in thee;
Dwell thou for ever in my heart, and there,
Lord! let me sup with thee; sup thou with me.

1086 Coming to the Table.

HERE, O my Lord, I see thee face to face;
Here would I touch and handle things
unseen; [grace,
Here grasp with firmer hand the eternal
And all my weariness upon thee lean.

2 Here would I feed upon the bread of God;
Here drink with thee the royal wine of
heaven;

Here would I lay aside each earthly load,
Here taste afresh the calm of sin forgiven.

3 This is the hour of banquet and of song,
This is the heavenly table spread for me;
Here let me feast, and, feasting, still prolong
The brief bright hour of fellowship with
thee.

1087 "Sweet Foretastes."

TOO SOON we rise; the symbols disappear;
The feast, though not the love, is passed
and gone;
The bread and wine remove, but thou art
here—
Nearer than ever—still my Shield and Sun.

2 I have no help but thine; nor do I need
Another arm save thine to lean upon:
It is enough, my Lord, enough, indeed;
My strength is in thy might, thy might
alone.

3 Mine is the sin, but thine the righteousness;
Mine is the guilt, but thine the cleansing
blood;
Here is my robe, my refuge, and my peace;
Thy blood, thy righteousness, O Lord,
my God.

4 Feast after feast thus comes and passes by;
Yet, passing, points to the glad feast
above,
Giving sweet foretastes of the festal joy,
The Lamb's great bridal feast of bliss and love.

For thou art all to me.
And I am thine.

Is there on earth a closer bond than this,
That "my Belovéd's mine, and I am his"?

2 Thine am I by all ties;
But chiefly thine,
That through thy sacrifice
Thou, Lord, art mine.

By thine own cords of love, so sweetly wound
Around me, I to thee am closely bound.

3 To thee, thou bleeding Lamb,

All that I have and am,

1091 "Till He Come."

BY Christ redeemed, in Christ restored,
We keep the memory adored,
And show the death of our dear Lord,
Until he come.

2 His body broken in our stead
Is here, in this memorial bread;
And so our feeble love is fed,
Until he come.

3 His fearful drops of agony,
His life-blood shed for us we see:
The wine shall tell the mystery,
Until he come.

4 And thus that dark betrayal night,
With the last advent we unite—
The shame, the glory, by this rite,
Until he come.

5 Until the trump of God be heard,
Until the ancient graves be stirred,
And with the great commanding word,
The Lord shall come.

6 Oh, blessed hope! with this elate,
Let not our hearts be desolate,
But, strong in faith, in patience wait,
Until he come!

Look down in love, and hear our humble cry.

2 Thou tender Shepherd of the blood-bought sheep,
Thy feeble wandering flock in safety keep.

3 O gentle Saviour, by thy death we live;
To contrite sinners life eternal give.

4 Thou art the Bread of heaven, on thee we feed;
Be near to help our souls in time of need.

5 Thou art the mourner's stay, the sinner's Friend,
Sweet fount of joy and blessings without end.

6 Oh, come and cheer us with thy heavenly grace,
Reveal the brightness of thy glorious face.

7 In cooling cloud by day, in fire by night,
Be near our steps, and make our darkness light.

"THIS is my body, which is given for you;
Do this," he said, and brake, "remem-

O Lamb of God, our paschal offering true,
To us the bread of life each moment be.

2 "This is my blood, for sins' remission shed;"

He spake, and passed the cup of bless-

So let us drink, and, on life's fullness fed,
With heavenly joy each quickening pulse shall bound.

3 Some will betray thee—"Master, is it I?"
Leaning upon thy love, we ask in fear—
Ourselves mistrusting, earnestly we cry
To thee, the Strong, for strength, when sin is near.

dim;
A saddened awe pervades our darkening
sense;
In solemn choir we sing the parting hymn,
And hear thy voice, "Arise, let us go hence."

LOW IN thine agony
Bearing thy cross for me,

In the dark tempter's hour,
Quailing beneath his power,
Sorrowing more and more,

2 O Lord of heaven and earth,
What sorrow unto death
Dost thou sustain?
Thou dost in anguish bow:
Thou art forsaken now:
For me this cup of woe
Thou dost now drain.

3 Saviour, give me to share
Thy lowly will and prayer
In all my woe;
In my soul's agony
Let me resemble thee;
An angel strengthening me,
Let me, too, know.

And in its heavy woe
Was satisfied.
So let my sorrow, Lord,
Fullness of joy afford,
To life and God restored,
Through him who died.

GIVE us our daily bread,
O God, the bread of strength;
For we have learnt to know
How weak we are at length:
As children we are weak,
As children must be fed;
Give us thy grace, O Lord,
To be our daily bread.

2 Give us our daily bread,
The bitter bread of grief:
We sought earth's poisoned feasts,
For pleasure and relief;
We sought her deadly fruits,
But now, O God, instead,
We ask thy healing grief,
To be our daily bread.

3 Give us our daily bread,
To cheer our fainting soul;
The feast of comfort, Lord,
And peace to make us whole:
For we are sick of tears,
The useless tears we shed;
Now give us comfort, Lord,
To be our daily bread.

4 Give us our daily bread,
The bread of angels, Lord,
By us so many times
Broken, betrayed, adored;

His body and his blood,
The feast that Jesus spread,
Give him, our Life, our All,
To be our daily bread.

ASSEMBLED at thy great command,
Before thy face, dread King, we stand;
The voice that marshaled every star,
Has called thy people from afar.

JESUS shall reign where'er the sun
Does his successive journeys run;
His kingdom stretch from shore to shore,
Till moons shall wax and wane no more.

2 For him shall endless prayer be made
And endless praises crown his head;
His name, like sweet perfume, shall rise
With every morning-sacrifice.

3 People and realms of every tongue
Dwell on his love, with sweetest song;
And infant voices shall proclaim
Their early blessings on his name.

4 Blessings abound where'er he reigns;
The prisoner leaps to lose his chains;
The weary find eternal rest,
And all the sons of want are blest.

5 Let every creature rise and bring
Peculiar honors to our King;
Angels descend with songs again,
And earth repeat the loud Amen!

LOOK from thy sphere of endless day,
O God of mercy and of might!
In pity look on those who stray,
Benighted in this land of light.

2 In peopled vale, in lonely glen,
In crowded mart, by stream or sea,
How many of the sons of men
Hear not the message sent from thee!

3 Send forth thy heralds, Lord, to call
The thoughtless young, the hardened old,
A scattered, homeless flock, till all
Be gathered to thy peaceful fold.

4 Send them thy mighty word to speak,
Till faith shall dawn, and doubt depart,
To awe the bold, to stay the weak,
And bind and heal the broken heart.

5 Then all these wastes, a dreary scene,
That makes us sadden as we gaze,
Shall grow with living waters green,
And lift to heaven the voice of praise.

With the sweet word of peace We bid our broth-ren go; Peace, as a riv - er to in - crease, And cease - less flow.

1117 Departure.

WITH the sweet word of peace
We bid our brethren go;
Peace, as a river to increase,
And ceaseless flow.

2 With the calm word of prayer
We earnestly commend
Our brethren to thy watchful care,
Eternal Friend!

3 With the dear word of love
We give our brief farewell:
Our love below, and thine above,
With them shall dwell.

4 With the strong word of faith
We stay ourselves on thee;
That thou, O Lord, in life and death
Their Help shalt be.

5 Then the bright word of hope
Shall on our parting gleam,
And tell of joys beyond the scope
Of earth-born dream.

6 Farewell! in hope, and love,
In faith, and peace, and prayer:
Till he whose home is ours above
Unite us there.

1118 The Fullness of the Gentiles.

RISE, crowned with light, imperial Salem, rise!
Exalt thy towering head, and lift thine eyes;
See heaven its sparkling portals wide display,
And break upon thee in a flood of day.

2 See a long race thy spacious courts adorn;
See future sons and daughters yet unborn
In crowding ranks on every side arise,
Demanding life, impatient for the skies.

3 See barbarous nations at thy gates attend,
Walk in the light, and in thy temple bend;
See thy bright altars thronged with prostrate kings,
While every land its joyful tribute brings.

4 The seas shall waste, the skies to smoke decay,
Rocks fall to dust, and mountains melt away;
But fixed his word, his saving power remains;
Thy realms shall last, thy own Messiah reigns!

 an-cient riv-er, From many a palm-y plain, They call us to de-liv-er Their land from er-ror's chain.

1119 "Come Over, and Help Us."

FROM Greenland's icy mountains,
 From India's coral strand,
 Where Africa's sunny fountains
 Roll down their golden sand,—
 From many an ancient river,
 From many a palm-y plain,
 They call us to deliver
 Their land from error's chain.

2 What though the spiey breezes
 Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle;
 Though every prospect pleases,
 And only man is vile;
 In vain with lavish kindness
 The gifts of God are strown;
 The heathen, in his blindness,
 Bows down to wood and stone!

3 Shall we, whose souls are lighted
 With wisdom from on high,—
 Shall we, to men benighted,
 The lamp of life deny?
 Salvation, oh, salvation!
 The joyful sound proclaim,
 Till earth's remotest nation
 Has learned Messiah's name.

4 Waft, waft, ye winds, his story,
 And you, ye waters, roll,
 Till, like a sea of glory,
 It spreads from pole to pole;

Till o'er our ransomed nature
 The Lamb for sinners slain,
 Redeemer, King, Creator,
 In bliss returns to reign!

Reginald Heber.

1120 The Day of Jubilee.

HOW BEAUTEOUS on the mountains,
 The feet of him that brings,
 Like streams from living fountains,
 Good tidings of good things;
 That publisheth salvation,
 And jubilee release,
 To every tribe and nation,
 God's reign of joy and peace!

2 Lift up thy voice, O watchman!
 And shout, from Zion's towers,
 Thy hallelujah chorus,—
 "The victory is ours!"
 The Lord shall build up Zion
 In glory and renown,
 And Jesus, Judah's lion,
 Shall wear his rightful crown.

3 Break forth in hymns of gladness,
 O waste Jerusalem!
 Let songs, instead of sadness,
 Thy jubilee proclaim;
 The Lord, in strength victorious,
 Upon thy foes hath trod;
 Behold, O earth! the glorious
 Salvation of our God!

WE are living, we are dwelling,
 In a grand and awful time,
 In an age on ages telling;
 To be living is sublime.
 Hark, the waking up of nations,
 Gog and Magog to the fray:
 Hark, what soundeth ? is creation
 Groaning for its latter day ?

2 Worlds are charging, heaven beholding,
 Thou hast but an hour to fight;
 Now the blazoned cross unfolding,
 On, right onward, for the right!
 On! let all the soul within you
 For the truth's sake go abroad.
 Strike, let every nerve and sinew
 Tell on ages, tell for God.

1122 Rome Missions.

GOODLY were thy tents, O Israel,
 Spread along the river's side,
 Bright thy star which rose prophetic,
 Herald of dominion wide;
 Fairer are the homes of freemen,
 Scattered o'er our broad domain;
 Brighter is our rising day-star,
 Ushering in a purer reign.

2 Welcome to the glorious freedom,
 Which our fathers hither brought;
 Welcome to the priceless treasure,
 Which with constant faith they sought,—

See, from every nation gathering,
 Swarming myriads through our coasts,
 Hear, with steady steps advancing,
 Ceaseless tread of countless hosts.

3 God of nations! our Preserver,
 Hear our prayers, our counsels bless;
 Lift o'er all thy radiant banner,
 On these souls thy love impress;
 From thy throne of boundless blessing,
 O'er our land thy Spirit pour;
 In the grandeur of thine empire,
 Reign supreme from shore to shore!

Samuel Wolcott.

1123 "Westward."

HARK! the sound of angel-voices
 Over Bethlehem's star-lit plain;
 Hark! the heavenly host rejoices,
 Jesus comes on earth to reign.
 See celestial radiance beaming,
 Lighting up the midnight sky;
 'Tis the promised day-star gleaming,
 'Tis the day-spring from on high.

2 Westward, all along the ages,
 Trace its pathway clear and bright;
 Star of hope to Eastern sages,
 Radiant now with gospel light.
 Angels from the realms of glory,
 Peace on earth delight to sing;
 Christian, tell the wondrous story,
 Go proclaim the Saviour King!

Hail to the Lord's anointed, Great David's greater Son! Hail, in the time appointed, D.S.—To take away transgression,

His reign on earth begun! He comes to break oppression, To set the captive free, And rule in equity.

1124 Psalm 72.—Part I.

HAIL to the Lord's anointed,
Great David's greater Son!

Hail, in the time appointed,
His reign on earth begun!

He comes to break oppression,
To set the captive free,
To take away transgression,
And rule in equity.

2 He comes, with succor speedy,
To those who suffer wrong;
To help the poor and needy,
And bid the weak be strong;
To give them songs for sighing,
Their darkness turn to light,
Whose souls, condemned and dying,
Were precious in his sight.

3 For him shall prayer unceasing
And daily vows ascend;
His kingdom still increasing,
A kingdom without end.
The heavenly dew shall nourish
A seed in weakness sown,
Whose fruit shall spread and flourish,
And shake like Lebanon.

4 O'er every foe victorious,
He on his throne shall rest;
From age to age more glorious,
All-blessing and all-blessed.

The tide of time shall never
His covenant remove;
His name shall stand for ever;
That name to us is—Love.

James Montgomery.

1125 Psalm 72.—Part II.

HE shall come down like showers
Upon the fruitful earth,
And love, and joy, like flowers,
Spring in his path to birth:
Before him, on the mountains,
Shall peace the herald go,
And righteousness in fountains
From hill to valley flow.

2 Arabia's desert-ranger
To him shall bow the knee;
The Ethiopian stranger
His glory come to see:
With offerings of devotion,
Ships from the isles shall meet,
To pour the wealth of ocean
In tribute at his feet.

3 Kings shall fall down before him,
And gold and incense bring:
All nations shall adore him;
His praise all people sing;
For he shall have dominion
O'er river, sea, and shore,
Far as the eagle's pinion
Or dove's light wing can soar.

The morning light is breaking; The darkness dis-ap-pears! The sons of earth are wak-ing To pen-i-ten-tial tears;

Each breeze that sweeps the o-c-ean Brings tid-ings from a-far, Of na-tions in com-mo-tion, Prepared for Zion's war.

1126 The Morning Light.

THE morning light is breaking;
The darkness disappears!
The sons of earth are waking
To penitential tears;
Each breeze that sweeps the ocean
Brings tidings from afar,
Of nations in commotion,
Prepared for Zion's war.

2 See heathen nations bending
Before the God we love,
And thousand hearts ascending
In gratitude above;
While sinners, now confessing,
The gospel call obey,
And seek the Saviour's blessing—
A nation in a day.

3 Blest river of salvation!
Pursue thine onward way;
Flow thou to every nation,
Nor in thy richness stay;
Stay not till all the lowly
Triumphant reach their home:
Stay not till all the holy
Proclaim—"The Lord is come!"

Samuel F. Smith.

1127 Israel.—Ps. 13.

OH, that the Lord's salvation
Were out of Zion come,
To heal his ancient nation,
To lead his outcasts home!

How long the holy city
Shall heathen feet profane?
Return, O Lord, in pity,
Rebuild her walls again.

2 Let fall thy rod of terror,
Thy saving grace impart;
Roll back the veil of error,
Release the fettered heart;
Let Israel, home returning,
Their lost Messiah see;
Give oil of joy for mourning,
And bind thy Church to thee.

Henry F. Lyte.

1128 Departing Missionaries.

ROLL on, thou mighty ocean;
And, as thy billows flow,
Bear messengers of mercy
To every land below.
Arise, ye gales, and waft them
Safe to the destined shore;
That man may sit in darkness,
And death's black shade no more.

2 O thou eternal Ruler,
Who holdest in thine arm
The tempests of the ocean,
Protect them from all harm!
Thy presence, Lord, be with them,
Wherever they may be;
Though far from us, who love them,
Still let them be with thee.

1129 Sun of Righteousness.

O'ER the gloomy hills of darkness,
Cheered by no celestial ray,
Sun of Righteousness! arising,
Bring the bright, the glorious day;
Send the gospel

2 Kingdoms wide that sit in darkness,—
Grant them, Lord! the glorious light:
And, from eastern coast to western,
May the morning chase the night;
And redemption,
Freely purchased, win the day.

Win and conquer, never cease;
May thy lasting, wide dominions
Multiply and still increase;
Sway the scepter,
Saviour! all the world around.

3 Hallelujah! strains of gladness,
Suit not souls with anguish torn;
Hallelujah! sounds of sadness
Best become the heart forlorn;
Our offences.
We with bitter tears must mourn.

Visit us with thy salvation,
Make us all thy joys to see.
Hallelujah!

Hallelujah! thou repeatest,

2 Hallelujah! Church Victorious,
Join the concert of the sky;
Hallelujah! bright and glorious,
Lift, ye Saints, this strain on high;
We, poor exiles,
Join not yet your melody.

1131 The Gospel Herald.

ON the mountain's top appearing,
Lo! the sacred herald stands,
Welcome news to Zion bearing—
Zion long in hostile lands:
Mourning captive!
God himself shall loose thy bands.

2 Has thy night been long and mournful?
Have thy friends unfaithful proved?
Have thy foes been proud and scornful?
By thy sighs and tears unmoved?
Cease thy mourning;
Zion still is well beloved.

3 God, thy God, will now restore thee;
He himself appears thy Friend;
All thy foes shall flee before thee;
Here their boasts and triumphs end:
Great deliverance
Zion's King will surely send.

SAINTS of God! the dawn is brightening,
Token of our coming Lord;
O'er the earth the field is whitening;
Louder rings the Master's word,—
“Pray for reapers
In the harvest of the Lord.”

2 Now, O Lord! fulfill thy pleasure,
Breathe upon thy chosen band,
And, with pentecostal measure,
Send forth reapers o'er our land,—
Faithful reapers,
Gathering sheaves for thy right hand

3 Broad the shadow of our nation,
Eager millions hither roam;
Lo! they wait for thy salvation;
Come, Lord Jesus! quickly come!
By thy Spirit,
Bring thy ransomed people home.

4 Soon shall end the time of weeping,
Soon the reaping time will come,—
Heaven and earth together keeping
God's eternal Harvest Home:
Saints and angels!
Shout the world's great Harvest Home.

1136 "His Beloved Sleep."

WHY should we start, and fear to die?
 What timorous worms we mortals are!
 Death is the gate of endless joy,
 And yet we dread to enter there.

2 The pains, the groans, the dying strife
 Fright our approaching souls away;
 We still shrink back again to life,
 Fond of our prison and our clay.

3 Oh, if my Lord would come and meet,
 My soul should stretch her wings in haste,
 Fly fearless through death's iron gate,
 Nor feel the terrors as she passed.

4 Jesus can make a dying bed
 Feel soft as downy pillows are,
 While on his breast I lean my head,
 And breathe my life out sweetly there!

Isaac Watts.

1137 Death of the Righteous:

HOW BLESSED the righteous when he dies,—
 When sinks a weary soul to rest!
 How mildly beam the closing eyes!
 How gently heaves the expiring breast!

2 So fades a summer-cloud away;
 So sinks the gale when storms are o'er;
 So gently shuts the eye of day;
 So dies a wave along the shore.

3 A holy quiet reigns around,—
 A calm which life nor death destroys;
 And naught disturbs that peace profound,
 Which his unfettered soul enjoys.

4 Life's labor done, as sinks the clay,
 Light from its load the spirit flies;
 While heaven and earth combine to say,—
 "How blest the righteous when he dies!"

ASLEEP in Jesus! blessed sleep!
 From which none ever wake to weep
 A calm and undisturbed repose,
 Unbroken by the last of foes.

2 Asleep in Jesus! oh, how sweet
 To be for such a slumber meet!
 With holy confidence to sing
 That death hath lost its venom'd sting!

3 Asleep in Jesus! peaceful rest!
 Whose waking is supremely blest;

No fear—no woe, shall dim the hour
 That manifests the Saviour's power.

4 Asleep in Jesus! oh, for me
 May such a blissful refuge be:
 Securely shall my ashes lie,
 And wait the summons from on high.

5 Asleep in Jesus! far from thee
 Thy kindred and their graves may be:
 But thine is still a blessed sleep
 From which none ever wake to weep.

Be - hold the west-ern evening light! It melts in deepening gloom: So calm-ly Christians sink a - way, De - scending to the tomb. The winds breathe low, the with'ring leaf Scarce whispers from the tree: So gen - tly flows the part-ing breath, When good men cease to be.

1139 Life's Sunset.

BEHOLD the western evening light!

It melts in deepening gloom:

So calmly Christians sink away,

Descending to the tomb.

The winds breathe low, the withering leaf

Scarce whispers from the tree:

So gently flows the parting breath,

When good men cease to be.

2 How beautiful on all the hills

The crimson light is shed!

'Tis like the peace the Christian gives

To mourners round his bed.

How mildly on the wandering cloud

The sunset beam is cast!

'Tis like the memory left behind-

When loved ones breathe their last.

3 And now above the dews of night

The rising star appears:

So faith springs in the heart of those Whose eyes are bathed in tears.

But soon the morning's happier light

Its glory shall restore,

And eyelids that are sealed in death

Shall wake to close no more.

1140 "Number Our Days."

BENEATH our feet and o'er our head

Is equal warning given;

Beneath us lie the countless dead,

Above us is the heaven!

Death rides on every passing breeze,

And lurks in every flower;

Each season hath its own disease,

Its peril every hour!

2 Our eyes have seen the rosy light

Of youth's soft cheek decay;

And fate descend in sudden night

On manhood's middle day.

Our eyes have seen the steps of age

Halt feebly to the tomb;

And yet shall earth our hearts engage,

And dreams of days to come?

3 Then, mortal, turn! thy danger know;

Where'er thy foot can tread,

The earth rings hollow from below,

And warns thee of her dead!

Turn, mortal, turn! thy soul apply

To truths divinely given:

The dead, who underneath thee lie,

Shall live for hell or heaven!

1142 "We are Confident."

WHY do we mourn departing friends,
Or shake at death's alarms?

'Tis but the voice that Jesus sends,
To call them to his arms.

2 Are we not tending upward, too,
As fast as time can move?
Nor would we wish the hours more slow,
To keep us from our love.

3 Why should we tremble to convey
Their bodies to the tomb?
There the dear flesh of Jesus lay,
And scattered all the gloom.

4 The graves of all the saints he blessed,
And softened every bed;
Where should the dying members rest,
But with the dying Head?

5 Thence he arose, ascending high,
And showed our feet the way;
Up to the Lord we, too, shall fly
At the great rising-day.

6 Then let the last loud trumpet sound
And bid our kindred rise;
Awake! ye nations under ground;
Ye saints! ascend the skies.

And angels, hovering o'er the place,

And, as the Saviour rose,

The grave again shall yield her trust,

Knowing as I am known,
How shall I love that word,
And oft repeat before the throne,
"For ever with the Lord!"

James Montgomery.

1148 "Nearer."

ONE sweetly solemn thought
Comes to me o'er and o'er,—
Nearer my home, to-day, am I
Than e'er I've been before.
Nearer my Father's house,
Where many mansions be;
Nearer to-day the great white throne,
Nearer the crystal sea.

2 Nearer the bound of life,
Where burdens are laid down;
Nearer to leave the heavy cross;
Nearer to gain the crown.
But, lying dark between,
Winding down through the night,
There rolls the deep and unknown stream
That leads at last to light.

3 Ev'n now, perchance, my feet
Are slipping on the brink,
And I, to-day, am nearer home,—
Nearer than now I think.
Father, perfect my trust!
Strengthen my power of faith!
Nor let me stand, at last, alone
Upon the shore of death.

1149 Death of a Veteran.

SERVANT of God, well done!
Rest from thy loved employ:
The battle fought, the victory won,
Enter thy Master's joy!
The voice at midnight came;
He started up to hear;
A mortal arrow pierced his frame;
He fell, but felt no fear.

2 At midnight came the cry,
"To meet thy God prepare!"
He woke, and caught his Captain's eye;
Then, strong in faith and prayer,
His spirit with a bound
Left its encumbering clay:
His tent, at sunrise, on the ground
A darkened ruin lay.

3 The pains of death are past,
Labor and sorrow cease,
And life's long warfare closed at last,
His soul is found in peace.
Soldier of Christ, well done!
Praise be thy new employ;
And, while eternal ages run,
Rest in thy Saviour's joy.

1150 The Pious Dead.

FOR all thy saints, O Lord,
Who strove in Christ to live,
Who followed him, obeyed, adored,
Our grateful hymn receive.
For all thy saints, O God,
Accept our thankful cry,
Who counted Christ their great reward,
And yearned for him to die.

2 Thy mystic members fit
To join thy saints above,
In one unmixed communion knit,
And fellowship of love.
They all, in life and death,
With thee, their Lord, in view,
Learned from thy Holy Spirit's breath
To suffer and to do.

3 For this thy name we bless,
And humbly beg that we
May follow them in holiness,
And live and die in thee.
To God, the Father, Son,
And Spirit, ever blest,
The One in Three, the Three in One,
Be endless praise addressed.

THE sands of time are sinking;
The dawn of heaven breaks;
The summer morn I've sighed for,
The fair, sweet morn awakes.
Dark, dark hath been the midnight;
But dayspring is at hand,
And glory—glory dwelleth
In Immanuel's land.

2 Oh, Christ! he is the fountain,
The deep, sweet well of love;
The streams on earth I've tasted,
More deep I'll drink above;
There to an ocean fullness
His mercy doth expand,
And glory—glory dwelleth
In Immanuel's land.

3 With mercy and with judgment
My web of time he wove,
And aye the dews of sorrow
Were lustered by his love;
I'll bless the hand that guided,
I'll bless the heart that planned,
When throned where glory dwelleth,
In Immanuel's land.

Of Immanuel's land.

1164 Prepare to Meet God.

GREAT God, what do I see and hear!
 The end of things created!
 The Judge of man I see appear,
 On clouds of glory seated:
 The trumpet sounds; the graves restore
 The dead which they contained before;
 Prepare, my soul, to meet him.

2 The dead in Christ shall first arise,
 At the last trumpet's sounding—
 Caught up to meet him in the skies,
 With joy their Lord surrounding;
 No gloomy fears their souls dismay,
 His presence sheds eternal day
 On those prepared to meet him.

3 But sinners, filled with guilty fears,
 Behold his wrath prevailing;
 For they shall rise, and find their tears
 And sighs are unavailing:
 The day of grace is past and gone;
 Trembling they stand before the throne.
 All unprepared to meet him.

4 Great God! what do I see and hear!
 The end of things created!
 The Judge of man I see appear,
 On clouds of glory seated:
 Beneath his cross I view the day
 When heaven and earth shall pass away,
 And thus prepare to meet him.

1165 "Into Thine Hand."

WHEN my last hour is close at hand,
 My last sad journey taken,
 Do thou, Lord Jesus! by me stand;
 Let me not be forsaken:
 O Lord! my spirit I resign
 Into thy loving hands divine;
 'T is safe within thy keeping.

2 Countless as sands upon the shore,
 My sins may then appall me;
 Yet, though my conscience vex me sore,
 Despair shall not enthrall me;
 For as I draw my latest breath,
 I'll think, Lord Christ! upon thy death;
 And there find consolation.

3 I shall not in the grave remain,
 Since thou death's bonds hast severed;
 By hope with thee to rise again,
 From fear of death delivered,
 I'll come to thee, where'er thou art,—
 Live with thee, from thee never part;
 Therefore I die in rapture.

4 And so to Jesus Christ I'll go,
 My longing arms extending;
 So fall asleep, in slumber deep,
 Slumber that knows no ending;
 Till Jesus Christ, God's only Son,
 Opens the gates of bliss, leads on
 To heaven, to life eternal.

LORD, thou wilt bring the joyful day;
Beyond earth's weariness and pains,
Thou hast a mansion far away,
Where, for thine own, a rest remains.

Around the throne bright legions stand,
Redeemed by blood from sin and hell;
And shining forms, an angel band,
The mighty chorus join to swell.

3 There, Lord, thy way worn saints shall find
The bliss for which they longed before;

OH, for a sweet, inspiring ray,
To animate our feeble strains,
From the bright realms of endless day,
The blissful realms, where Jesus reigns.
There, low before his glorious throne,
Adoring saints and angels fall;
And with delightful worship own
His smile their bliss, their heaven, their all.

2 Immortal glories crown his head,
While tuneful hallelujahs rise,
And love, and joy, and triumph spread
Through all the assemblies of the skies.
He smiles, and seraphs tune their songs
To boundless rapture while they gaze;
Ten thousand thousand joyful tongues
Resound his everlasting praise.

3 There, all the favorites of the Lamb
Shall join at last the heavenly choir;
Oh, may the joy-inspiring theme
Awake our faith and warm desire.
Dear Saviour, let thy Spirit seal
Our interest in that blissful place;
Till death remove this mortal veil,
And we behold thy lovely face.

2 These are they who have contended
For their Saviour's honor long,
Wrestling on till life was ended,
Following not the sinful throng:
These, who well the fight sustained,
Triumph by the Lamb have gained.

3 These are they whose hearts were riven,
Sore with woe and anguish tried,
Who in prayer full oft have striven
With the God they glorified:
Now, their painful conflict o'er,

Of con-fin-ing flesh to burst; Here the soul an ex-ile sighs For her na-tive Par-a-dise.

{ What is life? 'tis but a va-por, Soon it van-ish-es a - way; }
 { Life is but a dy-ing ta-per—O my soul, why wish to stay? } Why not spread thy wings and fly

Straight to yonder world of joy? Why not spread thy wings and fly Straight to yonder world of joy?

1175 "What is Your Life?"

- WHAT is life? 't is but a vapor,
 Soon it vanishes away;
 Life is but a dying taper—
 O my soul, why wish to stay?
 Why not spread thy wings and fly
 Straight to yonder world of joy?
- 2 See that glory, how resplendent!
 Brighter far than fancy paints;
 There, in majesty transcendent,
 Jesus reigns—the King of saints.
 Why not spread, etc.
- 3 Joyful crowds, his throne surrounding,
 Sing with rapture of his love;
 Through the heavens his praise resounding,
 Filling all the courts above.
 Why not spread, etc.
- 4 Go, and share his people's glory,
 'Midst the ransomed crowd appear;
 Thine a joyful wondrous story,
 One that angels love to hear.
 Why not spread, etc.

Thomas Kelly.

1176 "Wistful and Athirst."

- ON the fount of life eternal
 Gazing wistful and athirst;
 Yearning, straining, from the prison
 Of confining flesh to burst;
 Here the soul an exile sighs
 For her native Paradise.

- 2 Who can paint that lovely city,
 City of true peace divine,
 Whose pure gates, for ever open,
 Each in pearly splendor shine;
 Whose abodes of glory clear
 Naught defiling cometh near?
- 3 There no stormy winter rages;
 There no scorching summer glows;
 But through one perennial spring-tide,
 Blooms the lily with the rose;
 And the Lamb, with purest ray,
 Scatters round eternal day.
- 4 There the saints of God, resplendent
 As the sun in all his might,
 Evermore rejoice together,
 Crowned with diadems of light;
 And from peril safe at last,
 Reckon up their triumphs past.
- 5 Happy they, who with them seated
 Shall in all their glory share!
 Oh, that we, our days completed,
 Might be but admitted there!
 There with them the praise to sing
 Of our glorious God and King.
- 6 Look, O Jesus, on thy soldiers,
 Worn and wounded in the fight;
 Grant, oh, grant us rest for ever,
 In thy beatific sight,
 And thyself our guarder be
 Through a long eternity.

SANCTUARY. 8s, 7s. D.

J. B. DYKES.

Hark! the sound of holy voices, Chant-ing at the crystal sea, Hal-le-lu-jah, hal-le-lu-jah, Hal-le-lu-jah, Lord, to thee!

Multitudes, which none can number, Like the stars in glory stand, Clothed in white apparel, holding Palms of victory in their hands.

1177 "The Sea of Glass."

HARK! the sound of holy voices,
Chanting at the crystal sea,
Hallelujah, hallelujah,
Hallelujah, Lord, to thee!

Multitudes, which none can number,
Like the stars in glory stand,
Clothed in white apparel, holding
Palms of victory in their hands.

2 They have come from tribulation,
And have washed their robes in blood,
Washed them in the blood of Jesus;
Tried they were and firm they stood

Mocked, imprisoned, stoned, tormented,
Sawn asunder, slain with sword,
They have conquered death and Satan
By the might of Christ the Lord.

3 Now they reign in heavenly glory,
Now they walk in golden light,
Now they drink, as from a river,
Holy bliss and infinite.

Love and peace they taste for ever,
And all truth and knowledge see
In the beatific vision
Of the blessed Trinity.

1178 Not Our Rest.

THIS is not my place of resting,—
Mine's a city yet to come;
Onward to it I am hasting—
On to my eternal home.

2 In it all is light and glory;
O'er it shines a nightless day:
Every trace of sin's sad story,
All the curse, hath passed away.

3 There the Lamb, our Shepherd, leads us
By the streams of life along,—
On the freshest pastures feeds us,
Turns our sighing into song.

4 Soon we pass this desert dreary,
Soon we bid farewell to pain;
Never more are sad or weary,
Never, never sin again!

1179 "The King in His Beautg."

TIME, thou speedest on but slowly,
Hours, how tardy is your pace!
Ere with Him, the high and holy,
I hold converse face to face.
Here is naught but care and mourning;
Comes a joy, it will not stay;
Fairly shines the sun at dawning,
Night will soon o'ercloud the day,

2 Lo! it comes, that day of wonder!
Louder chorals shake the skies:
Hadés' gates are burst asunder;
See! the new-clothed myriads rise!
Thought! repress thy weak endeavor
Here must reason prostrate fall;
Oh, the ineffable Forever!
And the eternal All in All!

Josiah Conder.

2 Onward then! not long I wander
Ere my Saviour comes for me,
And with him abiding yonder,
All his glory I shall see.
Oh, the music and the singing
Of the host redeemed by love!
Oh, the hallelujahs ringing
Through the halls of light above!

1180 The Consummation.

JESUS, blesséd Mediator!
Thou the airy path hast trod;
Thou the Judge, the Consummator!
Shepherd of the fold of God!
Can I trust a fellow-being?
Can I trust an angel's care?
O thou merciful All-seeing!
Beam around my spirit there.

1181 The City.

DAILY, daily sing the praises
Of the City God hath made;
In the beauteous fields of Eden
Its foundation-stones are laid.
From the throne a river issues,
Clear as crystal, passing bright,
And it traverses the City
Like a sudden beam of light.
2 There the wind is sweetly fragrant,
And is laden with the song
Of the seraphs, and the elders,
And the great redeeméd throng.
Oh, I would my ears were open
Here to catch that happy strain!
Oh, I would my eyes some vision
Of that Eden could attain!

1182 "Go Over this Jordan."

THERE is a land of pure delight,
Where saints immortal reign;
Infinite day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain.

There everlasting spring abides,
And never-withering flowers;
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
This heavenly land from ours.

2 Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood
Stand dressed in living green;
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan rolled between.

But timorous mortals start and shrink
To cross this narrow sea;
And linger, shivering on the brink,
And fear to launch away.

3 Oh, could we make our doubts remove,
Those gloomy doubts that rise,
And see the Canaan that we love
With unobscured eyes:—
Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er,
Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood,
Should fright us from the shore.

1183 Those Gone Before.

I CANNOT think of them as dead
Who walk with me no more;
Along the path of life I tread,
They have but gone before.

2 The Father's house is mansioned fair
Beyond my vision dim;
All souls are his, and here or there,
Are living unto him.

3 And still their silent ministry
Within my heart hath place,

As when on earth they walked with me
And met me face to face.

4 Their lives are made for ever mine;
What they to me have been
Hath left henceforth its seal and sign
Engraven deep within.

5 Mine are they by an ownership
Nor time nor death can free;
For God hath given to love to keep
Its own eternally.

Je - ru - sa - lem! my hap - py home! Name ev - er dear to me! - When shall my labors have an end, In joy, and peace, in thee! Oh, when, thou cit - y of my God, Shall
I thy courts as - cend, Where con - gre - gations ne'er break up, And Sabbaths have no end?

1184 The New Jerusalem.

JERUSALEM! my happy home!
Name ever dear to me!
When shall my labors have an end,
In joy, and peace, in thee!
Oh, when, thou city of my God,
Shall I thy courts ascend,
Where congregations ne'er break up,
And Sabbaths have no end?

2 There happier bowers than Eden's bloom,
Nor sin nor sorrow know:
Blest seats! thro' rude and stormy scenes,
I onward press to you.
Why should I shrink at pain and woe?
Or feel, at death, dismay?
I've Canaan's goodly land in view,
And realms of endless day.

3 Apostles, martyrs, prophets there,
Around my Saviour stand;
And soon my friends in Christ below,
Will join the glorious band.
Jerusalem! my happy home!
My soul still pants for thee;
Then shall my labors have an end,
When I thy joys shall see.

1185 "The City was Pure Gold."

THERE is a City great and strong,
Twelve gates of precious stones,
With turrets and high battlements,
Not needing light of suns;
The streets aglow with fire of gold,
It hath no sound of strife;
In glory all its own it stands
Beside the stream of Life.

2 A joy is there that knows no cloy,
A light that ne'er grows dim,
A multitude that never cease
From grateful praise and hymn;
Lo, all the sainted sons of earth,
And angels there I view;
And there, oh, vision glorious!
There standeth Jesus too!

3 O wondrous, fair Jerusalem,
Shall I thy gates pass through?
Thy jubilations surely join,
Thy lordly splendors view?
O Crucified, O Glorified,
May I thy face behold,
And join the ransomed as they sing
Along the streets of gold!

Oh, what shall be, oh, when shall be, That ho-ly Sab-bath day, Which heav'nly care shall ev-er keep, And cel-e-brate al-way; When rest is found for wea-ry limbs, When la-bor hath re-ward, When ev-ery-thing, for ev-er-more, Is joy-ful in the Lord?

1186 © Quanta Qualis.—Part I.

OH, what shall be, oh, when shall be,
 That holy Sabbath day,
 Which heavenly care shall ever keep,
 And celebrate always;
 When rest is found for weary limbs,
 When labor hath reward,
 When everything, for evermore,
 Is joyful in the Lord?

2. The true Jerusalem above,
 The holy town, is there,
 Whose duties are so full of joy,
 Whose joy so free from care;
 Where disappointment cometh not
 To check the longing heart,
 And where the soul in ecstasy
 Hath gained her better part.

3. There, there, secure from every ill,
 In freedom we shall sing
 The songs of Zion, hindered here
 By days of suffering;
 And unto thee, our gracious Lord,
 Our praises shall confess
 That all our sorrow hath been good,
 And thou by pain canst bless.

Part II.

4 O glorious King! O happy State!
 O Palace of the blest!
 O sacred peace, and holy joy,
 And perfect heavenly rest!
 To thee aspire thy citizens
 In glory's bright array,
 And what they feel and what they know
 They strive in vain to say.

5 But while we wait and long for home,
 It shall be ours to raise
 Our songs and chants and vows and prayers
 In that dear country's praise;
 And from these Babylonian streams
 To lift our weary eyes,
 And view the city that we love
 Descending from the skies.

6 There Sabbath day to Sabbath day
 Sheds on a ceaseless light;
 Eternal pleasure of the saints
 Who keep that Sabbath bright;
 Nor shall the chant ineffable
 Decline, nor ever cease,
 Which we with all the angels sing
 In that sweet realm of peace.

The Rest of Heaven.

1187 "Hold Fast."

THE roseate hues of early dawn,
 The brightness of the day,
 The crimson of the sunset sky,
 How fast they fade away!
 Oh, for the pearly gates of heaven!
 Oh, for the golden floor!
 Oh, for the Sun of Righteousness,
 That setteth nevermore!

2 The highest hopes we cherish here,
 How soon they tire and faint!
 How many a spot defiles the robe
 That wraps an earthly saint!
 Oh, for a heart that never sins!
 Oh, for a soul washed white!
 Oh, for a voice to praise our King,
 Nor weary day or night!

3 Here faith is ours, and heavenly hope,
 And grace to lead us higher;
 But there are perfectness and peace,
 Beyond our best desire.
 Oh, by thy love and anguish, Lord,
 And by thy life laid down,
 Grant that we fall not from thy grace,
 Nor fail to reach our crown!

Mrs. C. F. Alexander.

1188 "Let Me Go Over."

ON Jordan's rugged banks I stand,
 And cast a wishful eye
 To Canaan's fair and happy land,
 Where my possessions lie.
 Oh, the transporting, rapturous scene,
 That rises to my sight!
 Sweet fields arrayed in living green,
 And rivers of delight!

2 O'er all those wide extended plains
 Shines one eternal day;
 There God, the Son, for ever reigns,
 And scatters night away.
 No chilling winds, or poisonous breath,
 Can reach that healthful shore;
 Sickness and sorrow, pain and death,
 Are felt and feared no more.

3 When shall I reach that happy place,
 And be for ever blest?
 When shall I see my Father's face,
 And in his bosom rest?
 Filled with delight, my raptured soul
 Can here no longer stay;
 Though Jordan's waves around me roll,
 Fearless I'd launch away.

1190 "The Glory that Excels."

OH, fair the gleams of glory,
And bright the scenes of mirth,
That lighten human story
And cheer this weary earth ;

But richer far our treasure
With whom the Spirit dwells,
Ours, ours in heavenly measure
The glory that excels.

2 The lamplight faintly gleameth
Where shines the noonday ray ;
From Jesus' face there beameth
Light of a sevenfold day ;
And earth's pale lights, all faded,
The Light from heaven dispels ;
But shines for aye unshaded
The glory that excels.

3 No broken cisterns need they
Who drink from living rills ;
No other music heed they
Whom God's own music thrills
Earth's precious things are tasteless.
Its boisterous mirth repels,
Where flows in measure wasteless
The glory that excels.

4 Since on our life descended
Those beams of light and love,
Our steps have heavenward teuded,
Our eyes have looked above,
Till through the clouds concealing
The home where glory dwells,
Our Jesus comes revealing
The glory that excels.

vig-il; The Judge is at the gate; The Judge who comes in mer-cy, The Judge who comes in might, To ter-mi-nate the e-vil, To di-a-dem the right.

1191 Better Times Coming.

THE world is very evil;
The times are waxing late:
Be sober and keep vigil;
The Judge is at the gate;
The Judge who comes in mercy,
The Judge who comes in might,
To terminate the evil,
To diadem the right.

2 Arise, arise, good Christian,
Let right to wrong succeed;
Let penitential sorrow
To heavenly gladness lead;
To light that hath no evening,
That knows no moon nor sun,
The light so new and golden,
The light that is but one.

3 Oh, home of fadeless splendor,
Of flowers that fear no thorn,
Where they shall dwell as children
Who here as exiles mourn!
Strive, man, to win that glory;
Toil, man, to gain that light;
Send hope before to grasp it,
Till hope be lost in sight.

1192 "They Seek a Country."

THERE is a land immortal,
The beautiful of lands;
Beside its ancient portal
A silent sentry stands;
He only can undo it,
And open wide the door;
And mortals who pass through it,
Are mortal nevermore.

2 Though dark and drear the passage
That leadeth to the gate,
Yet grace attends the message,
To souls that watch and wait:
And at the time appointed
A messenger comes down,
And guides the Lord's anointed
From cross to glory's crown.

3 Their sighs are lost in singing,
They're blessed in their tears;
Their journey heavenward winging,
They leave on earth their fears:
Death like an angel seemeth;
"We welcome thee," they cry;
Their face with glory beameth—
'T is life for them to die!

Oh, land relieved from sorrow!
 Oh, land secure from tears!
 Oh, respite on the morrow
 From all the toil of years!
 To thee we hasten ever,
 To thee our steps ascend,
 Where darkness cometh never,
 And joy shall never end.

3 Oh, home where God the Father
 Takes all his children in:
 Where Christ the Son shall gather
 The sinners saved from sin:
 No night nor fear shall sever
 A friend from any friend,
 For darkness cometh never,

1195 Tune—RHINE.

O MOTHER dear, Jerusalem,
 When shall I come to thee?
 When shall my sorrows have an end?
 Thy joys when shall I see?

2 O happy harbor of God's saints!
 O sweet and pleasant soil!
 In thee no sorrow can be found,
 Nor grief, nor care, nor toil.

3 No dimly cloud o'er shadows thee,
 Nor gloom, nor darkness night;
 But every soul shines as the sun,
 For God himself gives light.

4 Thy walls are made of precious stone,
 Thy bulwarks diamond-square,
 Thy gates are all of orient pearl—
 O God! if I were there!

2 With jasper glow thy bulwarks,
 Thy streets with emeralds blaze;
 The sardius and the topaz
 Unite in thee their rays;
 Thine ageless walls are bonded
 With amethyst unpriced;
 The saints build up its fabric,
 The corner-stone is Christ.

3 Thou hast no shore, fair ocean;
 Thou hast no time, bright day:
 Dear fountain of refreshment

1197 Heaven Explains All.

OUR yet unfinished story
 Is tending all to this:
 To God the greatest glory,
 To us the greatest bliss.
 Our plans may be disjointed,
 But we may calmly rest:
 What God has once appointed
 Is better than our best.

2 We cannot see before us,
 But our all-seeing Friend
 Is always watching o'er us,
 And knows the very end;
 And when amid our blindness
 His disappointments fall,
 We trust his loving-kindness
 Whose wisdom sends them all.

3 They are the purple fringes
 That hide his glorious feet;
 They are the fire-wrought hinges
 Where truth and mercy meet;
 By them the golden portal
 Of Providence shall ope,
 And lift to praise immortal
 The songs of faith and hope.

JERUSALEM, the golden,
 With milk and honey blest!
 Beneath thy contemplation
 Sink heart and voice oppressed:
 I know not, oh, I know not,
 What joys await me there,
 What radiancy of glory,
 What light beyond compare.

2 They stand, those halls of Zion,
 All jubilant with song,
 And bright with many an angel,
 And all the martyr throng;
 The Prince is ever in them,
 The daylight is serene;
 The pastures of the blessed
 Are decked in glorious sheen.

3 There is the throne of David;
 And there, from care released,
 The song of them that triumph,
 The shout of them that feast:
 And they who, with their Leader,
 Have conquered in the fight
 For ever and for ever
 Are clad in robes of white.

1199 "Short Toil."

BRIEF life is here our portion;
 Brief sorrow, short-lived care;
 The life, that knows no ending,
 The tearless life, is there:
 Oh, happy retribution!
 Short toil, eternal rest;
 For mortals, and for sinners,
 A mansion with the blest!

2 And there is David's fountain,
 And life in fullest glow;
 And there the light is golden,
 And milk and honey flow;
 The light, that hath no evening,
 The health, that hath no sore,
 The life, that hath no ending,
 But lasteth evermore.

3 There Jesus shall embrace us,
 There Jesus be embraced,—
 That spirit's food and sunshine,
 Whence earthly love is chased:
 Yes! God my King and Portion,
 In fullness of his grace,
 We then shall see for ever,
 And worship face to face.

New Year.

WHILE, with ceaseless course, the sun
Hasted through the former year,
Many souls their race have run,
Nevermore to meet us here:
Fixed in an eternal state,
They have done with all below;
We a little longer wait,—
But how little none can know.

2 As the wingéd arrow flies
Speedily the mark to find;
As the lightning from the skies
Darts, and leaves no trace behind,
Swiftly thus our fleeting days
Bear us down life's rapid stream;
Upward, Lord, our spirits raise,
All below is but a dream.

3 Thanks for mercies past receive;
Pardon of our sins renew;
Teach us henceforth how to live,
With eternity in view:
Bless thy word to young and old;
Fill us with a Saviour's love;
And, when life's short tale is told,
May we dwell with thee above!

John Newton:

Independence Day.

SWELL the anthem, raise the song;
Praises to our God belong;
Saints and angels join to sing
Praises to the heavenly King.

Blessings from his liberal hand
Flow around this happy land:
Kept by him, no foes annoy;
Peace and freedom we enjoy.

2 Here, beneath a virtuous sway,
May we cheerfully obey;
Never feel oppression's rod,
Ever own and worship God.
Hark! the voice of nature sings
Praises to the King of kings;
Let us join the choral song,
And the grateful notes prolong.

Nathan Strong:

1202

Thanksgiving.

PRAISE to God, immortal praise,
For the love that crowns our days!
Bounteous Source of every joy,
Let thy praise our tongues employ.
For the blessings of the field,
For the stores the gardens yield;
For the fruits in full supply,
Ripened 'neath the summer sky;—

2 All that spring with bounteous hand
Scatters o'er the smiling land;
All that liberal autumn pours
From her rich, o'erflowing stores;
These to thee, my God, we owe,
Source whence all our blessings flow;
And for these my soul shall raise
Grateful vows and solemn praise.

Come, ye thankful people, come, Raise the song of Harvest Home! All is safely gathered in, Ere the winter storms begin:

God our Maker doth provide For our wants to be supplied: Come to God's own temple, come, Raise the song of Harvest Home!

1203 Song for Harvest.

COME, ye thankful people, come,
 Raise the song of Harvest Home!
 All is safely gathered in,
 Ere the winter storms begin:
 God our Maker doth provide
 For our wants to be supplied:
 Come to God's own temple, come,
 Raise the song of Harvest Home!

2 We ourselves are God's own field,
 Fruit unto his praise to yield:
 Wheat and tares together sown,
 Unto joy or sorrow grown:
 First the blade, and then the ear,
 Then the full corn shall appear:
 Grant, O Harvest-Lord, that we
 Wholesome grain and pure may be!

3 For the Lord our God shall come,
 And shall take his harvest home:
 From his field shall in that day
 All offences purge away:
 Give his angels charge at last
 In the fire the tares to cast:
 But the fruitful ears to store
 In his garner evermore.

4 Then, thou Church Triumphant, come,
 Raise the song of Harvest Home!
 All are safely gathered in,
 Free from sorrow, free from sin:

There, for ever purified,
 In God's garner to abide;
 Come, ten thousand angels, come,
 Raise the glorious Harvest Home!

1204 The Close of the Year.

THOU who roll'st the year around,
 Crowned with mercies large and free,
 Rich thy gifts to us abound,
 Warm our praise shall rise to thee.
 Kindly to our worship bow,
 While our grateful thanks we tell,
 That, sustained by thee, we now
 Bid the parting year—farewell!

2 All its numbered days are sped,
 All its busy scenes are o'er,
 All its joys for ever fled,
 All its sorrows felt no more.
 Mingled with the eternal past,
 Its remembrance shall decay;
 Yet to be revived at last
 At the solemn judgment-day.

3 All our follies, Lord, forgive!
 Cleanse us from each guilty stain;
 Let thy grace within us live,
 That we spend not years in vain.
 Then, when life's last eve shall come,
 Happy spirits, may we fly
 To our everlasting home,
 To our Father's house on high!

National.

LORD! while for all mankind we pray,
Of every clime and coast,
Oh, hear us for our native land,
The land we love the most.

2 Oh, guard our shores from every foe,
With peace our borders bless,
With prosperous times our cities crown,
Our fields with plenteousness.

3 Unite us in the sacred love
Of knowledge, truth, and thee:
And let our hills and valleys shout
The songs of liberty.

4 Here may religion, pure and mild,
Smile on our Sabbath hours;
And piety and virtue bless
The home of us and ours.

5 Lord of the nations, thus to thee
Our country we commend;
Be thou her refuge and her trust,
Her everlasting friend.

New Year.

OUR Father! through the coming year
We know not what shall be;
But we would leave without a fear
Its ordering all to thee.

2 It may be we shall toil in vain
For what the world holds fair;
And all the good we thought to gain
Deceive and prove but care.

3 It may be it shall darkly blend
Our love with anxious fears,
And snatch away the valued friend,
The tried of many years.

4 It may be it shall bring us days
And nights of lingering pain;
And bid us take a farewell gaze
Of these loved haunts of men.

5 But calmly, Lord, on thee we rest;
No fears our trust shall move;
Thou knowest what for each is best,
And thou art Perfect Love.

1207 East Day of the Year.

DAYS and moments quickly flying
Blend the living with the dead;
Soon shall we who sing be lying,
Each within our narrow bed.

2 Soon our souls to God who gave them
Will have sped their rapid flight;
Able now by grace to save them,
Oh, that while we can we might!

3 Jesus, infinite Redeemer,
Maker of this mighty frame;
Teach, oh, teach us to remember
What we are, and whence we came:—

4 Whence we came, and whither wending;
Soon we must through darkness go,
To inherit bliss unending,
Or eternity of woe.

ETERNAL Father! strong to save,
Whose arm doth bind the restless wave,
Who bid'st the mighty ocean deep
Its own appointed limits keep:
Oh, hear us when we cry to thee
For those in peril on the sea!

2 O Saviour! whose almighty word
The winds and waves submissive heard,
Who walkedst on the foaming deep,
And calm amid its rage did sleep:
Oh, hear us when we cry to thee
For those in peril on the sea!

3 O Sacred Spirit! who didst brood
Upon the chaos dark and rude,
Who bad'st its angry tumult cease,
And gavest light and life and peace:
Oh, hear us when we cry to thee
For those in peril on the sea!

4 O Trinity of love and power!
Our brethren shield in danger's hour;
From rock and tempest, fire and foe,
Protect them wheresoc'er they go;
And ever let there rise to thee
Glad hymns of praise from land and sea.

1209 National Song.

My country! 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died!
Land of the Pilgrims' pride!
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring!

2 My native country, thee—
Land of the noble, free—
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

3 Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song:
Let mortal tongues awake;
Let all that breathe partake;
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

4 Our fathers' God! to thee,
Author of liberty,
To thee we sing:
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by thy might,
Great God, our King!

2 Amid ten thousand snares we stand,
Supported by thy guardian hand;
And see, when we review our ways,
Ten thousand monuments of praise.

3 Thus far thine arm has led us on;
Thus far we make thy mercy known;

New mercies shall new songs demand.

1211 Harvest Thanksgiving:

WE plough the fields, and scatter
The good seed on the land,
But it is fed and watered
By God's almighty hand;
He sends the snow in winter,
The warmth to swell the grain,
The breezes, and the sunshine,
And soft refreshing rain.— REF.

2 He only is the Maker
Of all things near and far;
He paints the wayside flower,
He lights the evening star;

The winds and waves obey him,
By him the birds are fed;
Much more to us, his children,
He gives our daily bread.— REF.

3 We thank thee then, O Father,
For all things bright and good,
The seed-time and the harvest,
Our life, our health, our food,
No gifts have we to offer
For all thy love imparts,
But that which thou desirest,
Our humble, thankful hearts.— REF.

- O God, beneath thy guiding hand,
Our exiled fathers crossed the sea,
And when they trod the wintry strand,
With prayer and psalm they worshiped thee.
- 2 Thou heardst, well pleased, the song,
the prayer—
Thy blessing came; and still its power
Shall onward through all ages bear
The memory of that holy hour.
- 3 What change! through pathless wilds
no more
- The fierce and naked savage roams:
Sweet praise, along the cultured shore,
Breaks from ten thousand happy homes.

Came with those exiles o'er the waves,
And where their pilgrim feet have trod,
The God they trusted guards their graves.

Till these eternal hills remove,
And spring adorns the earth no more.

 SING we to our God above
 Praise eternal as his love;
 Praise him, all ye heavenly host—
 Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

8 7s. 6l.
 PRAISE the name of God most high,
 Praise him, all below the sky,
 Praise him, all ye heavenly host,
 Father, Son, and Holy Ghost;
 As through countless ages past,
 Evermore his praise shall last.

9 7s. D.
 PRAISE our glorious King and Lord,
 Angels waiting on his word,
 Saints that walk with him in white,
 Pilgrims walking in his light:
 Glory to the Eternal One,
 Glory to his only Son,
 Glory to the Spirit be
 Now, and through eternity.

10 8s, 7s.
 PRAISE the Father, earth and heaven,
 Praise the Son, the Spirit praise;
 As it was, and is, be given
 Glory through eternal days.

11 8s, 7s. D.
 PRAISE the God of all creation;
 Praise the Father's boundless love:
 Praise the Lamb, our expiation,
 Priest and King enthroned above:
 Praise the Fountain of salvation,
 Him by whom our spirits live:
 Undivided adoration
 To the one Jehovah give.

Index of First Lines.

	HYMN		HYMN
A broken heart, my God, my King	646	As shadows cast by cloud and sun	349
A charge to keep I have	575	As the hart, with eager looks	98
A few more years shall roll	1155	As with gladness men of old	323
A mighty fortress is our God	989	Ascend thy throne, almighty King	1104
A mother may forgetful be	1114	Ask ye what great thing I know	786
A parting hymn we sing	1048	Asleep in Jesus! blessed sleep!	1138
A pilgrim through this lonely world	375	Assembled at thy great command	1102
Abide with me; fast falls the eventide	129	At evening time let there be light	928
According to thy gracious word	1040	At even, when the sun was set	98
Again, as evening's shadow falls	96	At the Lamb's high feast we sing	1075
Again our earthly cares we leave	38	Awake, and sing the song	54
Again returns the day of holy rest	2	Awake, awake, O Zion	494
Alas! and did my Saviour bleed	416	Awake, my heart! arise, my tongue	580
Alas! what hourly dangers rise!	670	Awake, my soul, and with the sun	13
All glory, laud, and honor	386	Awake, my soul, stretch every nerve	748
All hail the power of Jesus' name	459	Awake, my soul, to joyful lays	609
All holy, everliving One	264	Awake, our souls! away, our fears!	742
All my heart this night rejoices	347	Awake, ye saints, awake!	57
All people that on earth do dwell	159	Away from earth my spirit turns	1035
All praise to thee, eternal Lord	331
All unseen the Master walketh	971	Be tranquil, O my soul!	943
Almighty God, thy word is cast	195	Before Jehovah's awful throne	158
Almighty Lord, the sun shall fail	243	Before the heavens were spread abroad	332
Along my earthly way	936	Before the throne of God above	601
Always with us, always with us	789	Begin, my tongue, some heavenly	301
Am I a soldier of the cross	749	Behold a Stranger at the door!	614
Amazing grace! how sweet the sound	577	Behold the Lamb of God!	607
And are we yet alive	1002	Behold, the shade of night is now	90
And canst thou, sinner! slight	622	Behold the throne of grace	143
And dost thou say, "Ask what thou	136	Behold the western evening light!	1139
And wilt thou hear, O Lord	572	Behold! what wondrous grace	913
Angel voices, ever singing	17	Behold, where, in a mortal form	374
Angels, from the realms of glory	344	Bending before thee, let our hymn	91
Angels! roll the rock away	440	Beneath our feet and o'er our head	1140
Another day is past and gone	196	Beneath thy wing, O God, I rest	890
Approach, my soul! the mercy-seat	141	Beyond the smiling and the weeping	1145
Arise, my soul, arise	590	Beyond the starry skies	467
Arise, O King of grace! arise	35	Bless, O my soul! the living God	267
Arise, ye saints, arise!	763	Blessed angels, high in heaven	884
Arm these thy soldiers, mighty Lord	1017	Blessed are the dead, who die in the	1221
Art thou weary, art thou languid	738	Blessed are the sons of God	874
As oft with worn and weary feet	395	Blessed Saviour! thee I love	425
As pants the hart for cooling streams	657	Blessing, and honor, and glory, and	185
As pants the wearied hart for cooling	5	Blest are the humble souls that see	887

	HYMN		HYMN
Darker than night life's shadows fall	1152	Father! in thy mysterious presence	201
Daughter of Zion! awake from thy	329	Father, my cup is full!	938
Day by day the manna fell	919	Father of all, from land and sea	979
Day is dying in the West	99	Father of heaven, whose love profound	257
Day of judgment! day of wonders!	1163	Father of love, our Guide and Friend	754
Days and moments quickly flying	1207	Father of mercies! in thy word	250
Dear Father, to thy mercy-seat	140	Father of mercies! send thy grace	956
Dear Lord, amid the throng that	1027	Father, thy name be praised, thy	205
Dear Lord and Father of mankind	702	Father! whate'er of earthly bliss	537
Dear Lord and Master mine	835	Father! whose hand hath led me so	677
Dear Refuge of my weary soul	125	Fierce raged the tempest o'er the deep	671
Dear Saviour, if these lambs should	1019	Fight the good fight with all thy might	846
Dear Saviour! we are thine	1001	Firm as the earth thy gospel stands	895
Delay not, delay not; O sinner, draw	618	Fling out the banner: let it float	1109
Depth of mercy!—can there be	624	For a season called to part	217
Descend from heaven, celestial Dove	557	For all thy saints, O Lord	1150
Did Christ o'er sinners weep	621	For all thy saints, who from their	744
Dismiss me not thy service, Lord	976	“For ever with the Lord!”	1147
Dismiss us with thy blessing, Lord	194	For me to live is Christ	761
Do not I love thee, O my Lord	811	For the beauty of the earth	878
Draw near, O Holy Dove, draw near	1029	For the mercies of the day	220
Draw nigh and take the body of your	1094	For thee, O dear, dear Country	1196
Drawn to the cross, which thou hast	681	For what shall I praise thee, my God	825
		Forward! be our watchword	726
Early, my God, without delay	40	Fount of all our joy and peace	26
Earth has nothing sweet or fair	783	Fountain of grace, rich, full, and free	799
Earth's transitory things decay	891	Friend of sinners! Lord of glory	485
Eternal Father! strong to save	1208	From all that dwell below the skies	162
Eternal Father, when to thee	333	From every stormy wind that blows	135
Eternal Light! eternal Light	585	From Greenland's icy mountains	1119
Eternal Source of every joy	273	From Sinai's cloud of darkness	419
Eternal Spirit, God of truth	523	From the cross uplifted high	426
Eternal Spirit, we confess	525	From the recesses of a lowly spirit	94
Eternal Sun of righteousness	31	From the table now retiring	1065
Everlasting arms of love	772	From the vast and veiled throng	181
Every morning mercies new	84
		Gently, Lord, oh, gently lead us	223
Fairest Lord Jesus! Ruler of all nature	365	Give to the Lord, ye sons of fame	271
Faith adds new charms to earthly bliss	855	Give to the winds thy fears	757
Far as thy name is known	985	Give us our daily bread	1099
Far from my heavenly home	927	Glorious things of thee are spoken	993
Far from my thoughts, vain world,	112	Glory be to God on high	183
Far from the world, O Lord, I flee	154	Glory be to God on high, and on earth	1219
Far o'er yon horizon	727	Glory be to God the Father	74
Father, again in Jesus' name we meet	4	Glory be to the Father, and	1212, 1222
Father, by thy love and power	214	Glory to God on high	452
Father, hear the blood of Jesus	472	Glory to God! whose witness-train	747
Father, hear the prayer we offer	883	Glory to thee, my God, this night	97
Father! how wide thy glory shines	287	Go, labor on; spend and be spent	955
Father, I know that all my life	672	Go, labor on, while it is day	953
Father, in high heaven dwelling	118	Go, tune thy voice to sacred song	588

	HYMN		HYMN
God Almighty and All-seeing	73	Hallelujah! sing to Jesus	484
God be merciful unto us, and bless us	1225	Hark, hark, my soul! angelic songs are	1151
God calling yet! shall I not hear	611	Hark! my soul! it is the Lord	1077
God eternal, Lord of all	182	Hark! ten thousand harps and voices	446
God, in the gospel of his Son	244	Hark! the herald angels sing	339
God is in his holy temple	77	Hark, the hosts of heaven are singing	325
God is love; his mercy brightens	174	Hark! the song of Jubilee	499
God is the refuge of his saints	1110	Hark! the sound of angel-voices	1123
God loved the world of sinners lost	568	Hark! the sound of holy voices	1177
God moves in a mysterious way	302	Hark! the voice of Jesus calling	966
God, my King, thy might confessing	175	Hark! the voice of love and mercy	411
God of my life! thy boundless grace	635	Hark! what mean those holy voices	327
God of my life, to thee belong	259	Hasten, Lord! the glorious time	498
God of our salvation! hear us	225	Have mercy upon me, O God, according	1224
God of pity, God of grace	103	Ho has come! the Christ of God	340
God of the prophets' power	215	He is coming, he is coming	481
God of the world! thy glories shine	262	He is gone—a cloud of light	449
God, that madest earth and heaven	238	He is here, whom seers in old time	346
God with us! oh, glorious name	343	He lives! the great Redeemer lives	596
God's glory is a wondrous thing	753	He shall come down like showers	1125
Goodly were thy tents, O Israel!	1122	He that goeth forth with weeping	972
Grace! 't is a charming sound!	910	He, who once in righteous vengeance	603
Gracious Saviour, thus before thee	231	Heal me, O my Saviour, heal	629
Gracious Spirit, dwell with me	536	Hear my prayer, O heavenly Father	228
Gracious Spirit, Holy Ghost	549	Hear what God the Lord hath spoken	994
Gracious Spirit, Love divine	535	Heavenly Father, grant thy blessing	229
Grant us thy light, that we may know	847	Heavenly Shepherd, guide us, feed us	236
Great Creator! who this day	320	Help me, my God, to speak	868
Great God! attend, while Zion sings	11	Here I can firmly rest	911
Great God, how infinite art thou	293	Here, O my Lord, I see thee face to	1086
Great God, now condescend	1021	High in the heavens, eternal God!	16
Great God! to thee my evening song	113	Holy and reverend is the name	303
Great God, what do I see and hear!	1164	Holy Father, cheer our way	100
Great God, when I approach thy	581	Holy Father, hear my cry	304
Great Sun of Righteousness, arise	242	Holy Father, thou hast taught me	653
Guide me, O thou great Jehovah	734	Holy Ghost, the Infinite	548
Hail, happy day! thou day of holy rest	6	Holy Ghost! with light divine	532
Hail, Holy Spirit, bright immortal	546	Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty	1
Hail, sacred day of earthly rest	106	Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Hosts	305
Hail the day that sees him rise	435	Holy, holy, holy Lord	321
Hail the night, all hail the morn	342	Holy offerings, rich and rare	625
Hail! thou God of grace and glory!	990	Holy Saviour! we adore thee	491
Hail, thou once despised Jesus	474	Holy Spirit, come and shine	542
Hail to the brightness of Zion's glad	1134	Holy Spirit! gently come	533
Hail to the Lord's anointed	1124	Holy Spirit, in my breast	534
Hail to the Sabbath day!	46	Honor and glory, thanksgiving and	186
Hail, tranquil hour of closing day	128	Hope of our hearts, O Lord, appear	506
Hallelujah! best and sweetest	1130	Hosanna to the living Lord	478
Hallelujah! fairest morning	64	How beauteous are their feet	983
Hallelujah! hallelujah!	445	How beauteous on the mountains	1120
		How beauteous were the marks divine	356

	HYMN		HYMN
How blest the righteous when he dies	1137	I saw the cross of Jesus	584
How brightly shines the Morning Star!	740	I sing the almighty power of God	295
How charming is the place	52	I stand on Zion's mount	759
How condescending and how kind	415	I think of thee, my God, by night	858
How did my heart rejoice to hear	30	I want a heart to pray	147
How firm a foundation, ye saints of the	714	I will sing for Jesus	843
How gentle God's commands	207	If God is mine, then present things	893
How helpless guilty nature lies	567	If human kindness meets return	1042
How long, O Lord our Saviour	495	If, through unruffled seas	865
How pleasant, how divinely fair	10	If you cannot on the ocean	967
How pleased and blest was I	27	In all my vast concerns with thee	292
How precious is the book divine	248	In heavenly love abiding	826
How sad our state by nature is	566	In the cross of Christ I glory	400
How shall I follow him I serve	358	In the dark and cloudy day	946
How shall the young secure their	247	In the hour of trial	697
How sweet and awful is the place	1036	In the name of God, the Father	1098
How sweet, how heavenly is the sight	1011	In thy name, O Lord! assembling	75
How sweet the name of Jesus sounds	814	In us the hope of glory	502
How sweet to leave the world awhile	110	Is there ambition in my heart?	860
How sweetly flowed the gospel sound	355	It came upon the midnight clear	336
How tender is thy hand	937	It is no untried way	934
I am coming to the cross	709	It is not death to die	1156
I am trusting thee, Lord Jesus	739	It may not be our lot to wield	954
I ask not now for gold to gild	680	I've found the Pearl of greatest price	810
I bless the Christ of God	873	Jehovah God! thy gracious power	171
I build on this foundation	390	Jerusalem! my happy home!	1184
I cannot tell if short or long	932	Jerusalem, the glorious!	1189
I cannot think of them as dead	1183	Jerusalem, the golden	1198
I could not do without thee	830	Jesus, and didst thou condescend	382
I do not ask that life may be	659	Jesus,—and didst thou leave the sky	819
I feed by faith on Christ; my bread	1026	Jesus! and shall it ever be	1034
I hear a sweet voice ringing clear	704	Jesus, at whose supreme command	1041
I hear the words of love	767	Jesus, blessed Mediator!	1180
I hear thy welcome voice	682	Jesus calls us, o'er the tumult	1066
I heard the voice of Jesus say	368	Jesus comes, his conflict over	604
I hunger and I thirst	1100	Jesus, crowned with thorns for me	842
I journey through a desert drear and	916	Jesus, I live to thee	864
I know no life divided	828	Jesus! I love thy charming name	813
I know that my Redeemer lives	463	Jesus, I my cross have taken	1061
I lay my sins on Jesus	1054	Jesus, in thy dying woes	427
I left it all with Jesus long ago	931	Jesus invites his saints	1047
I lift my heart to thee	1090	Jesus is God! The glorious bands	383
I love thee, O my God, but not	861	Jesus, Jesus! visit me	661
I love thy kingdom, Lord!	986	Jesus, Lamb of God, for me	423
I love to steal awhile away	137	Jesus lives! no longer now	1153
I love to tell the story	583	Jesus! lover of my soul	662
I'll praise my Maker with my breath	23	Jesus, Master! hear me now	1074
I'm not ashamed to own my Lord	750	Jesus, Master, whose I am	424
I need thee, precious Jesus	1055	Jesus, my All, to heaven is gone	597
I saw One hanging on a tree	413	Jesus, my great High Priest	595

	HYMN		HYMN
Jesus, my Lord, my God, my all	778	Let thy wondrous way be known	552
Jesus, my Saviour! look on me	637	Let us awake our joys	453
Jesus, name all names above	841	Let us love and sing and wonder	602
Jesus! name of wondrous love!	781	Let worldly minds the world pursue	369
"Jesus only!" In the shadow	833	Life of the world! I hail thee	409
Jesus only, when the morning	788	Lift up to God the voice of praise	167
Jesus! our best beloved Friend	949	Light of life, seraphic Fire	68
Jesus, Saviour, pilot me	666	Light of Light, enlighten me	25
Jesus shall reign where'er the sun	1105	Light of the lonely pilgrim's heart!	505
Jesus, Shepherd of the sheep	122	Light of the world! whose kind and	924
Jesus spreads his banner o'er us	1064	Light of those whose dreary dwelling	483
Jesus, still lead on	732	Light, that from the dark abyss	541
Jesus, the sinner's Friend, to thee	645	Like sheep we went astray	576
Jesus!—the very thought is sweet	798	Like the eagle, upward, onward	880
Jesus, the very thought of thee	815	Lo, God is here! let us adore	116
Jesus, these eyes have never seen	806	Lo, he comes, with clouds descending	486
Jesus! thou art the sinner's Friend	1037	Lo, the day of rest declineth	235
Jesus, thou Joy of loving hearts	1028	Lo! what a glorious sight appears	508
Jesus, thou source of calm repose	775	Long as the darkening cloud abode	752
Jesus, thy Blood and Righteousness	599	Look from thy sphere of endless day	1113
Jesus, thy boundless love to me	780	Look, ye saints, the sight is glorious	489
Jesus! thy church, with longing eyes	1103	Lord, as to thy dear cross we flee	378
Jesus! thy love shall we forget	379	Lord, at this closing hour	213
Jesus, thy name I love	823	Lord, bid thy light arise	558
Jesus, to thy table led	1049	Lord, dismiss us with thy blessing, Bid	237
Jesus, we look to thee	1004	Lord, dismiss us with thy blessing, Fill	227
Jesus, we thus obey	1045	Lord God of Hosts, by all adored	166
Jesus wept! those tears are over	398	Lord God, the Holy Ghost	563
Jesus, where'er thy people meet	134	Lord, have mercy upon us,	1220, 1227
Jesus, who can be	731	Lord, have mercy upon us, and write	1228
Jesus, who knows full well	144	Lord, how mysterious are thy ways	275
Jesus, who on Calvary's mountain	1063	Lord, how secure and blest are they	888
Jesus, who on his glorious throne	805	Lord, I am come! thy promise is my	685
Jesus, whom angel hosts adore	405	Lord, I am thine, entirely thine	1030
Joy to the world; the Lord is come	341	Lord, I believe; thy power I own	856
Joyful be the hours to-day	434	Lord! I cannot let thee go	148
Just as I am, without one plea	642	Lord, I hear of showers of blessing	626
Keep silence, all created things	278	Lord! in love and mercy save us	230
Keep us, Lord, oh, keep us ever	226	Lord! in the morning thou shalt	29
Laboring and heavy-laden	791	Lord, in this thy mercy's day	627

Lead us, heavenly Father, lead us	735	Lord, it is thy holy day	86
Lead us, O Father, in the paths of	915	Lord Jesus, are we one with thee?	908
Leaning on thee, my guide and friend	638	Lord Jesus, by thy passion	422
Let me but hear my Saviour say	802	Lord Jesus, think on me	867
Let no tears to-day be shed	1157	Lord Jesus! when I think of thee	380
Let saints below in concert sing	1010	Lord, lead the way the Saviour went	957
Let the church new anthems raise	737	Lord, my weak thought in vain would	276
		Lord of all being; throned afar	274
		Lord of earth! thy forming hand	306
		Lord of glory! thou hast bought us	886

O, bless the Lord, my soul!	872	O, how shall I receive thee	391.
O, blessed Life! the heart at rest	845	O, if my soul were formed for woe	417
O blessed Saviour, is thy love	807	O Jesus! bruised and wounded more	1033
O, blessing rich, for sons of men	896	O Jesus Christ, grow thou in me	817
O, blest memorial of our dying Lord	1096	O Jesus Christ the righteous! live in	684
O Bread, to pilgrims given	1057	O Jesus, ever present	831
O, cease, my wandering soul	1043	O Jesus, I have promised	1052
O, Christ, he is the fountain	1161	O Jesus! King most wonderful	804
O Christ! our hope, our heart's desire	461	O Jesus, "Man of Sorrows"	421
O Christ, our King, Creator, Lord	480	O Jesus, our salvation	630
O Christ, the eternal Light	909	O Jesus, sweet the tears I shed	414
C Christ, the Lord of heaven! to thee	475	O Jesus, thou art standing	632
O Christ, thou hast ascended	432	O Jesus, we adore thee	406
O Christ! with each returning morn	21	O Jesus, when I think of thee	818
O, come, all ye faithful	324	O King of mercy, from thy throne on	1092
O, come, and let us all, with one accord	3	O Lamb of God! still keep me	407
O, come, let us sing unto the Lord	1217	O Lamb of God! that tak'st away	636
O, could I find, from day to day	706	O, land relieved from sorrow!	1194
O, could I speak the matchless worth	371	O, let him whose sorrow	929
O day of rest and gladness	9	O Light, whose beams illumine all	394
O, do not let the word depart	612	O little town of Bethlehem	348
O, eyes that are weary, and hearts	716	O Lord, how full of sweet content	848
O, fair the gleams of glory	1190	O Lord, how happy should we be	902
O Father, who didst all things make	115	O Lord most high, eternal King	442
O, for a closer walk with God	654	O Lord of heaven, and earth, and sea	978
O, for a faith that will not shrink	746	O Lord of hosts, whose glory fills	987
O, for a heart to praise my God	809	O Lord, thy work revive	1005
O, for a shout of joy	310	O Lord, we now the path retrace	381

O thou, my soul, forget no more	1032	Our life is hid with Christ	513
O thou, the contrite sinner's Friend . . .	679	Our Lord is risen from the dead	443
O thou that hearest prayer!	999	Our yet unfinished story	1197
O thou whom we adore	511
O thou, whose bounty fills my cup	930	Peace, perfect peace, in this dark	1093
O thou, whose own vast temple stands . .	996	People of the living God	1076
O thou, whose tender mercy hears	648	Pilgrims in this vale of sorrow	881
O, turn ye, oh, turn ye, for why will ye .	617	Pleasant are thy courts above	69
O, what if we are Christ's	766	Praise God, from whom all blessings . .	160
O, what shall be, oh, when shall be . . .	1186	Praise, Lord, for thee in Zion waits . .	165
O, what the joy and the glory must	184	Praise the God of our salvation	222
O, where are kings and empires now . . .	995	Praise the Saviour, ye who know him . .	792
O, where is he that trod the sea?	384	Praise to God, immortal praise	1202
O, where shall rest be found	571	Praise to thee, thou great Creator	173
O, wherefore, Lord, doth thy dear	857	Praise waits in Zion, Lord! for thee . .	42
O, wondrous type, oh, vision fair	362	Praise ye Jehovah! praise the Lord . .	188
O Word of God incarnate	252	Praise ye the Father, for his loving . . .	981
O, worship the King, all glorious	169	Prayer is the breath of God in man . . .	153
O Zion! tune thy voice	60	Prayer is the soul's sincere desire	155
O'er the distant mountains breaking . . .	487	Precious, precious blood of Jesus	569
O'er the gloomy hills of darkness	1129	Prepare us, Lord, to view thy cross . . .	1038
Of the Father's love begotten	345	Prostrate, dear Jesus, at thy feet	650
Of in danger, oft in woe	769	Purer yet and purer	698
On Jordan's bank the Baptist's cry	360
On Jordan's rugged banks I stand	1188	Quiet, Lord, my froward heart	877
On mountains and in valleys	255
On the fount of life eternal	1176	Rejoice in God alway	871
On the mountain's top appearing	1131	Rejoice, rejoice, believers	493
On this day, the first of days	81	Rejoice, ye pure in heart	869
On thy church, O Power divine	85	Rest of the weary, joy of the sad	691
On wings of living light	428	Ride on! ride on in majesty	361
Once I thought my mountain strong	667	Rise, crowned with light, imperial	1118
Once in royal David's city	351	Rise, glorious Conqueror, rise	451
Once more, before we part	209	Rise, my soul, and stretch thy wings . .	945
Once more, my soul, the rising day	45	Rock of Ages, cleft for me!	1078, 1081
One cup of healing oil and wine	950	Roll on, thou mighty ocean	1128
One sole baptismal sign	1000
One sweetly solemn thought	1148	Safely through another week	66
One there is above all others	353	Saints of God! the dawn is brightening	1132
Onward, Christian soldiers	724	Saints in glory, we together	793

	HYMN		HYMN
Salvation!—oh, the joyful sound	578	Son of God! to thee I cry	1083
Saviour, again to thy dear name we	200	Sons of Zion, raise your songs	497
Saviour and Lord of all	768	Songs of praise the angels sang	179
Saviour, blessèd Saviour	699	Soon may the last glad song arise	1101
Saviour, breathe an evening blessing	224	Soon will the heavenly Bridegroom	507
Saviour, happy would I be	879	Soul, then know thy full salvation	1062
Saviour! hasten thine appearing	490	Sovereign of worlds! display thy	1106
Saviour! hear us, we pray	821	Sow in the morn thy seed	970
Saviour! I follow on	695	Speak to me, Lord, thyself reveal	44
Saviour King, in hallowed union	992	Spirit blest, who art adored	554
Saviour, now the day is ending	199	Spirit of God! descend upon my heart	545
Saviour of our ruined race	1079	Spirit of the Only Wise	553
Saviour, send a blessing to us	72	Stand, soldier of the cross	1018
Saviour! teach me, day by day	785	Stand up, and bless the Lord	177
Saviour, to thee we raise our hymn of	232	Stand up, my soul, shake off thy fears	741
Saviour, through the desert lead us	736	Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!	728
Saviour, thy dying love	692	Stars of the morning, so gloriously	187
Saviour, visit thy plantation!	991	Stealing from the world away	150
Saviour, when, in dust, to thee	660	Still, still with thee, my God	206
Saviour! who thy flock art feeding	1015	Still, still with thee, when purple	796
Say not, my soul, "From whence	939	Still will we trust, though earth seem	914
Scorn not the slightest word or deed	958	Sun of my soul! thou Saviour dear	95
See Israel's gentle Shepherd stands	1013	Sure the blest Comforter is nigh	531
See, the Conqueror mounts in triumph	447	Sweet is the light of Sabbath eve	109
Send thou, O Lord, to every place	1135	Sweet is the memory of thy grace	290
Servant of God, well done!	1149	Sweet is the work, my God, my King!	112
Shadow of a Mighty Rock	771	Sweet is the work, O Lord	51
Shepherd! with thy tenderest love	876	Sweet is thy mercy, Lord	145
Shine, mighty God! on Zion shine	1116	Sweet Saviour, bless us ere we go	216
Shine on our souls, eternal God	124	Sweet the moments, rich in blessing	1058
Shout, O earth! from silence waking	352	Sweet the time, exceeding sweet	152
Shout the glad tidings, exultingly	330	Sweet was the time when first I felt	669
Show pity, Lord! O Lord! forgive	644	Sweeter sounds than music knows	782
Since Jesus is my friend	838	Swell the anthem, raise the song	1201
Since thy Father's arm sustains thee	933	Swift to its close ebbs out life's little	130
Sing, all ye ransomed of the Lord	755	Take me, O my Father, take me	652
Sing, O heavens! O earth! rejoice	450	Take my heart, O Father! take it	1067
Sing, sing his lofty praise	454	Take my life, and let it be	710
Sing to the Lord a joyful song	163	"Take up thy cross," the Saviour said	613
Sing to the Lord, our Might	176	Teach me to do the thing that pleaseth	543
Sing we the song of those who stand	33	Tell me, my Saviour	708
Sing with all the sons of glory	444	Tell me the old, old story	582
Sinners, turn, why will ye die	623	Tender Shepherd, thou hast stilled	1154
Sit down beneath his shadow	1053	Ten thousand times ten thousand	1166
Sleep thy last sleep, free from care	1158	The atoning work is done	594
So let our lips and lives express	850	The Church has waited long	509
So rest, our Rest, thou ever blest	401	The Church's one foundation	1056
Softly fades the twilight ray	80	The Comforter has come	564
Softly now the light of day	219	The dawn of God's new Sabbath	7
Soldiers of Christ, arise	762	The day is gently sinking to a close	212
Sometimes a light surprises	729

The Lord's Prayer.

OUR FATHER WHICH ART IN HEAVEN, HALLOWED BE THY NAME, THY KINGDOM COME, THY WILL BE DONE IN EARTH AS IT IS IN HEAVEN; GIVE US THIS DAY OUR DAILY BREAD, AND FORGIVE US OUR DEBTS, AS WE FORGIVE OUR DEBTORS; AND LEAD US NOT INTO TEMPTATION, BUT DELIVER US FROM EVIL; FOR THINE IS THE KINGDOM, AND THE POWER, AND THE GLORY, FOR EVER. AMEN.

The Ten Commandments.

GOD spake all these words, saying, I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

I.—Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.

II.—Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate Me; and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me, and keep My commandments.

III.—Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.

IV.—Remember the Sabbath-day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates; for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath-day, and hallowed it.

V.—Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI.—Thou shalt not kill.

VII.—Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII.—Thou shalt not steal.

IX.—Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X.—Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbor's.

HEAR also what our Lord Jesus Christ saith : Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it : Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

The Beatitudes.

BLESSED are the poor in spirit : for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they that mourn : for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek : for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness : for they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful : for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart : for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers : for they shall be called the children of God.

Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake : for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you,

And shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

Rejoice, and be exceeding glad : for great is your reward in heaven :

For so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

The Apostles' Creed.

I BELIEVE in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth ;

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son our Lord ; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried ; He descended into hell ; the third day He rose again from the dead ; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty ; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost ; the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints ; the forgiveness of sins ; the resurrection of the body ; and the life everlasting. AMEN.
